

COTTONSEED OIL AND PROTECTION

Several Southern Senators Declared There Was No Need For Any Duty on Product.

"THE TRUSTS ARE GHOSTS."

So Said Heyburn and Nelson Twitted Him on His Attitude Towards Silver.

Washington, May 20.—A recommendation by the committee on finance for a duty of 3 cents a gallon on cottonseed oil in connection with the tariff bill proved to be a firebrand on the Democratic side of the senate today. Replying to Mr. Tillman, Mr. Aldrich explained that the Disney law provides for a duty of 4 cents a gallon on cottonseed oil, so that this recommendation caused a reduction of 1 cent a gallon. This did not satisfy the Democratic senators.
Messrs. Tillman, Bacon and Money insisted that they wanted no duty whatever. Finally, because of this criticism from certain southern senators, Mr. Aldrich withdrew the cottonseed oil amendment.

In the debate that led up to this amendment withdrawal, Mr. Aldrich said Germany and other countries were offering bounties for the production of cottonseed oil and he believed that if the American market was not protected it would be over-flooded with the foreign product.

NEEDS NO PROTECTION.
Mr. Bacon declared that the American cottonseed oil needed no protection, but he feared such duty would result in having maximum duties imposed on cottonseed oil, now admitted to those countries free of duty, as well as on other duties on American products, but Mr. Aldrich would not concede the point.

Mr. Tillman wanted to keep up the markets abroad for cottonseed oil and when asked by Mr. Aldrich if he would see the cottonseed oil made abroad and then imported into the United States, he replied:

"Of course I would if we get a higher price on cottonseed. The farmers are entitled to some consideration."
Mr. Smoot suggested that cheap labor abroad would produce cottonseed oil cheaper than in the United States. Mr. Tillman with energy replied:
"Cheaper than in the south? Cheaper than we can produce it with our negro labor at 50 to 75 cents a day?
Whoever told the senator that lied, and does he know he was lying?"
"I think," said Mr. Smoot, "there are some countries in which labor is paid even less than 50 cents a day." Mr. Money sarcastically observed: "It was gratifying to the people of the south to find the senators from Rhode Island and Utah so solicitous about cotton and knew nothing about it."

Mr. Money said the south needed no protection on cottonseed oil.

Senator Daniel made a speech in support of a high duty on quinine, a chestnut bark extract used in tanning and which is produced in his state.

Offering an amendment to further reduce the duty on quinine to one fourth cent a pound, Mr. LaFollette declared the tanning industry was being driven to Canada, where quinaschin is admitted free of duty.

By a vote of 29 to 33 the LaFollette amendment was rejected. Senators Dolliver, McCumber, Nelson, Smith of Michigan, Beveridge, Borah, Brown, Burkett, Cummins, Clapp, Dolliver and Gamble, Republicans, voted with the Democrats in favor of the reduction, while Senators Foster, Martin, Simmons, Daniel and Smith of Maryland, Democrats, voted with the Republicans against the reduction. By a viva voce vote the duty recommended by the committee of one-half cent a pound, was agreed to.

The duty on white lead provoked a discussion. Mr. Curtis offered an amendment reducing the duty from two and seven-eighths cents per pound in the senate bill to two and three-fourths cents per pound. Mr. Aldrich accepted this as a committee amendment. Mr. Bristow opposed the increase over the house rate of two and three-eighths cents, declaring the production was controlled by a trust.
The senate rate, he said, would result in an increase of two and one-fourth to two and one-half cents per pound in the price of white lead.

The Curtis amendment was adopted.

"TRUSTS ARE GHOSTS."
"The trusts are ghosts," declared Mr. Heyburn in replying to suggestions that the lead trust was interested in the duty on lead.

Mr. Nelson taunted Mr. Heyburn on the former attitude of his state on the silver question.

"I never followed the silver god out

WRIGHT BROTHERS AND THEIR SISTER ON THEIR RETURN FROM EUROPE

On their return from Europe the Wright brothers, world famous aviators, and their sister, Miss Katherine, remained only 24 hours in New York, hastening then to their home in Dayton, Ohio, where their aged father, their brother and a host of friends and neighbors extended a glad welcome to them. Orville Wright said they had sold more than 60 machines abroad and had many orders from Americans for aeroplanes. They have one factory at Dayton, Ohio, where they will turn out the American machines, and those sold in England will be built at Dunkirk; those for use in France at a point near Paris. They believe the aeroplane has a future as a means of rapid travel and feel certain they can develop a speed of 100 miles an hour. On June 11 the Wright brothers will go to Washington, where President Taft will present to them the gold medal cast for them by the Aero club of America. Later they will return here for the big celebration known as "Wright week," which is being arranged by their fellow townsmen in their honor.

Two of the accompanying pictures were taken on board the steamer when it arrived in New York. In the larger group from left to right are Orville Wright, Miss Katherine and Wilbur. In the lower picture they are talking to William F. Hammer of the Aero club. The other photograph is a view of their home in Dayton.

of the Republican party," replied Mr.
Heyburn.

"You are following a lead god now," retorted Mr. Nelson.

Mr. Heyburn disavowed intimating that there were no trusts. He said he was only referring to a lead trust.
"Then," interposed Mr. Clapp, "why did you say trusts were ghosts—ghosts in the plural?"

"I would like to see the reporter's notes of what I did say before making a reply," said Mr. Heyburn.

Mr. Bristow declared that the lead industry was a trust and "every year exact $1,000,000 from the American people, for which it gives them nothing in return."

NEW YORK'S OLD GRAND
OPERA HOUSE SOLD

New York, May 21.—The famous old grand opera house at Twenty-third street and Eighth avenue has been sold by the executors of the Jay Gould estate to a company especially formed to purchase it, for a stated value of $1,000,000.

Many memories of Jay Gould and "Jim" Fisk are linked with the famous theater. It was here that Jay Gould and Fisk took refuge from the mob on "Black Friday" in 1873. In the building is a vault of heavy masonry extending from the basement to the roof, the floor of which are reached by a narrow circular stairway in the stones. Fisk said that he and Jay Gould concealed themselves in Wall street.

One of the boxes in the theater is known as the Gould box and is kept locked. It seats from 20 to 50 persons, but has never been occupied except by members of the Gould family.

WHOOPIING COUGH.

This is a more dangerous disease than is generally presumed. It will be a surprise to many to learn that more deaths result from it than from scarlet fever.
Pneumonia often results from it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, and always with the best results. Delbert McKelzie of Harlan, Iowa, says of it: "My boy took whooping cough when nine months old. He had it in the winter. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which proved good. I cannot recommend it too highly." For sale by all druggists.

CONEY ISLAND WILL
DEFY SUNDAY CLOSING

New York, May 21.—The ukase of Mayor McClellan which prohibits any kind of amusement on Sunday will be defied by the principal owners of amusement places at Coney Island, according to statements issued by them.
It is understood that the courts will be asked for injunctions restraining the mayor and the police from interfering with the Sunday shows at Coney Island.

Managers declare last night that the new order by Mayor McClellan, if executed, meant their financial ruin.
They said that on nearly every one of the six days of the week their places were operated at loss and that they depended on Sunday for a profit.

Although injunctions are depended on, several of the managers announce that they will resort to labeling their entertainment as institutes of purely educational character, and thus permissible on Sunday.

TRAINED NURSE SUPPLANTS
THE "OLD SCHOOL" DOCTOR

Chicago, May 21.—That the place of the "old school" doctor who at once was physician, adviser, friend, and confessor to his patients, has been taken by the trained nurse in the modernized profession of medicine, was the contention made by Dr. William A. Evans, health commissioner of Chicago in an address before the graduating class of nurses in the Sherman hospital at Elgin.

DEVOTED TO BASEBALL
INSTEAD OF TO HIS WIFE

Sacramento, Cal., May 21.—Superior Judge Shields today granted a decree of divorce to Mrs. Miller H. Upson on the ground of failure to provide, the specification to which the wife testified being that most of his time was devoted to baseball when he ought to have been earning a living for his two children and herself. She was awarded the custody of the two minor children and $20 a month for the support of the children. Mr. and Mrs. Upson were prominent in society circles.

TO THROW OPEN LAND
NEAR BIG HORN, WYOMING

Chicago, May 21.—The government will throw open for settlement on Monday the second unit of 4,000 acres of land in the Shoshone irrigation project. The first batch of this land, about 10,000 acres, located near Cody, Wyo., was opened a year ago and is now practically filled with settlers.

ERNEST HOGAN DEAD.

New York, May 21.—Ernest Hogan, one of the best known negro comedians and song writers, is dead at his home of tuberculosis. He wrote the book and music of Rufus Rustus, in which he starred for two seasons, then of the "Oyster Man," which he wrote producing at the time of his illness.

Hogan wrote several hundred songs of which "All Coons Look Alike to Me" was the most successful. It is said he received $40,000 from this song alone.
He was one of the originators of the "rag-time" popular songs.

UNCLAIMED WORLD'S FAIR DIVIDENDS

Chicago, May 21.—The $44,000 fund of unclaimed world's fair dividends may be devoted to a memorial to the world's Columbian exposition.

Daniel L. Burnham, chief of construction of the world's fair, has expressed himself in favor of the memorial plan as have other who were active in the exposition of 1893.

The question of final disposition of the money is scheduled to come before the board of directors Monday afternoon.

DON'T BE BALD

One of Our Readers Tells How She Obtained a Marvellous Growth of New Hair by the Use of a Simple Home Remedy After Hair Specialists and Tonics Had All Failed.

I had what most people would call a beautiful head of golden hair. I prized it most highly, as I considered it my chief attraction. Suddenly it began to come out very rapidly, and at times I had intense itching of the scalp. Physicians and hair specialists said my case was one of dandruff, germs, hair medication, etc., but nothing that they gave me did the slightest good. On the contrary, my hair seemed to come out even faster, and I was now fearful lest I should become entirely bald. In my despair a friend told me of an Ecuador herb which he said would positively grow hair on any head where the hair roots were not entirely gone, and he said the natives of the country where it grew were famous for their beautiful long hair. Upon medical advice I combined this herb with Bay Rum and Menthol Crystals and immediately began its use. In three applications it entirely stopped the intense itching of my scalp and in a very short time it not only stopped my falling hair, but I noticed an abundance of new hair coming in. In less than one month my hair was longer, thicker and more beautiful than ever. All due to this marvelous hair growing herb. A lady to whom I gave the formula used it on her daughter and she says it made her hair grow five inches in less than a month.
Doctors to whom I have shown it say it is the only thing which will actually grow new hair; therefore I think the public ought to have it. At first I thought I would keep it a secret and sell the secret, but when I think how I suffered and how badly I needed it, and how hundreds of others must need it the same as I did, I feel I ought to give it to the world.

Therefore I authorize this paper to publish the formula, which is as follows: Bay Rum or Lavona de Compose, 2 oz.; Menthol Crystals, 1 dr.; Tokalon Perfume, 1 to 2 teaspoonfuls.
Ask your druggist for an 8 oz. bottle containing 5 oz. of Bay Rum, then put in the Menthol Crystals and the Perfume. Next add one-half of the bottle of Lavona de Compose. Always buy the Lavona de Compose in 2 oz. sealed bottle as this preparation contains the juice of the Ecuador herb mentioned above, and it loses its strength if unsealed.

Apply the preparation night and morning and rub well into the scalp. If properly used it will soon produce most astonishing results. Be careful not to get it on the face or any part of the body where you do not want to produce hair.
