CONFERENCE OF NETHERLANDERS

Nine Hundred Hollanders Gather From All parts of State and From Idaho.

PIONEER JOS. TERRELL DEAD.

Mrs. Martha I. Sken Lays Down Life's Cares—Sunday School Changes.

Ogden, May 21.—The first general conference of the Netherlands speaking people of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in America was held yesterday in Ogden, at the Weber Stake Academy auditorium, with meetings at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., under the auspices of the Netherlands Missionary association of Utah. There were present besides a number of prominent churchmen about 900 Dutch speaking people, from all parts of the state and some from Idaho. It was a joyous event, a spiritual feast, which will tend to unite the people together and bring among them a greater spirit of brotherly love and fellowship. The services were presided over by Elder Evert Neuteboom and some excellent music was furnished by a choir under the leadership of L. Van den Akker, and several solos were sung.

The speakers at the services were President Rulon S. Wells of the Seventies, Presidents L. W. Shurtliff and N. C. Flygare of the Weber stake, Elders E. Neuteboom, W. J. DeBry, Stanley S. Taylor, L. Sanders, Aaron Koldewyn, Lemke Kooyman, Dirk Koldewyn and W. W. Francis of the Morgan stake presidency. The following officers of the Netherlands Missionary association were unanimously sustained: Evert Neuteboom, president; Stanley S. Taylor, vice president; Herman B. Denkers, secretary and treasurer; Lemke Kooyman, assistant secretary. A special R. G. W. train came up from Salt Lake City with over 100 Saints.

DEATH OF MRS. SKEEN.
Prominent and Esteemed Woman Lays Down Life's Burdens at 58.

Ogden, May 21.—Mrs. Martha I. Sken, (wife of the late Moroni Sken), one of the best known and most highly esteemed ladies in Ogden, passed peacefully from mortality at 6:45 last evening at the family residence, 1135 Twenty-second street, from a nervous affliction which she has suffered from for several weeks. It was just two years ago yesterday since her husband was laid to rest, and the deep sorrow she felt because of his death preyed so heavily upon her that her entire system broke down. She went to California for a short time in the hope of regaining her health, but it was of no benefit, and the end came peacefully with her children and other relatives at her bedside. Mrs. Sken was a most kind and affectionate mother, a true friend, and a woman of God. She was born Dec. 4, 1848, was the daughter of John and Susan Marriott, and has lived here most of her life. She is survived by the following children: Moroni Sken, Howard Sken, Mrs. Winifred Light, Mrs. Ethel Draney, Mrs. Mattie Ramey, Florence, Frankie, Georgia and Josie Sken, all of Ogden, besides a large number of brothers and sisters, and a host of other relatives and friends. The time and place of funeral will not be announced until her sister in California is heard from.

—26 RICHARDS STREET.

Burrows of the Deseret Sunday School Union board and B. H. Goddard of the Weber Stake Sunday School board, were present and spoke encouragingly on the Sunday school work.

Beautiful solos were sung by Althea Parr, Myrtle Ballinger and Tillie Hancock. A profusion of roses, lilacs and ferns were prettily arranged in the auditorium.

The following tribute to the retiring superintendent, Wilford O. Ridges is from the pen of Bertha M. Stone:

Time is fleeting, time is speeding,
All are listed in life's race—
Only he is most victorious
Who in hearts has found a place;
Only he who loves his fellow
And, in turn, their love compels;
Only he, the most unselfish,
In this race of life excels.

Boys and girls, we'll have among us,
For the three years almost past,
One in whom we ever trusted,
One whose influence will last.

He has been your friend and ours,
Ever steadfast, earnest, true—
And the friends he's made among us
Can't be numbered with the few.

He has won sincere affection,
Ever battling for the right,
Ever bidding us have courage,
Urging us to win the fight.

We can never forget the sunbeams,
He has strewn along our way,
Filled with that divine assurance,
There is yet a brighter day.

Now he's called upon to sever
Bonds of fellowship and love,
In the vineyard of his Master,
Other labors to pursue.

Yes, we'll miss his cheerful greeting,
But we'll bid you, Brother Ridges,
In your future work, God speed.

MENTAL HOSPITAL PATIENT KILLED.

William Meyers Makes Murderous Assault on William Savage and William Dille.

SAVAGE LIVED BUT ONE HOUR.

Meyers is Finally Overcome After Fierce Struggle—Been in Asylum for 20 Years.

Provo, May 21.—Last night, just after supper, a shocking murder was committed at the State Mental hospital when William Meyers, a patient, killed William Savage, another patient, by striking him on the head with a club, and cut a nasty gash in the head of William Dille, also a patient, before Attendant Cluss could get the club from him. The patients had been to supper and were going along the corridor from the north wing of the institution to the corridor of the main building. Dille was coming out of the washroom when Meyers struck him falling him to the floor. Turning around Meyers struck Savage as he came out of the washroom. Cluss heard the blow when Dille was struck and called to Meyers, who paid no attention to him, but immediately struck Savage over the head. By this time Cluss had reached the spot and after a fierce struggle overcame Meyers and took the club away from him with the aid of another attendant and some of the patients. In the struggle Cluss received a slight scratch on the arm from a nail in the end of the club. The sheriff and county attorneys were notified and reached the institution before Savage died. Examination disclosed a scar on the top of Savage's head in the shape of a "T," which evidently is the mark of a previous injury at some time prior to his commitment. That part of the skull was weak and the force of the blow opened the old scar and caused death.

Savage was conscious for a time and told the doctor that his head hurt and that he felt sick. At 7 o'clock he was seized by convulsions and died after a struggle. He was committed from Murray, Salt Lake county, Aug. 7, 1886, and was 31 years old. His parents have been notified. Dille is of Salt Lake county also. His injury is not serious.

The club used is about an inch and a half by two inches and three and a half feet long. It had been placed under the window in the corridor and was really a part of the sill, one end of it being nailed and screwed, but the nail at the other end did not go through the stick. It had been painted over and appeared to be firmly in place. One end being loose the nail and screw were easily pulled out at the other end. Meyers pulled the stick loose on his way to supper and going down the short corridor to the main building sought to give vent to his feelings by putting out of commission every one who came within his reach.

Meyers is a powerful man, 41 years old. He was committed from Panguitch, Garfield county, in April, 1886. Of the 20 years that he has been in the asylum he was in the quiet ward until about two weeks ago when he was placed in closer confinement because he struck another inmate named Loveless. He was not thought to be violent and his action today came as a great surprise to the physicians and attendants. When asked by Sheriff Harmon why he struck the men, Meyers said: "They would not let me go home and I will strike them again if they do not leave me alone."
