JAPANESE ARE MOVING FORWARD

Advance Guard Occupy the Town of Seng Cheng Without Any Opposition.

Forty Miles South of Wiju.

It was Anticipated That Resistance From the Russians Would be Met But it Was Not.

Tokio, April 3, (7 p. m.)—The advance guard of the Japanese army in northwestern Korea occupied the town of Seng Cheng yesterday afternoon without opposition. Seng Cheng is on the Pekin road, 18 miles west of Chong Ju, and about 40 miles south of Wiju.

When the Japanese drove the Russians out of Chong Ju last Monday, the Russians withdrew in two columns, one going over the Koak San road and the other over the Pekin road.

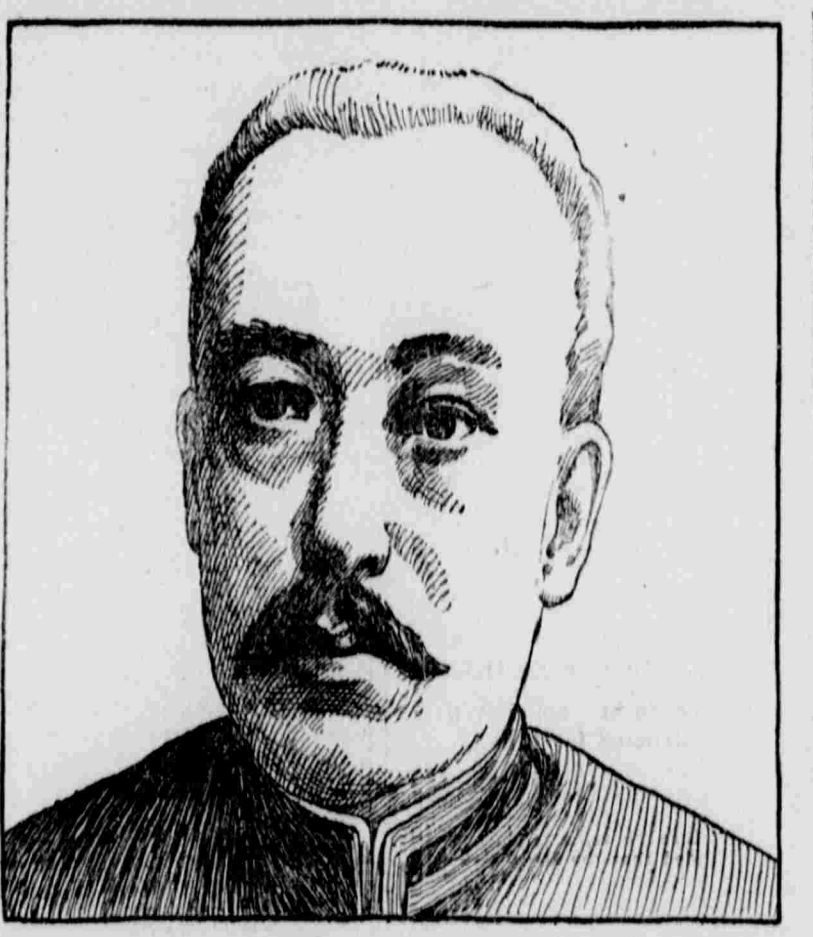

The Japanese advance from Chong Ju was made very rapidly. It was anticipated that the Russians would resist this advance, but they failed to do so, and it is now not probable that there will be any further opposition south of the Yalu river.

Chong Ju, because of its superior natural surroundings, is the strongest place between Ping Yang and Wiju. Beside these natural advantages there is an old Korean fort there, which had it been defended with spirit, would have been hard to take. The Japanese are gratified at the comparative ease with which they drove the Russians from this fort.

Russian patrols are reported to be in the country east of the Pekin road, but it is not probable that there is any considerable force of Russians in that section. The patrols are withdrawing gradually to the northward toward the Yalu.

It is reported that the ice on the Yalu is well broken up, and in the future the river must be crossed either in junks or over pontoon bridges.

A dispatch to the Associated Press from Tokio, dated April 1, said information had been received there from a private source that the Japanese, after driving the enemy at Chong Ju, had advanced to Yong Chun (about 45 miles west of Chong Ju), from which place they also drove the Russians after a brief engagement. It is possible that the many different spellings given to Korean names in gazetteers and maps had led to confusion, and that the Seng Cheng mentioned in the above message and Yong-chun, referred to in the dispatch of April 1, should be the same places. two towns, however, are quite distinct, being about 20 miles apart.

OFFICERS OF CRUISER BAYAN.

St. Petersburg, April 3.—The Naval Krail of Port Arthur thus describes the scene on board the cruiser Bayan during the recent bombardment in which she distinguished herself.

"Bursting shells bowled over man after man until the decks were slippery with blood. Amidst this storm the captain stood unmoved in the conning tower, calmly telephoning orders to the gun captains. His wonderful calmness had a marvelous influence upon all the officers.

"The cockpit was soon crowded, 30 men were there before the fight ended, but amidst the crash of the guns, the hiss of flying projectiles, the thunder of explosions, the racket of splinters, and the din of the working engines, the surgeons labored over the sick as at the hospital operating table. Although some of the men suffered frightful agony, there were few groans in spite of the fact that anesthetics were administered only in one case.

"When the battle ended and the enemy began to draw off, the officers on the bridge cheered and the cheering extended down into the hold, the sickers and even the wounded joining in it.

"The captain signalled for full speed ahead after the retreating Japanese, but the Bayan had not gone far before the flagship signalled to return."

Powder Magnate in Philadelphia.

San Francisco, April 4.—Francis L. Dupont of Wilmington, Del., is here. He is a member of the big powder combine which has recently absorbed the California company, Vigorite company and three fuse companies on this coast and is reported to be making a deal to absorb the only remaining company here outstanding. Besides owning 34 American companies this combine has just succeeded in purchasing all but 20,000 of the 150,000 shares of the International Powder company, which has valuable plants in Europe. The contractors of the combine to sell ammunition to the Russians and Japanese are said to run up into the millions.

Supplies Plentiful in Manchuria.

New York, April 4.—Supplies are plentiful in Manchuria and the Russians are doing everything to encourage the natives to furnish provisions in the future, says a World dispatch from Yin Kow. It is said they are even paying farmers half prices in advance for this year's produce. The Russians are paying well also for transports, giving five roubles ($2.50) a day for carts and 40 roubles for cart hire from Liao Yang to the Yalu river. There is not the slightest sign, the correspondent avers, of ill feeling toward the Russians among the natives.

Teaching Man to Talk.

New York, April 4.—Efforts are being made in a Newark, N. J. hospital to teach a man of 30 years to talk. The subject lost his faculty of speech through a blow on the head delivered by thugs. Words of one syllable are spoken to him, and he is made to repeat them until they come tripping off his tongue. He is being carefully led from speaking single words to putting the words together into sentences, and it is expected that in a few months he will be able to talk as well as would be expected of a normal child three or four years old. The man was assaulted two months ago.

At the hospital a fracture of the skull made necessary the removal of two square inches of bone which pressed on the brain. The operation was entirely successful, but although the man could not frame verbal expressions or write. After all efforts of the doctors interests. Each of his sons she called uncle. On the day of her disappearance she left a note addressed to her "grandfather." It read:

"Dear Grandfather: Katie's last wish is that you write for her sister to come and get all of her things. Please do that, grandpa."

The girl was last seen in the city at the public library, where she had gone to return a book after leaving the farewell note for "grandfather" Jensen.

Two theories were immediately advanced to account for her disappearance. One that she had become deranged from overstudy and committed suicide; the other, that she had encountered the same fate that overtook little Nora Fuller, the mystery of whose murder on Sutter street has never been cleared up. Color was given to this theory by the statement that Miss Bessler had an elderly admirer, residing in Ogden, Utah, from whom she had received presents.

TENEMENT RENTS INCREASED

Scores of Indignation Meetings Held in New York to Protest.

New York, April 4.—Scores of indignation meetings have been held in the east side in protest against a general increase of tenement rentals. Lawyers and business men addressed the meetings and a protest was drawn up which will be presented to the mayor.

Advances have been made by lease holders in the crowded portion south of Eleventh street from the Bowery to East River. The raises range from 42 to 50 a month. Most of the tenement dwellers are too poor to pay the increase and denounce it as extortion. Some already have been thrown on the streets.

Throughout Easter day the streets were thronged with people discussing their grievances. All were agreed on one point—to resist to the utmost and refuse to pay the increase. A local society has been formed to take care of those who may be dismissed and are unable to take care of themselves.

It is declared the lease holders and not the landlords have caused the advances. The former threaten to sue for the year and collect the rents from those to whom they submit. Numerous threats of violence already have been heard.

REACHING AN AGREEMENT.

Telluride Mine Owners and the Miners' Union.

Denver, Colo., April 4.—A special from Ridgway, Colo., says:

The negotiations begun several days ago between the Telluride Miners' association and the executive committee of the Miners' union, with Gen. Bell as a third party, are proceeding rapidly to a satisfactory ending according to an official high in the union who is a direct party to the arrangement. He says an agreement will be reached in less than three days hence, the terms having already been practically settled. The exact terms are not given out, but it is said they are fully favorable to the miners as to those they agreed to under the compromise at the commencement of the strike last winter. It is for the purpose of seeing the strike settled, it is believed, that Gen. Bell remained in Telluride instead of departing with the members of the national party who left the district yesterday. It is understood the terms will be agreed to by the executive committee and sent to the union for a ratum vote of the union members.

Irish Oppose Arbitration Treaty.

Cleveland, O., April 2.—The Irish Nationalists of this city have adopted strong resolutions protesting against an arbitration treaty between the United States of America and Great Britain. The views of George Washington relative to the danger of alliances with foreign powers were cited in the opinion it is expressed that such a treaty between the United States and Great Britain would be an undesirable condition to the others.

The European powers would tend to disrupt and destroy the friendly relations that now exist between the United States and this country. The copy of the protest will be sent to Senators Foraker and Dick.

Part of Rideau Hall Burned.

Ottawa, Ont., April 3.—The new wing of Rideau hall, 129 official residence of the governor, was destroyed by fire today. Some anxiety was at first felt for the safety of Lady Minto, who was lying in bed with a fractured leg, but her removal was accomplished without difficulty. Rideau hall was purchased as the vice regal residence 21 years ago, and has cost about $200,000. The damage by the fire was about $50,000.

Three Killed in Explosion.

Marshalltown, Ia., April 3.—An explosion in the Citizens' National bank building at Allis today resulted in three persons being killed and several injured.

The dead: R. Ramsey, Edward Dougherty, Richard Grimes.

The explosion is supposed to have been in one of the apartments with a fractured pipe, which was destroyed by the fire. There will be no races in May.

Prizes of cups, medals and other trophies are offered for amateur ballroom races to be held in March and fourth Mondays 1, September.

FAUST CREAMERY & SUPPLY CO.

How the Business Was Organized—Its Present Officers and Some of the Men Connected With It.

The progress that has been made by the Faust Creamery and Supply company of this city has been quite marked, not only in the quantity of product they handle, but in the quality of their product. They began operations Oct. 1, 1901, beginning with the business that was formerly owned by H. J. Faust Jr., of this city and S. C. Jones of Kayville, and the addition of cash supplied by other stockholders. The officers of the company are H. J. Faust, Jr., president and manager; S. C. Jones, vice president; John E. Clark, secretary and treasurer, and C. Alston, Salt Lake. These with Abraham Smith of Smithfield constitute the directors.

H. J. Faust, Jr. is a son of Dr. H. J. Faust who came to Utah in the early fifties and who is known by nearly everyone in the state. Mr. Faust, Jr., has been in the creamery business for the past fifteen years, being manager of one of the first creameries operated in Utah and for several years prior to that time was connected with his father in the live stock and dairy business. He was one of the judges of blooded cattle at the fair in 1888 and has judged the dairy cattle at nearly every fair held since that date. He was one of the organizers of the Utah Dairyman's association and was its first secretary. He was state food and dairy commissioner for four years, having been appointed when the office was created.

S. C. Jones was the manager of the Kayville Creamery and was one of its organizers. This was one of the first creameries in the state and for years K. C. Butler was the leading butter on the market. He operated this creamery ever since it started and also operated the Farmington, the Layton and the Blaine creameries up to the time of the organization of the Faust Creamery and Supply company. While Mr. Jones is not now connected with the active management, having just departed to fill a mission in the New England states, he still retains his interest in the business.

Mr. J. E. Clark, the secretary of the company, is a son of the late manager of Clark, Eldredge & Co., and has been connected with that firm for 20 years. He is now its secretary and bookkeeper.

Abraham Smith, one of the directors is also manager of the firm's business in Cache valley. Mr. Smith has been engaged in the mercantile business at Smithfield and is proprietor of the largest store there. He was one of the organizers of the Smithfield Creamery and has been its manager since its organization.

C. Alston is a contractor and builder and has built the buildings for a number of the largest creameries in the state. He is also manager of the plant separator department and supervises the cream routes.

In addition to these men there are some influential men connected with the business in different parts of the state. Among these may be mentioned, Joseph Barker and T. P. Terry, Ogden, and Charles Anderson, Grantsville, Bishop Farrell, Smithfield.

Wakeful?

Sleeplessness is a Sign of Nerve Trouble and Should Be Looked To.

There are three different manifestations of sleeplessness.

First, hardly to sleep a wink all night, second, to lie awake a long time before falling asleep; third, to fall asleep soon, waking up after several hours and then find it hard to sleep again.

They mean that somewhere in the nerve fibers, somewhere in the brain cells, somewhere in the blood vessels that carry blood to the brain, something is radically wrong, and must be righted, or the end may be worse than death.

To right it, take Dr. Miles' Nervine.

Some other symptoms of nerve trouble are: Dizziness, Headache, Backache, Worry, Preftunness, Irritability, Melancholy, Lack of Ambition.

They indicate diseases which may lead to Epilepsy, Pits, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervous Prostration, Paralysis, Insanity. Nothing will give such quick and lasting relief as Dr. Miles' Nervine.

My husband had been sick for weeks, could not sit up to have his bed made. With all the medical help we could get he continued to grow worse. He could neither sleep or eat. Our baby girl was sent away, and all ealers barred, because he could not stand a bit of talking. I read of a cure for nervous prostration cured by Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. We began giving it to him, and in a few days he was able to get up. From that time he steadily improved. Nervine saved his life.—Mrs. A. G. HASKINS, Freeport, N. Y.
