MRS. GEO. WILSON PASSES AWAY.

Estimated Lady Falls Victim of Pneumonia After Brief Illness.

TRIAL JURORS FOR MAY TERM

Federal Services Over the Remains of Clarence J. Stone at Mount Brift— Junction City News Brief.

Mrs. Jessie M. Sprunt Wilson, one of Ogden's best known and most highly respected ladies, died last evening at 1 o'clock, at the family residence, 150 West Twenty-eighth street, from pneumonia.

Mrs. Wilson attended conference in Salt Lake City two weeks ago, and returned home suffering from a cold which continued to grow worse until it developed into pneumonia, but her family and friends had every hope for her recovery and everything that the best medical skill could do was done for her, but all to no avail.

Mrs. Wilson was the wife of George C. Wilson, to whom she was married 15 years ago last month. She was born at Perth, Scotland, Feb. 24, 1849, and with her parents emigrated to Utah in 1874, crossing the plains on foot. She was the mother of eight children, all living and leaves also nine grandchildren. Her children are Mrs. Joseph W. M. Ford, of Salt Lake, Misses Mary, George W. Wilson, Thomas Wilson, Ruby Wilson and Florence Wilson. She was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and was always true and faithful to every duty imposed upon her. She was a woman of a kindly, lovable disposition, always doing good and had a kind and gentle smile for everybody. A host of friends will be pained to learn of her demise. The funeral services will be held Sunday in the Second ward meetinghouse. The exact time will be announced later.

CLARENCE J. STONE LAID TO REST.

The last sad rites over the mortal remains of Clarence J. Stone, who died last evening, were held at the Mount Brift meetinghouse yesterday afternoon. Bishop James Taylor presiding. The music was furnished by the ward choir. The speakers were Bishop Taylor, Elders Thomas D. Doe, Miles L. Jones and E. A. Larkin. Their remarks were consoling to the bereaved family.

THE JENNINGS ARSON CASE.

To Grow Seedless Apples from Trees That Never Blossom.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., April 22.—An effort is being made to form a company here for growing seedless apple trees, of which John F. Spencer, of Grand Junction, claims to be the originator. Mr. W. C. Schuch, of Grand Junction, Colorado, has presented the matter to a number of business men, and stock is being freely taken in the new venture. The intention of the company is to start a nursery for the propagation of the new variety of apples either here or in Springfield, and supply the state. The

HOME FROM THE SOUTH SEAS.

Special Correspondence.

Kaysville, Davis Co., April 21.—H. J. Sheffield, Jr., arrived home this morning at 1 o'clock from the South Sea Islands, where he has been laboring as a missionary for three and a half years. Elder Sheffield is one of the Elders who so bravely escaped being drowned in the tidal waves that swept those islands with such disastrous effect last year.

Mrs. Sarah Taylor will take charge of the coffee tomorrow. The office will be kept at the same place for the present but it is hoped that a more suitable building will be secured ere long. The present location is good but the building is very unsafe.

About nine inches of wet snow fell here last night and today, and it is raining this evening.

The little folks love Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Pleasant to take; perfectly harmless; positive cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma.

ST. GEORGE.

DIXIE GETTING WARM.

New Telephone Road to Railroad—Local Telephone Line—Successful School.

Special Correspondence.

St. George, Washington Co., April 18.—Elder John McQuarrie, president of the Eastern States mission, is here visiting relatives and friends. A large congregation turned out to hear him at the Sabbath services in the tabernacle.

Bishop Isaac C. McFarlane, who is superintending the construction of the Utah & Eastern Copper company's new wagon road from its smelter at Shem to Acama, on the Salt Lake & Los Angeles railroad, is home for a day or two. He says the road will be completed this week. Besides shortening the distance about 14 miles, the grade will be much easier than on the old road.

Workmen are now busy constructing the Southern Utah Telephone company's line from St. George to Modena, and the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company will have its line completed to St. George this week.

The district school will close next Friday, principal A. M. Merrill and a strong corps of assistants have given a good account of themselves the past school year, as is shown by the progress made by the students. One of our lady teachers, Mrs. Jennie Macfarlane, Clark, will accompany President McQuarrie on his return trip east, where she will join her husband, who is a medical student in Baltimore.

The weather is getting very warm in Dixie, and vegetation is growing rapidly. On the 12th inst. the government thermometer registered 91 degrees, the warmest day of the season.

HAPPY WEDDING BELLS.

Flattering Crop Prospects—Prof. Giles Gives S. S. Concert.

Special Correspondence.

Circleville, Platte Co., April 19.—Prospects for crops are very promising, as we have had considerable snow and rain during the last month.

Elder Wiley Dalton, who has spent the last two years laboring as a missionary in the North Carolina conference, returned home a short time ago and was given a grand reception by his friends. He reports progress in the work and says he enjoyed his labors very much.

William Morse, one of our oldest settlers died Friday, April 16, of pneumonia, after an illness of four days. He was born June 4, 1830, at Llanelli, Carmarthenshire, South Wales, Utah in 1853, and in 1859 he, with his family came to Samaria. His wife died Aug. 11, 1883. He leaves eight children, seven daughters and one son, and 22 grandchildren. The funeral was held at the assembly hall Tuesday, April 19. Brother Morse was an active member in the ward, he took an active part in the Sabbath school, and the Y. M. C. A., and has been a ward teacher for over 25 years.

AMERICAN FALLS CANAL.

Work on Big Irrigation Project to Begin Immediately.

Special Correspondence.

Bryan, Blaine Co., Idaho, April 16.—Hundreds of acres of sage brush are being cleared for good crops of grain, corn and alfalfa. The sugar beet seeders is at work planting for the new factory at Blackfoot. Grass and alfalfa is now high enough that it will grow upon it and give relief to the farmers who, up to a very recent date, have had to feed all kinds of stock.

Elder C. P. Swenson, who has spent some 25 months in the Swedish mission, returned to his home and friends April 5. On the 15th inst. a welcome home party was given in his honor.

Those in charge of operations on the American Falls canal are here ready for business. Several canals are located below here from three to 12 miles and dirt will begin to fly as soon as the engineer can get the work properly mapped out. It is learned the company intends to complete the work this season. Considering the immensity of the scheme this will be a great credit to the management. The canal proper is 60 feet wide in the bottom and six feet deep and will be 75 miles long.

CAREY, IDAHO.

FLOODED BY HIGH WATERS.

Stable and Shed of E. F. Dix Destroyed by Small Boys and Matches.

Special Correspondence.

Carey, Blaine Co., Ida., April 16.—Roads were just beginning to be dry and passable when unusually early high waters came upon us, parts of the valley were flooded and people isolated from each other in some cases.

It is some 10 years or more since the streams of Little Wood river were as high as they are today, and the flood is much earlier than for a still longer period. Wells 60 to 70 feet deep are nearly full of water. Some families are having to move out of houses on to higher ground. Farming operations are hindered for the time being. There are three channels of the main river now overflowing their banks and are doing damage in rapidly from the desert into the foothills.

The Carey sheep shearing crew started out for their first labor a week last Thursday. Most of the sheep will not be sheared until after lambing.

We have a new firm starting up in the merchandise and agricultural business, Parke & Case; T. C. Parke and A. B. Case are making the venture.

At a board meeting recently held, the directors of Blaine County, including Joseph Ainsworth a director in place of A. B. Case, who has drawn out.

Small boys and matches started a fire in the stable and shed of E. F. Dix, which destroyed the stable, shed and straw stack of E. F. Dix of this place.

DEATH OF W. E. REYNOLDS.

Veteran of Early Days in Utah Passes to His Reward.

Special Correspondence.

Sanford, Conejos Co., Colo., April 18.—William F. Reynolds, aged 77, a resident in the San Luis stake the past 15 years, and formerly a resident of Mount Pleasant, Utah, where he was a counselor in the Bishopric for 22 years, died at his home in this city April 14, of old age and general debility. The deceased was confined to his bed most of the time for eight or 10 months previous to his death. He was a man of a kind and lovable disposition and had many noble traits which won for him a host of friends. He leaves a wife, a son and a daughter at home in this city and a number of married sons and daughters here and in different parts of Utah.

Brother Reynolds crossed the plains with the Saints en route to Utah in the early days of the Church, at which time he proved his devotion to the cause of right by his many acts of kindness and assisting the distressed.
