Sale of Forney's "Press."

PHILADELPHIA, 10.—Colonel John W. Forney will announce in the Press to-morrow the sale of that paper to Capt. W. W. Nevins, his editor-in-chief. It is understood the new proprietor will associate with himself in the business partnership Mr. N. H. Nevins, late publisher of the Pittsburgh Leader.

Gen. Custer's Remains.

WEST POINT, 10.—The steamer Mary Powell arrived this morning, bearing the remains of Gen. Custer and 2,000 people accompanying him. The steamer was captained by E. H. Smith and also arrived from New York with the Loyal League company and the Corps of Cavalry. A detachment of cavalry escorted them to the chapel, where a portion of the Episcopal burial service was read, at the conclusion of which the remains were escorted to the cemetery, the band playing a funeral march. At the grave the remains of the burial service was read, and the infantry fired a salute of three rounds.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

MUSKIE, Ind., 40.—A boiler in J. E. McKenrick & Co's heating factory exploded this morning, instantly killing Smith R. Rodan, engineer, Robert Favors, fireman, and slightly injuring J. H. Hocky and his son. The front part of the boiler, measuring eight feet long and five feet in diameter, was thrown over the house into a field 230 yards distant. Seventy-five men are thrown out of employment by the accident.

The Election—Democratic Summing Up.

COLUMBUS, 10.—The republican committee have received very little news to-day, and all political information has been obtained from the democratic headquarters. The democratic state committee up to this hour have what are called official returns from just one-half of the counties of the State, and these show a net democratic gain over the vote of last year of 16,576. Taking this as a basis they claim that the republican vote will be about 25,000, and they think the full official count will give him 28,000 or 30,000 majority. In the absence of definite information the republican committee concede Bishop's election by 25,000.

The democratic committee figures on the general assembly are as follows:

In the House the democrats have sixty-seven members; republicans, thirty-nine; and nationals, or workmen, three; democratic majority, twenty-eight. In the Senate the democrats will have twenty-five members, and the republicans, twenty-five; and the democrats forty-one majority on joint ballot. It is not likely the full count will materially change the legislative majorities claimed more than two or three at most.

There is no excitement in the city to-night, and no crowds about the headquarters of either party.

Meeting of Leading Men of New York—Hayes Endorsed.

NEW YORK, 10.—The great hall of Cooper Institute was filled in every part to-night by a political business men, bankers and merchants, in response to a call for a meeting to endorse the efforts of President Hayes to restore union and harmony to the South country, and bring back to the civil service to its early efficiency and purity, and to express disapproval of the action of the republican State convention for placing the people of the State in a position towards the administration at once false and injurious. Long before half past seven o'clock the hall was filled, as was also the platform, on which were seated many ladies. On the platform were Henry G. Stebbins, E. C. Robbins, J. Watson Webb, Alvin P. Mann, John A. Stewart, George P. Bradford, F. C. Shober, E. C. Shober, Charles Pullman, Dexter Hawkins, Thomas D. Pelton, John G. Holbrook, James Selman, J. S. Schurr, George Parker, E. E. Thorne, S. B. Rogers, John W. D. Wright, W. C. Dodge, Ex-Governor Solomon and others.

At 8 o'clock George Wm. Curtis took a seat on the platform amid enthusiastic applause.

He called the meeting to order, and nominated Professor Theo. W. Dwight of Columbia College Law School, as chairman. The announcement was received with cheers, and Professor Dwight came forward and made a short address. The chairman then read a long list of vice presidents and secretaries of the meeting, among them being W. E. Bryant, N. C. Brown, W. H. Dodge, E. D. Morgan, Jackson H. Schurr, Whitelaw Reid, Daniel E. E. Eekies, W. B. Hoffman, R. H. Kennedy, J. H. Choate, R. S. Wales, A. Scholer, David Babcock, Charles E. Morgan, J. Pierpont Morgan, S. B. Rogers, J. Jay Dorman, E. B. Bales, W. H. Guyon, E. S. Fancher and many others.

The chairman introduced Hon. George W. Curtis to the meeting, and the applause lasted fully five minutes. Mr. Curtis spoke in support of the late State Convention of New York misrepresentation of the courage, patriotism, and principles of the republican party.

He concluded: "President Hayes stands for national integrity, a gold currency and civil reform, and we stand by him. It is a platform with one plank as wide as the land, as deep as the bottom of the ocean, and as true as the heart of the nation. He serves the party best who serves the country well."

(Applause.)

After endorsing the regular nominations and adopting several resolutions the meeting adjourned.

Ex-Governor Hendricks Rescinded.

Ex-Governor Hendricks was so-called at his hotel to-night. The ex-governor and Mrs. Hendricks were surrounded by a large gathering of prominent citizens, among whom were Mayor Ely, Henry Clinton, John H. Olney, E. L. Gault, Col. Payne, James H. Skidmore, Wm. A. McMaster, John A. Fay and others. At half past nine Dodge's band dispersed popular music. Governor Hendricks was welcomed to the balcony by Van Hook, who welcomed the distinguished guest to his home. The governor, in the kind reception those present briefly his experience abroad. No reference was made to political matters.

Deserter's Ward Success.

CHICAGO, 10.—Specials from the east shore of Lake Michigan report that a heavy wind the past two days has beached two vessels and damaged many others. To-day, as the crew of the boat at Evanston was beaching in the heavy sea, their boat containing seven was overturned and one man was severely hurt. All escaped only with difficulty. Some accidents to shipping near the shore are also reported.

The Chicago Press on the Ohio Election.

The Tribune says the result in Ohio has been more than expected by the republican party. The people have been united on renomination, repeal of the resumption act and anti-contraction, yet Garfield in making the platform at Cleveland, shuffled over these questions to leave the people in doubt as to his real intent.

The democracy, on the contrary, has been comparatively united, and the wonder is they did not get a larger vote.

The Tribune says the Tribune thinks the President should demand the resignation of Sherman, as he, and not the President, has been repudiated.

The Times says, though there is apparently a revolution in political sentiment in Ohio, yet actually none has occurred, since no political issues were joined.

No point was made by either which the other ventured to antagonize. The republican pretense that their success would be an endorsement of Hayes, was made too late in the campaign to effect the result of deceiving voters. The lust of power, spoils, and the force of habit were the chief factors in the struggle.

The Inter-Ocean regards the verdict of the wisest, if not the best placed by Republicans on the course of the administration. The defeat is bitter, far reaching and disastrous, but if it opens the eyes of the wisest, it may not be wholly useless. The last hope of continued republican supremacy in the United States Senate is now gone. Maine and Iowa refused to endorse and retained the republican majorities. Ohio endorses, approves, yields and is lost.

The Post, editorially, regards the Ohio election as a decided slap in the face of the President, given because the republican convention adopted John Sherman's views in its platform.

The plank on silver was a delusion, as a frank people knew it and voted it down. The democrats built more wisely. The west, including Ohio, believe in silver reorganization, repeal of the gold resumption act, and in sufficient currency issued by the banks and government upon a coin basis, or bonds that bear coin interest. The republicans had the prestige and every advantage, but lost. For this reason the Post considers it time for the President to resign.

WESTERN.

The Bank Fraud.
SAN FRANCISCO, 10.—The vault of the Pioneer Bank was opened to-day by P. J. White, receiver. In it were found $908 in silver, a ten dollar gold piece, $200 in checks believed to be of no value, a lot of envelopes empty that had apparently contained securities, and some few miscellaneous bonds, etc., of doubtful value. The examination of the accounts of depositors will not be finished before to-morrow night.
