Guilty. The jury in the case of the attraction, at great expense to the People, etc., vs. J. R. Gillespie, yester- proprietor, for the delectation of the day, brought in a verdict of guilty, after being out but a few minutes. The defendant was charged with grand body is made welcome. The Firemen's larceny, having stolen a couple of brass band in their spanking new unlhorses from the field of Thomas W form, will be there on May-day, both Morgan, of Tooele. Sentence will be afternoon and evening, and discourse passed on Wednesday next.

Disagreed.-The case of the People vs. Swen Johnson, for selling liquor without a license, before the Justice's Court, was given to the jury about 7 o'clock last evening, and, after being taking the First Ward or Eleventh out about four hours, they reported that they could not agree on a verdict being equally divided-three for acquittal and three for conviction.

Larceny.-John Williams, a recent arrival from Nevada, who has been drinking considerable during the past week, was before Justice Speirs this morning, on a charge of petty larceny. A gentleman of this city had lost several articles of wearing apparel from a ciethes line, but only one pair of hose could be traced to Williams, who pleaded guilty, and was fined $15, for the payment of which he will render fifteen days' labor to the city.

The Liquor Cases .- The case of brought up before Justice Pyper at 10 lany. Price 15 cents. a.m. to-day. Both sides submitted their case to the Judge, who, this afternoon, rendered a decision in favor of

BISHOP CLAWSON ARRESTED.

HE ASKS THAT THE PRELIMINARY EX-AMINATION BE WAIVED, BUT THE PROSECUTING ATTORNEY REFUSES. Last evening, about 5 o'clock, Deputy Marshai Greenman arrested Bishop H. B. Clawson, of the Twelfth Ward, on complaint made before Commissioner McKay, and sworn to by Marshal Ireland, charging the Bishop with unlawful cohabitation "with more than one woman, to wit, with Ellen Spencer Clawson, Margret Judd and Emily Young." The officer, in company with his prisoner, went to the latter's house, where subpænaes were served upon members of the family, to appear before the Commissioner at the hour set for examination, 7 o'clock. At that time the parties appeared, and Bishop Clawson stated that he would waive the preliminary examination, to which District Attorney Dickson objected, saying that he preferred examining several of the witnesses at that time, and wished the rest bound over to appear before the grand jury when it re-assembled. This extraordinary proceeding caused some surprise, and on the suggestion of the Commissioner THOS. JEFFERSON and Mrs. Dr. E. the continuation of the case was set B. Quite a sensation was created on the street this morning by the rumor that Geo. L. Crismon, of the Sugar House Ward, had committed spicide. Inquiry elicited the following facts connected with the sad affair, which is a severe blow to his parents and relatives.

It seems that he had attended house on Monday evening next, at 7.30 a party in the school house last night, and had been induced to drink pretty heavily. He did not return home until a later hour, and in a short time after retiring, his loud groans awakened some members of the household who occupied the ad-THE Guardian Assurance Company, joining room. Parry's Literary Journal. - The May number of this favorite magazine is received, and in good time as in the past. Its contents are more than usually interesting and attractive, its array of good reading being even better than any of its predecessors, a characteristic of each number. The leading articles of this number are: The Study of English Literature, by Canon F. W. Farrar; A Sketch of the Life of Wm. Cowper, the Poet, by Lydia M. Millard: Patrick Heary's Oration; The East at New Orleans; From Siberia to Switzerland, the story of an escape; Hard times, a very interesting and seasonable story from Gleason's Pictorial, and a poem by Will Carleton, entitled, The People vs. Swen Johnson was Twenty Cuts a Day; and other miscel-

Committed .- Fred and Martin Moss, the Levan Robbers, were brought bethe defendant, giving him the benefit of fore Commissioner McKay this mornthe doubt. The testimony was very ing. They waived an examination, and not being able to furnish bail, were committed to the custody of the Marshal for safe Keeping. A number of H. Haynes will come up on Tuesday, witnesses from Juab County were and McLaughlin on Saturday next, present, TO THE SILK GROWERS OF UTAH.

We are now prepared to take your cocoons and reel them on our improved reels, and when reeled and weighed we will credit you three dollars per pound for the raw silk and pay you in silk dress goods and handkerchiefs as good as the imported, at wholesale prices.

From parties who have reeled silk to dispose of, we will purchase it and al-low from four to five dollars per pound, according to quality, and pay for t the same as we do for cocoons.

Please let us hear from you. A. MILTON MUSSER, Supt Silk Factory, Cañon Road, Salt Lake City, April 25, 1885.

Caledonia Club.-This popular organization is making active preparations for a successful season of amusements. A committee composed of seven members, having the improvement of the grounds in charge, have expended considerable means in so doing. A tennis ground has been laid off, and horizontal bar, Indian clubs, and other means of recreation added. These grounds promise in the future to become quite a pleasant resort for members of the Society.

District Court Proceedings .- The judgment and default entered April 18th 885, in the case of I. Morris et al. vs., L. S. Osgood, was set aside. The death of the plaintiff, Aaron Morris, was suggested and the case was continued in the name of I. Morris as plaintiff. Default and judgment entered as prayed. A hearing on an order to show cause was had this morning in the case of Thomas Sapplington et al, vs., A. J. Stanchfield et al. The restraining order was dissolved.

By consent, 10 days from April 28th were allowed the defendant to answer n the case of Emeline Martin vs. Northern Chief Mining Co. Court adjourned until Monday.
