The stigma of "Deserter" was re-moved yesterday from the record in connection with the late Private Wil-liam Dynes of the Twenty-niath infantry, whose skeleton was found back of the target range. Dynes served with credit in the Union army during the Civil war, and he has been buried with military honors. There is no clue as to the whereabout of any relatives.

E. J. Kearnes of Gunnison, the well known sheep man is at the Cullen. He reports this is the most prosperous year the sheepmen have experienced in year the sneepmen have experienced in 20 years, with prices high, and going higher. Ewes are bringing $4 and $4.25, where they formerly fetched $3.50 and $3.75. Mr. Kearnes says coal is so scarce in Idaho that it is dealt out by dealers in homeopathic quantities. Wood also is scarce. He has sold out his Idaho sheep amounting to 125,000, and is en route home.
