Soldiers Were Brutal-James Winsoluters were Brutal—James win-nehan of San Francisco is visiting with his sister at No. 4 Whittaker court, and, according to his narrative, was struck by an excited militiaman with the butt of a gun and severely injured, because he could not get out of the way which exceeds to getter. quick enough to satisfy the sol-. The state soldiery were needlessway ly excited, even more so than the peo-ple were, and kicked, beat and bayoncted people without cause or reason. But after Mr. Winnehan had got on board the cars on route east, it was one continual picnic. Banks Must Agree-Local banking officials say that the San Francisco banks will, from the nature of things, find it necessary to agree upon a time when all shall resume business together. As for the savings banks, they will have a hard time of it on account of having loaned out so much money of local real estate which has now shrunk so in value as to be barely appreciable to the approximate vision. Moreover, to the approximate vision. Moreover, when the banks do open, the deposi-ors, having lost their property, will want their money right away, and the savings banks will be heavily drawn upped in their upon immediately.
