

MINING, BUSINESS AND STOCKS.

STOCK SALES ARE ENORMOUS.

May Day Climbed to $3.00, but Weakened at the Close.

STAR COX PUTS ON A SPURT

Ajax Makes a Sharp Advance—Tosora Weakens—Richmond—Anacoda Stronger.

The brokers did a rushing business again today on the mining exchange, and the records of yesterday were again threatened if they were not broken. The value of the sales had not been completed when the "News" report closed, but it is thought they will run nearly as high as those of yesterday. The value of the sales at the morning and afternoon calls was $1,500,000. May Day continued to be the center attraction, with Star Cox and Richmond Anacoda monopolizing a large share of public interest. May Day opened at $2.50 and immediately jumped to $3.00, from which point it gradually sagged to $2.45 on the closing sale. Afternoon trading was quiet, with shares of stock changing hands during the call. Anacoda started out at $1.12 and climbed to $1.25, though it afterwards weakened to $1.20. No cause is assigned for the change, other than a slight improvement in the face of one of the drifts. Star Cox, which is the center of several rumors, opened at $4.75 and jumped to $5.75 with the sale of nearly 12,000 shares. Tosora was active, moving up to $1.15. Century weakened to $2.40, while Galea advanced to $2.90 on news of an improvement in the ore body followed in the afternoon. Lower Mammoth sold down to $1.00, while the Richmond Anacoda sold between $1 and $1.25 on the strength of the property going into the new United Salt Company in process of formation. Emerald moved up to $1.40 because of reports of the improved condition of the property while Tetro weakened to $1.75. West Morning Glory was active at $3. Eagle & Blue Bell which sold up to $1.85 yesterday afternoon was punctured today and flattened out to $1.00. South Swamese led up to $3. Little Chief fluctuated between $1 and $2. Martha Washington advanced to $5. Creole sold at $0.10, while Cent. Mercur declined to $0.10. Ontario found a buyer at $0.60.
