

property owners themselves are not ret aware of. The house has already been fully decribed, and it now only remains to be said that the brilliant opening night more than justified all the hopes and expectations of its proprietors. It gives one the most "New Yorky" feel-Salt Lake, to sit in the beautiful auditorium, and gaze upon the modern and artistic finish of the inside structure. It is up-to-date and metropolitan beyond a question. Everyone was lost in admiration last night in viewing the quiet elegance which everywhere prevailed, the heavy carpeting which so greatly aids in maintaining silence in seating an audience, the green, white and gold decorations, and the subdued lights, an effect most restful to the eyes, but whether or not one that will he fully appreciated by society, which comes to be seen, as well as to see, the future must determine. The seats, too, are roomy and comfortable, with plenty of knee room in front. The spacious lobby was greatly admired, and as a place of exhibition for handsome tollets, it is bound to be popular in the future, especially to those up stairs who are provided with a fine vantage point in gazing down upon the assembled or departing occupants of the boxes and divans. The new curtain is a forest and stream picture, very effectively ex-ecuted by an eastern artist. The en-

Photo by Harry Shipler.

Another factor in the upbuilding of the Greater Salt Lake, made its enrance yesterday in the opening of the new Colonial theater. The rapid growth and progress of the city have been nowhere more astonishing than on hird South street, where in the eyes f old-timers, business enterprises em almost to spring up in a night, and where the tide of traffic is aleady assuming proportion a year ago undreamed of. Third South has now gained another big business accession in the advent of the Colonial, and how much the location of this beautiful place of amusement will do toward enhancing surrounding values, perhave

PARSONS FILES ANSWER. Husband Says Wife Married Him for His Money.

His Money. In answering the complaint of Jennie B. Parsons, filed two weeks ago, and in which plaintiff asks for separate maintenance from her husband, C. C. Parsons, the defendant makes sensa-tional charges against his wife. The document was filed yesterday afternoon in the district court, and in it defend-

Orpheum—Parons of the Orpheum will be pleased to note that Martin Beck, the general manager, has sent out from New York the following statement. "The Orpheum circuit will play no Salome dancers. "A Salome dancers." "A Salome dance is degrading. It can't be artistic without the original music. It is the music, not the dance. I've seen it properly done, and, pos-sessing the knowledge of what a Sa-lome dance should be, I shall not

Chairman Alex. Buchannan of the Sec ond precinct has named the following non-partisan committee for the precinct some reinfinscences of the two Ader-bach brothers, Fred and Sam, who as young men came to Salt Lake in the sixties, worked, saved, strove and pros-pered, and showed their strong sense by investing their savings in Salt Lake realty. He paid a tribute to the mem-bers of the Auerbach family who had acquired the real estate on which the Colonial stood, and for their enterprise in adding so handsome a structure to the buildings of the city. He wished the new house all suc-

and believed that success would be attained. THE PROGRAM.

The preliminaries being over, the musical program of the evening be-gan. All the interest, of course cen-tered on Madam Nordica, who had a rare reception on her entrance, and who was down for a longer list of individual any her shap her for individual numbers than she has before individual numbers than she has before contributed at any of her Salt Lake appearances.¹ Her songs were sel-ected from German, English, French, and Italian, and included in all 12 numbers, which were increased to 15 by the encors demanded. She made her usual regal appearance: gowned in white silk with a bewildering accompaniment of the glittering, a desstances of artistic renariour in the ballad school. Of the assisting artists not much can be said except that they belong in the grade of performers usually selected to accompany stars, and com-pared with others we have had this season they would twinkle but faintly. Miss Showers, a very youthseason they would twinkle but faintly. Miss Showers, a very youth-ful planist, did some very charming work in her two numbers, and play-ed the Paderewski Minuet as an en-core in beautiful fashion. Madam Nordica's accompanist, another young planist, did careful work. The bari-tone of the evening. Mr. Hastings, is little more than a beginner, and suf-fers- by comparison with other bari-tones recently heard. The Prologue from Pagliacci is growing thread-bare in this city where every bari-tone we have had of late gives it as his first offering. His encore "The Two Grenadlers," would also have been better rendered in English or French: the taste of giving a German rendition of a song so entirely French In sentiment, written with the French Emperor as its theme, and winding up with the French Marsellaise, may faintly.

Emperor as its theme, and winding up with the French Marsellaise, may well be questioned: The house will open regularly for the season at popular prices next week with Murray and Mack as the attraction.

at 467 east Fourth South street.

tional charges against his wife. The document was filed yesterday afternoon in the district court, and in it defend-ant says that his wife married him solely for the purpose of securing his money, and that from the date of the second marriage, Jan. 23, 1901, he has enjoyed but a few weeks of home life. The answer sets forth that the couple first were married Nov. 10, 1880, and that they were divorced in 1893 at San Fran-cisco, the wife suing for divorce, but the husband being awarded the decree on acrount of the desertion of Mrs. Parsons. The second marriage, says Mr, Parsons, was brought about for the sake of the daughter. The answer then avers that Mrs. Parsons and her daughter were in Europe from June, 1901, to July, 1904, and that the trip cost him something like the sum of 335,000. Calling upon his wife at the Brown Palace hotel, Denver, shortiv after her return, Mr. Parsons says, he was subjected to much abuse in the presence of his , daughter. At that time, he alleges, he was paying $16.50 a day for their stay at the hotel, and he was paying his wife $250 a month besides. permit the present rage to invade the Orpheum circuit house."

Grand-Tonight at the Grand th stirring melodramatic play "Why Girls Leave Home" will be presented.

Lyric-The closing performances of this week's bill are now going on at the Lyric and are to be followed by an entire change in Cameraphone effects Saturday afternoon.

The Hartmann Sale-The sale for the Arthur Hartman concert is going on at the Clayton-Daynes Music Store, Mr. Hartman appears at the Methodist church Saturday evening.

Methodist church Saturday evening. Tom Mack, well known in this city as a cartoonist, and who hails from San Francisco, will appear at the Grpheum, Friday afternoon, with Meyer Marcus, a cartoonist from Philadelphia. The two artists have a vaudeville offering styled "Evolution," in which their aim is to evolve any number of entertaining pictures from an initial original. The newspaper-men met in Denver recently for the first time and it was there they de-cided to go before the footlights with an act for which they claim original-ity as its chief merit. besides. Mrs. Parsons in her suit asks for $500 a month separate maintenance, alleging that her husband has an income of at least $1,000 a month. In his answer Mr. Parsons says that to pay to his wife $125 a month and retain $100 for his own expenses would exceed his income, as his investments are not of a dividend-paying character as yet. He makes the cfaim that his wife has made false charges of infidelity against him and that she has endeavored in every way to harrass and annoy him and blacken his character among his friends. He asks for a divorce or the grounds of desertion.

SICK AND HUNGRY.

Young Man Asks to be Locked Up So He Can Get Something to Eat.

A sad case of hunger and destitution A sad case of hunger and destitution was brought to the attention of Patrol-man George Phillips this morning when Walter Kosenske, a laborer 24 years of age, walked up to the policeman, and with tears streaming down lids cheeks, begged the patrolman to lock him up in jall on the charge of yag-ranov. COMPLAINT AGAINST GRAY. Walter Gray is charged with abtain-ing money under false pretenses, in a complaint issued from the office of the county attorney. It is charged that Gray represented to Frank Foro that he had money in bank and passed upon him a check for $5 drawn upon the National Bank of the Repub-ile, when as a matter of the Gray.

"I am sick and hungry," sobbed the

Mrs. R. S. Wells and Mrs. H. G Whitney will entertain tomorrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Whit-ney, in honor of Miss Dessie Grant, whose marriage occurs on Tueyday next. . . .

Mrs. L. W. Snow and Mrs. Loui Hills entertain at a Kensington this afternoon, about 50 being present. The rooms are decorated in chrysanthenums of various shades and the diningroom in fruits, the table having a cloth of Cluny lace, and a large baske of fruit for a centerpiece. There will be two contests in which prizes are to be awarded, a doll dressing and rhyming competition.

Mrs. Walter J. Beatie will entertain the members of her Bible class and a few other guests at her home next Tuesday night.

Mrs. Samuel Newhouse is expected to return today from Europe,

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Walker and daughter Margaret are at home for the winter at 75 C street.

Miss Dessie Grant was guest of honor at a Kensington given yesterday by her sisters, the time being spent in sewing useful household articles for bride-elect. The rooms were decord de-elect. The rooms were decorated chrysanthemums, and musical selections were furnished by Miss Maud Riter and Miss Mary Young. About 30 vere preent. . . .

Mrs. Austin Whitney was hostosa-vesterday at a delightful card-party, the amusement being 500, and about eight tables played. The decorations were in bronze colored chrysanthemums and prizes in the contest were won by Mrs. L. Hughes and Mrs. W. T. Can-brother, was best man. The bridal party was assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patrick, parents of Young sisters yesterday at her home and a most enjoyable time was spent party was assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patrick, parents of the bride, Mrs. M. L. Barnes, mother of the groom; Mrs. S. E. Conray and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patrick. Assisting in the Judice Science Scienc and a most enjoyable thic the guests in old time reminiscences, the guests all bringing old-time pletures, and youthful attempts at poetry, which oc-casioned the liveliest kind of mirth. The in the dining room were the Misses Sloan, Ruth Wilson, Verne Young, Vera Deane, Alibo Dunbar and Jennie decorations were in potted plants.

Mrs. J. D. Spencer entertained the opposition opposition opposition of Never Substitutors

Last night Miss Mande Patrick and Salmer. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes will be at home to their friends after Dec. 1 Last night Miss Mande Fattler and Fred H. Barnes were married, the cere-mony being performed at the bride's home with her father, Robert Patrick, officiating, at 6 o'clock, and a large re-

Mrs. E. F. Holmes and Miss Brans-ford and Miss Shoup were guests of honor yesterday at a delightful lunch-con given by Mrs. Karl Scheid, the ta-ble being in pink with a centerplece of pink carnations and narcissus, while at each end were condles with pink shades and the place-cards were done with the monogram of the hostess in gold. Those to meet the guests of honor were Mrs. officialing, at 6 o'clock, and a large re-ception following at the home of the bride's brother, Robert Patrick, Jr., which was beautifully decorated with a profusion of chrysanthemums, car-nations and paims. The parlor was in white and green with a wedding bell of while carnations, under which the bridal party stood. The library was in the autumn vines. The dining room was in pink, the table having for a cen-terpiece a large basket of carnations. was in plant, the table latting for a cost terpiece a large basket of carnations, set on a cloth of Cluny lace over pink satin, and pink ribbon streamers ex-tending from the chandelier to the four corners, while candles with pink shades were at either end. The bride wore a screet at the cilk multe over taffeta

THE

POSTUM

means Clear Eyes, Good Diges-

"There's a Reason."

HABIT

Rooklidge. gown of white silk mulle over taffeta and carried white roses. Her brides-maid, Miss Carrie Patrick, was in pale slik and her boquet was of pink rosebuds. Carlton Barnes, the groom's Mrs. A. W. Scott gave a children's party yesterday for her little daughter Ruth, the time being spent with games.  and each little guest being presented with a souvenir. About a dozen were present. Mrs. W. R. Hutchinson entertained at luncheon at the Commercial club esterday for Miss Edna Jennings. IF YOU ARE OVER FIFTY READ THIS.

Most people past middle-age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders which Foley's Kidney Remedy would cure. Stop the drain on the vitality and restofe needed strength and vigor. Commence taking Foley's Kidney Rem-edy today. F. J. Hill Drug Co., "The Newson Substitutors tion, Sound Sleep, a Steady Brain equipped for Success,

JUDGE DIEHL'S COURT. KOB In Judg Diehl's court this morning, In Judg Diehl's court this morning, Ben Nielson, the farmer charged in a unique complaint with the crime of battery with a load of hay upon Mrs. E. S. and W. Mont Ferry, entered his plea through his attorney E. A. Rogers. The plea, was not guilty and the case was set for trial on the 24th. Nielson is released on his own recognizance. Frank Howard, the Mexican arrested by Patrolman Phillips for stealing a suit of clothes from Desky's, pleaded not guilty to the charge of burglary in the third degree and the case will

COMPLAINT AGAINST GRAY.

lic, when as a matter of fact Gray had no funds there.

SUES FOR DAMAGES.

non-partisan committee for the predict to assume charge of the campaign for the school election: George G. Smith, Thomas W. Green, M. J. Chesman, E. E. Jenkins, P. S. Condie, Mrs. Fred Price, Mrs. Alice Butterworth, C. H. Caliquist, J. J. Greenewald, G. M. Bridewell, J. W. Ure, I. E. Wiley Hugh Watson and J. T. Schramon. This committee has been asked to meet Saturday evening at S p. m. in the office of Wiley & Wiley to organize. at S p. m. in the Wiley to organize.

SALTAIR BOULEVARD.

This afternoon the directors of the Salt Lake Automobile club are taking an overland tour to Saltair to map out a route for the proposed Saltair boulea route for the proposed Saltair boule-vard. This boulevard has been under discussion for several years, Saturday J. E. Langford met with automobile club directors to discuss the proposed road, and this afternoon a jaunt is the result of plans then made. The most serious problem connected with the boulevard will be to connect it with the Saltair pavilion. At present it is impussible to cross the soft sand dunes near the old lake shore.

ready

UTAH LIGHT & RAILWAY CO.,

133 So. West Temple St

The Royal Baking company has been made defendant in a suit filed in the district court wherein Henry Breuhi asks for $5,275. Of the amount, $275 monogram of the noscess in gold. These to meet the guests of honor were Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett, Mrs. D. Moore Lindssy, Mrs. Arthur Bird, Mrs. W. V. Rice, Mrs. G. P. Holman, Mrs. J. M. Bidwell, Mrs. John Zane and Miss asks for $5,275. Of the amount, $275 is wanted as recompense for money expended for medical treatment for in-juries received by plaintiff while in the employ of defendant, and $5,000 for permanent disability alleged to be the result of an accident suffered by Breuhl. The complaint sets forth that plaintiff fell from a ladder while in the defendant's employ. Aug. 2, 1908, owing to the fact that the ladder spread apart, precipitating him to the floor, and the defendant is sought to be held responsible for not furnish-ing a safe ladder. Miss Rose Howard was hostess at a pretty afternoon tea yesterday, the rooms being decorated in white and yellow chrysanthemums and about 25 yellow chrysanthemums and about 25 friends present.