COPPER DECLINE NOW BEING FELT

Some Low Grade Mines Being Shut Down to Meet the Existing Conditions.

CURTAINING IN BINGHAM.

Bingham Consolidated and United States Companies Reduce Their Working Force.

Some of the copper mines, which have been operated at a profit during the past year or two have begun to feel the effects of the late drop in the price of the metal.

The Majestic Copper company was the first Utah company to close its mines and several days ago the news came from Millard to the effect that about 60 men had been dropped from the payroll.

WHITE KNOB MINES.

Lower Copper Prices Causes a Shut Down at Mackey.

(Special to the "News.")

Mackey, Idaho, Sept. 24.—The management of the Empire Copper company, operating the White Knob copper mine in this camp has closed the mine.

plunged to the American Smelting and Refining company's Gardfield smelter for treatment. The drop of 10 cents a pound in copper is said to be the cause of the shut down. The mine is productive of grades of ore too low grade to stand the cost of operation under present conditions.
