

INVESTIGATION MAY PETER OUT

Instead of Promised Inquiry, Sessions Develop Into Personal Fights.

LILLEY IS NOT SATISFIED.

Denied Counsel, He Shifts the Responsibility for Imminent Failure On Members of the Committee.

Washington, March 13.—Chairman Boutell of the submarine investigating committee, in an interview today, made the following statement:

"The apparent misunderstanding on the part of the public as to the attitude of the investigating committee toward Mr. Lilley—a misunderstanding which appears to have sprung from public statements in which Mr. Lilley has been quoted as dissatisfied with the prospective course of the committee toward himself as the originator of the resolution of inquiry—is unfortunate. It should be understood that the committee is proceeding not only within the narrow lines laid down by the law, but also with a view and purpose to protect Mr. Lilley and to prevent this investigation from deteriorating.

"Mr. Lilley told the committee that he thought the investigation should proceed along different lines; that he should be allowed to name the order of the witnesses and that he, through his counsel, should have the privilege of examining and cross-examining them directly.

"Now the fact is that if we had acceded to this desire and placed witnesses on the stand before a foundation had been laid by the testimony of Mr. Lilley himself, we should have been proceeding contrary to law, and a witness subpoenaed by the committee could not only have disregarded the summons and treated it with contempt, but could have brought action for damages against the server of the summons, the sergeant at arms of the house of representatives, in case the summons were obeyed.

GO TO THE BOTTOM.

"I wish to state very clearly as chairman of the investigating committee that we propose to probe this painful affair to the very bottom; and in doing so we propose to proceed within the law and with due regard for the protection of Mr. Lilley as a member of the house of representatives. In pursuance of this course the committee will not hesitatingly call on Mr. Lilley for a list of the witnesses he desired to have summoned, and for a full statement in connection with each witness of the papers he desires to have that witness bring.

"As soon as this list is received by me I shall issue subpoenas for all of these witnesses and they will be summoned at once by the sergeant at arms.

"The committee will resume its sittings next Monday, ready to swear and to hear such witnesses as Mr. Lilley shall have designated."

MR. LILLEY TALKS.

Replying to the statement made by Chairman Boutell, Mr. Lilley said today:

"If the investigation does develop into a farce the responsibility will rest upon those, as I personally beg to take the responsibility of the investigation and to furnish the ablest counsel procurable. The committee has denied me this privilege and from this time on the responsibility must assume the responsibility of securing the evidence from the witnesses whom I have designated and will designate."

Chairman Boutell will tomorrow issue ordinary subpoenas for former United States Senator Marion C. Butler of North Carolina and S. S. McNeil of this city, both mentioned by Mr. Lilley as attorneys for the Electric Boat company; C. B. Breezy, H. W. Creech and B. F. Sands, all of this city, and Frank B. Lord and Angus E. Enly, newspaper men.

The names of all these men were mentioned by Mr. Lilley in his sworn statement to the investigating committee on Thursday morning.

An important development of the situation tonight is that Secretary of the Navy Metcalf, the members of last year's navy board which sat in trial on submarine tests off Newport and other high officials of the navy department, will be called on by the committee to testify and to produce government records of plans, specifications and contracts.

CHAIRMAN ANSWERS.

In a supplemental statement to the Associated Press tonight Chairman Boutell said:

"I do not wish to place myself in the light of criticising Mr. Lilley, but I will say that if Mr. Lilley now proposes to step aside and no longer co-

ST. VITUS' DANCE

Proof of the Remarkable Power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in This Severe Nervous Disorder.

That Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured obstinate cases of St. Vitus' dance is the best evidence that they will cure all lesser nervous disorders. Here is evidence that will stand thorough investigation. Mrs. James Wilkie, of 707 Spruce street, Cherokee, Iowa, says:

"I was of a very nervous temperament even when a child. As I grew to girlhood, more and more of the nervous family fell to me. At the same time I tried to keep up my studies in school. The strain was too great and at the age of fourteen I had to leave school, because of the run-down and nervous condition I was in. I gradually grew worse, becoming extremely irritable and suffering terribly from melancholy. It was first noticed that I had St. Vitus' dance, when I began to lose control of the muscles of my face. The disease soon spread all over my body and my head and arms seemed to tremble constantly.

"I was in this condition for about a year and dwindled away to almost nothing. Finally I became so weak that I had to stay in bed all the time. Up to this time I had been under the care of two doctors and as I became no better gave up their medicine. After I had been in bed about two months, my father heard about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from an old friend. He bought some at once and I started using them, not expecting much benefit. It noticed very soon that the pills were helping me and that I could sleep better. We all thought this so wonderful that I was encouraged to give them a good trial. I was soon able to sleep like a log and my appetite became good.

"I was sick altogether about one and one-half years and when I began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I weighed less than 85 pounds. I gained weight rapidly, while taking the pills and weighed 117 pounds when I stopped using them. I was completely cured and have never taken medicine since my nervous system. I feel that I owe my life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

They are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

operate with the committee, the investigation of the charges he has made will go on nevertheless. These charges involve the honor and the dignity of the whole house of representatives and they will be sifted to the bottom with his aid or without.

INFERENCE IS STRONG.

"Inasmuch as Mr. Lilley in his sworn charges averred that the government had already paid to the Electric Boat company $1,000,000 more than that concern was entitled to, and that the proposed expenditures in pending appropriations for 10 new submarines contemplated a similar wrongful profit of about $1,000,000 for the company, the inference is very strong that, in the mind of Mr. Lilley at least, there is much that should be explained by the members of the committee on naval affairs, the secretary of the navy and the members of last year's submarine board. It will be highly proper to request these gentlemen to appear before the committee and bring their records and testify."

GOOD FOR EVERYBODY.

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent attorney, in the Delbert Building, San Francisco says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system. Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter. A blood purifier it is and is sold at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. 112-114 So. Main."

SAYS ROOT MISLED HIM ASKING SHEPARD'S PARDON

Washington, March 13.—The following statement was made public today by Secretary Loeb concerning a published interview of Jesse B. Root, a Butte, Mont., attorney, who recently tried to secure a pardon for Richard B. Shepard, a bookstore man of Salt Lake.

Mr. Root, an attorney, appeared before the president asking to pardon a man who had been convicted for selling obscene literature. Mr. Root misrepresented the facts to the president by stating at first that the man was convicted for selling a 'Decameron,' and one or two other books of which he called classical authors. As a matter of fact, it was shown that the man had been convicted for selling a number of different kinds of obscene books—books whose titles were such that they ought not to be repeated in public. The president spoke with severity to Mr. Root about his trying to secure with deception the pardon of a man guilty of such an offense. That accounts for Mr. Root's statement, whenever made, that Mr. Root as calling for any denial from him, or for any further note whatsoever.

"Shepard is under sentence of thirteen months in prison for selling obscene literature from his store. Root called upon the president in February and asked for Shepard's pardon. The president has always been severe in refusing pardons for those convicted of selling obscene literature, and he did not take long in declining to give Shepard freedom."

UNEARNED INCREMENT ATTRACTS SOCIALISTS

London, March 13.—The Liberals and Socialists came to a clash in the house today and, undoubtedly influenced to a certain extent by Lord Rosebery's speech in the house of lords yesterday against Socialism, the Liberals threw overboard the unemployed workmen's bill of the Labor party. The majority against the bill, which is frankly admitted to be socialistic in character, was 149.

"All we want is money, and we propose to get it from those bursting money bags of unearned increment, which the government is too timid to attack," was the phrase used by one of the labor leaders in the debate today, and it sums up very well the general trend of the speeches of the supporters of the measure.

As a result of a cabinet meeting, the government under the leadership of Herbert H. Asquith who is acting as premier during the illness of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, decided to risk a probable split with the Socialist element, and Mr. Asquith and John Burns, the labor leader in the house, both asked the house to reject the bill. Mr. Burns declared that the passage of this bill would be destructive to the social fabric. The government already was doing all that could reasonably be expected, he declared, to improve the condition of labor. If it had made a mistake it was that it had gone too far and excited justifiable and curdled above the frock coat and the top-hat.

CAPITOL GRAFFERS ALL FOUND GUILTY

Maximum Penalty is Fine of $1,000 and Sentence of Two Years.

MORE TO COME TO TRIAL.

Bomb Exploded in Political Camp When Cost of State Buildings Was Compared With Reported Cost.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 13.—The jury in the first of the capitol conspiracy cases to be tried gave a verdict of guilty as to every one of the four men who have been on trial here for the last seven weeks, tonight, after six hours' deliberation. There were two ballots taken, but the jury did not come into court until two hours after reaching a conclusion.

The men found guilty are: John H. Sanderson, contractor; William P. Snyder, former auditor general; W. L. Mathews, former state treasurer; and Jas. M. Shumaker, former superintendent of public buildings and grounds.

Motions for new trials were made in each case.

NOT SPEECHLESS BUT SILENT.

Only Sanderson and Snyder were in court when the verdict was given, and neither would talk. None of the counsel for the defendants would say anything about the case.

Maximum penalties for each defendant in this case is two years' imprisonment and $1,000 fine.

The four men were convicted of defrauding the state in furnishing the new capitol, which cost the state about $13,000,000, instead of $4,000,000, the figure at which the contract was estimated.

When the cases now pending against the four persons who were convicted today are concluded the other defendants will be heard. The state claims that there are frauds amounting to nearly $5,000,000 in the furnishings of the capitol.

NO USE TO DIE.

"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushboro, Pa. "I would not be alive to-day only for that wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cough quicker than anything else, and cures lung disease even after the case is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, la grippe, asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness, is sold under guarantee at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. 112-114 So. Main, 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

PROFESSOR'S WIFE WANTS HER HUSBAND FOUND

Chicago, March 13.—The local police today were asked by Mrs. Ida W. Hensoldt to search for her husband, Prof. Henry Hensoldt, formerly a member of the faculty of the Columbia university. Mrs. Hensoldt declared that she believed that her husband had abandoned her and taken with him her fortune of $35,000. She informed the police that he had left the house a few days ago, saying that he intended to visit Austin, Tex., for the purpose of buying a sheep ranch. She had ascertained that he had not visited Austin and now believes that he will not return.

According to the story told by Mrs. Hensoldt, they were married in Sydney, Australia, Jan. 15 of this year, and that he had induced her to sell a ranch inherited from her father, for which she received $25,000, and bring the proceeds with her to this country. Hensoldt is said to be a man of the highest learning and capable of speaking thirty-five languages.

NO WORK IN BUTTE.

Butte, Mont., March 13.—President P. J. Duffy of the Butte Miners union states that circulars posted in other mining camps and in leading cities of the Northwest, to the effect that 10,000 men are wanted in Butte, are misleading. The supply of labor now here far exceeds the demand. Moreover, unskilled labor is not employed in any mines of Butte at any time. Duffy says that, misled by fake employment agency circulars, 5,000 penniless men are now in the city.

CARDWELL IS GUILTY.

Helena, Mont., March 13.—After a trial lasting several days, a jury in the United States court today returned a verdict of guilty in the case of E. Cardwell, a prominent Yellowstone country stockman, on the charge of illegal fencing of the public domain. He will be sentenced Wednesday, but on Monday counsel will argue a motion for arrest of judgment on what they declare to be a new and sufficient ground for release of the convicted man.

HIGHER EXPENSES ON HARRIMAN LINES

Statements of Earnings for November Show Great Increases in Cost of Operation.

In their statements of earnings for November, which were issued yesterday, the Harriman lines continue to show heavy increases in operating expenses. The Union Pacific's gross receipts for the month gained $806,100, while expenses increased $742,000, leaving a gain in net of $44,000. For the period from July 1 to November 30 gross receipts increased $4,114,765, operating expenses increased $3,282,780, leaving a decrease in net of $1,188,000. Gross receipts of the Southern Pacific for the month increased $437,429; expenses increased $1,321,250, leaving a net decrease of $1,321,250. For the period from July to November 30 gross receipts advanced $7,492,800; expenses increased $11,038,050, leaving a net decrease of $3,545,250.

The following official explanation was made of the increase in the Southern Pacific's expenses:—

"About $366,000 of the increase was for maintenance of way structures and equipment. The continuous rains of the spring of 1907, lasting longer than ever known before since the construction of the lines, softened the roadbed of the entire mileage in the states of California, Nevada and Oregon so that under the exceptionally heavy traffic the track deteriorated very rapidly, and it was found after temporary repairs necessarily put upon the lines were made, that practically all of the above mileage had to be resurfaced, ballasted and relined, and these causes have affected expenses in every month of the present fiscal year. They have added $494,000 to roadbed repairs and $174,000 for renewal of ties. The company also operates about one hundred and seventy-five miles of main track more than it did last year. "Renewals of equipment increased about $150,000, due to increases in wages and heavier repairs required. Expenses for higher prices of coal and fuel oil and a larger consumption. The remaining expenses resulted mainly from an increase of 73,000 tons one mile or about eleven per cent."
