NEWS THE GREAT

COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Judge Ritchle has admitted Matt Willman, formerly of Finnland, now of Bingham, to citizenship.

The state board of health has au-thorized the town of Fountain Green to raise the quarantine against diphtheria

Ex-Senator Kearns has been notified of an increase of pension for Samuel H. W. Riter of Logan to $12 per month, from Sept. 20 last.

The Federal building is in receipt of a much needed new flag. It is 61%x13 ft, and was "thrown to the breeze" yesterday afternoon.

There are 192 persons on the Salt Lake postoffice payroll, showing that this office is becoming rapidly one of the important offices of the country.

The Salt Lake stock yards are receiving numerous bunches of fat cattle and mutton sheep for the local slaughterers and packers, for the holiday mar-

John G. Davies of Vernal has filed application with the state engineer for two second feet from the Grand River in Wasatch county, with which to irri-gate 80 acres of land.

A Sunday club is being organized at the Y. M. C. A., to promote the religious work of the association. The import-ant committees will include the social, program, Bible study, and attendance committees.

Local storekeepers have started in to decorate their windows and are mak-ing a fine display already. The ele-vator boys have also "caught the fever," and are showing a praiseworthy artistle taste.

James Murphy, a veteran clothing salesman, just back from Colorado, reports the entire southwestern part of that state under two to five feet of snow, so that there is abundant prom-ise for water in that section of the country.

An amendment to the articles of in-corporation of the Henry Wagener Brewing company of this city has been filed in the county clerk's office by which the capital stock of the company was increased to $200,000, divided into shares of the par value of $10 each.

Captain M. M. Woods, superintendent of the Associated Charities, has 22 peo-ple out listing genuine cases of need in town, which will be relieved by do-
