

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, November 26, 1888.

M. I. A. Course of Reading.

If the Presidents of the Y. M. M. I. A. will call at the Contributor office, 40 Main Street, today, they will receive a list of obtainable specimens of the first year's series of the M. I. A. course of reading.

Arthur C. Smith.

L. M. Smith, of Paradise, Cache County, would like to hear from his son Arthur C. Smith, who was stopping in this city, and perhaps later than the 17th inst. His parents desire him to return home and go to school.

Sentence Suspended.

In the case of Peter N. Anderson, of Santaquin, Utah County, on whom sentence was suspended by Judge Judd, last week, Mr. Anderson sends a request that he publish the following statement of the passing of judgment: "Judge Juddberry stated that the defendant, several years ago, married a crippled woman as his plural wife, and that he had never lived with her, but had always lived and associated to live with the first. A church divorce was now pending."

Thanksgiving in the "Pen."

A number of gentlemen have been canvassing among the merchants and business men of this city, with a view of getting up a Thanksgiving dinner for those imprisoned in the penitentiary. The most gratifying response has been met with thus far, the donors having been numerous and liberal. It is anticipated that the prisoners will experience the best Thanksgiving that has ever been held within prison walls. Mr. Juddberry has kindly consented to the arrangement, and with Warden Pratt and associates, given all necessary assistance.

Out of Prison.

Today five "Mormons" were released from the penitentiary, where they have been confined for conformity to a doctrine of their religious belief. They are: Bishop Wm. Farr, Third Ward; Ogdens; Lorenzo W. Wadsworth, Jr., North Ogden; S. C. Winge, Hyrum; Elijah Seasmans and Jens Christensen, Hyde Park. All have served six months and thirty days additional for the fine imposed on them by Judge Henderson. Tomorrow James S. Woolstenhulme will be released, and on Wednesday Bishop J. Harper, of Call's Fort, Jas. Rywater, of Brigham, and N. C. Anderson, of Hyrum, will complete their terms. Eight others came out on Saturday, and same on Monday. All were sentenced for unlawful cohabitation.

The Cadetship.

Ogden has again been honored by the selection of one of her young men for West Point. Last evening, Mr. Louis J. Holtzer, Jr., of Ogden, was notified by Hon. John T. Caine, that he had been recommended for the cadetship at West Point. Mr. Holtzer is a young man of excellent ability and good character, and there is every reason to believe that he will prove successful in passing the entrance examinations. He is well known in this city, his appointment being a source of much gratification to his many friends in wishing him success in the appointment, and in the prosecution of his studies. He will doubtless be proud to represent his native city at the whole Territory.

Pardon Dodds' Victim.

The coroner's jury in the case of the recent homicide at Vernal, Uintah County, in which United States Commissioner Dodds shot and killed a man as a result of a quarrel, returned the following verdict: "A coroner's inquest held at Vernal, Uintah County, Utah Territory, on the 13th day of November, A. D. 1888, over the body of one William Crane, slain by gunshot. We, the jurors, whose names are hereto subscribed, do say upon our oaths that William Crane came to his death by a pistol shot, the pistol being held in the hand of one Pardon Dodds."

Northern News.

On Tuesday last A. Stratford, of Brigham, was arrested on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. He has not long since been finished serving six months in the penitentiary for living with his wife.

Joseph Redford, of Wellsville, was arrested by Deputy Steele on Wednesday on the charge of abusing his wife and children. He was committed to Friday in the commissioner's court and he was fined $10 and costs.

Bishop F. L. Gunnell, of Wellsville, came over to an indictment on the charge that there was an indictment out for him on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. He was committed to Friday in the commissioner's court and he was fined $10 and costs.

On Friday morning Sheriff N. W. Crockett went to Ogden and arrested Charles J. Lowe, of Wellsville, on a charge of stealing a cow. The cow was made by Henry J. Hayball, of Bear Lake. Mr. Lowe was taken before Justice McAllister when he gave bonds for his appearance on Monday at 10 p.m. for examination.

Mr. R. L. Fishburn, of Smithfield, was before the commissioner on the going charge. Laura Noble Fishburn was examined as a witness, also Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, of this city, but no evidence was elicited upon which to hold the defendant, and he was discharged.

John Baird, of Mendon, is one of the inmates of the county jail. He was arrested last week for stealing a sack of oats from the Mendon Co-op grain store and pleaded guilty to the charge. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and to spend a term of two months as a ward of the county.

The examination of Hiram Petersen on the charge of fornication took place in the commissioner's court on Thursday. O. W. Powers was present as his attorney. Miss Mary Ann Jensen, the young lady who was wronged, and Jens A. Jensen of Hyrum and Mrs. Franklin Merrill, of this city, were the witnesses. The evidence showed that Mr. Petersen and Miss Jensen had kept company for a long time, and the latter testified that she was seduced by Mr. Petersen nearly a year ago. Her child is two weeks old. She was under the impression that he would marry her, but after he had wronged her he went and married another person. Mr. Petersen was bound over to the grand jury to await the action of the grand jury. Evening Standard, Nov. 24.

DR. Wm. M. PALMER will lecture during the present week as follows: Subject, "Infidelity," on Monday, Nov. 26, in the 17th Ward; "The Gathering," Wednesday, Nov. 28, in the 16th Ward; "Mission of Joseph Smith," Friday, Nov. 30, in the 15th Ward. The lectures will commence at 7 o'clock p.m. and the public generally are invited to attend.

THE LAW'S CLUTCHES.

More Mormons Sent to the Penitentiary.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT.

Today's business before Judge Sandford: George Bailey, Mill Creek, was arraigned on a charge of unlawful cohabitation, and the court ordered him to be ready for judgment. Mr. Clarke informed the court that Mr. Bailey had been convicted once before and had served a term. The court asked as to his means to pay a fine, and Mr. Clarke replied that they were ample. Mr. Moyle informed the court that this was not the fact, as on a former occasion Mr. Bailey was kept in prison thirty days because of his inability to meet the fine assessed. The court thereupon ordered the defendant to be imprisoned six months, no fine being imposed. Mr. Bailey was also given a brief lecture by the judge.

E. A. Swenson vs. E. N. Ridout; motion for new trial overruled. Wm. Daniels vs. Union Pacific Railway; suit for damages, on trial before a jury. The defendant's attorney is Arthur Brown, and the claim is for $50,000. Mr. Bailey was in the wreck near Evanston in April, 1887, and received injuries which permanently disabled him. In his complaint he alleges that a defective car wheel. It is claimed that by proper care the break in the wheel would have been discovered and the accident prevented.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.

On Saturday the following cases were heard and judgment imposed by Judge Henderson, at Ogden: The first case on the docket was that of the United States vs. Alexander Hill, charged with adultery, alleged to have been committed with one Martha Walters, on the 15th day of March, 1887. A jury was impaneled without much delay. Defendant admitted before the jury that he was a married man, that he was married in 1836, and his wife was still living and undivorced. After hearing the evidence the jury returned a verdict of guilty of adultery. Sentence was set for December 21.

Mary Larsen, charged with fornication, was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. The case of the People, etc. vs. Jerome Brown, battery, was next called for trial. This is the case in which defendant while tending bar at the Salt Lake beer hall had struck James Horrocks with a glass for raising a disturbance in the saloon. A verdict of guilty was found by the jury, and sentence was set for Dec. 10. Robert Baxter, convicted of unlawful cohabitation, was called for sentence. He stated that his first wife had been sick for nine years. His second wife he had married twenty years ago; knew not at that time that she was a law against him. He owned but very little property. His youngest child was 18 years of age. Had placed his families in such a shape that it would not be necessary for him to live with them any more. The court sentenced him to two months' imprisonment and payment of costs. Later in the afternoon Mr. Baxter was recalled. The court stated that upon further consideration he was constrained to reconsider the sentence just pronounced, and changed it from two months' imprisonment and costs, to the payment of a fine of $50 and costs.

Charles Bailey, of Wellsville, Cache County, convicted of unlawful cohabitation, was called for sentence. He had three wives and married the last twenty years ago. His youngest child by her was two years and seven months old. His families were separated now. The court sentenced him to four months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $100 and the costs of prosecution.

Hans J. Peterson, of Smithfield, and Jacob Fuhrman, of Cache County, were arraigned on a charge of unlawful cohabitation and took the statutory time to plead. William Hanson, of Box Elder, convicted of unlawful cohabitation, was called for sentence. He had two wives; the first was married in 1870, the second in February, 1881; the youngest child was about four years of age; and he had been a Mormon since 1880. He had been married to the second wife since that time, and he had lived with her since that time. He had been married to the first wife for 10 years, and he had lived with her for 10 years. He had been married to the second wife for 7 years, and he had lived with her for 7 years. He had been married to the first wife for 10 years, and he had lived with her for 10 years. He had been married to the second wife for 7 years, and he had lived with her for 7 years.

In the case of Ogden City vs. Julius Toppan, fast driving, the defendant was convicted. The grand jury reported fifteen indictments under the new laws. The cases against Thomas Hilliard, James Unsworth and Jane Ambrosia were ignored, and the accused released. Jacob Fuhrman was arraigned and pleaded guilty to the charge of unlawful cohabitation. December 10, was set for sentence. Christian Jensen, charged with unlawful cohabitation, was arraigned and pleaded guilty. Sentence was set for Dec. 10.

Mr. Petersen was arraigned and pleaded guilty to the charge of unlawful cohabitation. He was committed to Friday in the commissioner's court and he was fined $10 and costs. On Friday morning Sheriff N. W. Crockett went to Ogden and arrested Charles J. Lowe, of Wellsville, on a charge of stealing a cow. The cow was made by Henry J. Hayball, of Bear Lake. Mr. Lowe was taken before Justice McAllister when he gave bonds for his appearance on Monday at 10 p.m. for examination.

Mr. R. L. Fishburn, of Smithfield, was before the commissioner on the going charge. Laura Noble Fishburn was examined as a witness, also Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, of this city, but no evidence was elicited upon which to hold the defendant, and he was discharged. John Baird, of Mendon, is one of the inmates of the county jail. He was arrested last week for stealing a sack of oats from the Mendon Co-op grain store and pleaded guilty to the charge. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and to spend a term of two months as a ward of the county.

DR. Wm. M. PALMER will lecture during the present week as follows: Subject, "Infidelity," on Monday, Nov. 26, in the 17th Ward; "The Gathering," Wednesday, Nov. 28, in the 16th Ward; "Mission of Joseph Smith," Friday, Nov. 30, in the 15th Ward. The lectures will commence at 7 o'clock p.m. and the public generally are invited to attend.

nesses—"Do you know this man to be of good moral character?" Even qualifying it, "that is, temperate, don't get drunk?" "Yes, sir." The applicant was admitted with an admonition to guard himself from the follies of the world.

COMMISSIONER'S COURT.

On Saturday afternoon the charge of adultery, made against Otto Peterson by his wife, came for hearing before Commissioner Norrell. The accusation was that the offense had been committed with an aged lady living outside of the city. Maria Peterson, wife of the defendant, was the first witness, and from her evidence it developed that she had no reason to even suspect that her husband was guilty as she alleged, but that the action grew out of her desire to secure a divorce from him.

Mr. Clarke, having ascertained this, asked, "So you have a lawyer, then?" Mrs. Peterson—Yes, sir. Mr. Clarke—Did he tell you to bring this charge against the defendant? Mrs. Peterson—No, but when I talked to him he said that if my husband was guilty of adultery, I could get a divorce. Mr. Clarke—Who was your lawyer? Mrs. Peterson—Zane. It thus appeared that Mrs. Peterson had been trying to get a divorce, and having been told that one of the grounds upon which such a decree could be obtained, she had hit upon a plan that she supposed would convict her husband of the offense, and make it easy to be freed from him. The Commissioner ordered Mr. Peterson to be at liberty.

POLICE ITEMS.

Wm. Nixon was taken in by the police on Saturday night. He was sentenced today to 60 days in jail, on a charge of vagrancy. A man who gave his name as Wm. Hanson was arrested about 11 o'clock on Saturday night on a charge of peeping larceny. The complaining witnesses are Mr. Lipman and a boy. About the hour named Hanson went into Lipman's and asked to see some gloves. The boy waited on him, and brought out several pairs. Mr. Lipman was watching and saw Hanson slip a pair into his coat. After waiting a few minutes he said to the boy, "If he doesn't want any gloves, put them up." Hanson said he did not want any of the gloves and turned to leave the store. The boy had also noticed that the gloves were missing, and stepping around the counter intercepted Hanson and demanded them. The latter denied having them, and taking off his overcoat, invited a search. The boy took the overcoat, and under the lining found the stolen articles. Hanson then tried to get away, but was seized and held, and even when the police got to the place was struggling to free himself. He declared to the officers that a game had been put upon him. The matter will be ventilated in court.

FROM THE SOUTH.

Reports of Missionaries Just Returned.

Elders John E. Davis and Joseph Cameron, who reached this city on Saturday evening, called at this office today. Elder Davis' home is in Annabella, Sevier County. He left there October 27th, 1887, on a mission to the Southern States. He first went to Warren County, Georgia, and spent the period of his mission in that and neighboring counties. In that field some of the people are very friendly, while some are the opposite. A mob once threatened to kill him, but he was rescued by a friend. He was, however, misused by his mark. This is the only violence he met with. There are a few Saints in that section who feel well, but prospects for the spread of the work there are not encouraging. Elder Cameron resides in Pangulch, Garfield County. He left home Nov. 11, 1888, and labored first in Hancock County, Tenn., for about three months. During that time he and his companion, Elder S. H. Head, made a trip into Virginia, and another into Kentucky, in the endeavor to open a new field. In March, 1887, he became the companion of Elder Joseph Houston. They labored in Hawkins County, Tenn., about eight months, meeting with very good success. In October, 1887, Elder Cameron went to North Carolina, in which conference he spent the rest of his mission. He met with no violent treatment during his mission, but was occasionally misused by the people in a few places. He was alone for about three months at one time, and for two weeks was ill with the chills. Elder Cameron will leave this city for home today and Elder Davis will go tomorrow.

Elder George M. Tonks, of Morgan City, left Utah Oct. 26, 1888, on a mission to the Southern States. He first labored in Surrey, Stokes and Forsyth counties in North Carolina, in which field he remained about fifteen months. He met with no violent treatment, but was occasionally misused by the people in a few places. He was alone for about three months at one time, and for two weeks was ill with the chills. Elder Cameron will leave this city for home today and Elder Davis will go tomorrow.

Elder George M. Tonks, of Morgan City, left Utah Oct. 26, 1888, on a mission to the Southern States. He first labored in Surrey, Stokes and Forsyth counties in North Carolina, in which field he remained about fifteen months. He met with no violent treatment, but was occasionally misused by the people in a few places. He was alone for about three months at one time, and for two weeks was ill with the chills. Elder Cameron will leave this city for home today and Elder Davis will go tomorrow.

Elder George M. Tonks, of Morgan City, left Utah Oct. 26, 1888, on a mission to the Southern States. He first labored in Surrey, Stokes and Forsyth counties in North Carolina, in which field he remained about fifteen months. He met with no violent treatment, but was occasionally misused by the people in a few places. He was alone for about three months at one time, and for two weeks was ill with the chills. Elder Cameron will leave this city for home today and Elder Davis will go tomorrow.

Elder George M. Tonks, of Morgan City, left Utah Oct. 26, 1888, on a mission to the Southern States. He first labored in Surrey, Stokes and Forsyth counties in North Carolina, in which field he remained about fifteen months. He met with no violent treatment, but was occasionally misused by the people in a few places. He was alone for about three months at one time, and for two weeks was ill with the chills. Elder Cameron will leave this city for home today and Elder Davis will go tomorrow.

Elder George M. Tonks, of Morgan City, left Utah Oct. 26, 1888, on a mission to the Southern States. He first labored in Surrey, Stokes and Forsyth counties in North Carolina, in which field he remained about fifteen months. He met with no violent treatment, but was occasionally misused by the people in a few places. He was alone for about three months at one time, and for two weeks was ill with the chills. Elder Cameron will leave this city for home today and Elder Davis will go tomorrow.

Elder George M. Tonks, of Morgan City, left Utah Oct. 26, 1888, on a mission to the Southern States. He first labored in Surrey, Stokes and Forsyth counties in North Carolina, in which field he remained about fifteen months. He met with no violent treatment, but was occasionally misused by the people in a few places. He was alone for about three months at one time, and for two weeks was ill with the chills. Elder Cameron will leave this city for home today and Elder Davis will go tomorrow.

or violent treatment. He held about 75 meetings, visited about 100 families, and traveled about 2000 miles. Elder Enslard and Roe were to start for home from this city this afternoon.

Death of a Veteran.

RICHMOND, Cache County, Nov. 21, 1888. David P. Rainey died at this place Nov. 6th, of pneumonia. The deceased was born in Maury Co., Tenn., Feb. 1, 1830. He was baptized into the Church in May, 1849, and was ordained an Elder in the same month by President Brigham Young. He was sent on a mission the same year, to Kentucky and Tennessee. From thence he returned to the winter. In the spring of 1854 he was called on another mission to Tennessee. After the martyrdom of Joseph and Hyrum Smith he returned to Nauvoo again. In August, 1856, he was again sent on a mission to Tennessee and Alabama. In the winter of 1856 he died of west, and in the spring of 1857 he was buried in the cemetery at Nashville. He was called by the general conference in 1857 on a mission to California, returning home in the winter of the same year. He resided at Provo and Ponderosa in Utah County, and was Bishop of Ponderosa two years, resigning that office to move to Richmond, Cache County. At the October conference in 1887 he was called on another mission to the Southern States. After filling it he returned home to Richmond, and resided there until his death.

News Notes.

Frank McTigue, who shot and killed Charles Looman, a clerk in the Silver Peak postoffice, Esmeralda County, Nevada, is in jail at Hawthorne, but has not yet been ascertained in a Virginia City whether he was captured or voluntarily surrendered to the authorities. Last Sunday afternoon some Platte bucks near Winnemucca, Nev., had a strange fight. One of them, on being threatened with arrest by the others, drew a pistol and shot himself in the chest. The bullet entered the chest bone in front of the ear, and raged downward inflicting an ugly but not dangerous wound.

At Silver City, Idaho, on the morning of the 12th inst., a Chinaman who was in the employ of Dr. Dausman, as a cook, became impatient and surly, and insulted the doctor, declaring his life in danger, shot the Chinaman with a 42 calibre bulldog pistol. The ball passed through into the right side of the chest, and is not considered dangerous. The doctor was called upon a charge of assault with intent to commit murder, had an examination before the probate judge, and was discharged.

The daughter of T. F. Talbot, Reno, Nev., disappeared from home last Sunday evening in a very peculiar manner. The Gazette says she had been about the house all day in her usual spirits, attending to her household duties. At the time named she was in the kitchen, and had just stepped out of doors. Her parents thought nothing of the circumstance until late in the evening, when they found that she had disappeared. A search was made, but no trace of the lost girl could be found. The officers have been informed, and every effort is being made to find the girl. Her name is Daisy Talbot, and she is described as of medium height, light complexion, weighs 35 pounds, and is 18 years of age. Her parents are terribly distressed.

BIRTHS.

EVANS.—In this city, November 24th, 1888, to the wife of John E. Evans, of Dinwiddie's furniture house, a son. Mother and child are well.

DEATHS.

"STARMER."—In this city, Sunday morning November 24th, of typhoid pneumonia, Arthur W. Son of W. R. and O. M. Starmar, aged 5 years. Funeral was held at residence Second Ward, this afternoon. Altitude Star and Idaho papers please copy.

War Department, Signal Service.

DAILY WEATHER BULLETIN. At Salt Lake City, Utah, on November 25, 1888. Observations taken at 8 a.m. 75th Meridian time, at all stations.

THERMOMETER.		WIND.
Time.	Place.	Direction.	Force.
At 8 a.m.	At 8 a.m.
At 10 a.m.	At 10 a.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.
At 12 m.	At 12 m.
At 2 p.m.	At 2 p.m.
At 4 p.m.	At 4 p.m.
At 6 p.m.	At 6 p.m.
At 8 p.m.	At 8 p.m.
At 10 p.m.	At 10 p.m.		</