WOMAN BADLY HURT.

Mrs. Florence Pettigall of Salt Lake, was seriously injured yesterday while traveling on one of the special race trains over the Bamberger route, by being struck on the forehead by a piece of coal hurled through the car window by some miscreant. The incident happened when the train was nearing Lagoon, but no trace of the person who threw the coal could be found when the train was brought to a stop. Mrs. Pettigall received several severe cuts about the face, and it is feared that she may lose one of her eyes as a result of the injury. She was taken on to Ogden and placed in the Ogden General hospital.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

Judge E. G. Gowan of the juvenile court will address the students at chapel tomorrow.

The senior normals will make an excursion to Ogden tomorrow, visiting the Deaf and Blind school, the state industrial school and Ogden canyon. Prof. Stewart and Principal McKnight will accompany the class.

Prof. Cummings has employed Donald Borgward to restore several valued pottery specimens collected by the professor during his many expeditions in primitive haunts of man. The various pieces will be gathered together and cemented and the restored specimens will then be placed in the archaeological section of the museum, provision for which is ready in the plans for the new building.

Secretary Hartley of the Scribblers' club has written several eastern colleges in regard to the affiliation of the Utah Scribblers with the National club and is hopeful of securing the charter of affiliation at an early date.

F. A. Wadleigh, assistant general passenger agent of the Denver & Rio Grande, came in last night and registered at the Knutsford. At the local office of the road it was stated that his visit to the city had no significance other than, perhaps, he might take an official scout at the newly installed ticket cases, which are a source of almost giddy joy to Col. Benton.

W. O. Wayman of San Francisco is in the city, a guest at the Knutsford. Mayor Brandford is showing him the city today.

Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN YIELDS BIG RETURNS

"I've Been Landed," is the Expression Heard on All Sides Today.

Amount reported yesterday.....$44,650.00
Amount reported today.....7,938.50
Total.....$52,588.50

"I've Been Landed." The statement joyously made by hundreds of Salt Lake citizens who have contributed to the Commercial club's Y. M. C. A. campaign committees who are doing excellent work in raising $150,000 for the institution. The special business men and young men's committees are doing great work and there is to be no let up until the amount needed is raised. And that it will be raised before Jan. 1, 1909, rolls around is the belief of everybody interested in the enterprise.

Not all of the committees reported at today's meeting and Chairman Pat Morrison made the statement that when all the reports were in for today they would show a total of about $7,000 subscribed.

The only special features at today's gathering was the announcement that the Keith-O'Brien company had given $1,000 and that a like amount had been subscribed by Duncan McViehe. The Elks, No. 85, gave $100.

A. ALTREE STABBED.

W. S. Bartlett Uses a Pocketknife on A Bill Collector.

In a quarrel arising from the attempted collection of an alleged debt, Alfred Altree, manager of the Atlas Loan agency, was stabbed twice and severely wounded yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock by W. S. Bartlett. The attack upon Altree was made with a pocketknife, the two wounds inflicted, one in the right arm and the second in the right side. Although serious neither wound, however, is of a fatal nature.

The affair occurred on west Second street, where Altree met Bartlett and made a demand upon him for the payment of a bill. Bartlett refused to pay. A quarrel followed, in which Bartlett struck Altree in the face. Altree promptly knocked Bartlett to the sidewalk and the latter rose and drew out his pocket knife and began the slashing.

Altree was able to make his way to his brother's, Horace, cigar store, 272 south Main street, where a physician was summoned, and the wounded man then removed to his home at 468 east Fifth street.

Bartlett was taken into custody last night and lodged in the city jail.

POISON GOING TO SEATTLE.

F. N. Polson, principal of the Franklin school, was granted two weeks' leave of absence with full pay yesterday in order that he might take charge of the educational exhibit for Utah at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition. The appointment by the commission provides funds only for expenses. The action of the board was taken upon the request of Prof. Byron Cattman and was opposed by A. G. Clague and W. J. Newman.
