ANOTHER FLOP

NOW IT IS TAX ABATEMENT.

They Rally to the Support of Mayor Thompson in His Veto of Martin Resolution.

The "American" members of the city council again reversed themselves last night at the council meeting and rallied to the support of Mayor Thompson in his veto of the Martin resolution providing for abating a special tax amounting to $900 on public school property on east Second South street. A week ago the council voted unanimously to abate the tax as the law does not give the city council power to mously to abate the tax as the new coord not give the clip council power to levy a tax against any public school property. The resolution was submitted to Mayor Thompson and, after consult-ing the clip attorney, he vetoed it on the ground that the property has been sold by the board of education to an-ether party and the abatement would run in favor of the other party and not in favor of the board. When the veto came before the coun-cil ast night Crabtree moved that it be sustained. Fernstrom moved that the matter be laid over for a week for fur-ther finvestigation as he was satisfied that the council had no right to collect the tax. His motion was lost by a vote of 6 to 6. The roll was then called on the veto and it was sustained by a vote of 6 to 4. In order to clear the title of the lien of the special tax against the property, it is necessary for the board or the purchaser to go into court and test the legality of the action of the council in levying the tax against school property. refreshment and amusement privileges at the park so as to put all applicants for concession on an equal footing. Its report was adopted by the council last night school property.

Bill Introduced in Senate Giving Them Right of Eminent Domain.

In the senate a bill has been introduced to make the smelting of ores in Utah a more pleasant occupation to the melter managers, and to relieve the smelters from the operations of farmers in the vicinity of their smokestacks. who would constantly harrass them with damage suits. Under the new bill, land on which it is necessary that smelter smoke fall, becomes eminent domain, and the good, old law, originally enacted to let railroads have a clear right of way across country. comes to their rescue, giving them rights of the first class on smoke infested land. If the owner objects to the smoke, all he can do after the law is passed, is to put a fair valuation on is passed, is to put a fair valuation on it, and deliver it for good money into the care and keeping of the smelter. If his value is too high, he must move anyway and a jury will settle the amount to be paid. The bill, if applied to the smelters at Bingham, would require them to buy up nearly all the Sait Lake valley south of Ninth South street, and a mile or more wide on each side of the Jordan. Senator B, X. Smith, who introduced it, however, declares that it is not in-tended to be practically applied to the Murray situation, but to localities on which the smelters are seeking to lo-cate, and find one or two farmers who stubbornly hold out against any op-portunity to sell their farms. "The smelters at Murray will prob-ably move," said Senator Smith, "but we must not drive them clear out of the country. We need them, and, of course, the ideal condition is one in

we must not drive them clear out of the country. We need them, and, of course, the ideal condition is one in which we get their money without their obnoxious gases and smoke. In their contemplated exodus it would be a mis-fortune if they should go so far that they would be out of this territory al-together.

Outside of this bill, the feature of yesterday's session was the introduc-tion of the new juvenile court measure, and a bill against gambling, by Ras-

The text of Smith's bill is as follows: Whereas, The production and reduc-tion of ores are of vital necessity to the people of the state, are pursuits in which all are interested and from which all will derive a benefit, and the en-couragement of said pursuits is a part of the public policy of this state, in order thereby to promote the welfare of the state and its inhabitants; Be it enacted by the legislature of the State of Utab.

Be it enacted by the legislature of the State of Utah. AGAINST W SENATE PROCEEDINGS. The fourth week of the session found the senate coming together tardly yesterday afternoon. It was 2:30 o'clock when President Love called the lawmakers together, and their calendar showed the result of the weeks of preliminary effort, for there was a long grind before a clear table was reported. From the governor a communica-tion was received showing that there was on hand in the executive office a warrant for $9,003.50 being 10 per cent from the forest reserves of Utah, to be expended on the roads and schools of the counties concerned. Another communication stated that the governor had received word from Washington to the effect that that state had appropriated $1,000,000 for the Alaska-Yukon exposition to be held at Seattle in 1907. Under suspension of the rules, a resolution from Senator Park, chair-man of the education committee, that an expert accountant be hired to audit the books of the university and the Agricultural college, was passed with-out a dissenting vote.
