And the grand jury aforesaid, upon their oaths allege:

That in pursuance of said conspiracy, combination, and confederacy the said defendants and each of them, thereafter on the 6th day of October, 1888, fraudulently and deceitfully presented to the City Council and Mayor aforesaid, a false and fraudulent claim and account with intent thereby then and there to defraud the said city and treasury thereof for the sum of $9,697.94, then and there pretending to the said City Council and Major that the said account was a just and true one, and fairly and truly represented the money value of the in-terest and ownership in the said dam and waters of the said Jordan River, and the said defendants then and there pretended and represented to the said city council and mayor, that the said de-fendants between them owned a full one-sixth of said dam and of all the waters then flowing and thereafter to flow in said Jordan River, and that the same was then and there of the value of $9,697.94 as in said Territory of Utah, and within of the value of $9,697.94 as in said account represented and stated, and unlawfully fraudulently and deceitfully did conspire, combine, confederate and agree together, to present for allowance and approval, said city for its use, oneuse, one-sixth of said dam and the waters aforesaid; Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said defendants did not have any interest in said dam, or right to use any of the waters of the said stream, nor was such right or interest vested then or: at any other time in any of them, nor could they or any of them make a good and sufficient deed thereof, all of which the said defendants and each of them well know, and so the grand jury doth say:

The said defendants dld commit the crime of conspiracy against the statute in such case made and provided and the peace and dignity of the People of said Territory.
