Miss Dellie Clawson made a very excellent French lady's maid, full of intrigue and love of adventure. Mrs. Harris and Miss Foreman rendered good support, and Iva and Petite Clawson acted charmingly in their juvenile characters. Mr. Thorne played the generous manly old Colonel with great digatmington, arrived, the other day, nity and force, gaining frequent applause. Mr. Foster walked attitudes and movements were a little too angular and his manner too tame. Mr. Graham made considerable out of a small part, and was, as usual, funpy and familiar. Mr. Olsen did extremely well except in those passages requiring anmation, when he spoiled them by talking down in his throat, a defect of which this gentleman will have to cure himself, or he will never become a favorite, although he has natural dramatic ability. Mr. Mackintosh played the good-hearted but small-brained husband very acceptably, and would do much better on the stage if he would cor-

It is well worth seeing, it is put on the stage with the usual care and taste of the management, it enchains general attention and conveys a good moral. If the time was shortened between tion and conveys a good moral. If the time was shortened between the acts it would be an improvement, as the play has five acts neither of which is very brief.

A matinee will be given to-morrow for ladies and children, and in the evening the play of Miss Multon will be presented.

Missionary Notice - Ten intermediate berths on the steamship Wyoming, advertised to sail from New York for Liverpool, May 14th, have been secured for the accom-modation of the missionaries who printed circulars, stating the estimated purpose leaving Salt Loke City for Europe, May 7th.

If more than this number of mistionaries are intending to leave for Europe on the above date, it will be necessary to secure berths by tolograph, as the steamers are likely to be crowded with visitors to the Paris Exhibition, berths being engaged for some time beforehand. If the missionaries intending to eave on the date named will inform me before the end of this month of the number of the party, if it should prove to be more than ten, I will telegraph at once and secure the extra berths, if possible.
