

SOCIAL CHAT

The week has shown the usual tenor of the social life, with the exception of the reception to Senator Kearns on Thursday night, and a few others being chiefly informal and quiet. The reception was a brilliant affair, music, flowers, and elaborate costumes making the scene a brilliant one. A few events are listed for next week, but mostly of an informal nature.

One of the delightful events of the week was the dinner given on Thursday night by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrow, in honor of Manager Frank L. Morrow of the Salt Lake Tribune. The table was bright with cut flowers and ferns, and covers for 10 were laid. Toasts were given by the guests, and the evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner.

Mrs. T. W. Whiteley entertained at a pretty luncheon yesterday.

Mrs. Frank Morrow entertained informally at bridge at the Post on Monday.

Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton has resumed her Monday at home and is now at No. 1 Emery-Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal W. Daynes are now at home at 164 J street.

Mrs. James White, formerly of Park City, is located at 231 First street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hayward have purchased the I. O. Rhodes home in Popperston and will shortly be at home at 1269 Military avenue.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. J. P. White and Miss Martha Rosa were hostesses at a card party at the home of the former, the entertainment being given in honor of Mrs. George Ford of Knoxville, Ohio, and about 25 guests were present. The rooms were bright with carnations and ferns, and prizes were won by Mrs. W. H. Arnold, Mrs. Barrett, Judge J. J. Whitaker and Dr. Burke.

Mrs. Oscar K. Lewis entertained on Thursday at her home in honor of Mrs. Charles Brink, about 20 friends being present. The amusement was bridge and prizes were won by Mrs. C. H. McCoy and Mrs. Heber Lee. Pink carnations and similar were the decorations.

Miss Maud May Babcock entertained on Thursday in honor of Prof. and Mrs. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cohen entertained at a supper following the Othello recital on Thursday night, in honor of Prof. and Mrs. Clark.

On Tuesday evening Dr. W. H. Hancock entertained informally at dinner at the Wilson, his guests being Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Peabody and Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Hanchett.

One of the most delightful events of the week was the function given on Tuesday night at Unity hall by Mr. and Mrs. Max Harris in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Liechtenstein, who were recently married in San Francisco. Flags, flowers, vases and music made the scene a bright one, and dancing added to the pleasure of the event which was in every respect enjoyable. The bride wore her wedding gown, a beautiful creation of cream crepe with trimmings of duchesse lace. An elaborate supper was served in the lower hall.

The Christensen dancing soiree on Wednesday was, as usual, well attended and enjoyed by those present.

Last night the usual Post hop took place and a large number were present, many people from the city being among the guests.

Mrs. Amy Taylor delightfully entertained the Elks Avoy Mandolin and Guitar club this week. The evening was spent in music and refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Helen Evans, Emma Appel, Bosie Mulholland, Mabel Vanflet, Myrtle Harris and Miss Avery. Messrs. Harry Clark, Frank Brown, Flint Harrison, Nils Maxwell, Albert Harris, Tom Bert, Joseph Maxwell, Hadden Clark and Dr. Evans.

Miss Nellie Cullen entertained at a pleasant card party on Tuesday afternoon, about 35 guests participating. The event was in honor of Mrs. Graham Hardman, and the rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion, with the flowers and table settings in harmony. Prizes were won by Miss Sadie Merrill and Miss Beatrice O'Connor.

On Wednesday Mrs. P. F. Eddy was guest of honor at a pleasant Kensington given by the members of Unity Circle, nearly a hundred guests being present. The time was delightfully spent, a feature of the entertainment being an address by Dr. Eddy, pastor of the Epiphany church, on Henry Ward Beecher.

On Wednesday night the cast of "Christopher Jr.," which is to be rendered by the University Dramatic club at the theater next week, entertained at dinner at the Emery-Holmes cafe in honor of Prof. and Mrs. H. Clark.

Mrs. A. V. Callaghan entertained informally at bridge at her apartments in the Whitehall on Tuesday.

Mrs. E. T. Harvey and Mrs. R. J. Schultze entertained the 100 club yesterday at the home of the former, the rooms being prettily decorated for the event, and a large number being present to enjoy it.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lamb entertained at bridge, a number of their friends being pleasantly entertained.

Mrs. C. B. Lockwood entertained the women at the Post at bridge on Wednesday, the function being in honor of Mrs. Blake.

The card party given by the Jewish Women's Relief society on Wednesday was the most successful affair, a large number being present and enjoying a delightful afternoon. The hostesses were Mrs. Benjamin Davis, Mrs. Stella Hoffer and Mrs. Sig Simon. The prizes were won by Mrs. Herbert Hirschman, Mrs. Bonkowsky, Mrs. Simon Wolf and Miss Ida Cohn.
