THEIR HEALTH RESTORED

Happiness of Thousands of Homes Due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com-pound and Mrs. Pinkham's Advice.

A devoted mother seems to listen to every call of duty excepting the su-preme one that tells her to guard her health, and before she realizes it some derangement of the female organs has manifested itself, and nervousness and irritability take the place of happiness and amiability.

Tired, nervous and irritable, tho mother is unfit to care for her children, and her condition ruins the child's disposition and reacts upon herself.
The mother should not be blamed, as she no doubt is suffering with backache, headache, bearing-down pains or displacement, making life a burden. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing cure for this condition. It strengthens the female organs and permanently cures all dislacements and irregularities. Such testimony as the following should convince women of its value:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I suffered for eight years with ovarian troubles. I was nervous, tired and irritable, and it did not seem as though I could stand it any longer, as I had five children to care for. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it has entirely cured me. I cannot thank you enough for you letter of advice and for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me.—Mrs. Ph. Hoffman, 100 Himrod Street, Brocklyn, N. Y." Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

CLOUDBURST SPREADS DESTRUCTION IN TWO TOWNS

Utica, N. Y. Sept. 4.—The villages of New Berlin and Edmeston were nearly lestroyed by, a cloudburst last evening. It had been raining all day and the streams were very high. About 7:30 o'clock there was a terrific fall of rain and in less than 30 minutes the streams became terrents that swept buildings from their foundations, uprocted trees, washed out telegraph and telephone poles, destroyed the railroads running through those villages, and washed out great sections of the roads and dozens

The extent of the damage cannot be tailed, as communication was cut off carly today and little news can be ob-tained from the flooded district.

In New Berlin a large house, occupied by Mrs. J. M. Deming, was washed down through the main street and carthrough the main street and car icl away. The woman has not been escued, and it is supposed that she has been drowned. Three barns, containing horses and other stock; a blacksmith shop, carriage—shops and two small houses, also were washed down the main street. The congregation at the Presbyterian church was imprisoned in the church during the night and could not be resued until day light today. Then they were taken out on a raft.

were taken out on a raft.

Cellars in all the business places were filled with water and the damage to the business part of the village is very large. It is stated that there is no prospect of the railroads being open for several days and the highways are so badly damaged as to be impassable.

A large part of the village of Edmeston was torn up by the floods and the damage will amount to thousands of dollars. Several small towns besides the two named have suffered severely but news cannot be secured from erely but news cannot be secured from

In the riot that followed several persons were badly hurt, and police reserves had a hard fight to disperse the man. fight to disperse the mob.

The victim of the net was Anna Schrinshock, two years old. With her father and another man she was being led across the street when a crowded northbound car rolled the girl under the fender, where she lay crying, but apparently upinjured. Before the motorman could stan from the platform and man could step from the platform and lift the fender the crowd made a rush for him, and in the scramble he was for him, and in the scramble he was forced against the controller turning it around and putting on a full current.

Instantly the car shot forward a distance of 200 feet and the child's body was ground to pieces. The sight of the mangled body added fury to the mob. and the motorman was dragged from the car and nearly beaten to death. A policeman who interfered was disarmed and his uniform torn off.

CANAL EMPLOYES.

They Will be Governed by Civil Service Rules.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 4 .- An official party which was entertained at luncheon today by the President and Mrs. Roose-velt included Postmuster-Gen. George B. Cortelyou, Senator A. J. Bewerldge of Indiana, Judge W. L. Penfield, solicitor for the state department, and Civil Service Commissioner Alfred W. Cooley. Commissioner Cooley came to Oyster Bay to consider with the presi-dent some phases of the civil service regulations as applied to employes in the Panama canal. Commissioner Cooley said that great difficulty has been experienced by the Isthmian canal commission and by the civil service commission in procuring the right kind of skilled labor for work on the canal.

"It was proposed at first," said he. "the was proposed at first," said he.

JAPANESE HOLD RECEPTION. A Very Pleasant Affair at the Hotel Wentworth. Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 4.—Baron Komura, Mr. Takaliira and the mem-bers of the Japanese mission held a re-ception in the ballroom of the hotel toreption in the ballfoom of the notel to-night. It was an exceedingly pleasant affair, marked by the most friendly ex-changes between the Russians and Japanese, Gov. John McLane and his staff, Rear Admiral Meade and the naal officers in the harbor, the newspa-per correspondents and all the hotel per correspondents and all the hotel guests were present.

In the midst of the galety Mr. Witte and Baron De Rosen, accompanied by the baroness and followed by the Russian suite, entered the room and paid their respects to the hosts. The greetings and exchanges between the ersiwhile foes were very cordial. M. Witte after he withdrew from the line, finding that he was becoming the center of a throng who desired to be presented, quietly left the hall room. Supper was served, and there were many "banzal" toasts and toasts to President Rooseand teasts to President Rooseelt and peace.
At the close of the reception Baron

Komura, speaking to the Associated Press, said that he was very much satsfied with the result of the peace con-ference, adding that what has been done here had been for the best intersts of Russia and Japan.

London, Sept. 4.—Figures only to be descirbed as staggering are dealt with a a return that has just been issued by the Postal Union for the year 1903, and the mind falls to realize what is contained in the statement that in that period of 12 months 2,597,000,000 of let-ters were posted in Great Britain. The correspondence of all other countries is, of course, tabulated. In regard to post cards. Germany heads the list with 1,161,000,000, to be followed by the United States with 776,500,000 of such missives, Great Britain taking the third place with 613,000,000. That, however, is a striking total and is a good evidence of the popularity of the picture card which, of course, has been a largely contributing factor to the vast mass

Fought at a Funeral.

Kishineff, Sept. 4 .- During the progress here today of a funeral proces-sion of Jewish workingmen following the body of a poor woman who had been killed by roughs, shots were suddenly heard and the procession charged by troops and police. Many of the workmen were wounded and 50 of them were arrested. Several are missing and are supposed to have been killed.

The officers declined to give any ex-planation of the cause of the occurrence and refused to allow sympathizers with wounded men to accompany them to the hospitals.

The Jewish hospital is surrounded by soldiers, and patrols are stationed at central points in the town. Great alarm

LETTER CARRIERS,

Seven Hundred Delegates Meet in Convention in Portland.

Portland, Or., Sept. 4.—Seven hundred delegates to the convention of the National Letter Carriers' association are in Portland to attend the blennial convention assemblage which began today at the Lewis & Clark fair. The day was taken up by informal receptions and entertainments and an evening session at which welcoming speeches were delivered by prominent Portland men and responses by members of the association. The regular business session will begin tomorrow. The convention is expected to be unusually important. Readjustment of the insurance branch order is to occur with insurance branch order is to occur with the view of making the assessments equable. Plan of helding blennial conventions adopted at Syracuse two years ago is said not to give satisfaction and an effort will be made to restore holding conventions amually.

There is strong civalry both for the

Clyde Fitch's new play, "Her Great Match," with Maxine Elliott in the leading role, was given a warm welcome at the Criterion theater. The plot, which was woven about the obstacles preventing a German crown prince from marrying an American girl, prince from marrying an American girl, had its solution in the Prince's renunciation of his throne. Miss Elliott is supported by a strong company, John Drew introduced an Augustus Thomas comedy called "De Lancey" at the Empire theater, Supporting him was Margaret Dale. The scenes of "De Lancey" are laid about New York, giving Mr. Drew an opportunity to interpret the character of a society man in love with a girl, whose flance, t known to himself, loved another you lady. This situation, De Lancey, impersonated by Mr. Drew, had to so by simultaneously winning his o wife while making a match for anothe man.

Making her first metropolitan appearance, in the title role of "Miss Dolly Dollars" at the Knickerbocker theater tonight, Miss Lulu Glaser stepped from the realm of romantic opera into American musical comedy, the transitation being witnessed by an audience which filled the playhouse.

The production of Hall Caine's play, "The Prodigal Son," at the New Amsterdam, was new to New York, although already seen in Washington. It was furthermore a distinct contrast from the other openings, having its Icelandic setting and scenery and an undoing in which a man sacrificed his happiness.

undoing in which a man sacrificed his happiness.

"The Prince Chap," a new comedy by Edward Peple, was submitted to a firstnight audience at the Madison Square theater. An odd feature was that three players were required to impersonate the heroine during the course of the play, showing her at the respective ages of 5, 5 and 18.

In addition to the opening tonish, both Tuesday and Wednesday will continue the first-night presentations.
