SPEAK GENTLY, MOTHER.

Gently, mother, gently, Chide thy little one, 'Tis a tollsome journey It hath just begun; Many a vale of sorrow, Many a rugged steep Lieth in its pathway-And full oft 'twill weep-Oh! then, gently-gently.

Kindly, mother, kindly, Speak in tender tone; That dear child, remember, Echoes back thine own; Teach in gentle accents, Teach in works of love; Let the softest breezes, Its young heart-strings move; Kindly-mother-kindly.

Would'st thou have the setting Of a gem most fair In a crown of beauty, It were thine to wear? Mother! train with caution That dear little one; Guide, reprove, and ever Let the work be done Gently-mother-kindly.

Cleveland, 3. The President arrived at 8-15 this evening, having had a pleasant trip from Buffalo, with receptions and short speeches all the way. The President's voice grows hoarser and hoarser, and the fatigues of the trip are evidently wearing upon the entire party. It is also noticeable that the further west the President goes, the more coldly he and Seward are received, and the more cheers are bestowed upon Grant and Farragut.

Philadelphia, 3. The Convention was inaugurated with great eclat. Thos. J. Durant, of La., was made temporary Chairman, and the committee on credentials was appointed, consisting of James A. Bell, of Texas, Gen. Harris H. Thomas, of Tenn., W. R. Crane, of La., George K. Gilmer, of Va., Gen R. S. Northrop, of West Va., G. W. Shaw, of Ga., D. H. Bingham, of Ala., R. C. Griffith, of Ky., J. H. Fold, of Miss., Gen. Rogers, of Ark., H. K. Furnas, of N. C., Gen. Dennison, of Md., John Adams, of Del., C. L. Robinson, of Fla., and D. C. Forney, peace on any other foundation. of the District of Columbia.

ization was also appointed, with A. J. Fletcher, of Tenn., Chairman, after mands of the Executive of the United morrow.

The following dispatch was an- [Cheering.] nounced:-

San Francisco, Sept. 1. The Pacific States send cordial con- received with loud cheering. gratulations to your convention. May your deliberations promote the adoption of the only wise plan of reconstruction —that proposed by Congress.

[Signed] F. F. Low, Gov. of Cal., litt, of La., and N. D. Sperry, Secretary. It was agreed to adjourn to a day to be fixed by the executive committee.

Hannibal Hamblin, collector of the port of Boston, tenders his resignation to the President, in a letter dated August 28, which says:-I do not fail to observe the movements and efforts which have been and are now made to organize a party consisting of those engaged in the late rebellion and their allies, who sought to cripple and embarras the government. These classes and persons, with small fractions of others, constitute the party. It is proposed to overthrow the Union Republican party and to restore to power, without guarantees for the future, men who have been disloyal-those who sought to destroy the Government. I gave all the influence I posses to uphold the Republican party during the war, without the aid of which the Government would have been destroyed and the rebellion a success...

With such a party as is inaugurated I have no sympathy, and I therefore tender my resignation, to take effect from the time a successor will be appointed and qualified.

Philadelphia, 4. The convention met at 10. Prayer by Rev. Mattock. The committee on credentials reported the number of delegates present as follows:-Texas, 15; La., 18; Tenn., 61; Virginia, 61; W. Va., 51; Ga., 8; Ala., 4; Ky., 13; Miss., 4; Mo., 30; Ark., 2; N. C., 7; Md., 60; Dist. of Columbia, 27; tolal 392.

The committee on permanent organization reported Ex-Atty. Gen. Speed as President, with a Vice-Pr sident from each state. Mr. Speed, on taking the chair, spoke half an hour in the most eloquent and forcible manner. He said it was the greatest honor of his life to preside over a convention assembled for such a grand work. We are here as representatives of a great truth. The ovation given us yesterday was not so much to us as individuals, as to the great principles upon which we stand. We should remember this in our deliberations. We should be free and outspoken, but calm, dignified and merciful.

He alluded to the conflict through which we had passed, and said that patriot soldiers were now patriotic; they do not want any more war, but they desire peace on a sure foundation-on the foundation of equal rights, equal privileges, and equal security for all men. [Loud cheers.] There can be no such

Chicago, 4. Dispatches from Detroit this a.m. say that Grant and Farragut are in Detroit, having left the President's party in Cleveland. They took steamboat last night and arrived in Detroit this forenoon.

The President made a speech from the balcony of the Kennard House, Cleveland, last night, during the delivery of which a remarkable scene took place. The crowd was evidently largely composed of Radicals, who interrupted the President, hooting and shouting and, in one instance, calling him a traitor. The friends of the President in the crowd replied to numerous hisses with cheers and applause, and when he finished his speech he was saluted with loud and continued plaudits.

The President arrived at Toledo at 2 p.m., and received a respectful welcome.

Berlin, 4. Count Bismark has refused to receive a deputation from North Schleswig, who desired to present a petition for the restoration of their Government to Denmark.

The armistice between Saxony and Prussia has expired by limitation; peace is yet unsettled between those two countries, and hostilities may possibly occur.

The Prussian Chamber of Deputies passed the Government indemnity bill by a large majority.

Montpelier, Vt., 4 The annual election, so far as heard from, shows a large Republican gain.

Chicago, 5. The President arrived at Detroit last evening, where Gen. Grant rejoins the party, which will arrive in Chicago this evening. The President and Seward have spoken at every station along the entire route from Washington, except at Oberlin, Ohio, and the sameness of the President's speeches everywhere confiding the constitution, Union and flag to the keeping of the assembled people, renders the occasion to do so at Oberlin the more noticeable. At several points along the route between Cleveland and Detroit yesterday, there was a marked dissatisfaction that Gen. Grant was not present, and pretty strong murmurs of disapproval of the President.

Gov. Oglesby declines to attend the Chicago celebration, saying, in a speech at Springfield yesterday, that he could not meet and welcome the man who had prostituted a pilgrimage to the tomb of Douglass into a tour for the most selfish and unscrupulous ends. He would never welcome Mr. Johnson to Chicago, Springfield, or any other place in the State.

Gov. Morton also announces that he will not welcome the President at Indianapolis, because the President accepted the invitation of the Democratic State Constitutional Committee, who will make the reception a purely partitria with a breach of the treaty with Bavaria, in making a separate treaty with Prussia.

Berlin, 3. The indemnity bill has been adopted by the deputies by a large majority.

St. Louis, 5. The cemeteries report 700? cholera interments yesterday, against 56 the day before.

Cincinnati, 5. The Democrats and Johnson men nominated G. H. Pendleton for Congress in the first district and Theodore Cook in the second.

The mortality in this city during August was 1,817, of which 1,133 deaths were from Asiatic cholera and 265 from other diseases; one-half were of foreign birth.

Troy, 4 The second annual congress of the Roberts and Sweeny wing of the Fenian Brotherhood convened here yesterday. There were fully 150 delegates present, representing nearly all the States in the Union.

Philadelphia, 5. The convention was called to order, Gen. Speed in the chair. Numerous resolutions were offered in favor of negro suffrage; other resolutions were introduced opposed to interference with the policy of congress.

Mr. Moss offered a resolution instructing the committee on resolutions to provide for conferring suffrage on all citizens, without regard to color, which was referred to the committee. Great excitement prevailed during the debate. London, 5, Berlin. 4 Darmstadt has complied with the demands of Prussia, and will pay the latter 3,000,000, floring, besides ceding to Prussia some of her territory.

Athens, Greece, 5. Hopes are freely expressed, with some prospect of realization, that the pacification of the revolt in Candia will soon be accomplished.

Florence, 5. Prior to the signature to the treaty of peace, Italy will dismiss 120,000 soldiers. Milwaukee, Wis., 5.

The Republicans in the 1st district re-nominated Gen. H. E. Payne for congress today. Resolutions were passed approving his course in the last congress, and expressing sympathy with the loyal southerners now in the convention at Philadelphia and with Ireland and all nations struggling for free-
