THE PATENT Wire Gauge Oven Door

IN THE LATEST IMPROVEMENT ON THE

OAK

It produces Practical Results in Baking and Boasting never before attained in any Cooking Apparatus, and will Revolutionize the Present Methods of Cooking.

ITS THEORY is that all Food Baked or Cooked, should be cooked in fresh air freely admitted to the oven. This is done by the use of the wire gauge door, which allows the air to enter and exit freely, and thus produces a perfect bake, and a saving of fuel.

Through this Gauge Door the air enters and exits freely, and thus produces a perfect bake, and a saving of fuel.

It makes an enormous saving in weight of meat.

It makes an enormous saving in weight of meat.

OPINION OF AN EXPERT. Mrs. Mary R. Walcott, Teacher, Des Moines, Iowa, State University, says: "My deliberate judgment is that the oven of the Patent Wire Gauge Door is not only more equally heated in every part, front and rear, but as a result of its superior ventilation the food is cooked more evenly, and the cooking is a sweeter flavor, and a large proportion of the fat is saved. I find, also, the consumption of fuel is much less than with any other oven."

POLITICAL POINTS.

Stanes and Harrison Making Speeches. — Secretary of the National Union, Stanes, and Harrison, made speeches at the fair grounds today. His speech was devoted mainly to the tariff and was well received.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 4. — General Harrison was visited today by a large delegation from Grand Rapids, Michigan, and from Tiffin, Ohio. The Michigan visitors represented largely the furniture manufacturing industry of Grand Rapids. The Ohio delegation was headed by General Harrison, and was a number of fine specimens of the "great West" from Northern Indiana. Harrison, also, was called upon by a delegation from the National Union, which had been organized at Indianapolis. General Harrison received the Indiana delegation at Tomlinson's Hall.

GENERAL HARRISON was in good voice, and spoke with unusual vigor and earnestness, repeatedly arousing his audience. He said: "My Michigan, Ohio and Indiana friends—These cordial manifestations of your personal regard move me very deeply, and I do not appreciate all to myself the great expressions of popular interest which I receive from you. I am one of the oldest Republicans, my first presidential vote was given to the Republican candidate for that office. (Applause.) And it has always been a source of profound gratification to me to see the growth of the Republican party in this country. We have always been a party of patriotism and devotion to our country, and we have always been a party of progress and reform.
