LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

TREATRICAL. The fine sensational play "Janot Pride" was presented on Saturday night; all the characters were well up in their parts. It was played well; fine old favorite play of "Incomar" will be presented this evening when Miss Lockbart will appear as Parthenia and Mr. J. M. Hardy will appear as Parthenia and Mr. J. M. Hardy as Ingomar.

St. Joseph.—Brother Elijah Elmer writing on the 4th inst. from St. Joseph, Arizona, says:—"All are well at this time. We are busy with our canal; we purpose making it ten feet wide at the top. In consequence of a number of deep cuts that must be filled, unless we receive help we will not be able to complete it this season."

Librarian, &c."

"An act to provide for the printing and distributing the laws of the 16th, 17th and 18th annual sessions, &c."

The Council announced the appointment of Councillors L. Snow and W. Woodruff, a committee of conference on the bill further defining the duties of Superintendent of the Salt Lake City and Wanship wagon road. Said committee agreed on a substitute section to said bill, which was finally adopted by both branches.

SARBATH MEETINGS .- Elder C. W. Penrose occupied the time in the morning; in the afternoon Elder Joseph F. Smith delivered a very eloquent discourse upon the first principles of the gospel.

POLICE.-Thos. Jackson, James Orme and Edward Carloss were fined respectively 87,50, $15, and $10 for being drunk and endangering the peace.

STATE LEGISLATURE,-The Legislature of the State of Descret assembled this morn ing in the City Hall. They afterwards met in joint session. The annual message was delivered erally by His Excellency, Governor Young.

A vote was passed that 2000 copies of the message should be printed in pamphlet George Q. Cannon was elected public printer.

The joint session then dissolved. After transacting the usual business the Legislature adjourned.

BENEFIT. -To-morrow night the popular comedian, Mr. John .C. Graham, will take a benefit at the Theatre. The pieces selected for the occasion are the beautiful play of "The World and the Stage," and the comedictts "A Handsome Husband." This is a splendid bill, and on an ordinary occasion should draw immensely. They present an excellent opportunity for the display of the histrienic powers of Miss Leckhart, Mr. Graham and the best hart and Mr. Graham will appear in both pieces. We hope the public will manifest, with a good house, their appreciation of the lenificiare's talents, and exertions to please and amuse. He has labored long and faithfally, and is rapidly rising to excellence in his profession and is well deserving of a substantial mark of public appreciation.
