The address of welcome by Mr. Gray was very fervent and was received with acclamation. It was brief and to the point: "The city is yours, boys; what will you have?"

The party did not come up town, but went west and south and boarded a block west for the lake. They were due to return to this city in time for the recital at 4 p. m.

Among those on the special was J. E. Gray, father of the only D. R. Gray of the Salt Lake route, and the agent at Cambridge City for the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis railway. Mr. and Mrs. Gray will accompany him to Glenwood Springs tomorrow.

Regarding the true inwardness of his visit, Mr. Boyce is silent, but from the number of railroad supply men, representatives of contracting firms and others that are in town, it is surmised that the meeting is the forerunner of important events.

"I have purchased in the open market, a can of your 'Three Crown Baking Powder' and submitted same to a careful chemical analysis.

Have found the powder to be a 'PURE CREAM OF TARTAR BAKING POWDER,' absolutely free from Alum, Lime, Ammonia, or other foreign admixtures.

All of the ingredients are of the purest quality obtainable and combined in proportions to make the powder of exceptional high 'leavening' strength.

TO MAKE RUBBER.

John Beck Organizing Company to Build
Factory in Mexico.

A local rubber stamp company has just finished turning out a rubber ball and blanket from crude rubber received in this city from Mexico. The strange thing about the rubber is that it comes not from the far famed rubber tree but from a bushy relative of it, and is apparently as valuable commercially as the product of the bigger tree.

The brush exists extensively in the south coast, and is common to revolutionizing the methods and commercial prices of rubber. John Beck of Salt Lake City, is head of a concern which intends to pioneer the way into rubber manufacture from the product of the brush.

To the 'News' today he stated that within a month he will leave for Mexico to build a factory. It will be located on the coast, a brush district, and contracts have already been made for the delivery of several tons of the brush per day. He had with him when interviewed the rubber ball turned out locally, and a piece of blank rubber which seemed to be of excellent quality. The company organized to handle the industry, it is known as the 'John Beck Syndicate,' and will be heavily capitalized. Mr. Beck will remain on the ground during the erection of the factory.

INVITED TO DINE AND THEN MOBBED

Novel and Thrilling Experience of
Two Mormon Elders in Tennessee.

INDICTMENTS MAY FOLLOW.

Leaders of the Mob Known and Their Acts Publicly Disapproved—Au-

Special Correspondence.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 17.—Word comes to the mission office here of an outrage committed on two of our Elders in the state of Tennessee, near the same place where other Elders were mobbed. Writing from Fall Branch, Tenn., Elder Jos. H. Walton says:

"Leaving J. R. Scott's in the early morning of July 10, we entered our county with fasting and prayer. Upon reaching the home of a friend, J. R. Cox, we procured some dinner after which we started work, as we were very desirous of obtaining a schoolhouse to hold meeting in that night. It was not long before we could plainly see that it was with a decided aversion that people met us. The first school trustee we consulted was a Mr. John McElroy, who immediately refused us permission to preach in any schoolhouse in the neighborhood. We soon detected that the people had been taught against us, for the reason principally of the old story of the Mountain Meadows massacre, and we were refused entertainment. We were then refused a place to sleep, and the sky was very heavy as we were trying pretty hard to find some kind friend who would take us in. Finally a husband and I soon started out on foot, and he came along with road and coming. I recognized a man who had refused a tract at a store a short time before. He kindly asked us home with him, and upon our accepting the invitation he explained the way to reach his home, and said he had to go back and see a man he was working for, but that he would soon follow us. We went to his home, but his wife would not admit us, and we were in the act of leaving when the man came up and upon whom we took us in, and we were soon seated in a comfortable parlor, where supper was being prepared for us.
