Original Poetry.

A FEW OF LULU'S THOUGHTS!

What's the great hue and cry!
Does it call for reply?
If so, I would make a remark:
Is the nation asleep,
Or in waters so deep,
That they can't find the way to the Ark?

Lot bravely she floats,
Long she's sent out her boats,
From the dark waves to gather the few,
Who were willing to share
In the work and hard fare
Of her passengers, captain and crew.
For all who embark
In Redemption's fair Ark,
Will find there is plenty to do.

So much so, indeed,
That all hands have need
To be watchful and toil with their might:
And to ask every hour,
For new courage and power,
From the Noble Defender of Right.

For the sea monsters rave,
And would make our dark grave
In the ocean's cold bed if they could:
But our Father and God
Holds the chastening rod,
And will send just enough for our good.

For God is our guide,
He our follies will chide,
And help us our errors to see:
Those who fight in His cause,
And forsake not His laws,
He pronounces eternally free.

Though hell-hounds let loose,
May pour out abuse,
And knavishly seek to devour,
They may vex and annoy,
When the body destroy,
But the spirit defileth their power!

BREVITIES.

A woman in Hudson, N. Y., has been arrested 956 times.

The Boston Post says that pockets are like clouds once again—they have a silver lining.

A lady writer in the Chicago Journal says: "Take my advice, ye young maidens contemplating matrimony! Never marry a man who is impudent to his mother, snubs his sister, helps himself to the largest piece of cake, or takes the under flapjack at table, or beats his horse caressingly in sudden temper."

Saida-Ha, a Persian, has given a magnificent ball at Paris. His lounges were covered with cashmere embroidered with gold, which he gave away to the departing guests. One "lady," not caring for cashmere, took away a Persian carpet. Supper was served under a gilded trellis, bearing ripe grapes, cherries and peaches. The entertainment cost more than $20,000.

Passenger railways are being demanded at last in London, where large meetings have recently been held in their favor. It is proposed to build 120 miles of tramway, and to raise capital amounting to $7,500,000. One of the arguments used is that, during 1867, it required 6,677 horses to convey 39,000 passengers in omnibuses, while in the same year the passenger railways in New York carried 78,000,000 of persons with only 4,880 horses.

As some young men of the village of Walls, Shetland (Scotland), were amusing themselves by firing shots from an old ship cannon on a recent holiday occasion, the gun burst. One of the youth's legs was blown off and carried about 100 yards, where it fairly kicked a bystander, breaking his back. The young man who was kicked died a few hours after the accident. The other will recover.

The walls of Sebastopol have been completely restored, and upward of 300 houses have been built in place of those destroyed by the bombardment. The principal monument in the churchyard is that of Prince Michael Gortschakoff. On it is the following inscription: "Here lie, among warriors, the mortal remains of our country from penetrating to this spot." The tombstones of the men are all alike in shape and size, and each of them bears this inscription, "Graves of our Brothers."

There is a very simple method to clean paint that has become dirty, and if our housewives should adopt it it would save them a great deal of trouble. Provide a plate with some of the best washing that can be had, and have some clean water and a piece of flannel which must be dipped into the water and squeezed nearly dry; then take as much whitening as will adhere to it and apply it to the painted surface when a little rubbing will instantly remove any dirt or grease. After which wash the part well with clean water and rub it dry with a soft cloth. Paint thus cleaned looks as well as when first laid on, without any injury to the most delicate colors. It is far better than using soap and does not require more than half the time and labor.

Prof. Goitz, of Konigsberg, has been experimenting with frogs to discover what part of the nervous centre controls movement. He found that after removing the entire cerebrum carefully, the animal will not jump when touched, but can be made to go through various movements. It has not lost the power of equilibrium, but will change or incline its position to maintain its equilibrium, when the board on which it is placed is tipped. It can be made to croak, as if pleased, by rubbing the wet finger down its back. Prof. Goitz concludes that the power of controlling the voice and the equilibrium is in the spinal cord, and not in the brain.

The Cullom Bill—Remonstrance presented—Cabinet appointments—Legal tender question—McFarland's case—Appointment.

CHICAGO.—The Tribune's Washington special says the anti-polymorphic bill, as reported yesterday by the Senatorial committee, retains all to which the House, in Cullom's motion, agreed, and half a dozen sections added. Officers of the Mormon Church are not only prohibited from solemnizing marriages, but they are made misdemeanors and are punishable by fine and imprisonment. Such marriages are in violation of the terms of this bill and are declared incestuous and void; and all persons aiding or consenting to them are to be punished for misdemeanor. Spiritual marriages, sealing, consecrations, and all other devices whereby men get the services of women, are prohibited, and so-called spiritual wives may sue to recover payment for their labor. Greedy Mormon Remonstrance, adopted at Salt Lake City about a fortnight ago, applicable to this bill and all other anti-Mormon legislation, was today presented.

Gen. Story has brought a bill in the House providing that no appointments to West Point or Annapolis, other than those given by law to the President, shall be made of candidates who have submitted to a competent examination and passed the same. The Secretaries of War and Navy shall not make appointments on the recommendation of members of Congress, except from the list of candidates who have received a favorable report from the examining board. It is evident that there is a state of feeling in the Supreme Court by no means pleasant relative to the legal tender question. Two cases, so far, have been presented which involve other points on which argument will be offered. In any event the Attorney General asks that the legal tender argument may also be made. Chase, Nelson, Clifford and Field hold that the same order or argument of last year precludes this; but the majority overrules them, though Chase may be able to throw any further decision over to next winter.

The Tribune's New York special says the testimony for the defense in the McFarland case will probably close on Tuesday. Greedy, Sinclair and wife and Mrs. Calhoun will be called by the prosecution to prove McFarland's brutality towards his wife before her acquaintance with Richardson. The interest of the trial steadily increases. The papers are selling larger editions than for some time past. Judge Hackett today ruled out the testimony in reference to Richardson on the ground that he was not on trial. It is thought that he may apply this to much of the evidence which the prosecution is ready to offer.

The Times' New York special gives a letter not published by the associated press report from Mrs. Calhoun to Mrs. McFarland, which, it says, created more than ordinary sensation on account of allusion to J. Russell Young. The following is a passage from it: "There are just three persons who are much to me in the flesh—J. R. Y., and you can guess the other two."

The counsel for the prosecution insisted that what the defence read as "J. R. Y." was "you," but the defence insisted that the letter had been microscopically examined. It was "J. R. Y." and meant John Russell Young. The Times' Washington special says General Pope will probably be assigned to the military division of the Pacific in the place of General Thomas.

Semi-weekly Mails from San Francisco—Southern Pacific Mails. WASHINGTON.—The Southern coast steamer will commence carrying semi-weekly mails from San Francisco to San Diego and other points on May first.

Members of Congress from the Gulf met to-night to consider the subject of the Southern Pacific railroad. They agreed to support the charter making the Eastern terminus at Marshall, Texas, with the right of other roads to connect at or west of Marshall, connecting the roads so as to carry freight and passengers under arrangements mutually beneficial. The gauge of the track and connecting lines will be five feet. The Gulf delegation will unanimously support the company which will most likely build a road from Marshall to San Diego. Sheldon, Sherwood, Pierce and Clark were appointed a committee to take charge.

TENNESSEE.

Convention in Honor of Gen. Thomas. NASHVILLE.—A memorial convention in honor of Gen. Thomas met at the capitol this afternoon. Soldiers and ex-soldiers of the Federal army from all parts of the State and citizens and friends of the great chieftain, with large numbers of ladies, were present. The hall was beautifully decorated and life size portraits of the deceased, who has become historical, hung over the speaker's chair. Jno. Trumble read a eulogy. Appropriate resolutions were adopted and speeches were made; there were also various other solemn ceremonies.

Prize Fighters Arrested—New York Roughs and their Depredations.

NEW HAVEN.—A prize fight announced to come off at St. Charles Island, near Melford, Conn., was broken up by the State militia. Kerrigan, one of the principals, was arrested, together with Maloy and Edge, who were to fight in the same ring, and about ninety roughs who are now lodged in jail here. The crowd sacked many houses in Milford and robbed people in the streets. It was one of the most desperate gangs that ever left New York.

CALIFORNIA.

Still burning—Stock declined—Storm—Meeting of Importers—Presented.

SAN FRANCISCO.—The fire is still burning in the north shaft of the Amador mine, and there is a panic among the stockholders. Stock has declined from 370 to 270 per share.

There was a heavy snow and rain storm in the Sierra Nevada mountains, in the State of Nevada, last night, which caused considerable damage. A meeting of importers was held yesterday to discuss the question whether it is necessary for European goods in their transit overland to this city, to be entered at the New York custom house. A committee was appointed to investigate the subject and secure relief, if possible, from duties. The first bar of tin ever made in the United States has been presented to the Society of California Pioneers. It is eight inches long, four wide and two thick, and contains appropriate inscriptions.

OTTAWA.—Detectives from Toronto, with a warrant for the arrest of Scott and Riell, his associate in the murder of Bonlieu Scott, arrived here to-day and placed their warrant in the hands of McMichael, a magistrate, who declined to act without directions from the minister of justice to whom the matter was referred.

SPAIN.

Montpensier trial ended—Prisoner sentenced. MADRID.—The trial of Duke Montpensier for the murder of Prince Henri Bourbon was concluded last evening. The Duke's prompt confession of the deed and his expression of regret therefor, were accepted as extenuating circumstances, and he was sentenced to a month's exile from Madrid and to pay six thousand dollars as an indemnity to the family of Prince Henri.

FRANCE.

Strikes still continue—Rioters' families to be taken charge of by Workmen's Society. PARIS.—The International Society of Workmen will take charge of the families of the men imprisoned for taking part in the riots at La Courneuve. The workmen show no signs of returning to labor. A gang of 800 iron workers went from Chambault to Fortenoy, and on their arrival there, they entered the foundry and put a stop to work, but committed no violence.
