

Messdames Mellor, Heber Cutler, A. B. Needham, J. C. Cutler Jr., Charles Solomon, T. G. Wimmer Jr., Misses Weller, Lydia Weller, and Virginia Elmer.

Miss Katherine Johnson entertained at a pleasant evening party on Wednesday night in honor of Miss Kate Farrell. The rooms were prettily decorated with sunflowers and a feature of the evening was a floral guessing game in

NEW SILK AND CHIFFON CAPE.

Shoulder cape with long ends made of light blue louisine silk, embroidered with black velvet dots and silk, entirely edged with accordion plaited chiffon to match, ruffled edges with narrow ruffles of plain chiffon. Black velvet bows on each side of front. Muff made to match.

MISS DEACON COMING.

Gladys Deacon, the American beauty who stole the heart of the German crown prince, is coming to America to make her social debut. She will arrive next winter. She will be the protégée of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont. The Duchess of Marlborough, whose great friend she is, has been warmly singing her praises at Newport.

er party given in honor of Miss Clara Williams, Wednesday evening, by a number of her friends. Games were indulged in and vocal music was rendered during the evening by Miss Alice Dille. Later in the evening delicious refreshments were served. Those present were, Misses, Cellars, Alice Marks, Jennie Bird, Gertrude Williams, Mattie Butler, Gertrude Lidenha, Clara Williams, Alice Barker, Anna Levin, Ethel McEwan, Alice Dille, Nellie and Ella Brester, Messrs. Harmon, Horne, Sones, Cardwell, Geo. Shelleross, Alf Cardwell, Roy Barrett, Axile Miller, Ed. Shay, Walter Art, and Fred Williams.

Miss Anna Russell and Samuel J. Rogers of Bingham were married by Justice Sommer yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the White House.

On Wednesday night Miss Amelia Pinney and Mr. Arthur J. Lowe were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed at 6.30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, by Bishop O. F.

son and Sylvia Poulton, Messrs. Frank Rigby, Jack Horne, Wood Pratt, Sam Lindsay, Rowland Bennion and Sam Pickett, all of Forest Dale, have returned from a most delightful three weeks' outing at Driscoll's park near Kamas, where the time was spent in fishing, hunting and general merry-making.

Miss Jessie Ackerman is the guest of Mrs. Yates, 1925 First street.

On Wednesday night Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newell were hostesses at a musicale at their home, vocal selections being rendered by Mrs. Pinkerton and piano solos by Mrs. A. T. Carr, Mrs. Pinkerton, Mrs. Newell and the Misses Selma and Alice Wall. Delicious refreshments were served later in the evening. The guests were Col. and Mrs. Wall, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood, Dr. and Mrs. Pinkerton, Mr. and Mrs. Higbee and Misses Selma and Alice Wall.

The birthday of Mrs. Joseph Griffiths was fittingly celebrated on Wednesday night last, a host of friends gathering at her home on Seventh South street and spending a most delightful time. Games were played, songs were sung, and refreshments partaken of and all present showered congratulations and good wishes on the lady in whose honor they had gathered.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newell leave very shortly for an extended trip through the Northwest, after which they expect to leave for Europe.

Miss Florence Jennings left Wednesday morning for Wellesley college, where she will attend school the coming year.

Roger Sherman left yesterday for Andover, Mass., to attend school.

Frank Niles leaves early the coming week for Morehead, where he will continue his studies during the coming year.

Max Brown leaves for the University of Michigan on Sunday, where he will take the law course.

Ross Brown left Tuesday for Pottstown, Pa., where he will study the coming year.

Prof. Richard T. Ely of the University of Wisconsin, is at the Fifth East street hotel.

Miss Margaret Ligan has returned from a month's stay in San Francisco.

Mrs. Alfred Bersbach and Miss Bersbach arrive today from Chicago to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don H. Porter.

Mrs. Fred Thorpe of Chicago reached the city yesterday and will visit for some weeks with her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Wedgwood.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong of Park City and her guest, Miss Boyd, will be in town today and will be the guests of Mrs. J. M. Moore.

Mrs. E. Bonnemort is at home with her daughter, Mrs. Dupuy, at 73 H street.

Mrs. Bailey and Miss Edna Bailey will leave very shortly for the east, where they will spend the winter.

Miss Alice Blair of Rowland Hall returned Wednesday evening from the east.

Mrs. Harry G. Twomey will return next week from Portland.

Mrs. Creary and Miss Creary of Fort Douglas will leave the first of next month for an extended trip through California.

The Misses Margaret and Ethel Dooly leave tomorrow night for Washington, D. C.

Judge and Mrs. George W. Bartch have issued invitations for the wedding reception of Miss Bartch and Mr. Child, which will be held on the evening of the 20th.

Miss Jane McKintosh has opened a studio for vocal music in the Constitution block and will be at home to callers there on Wednesday afternoons.

The Misses Weller have gone to Eureka for a few days.

Miss Mercy Berkeley was hostess at a delightful afternoon party in Wednesday, the affair being given in honor of Miss June Bantz. An amusing feature of the event was a contest in which the baby photograph of each guest was placed on inspection and the personally guessed. Miss Margaret Donnellan won first prize and Miss Lulu Hare second. Those present besides the guest of honor were: Misses Margaret Donnellan, Della Richards, Ethel Rogers, Florence Grant, Winnie Lynn, Evelyn Mason, Elizabeth O'Connor, Eva Richardson, Vera Lane, Edna Cullen, Edna Costes, Helena Critzer, Kate Thorpe, Minnie Wingate and Ada Kinney.

A number of the bachelor officers at the Post gave a delightful informal affair on Monday evening. Dancing was enjoyed, after which a chafing dish supper was served at the club.

Mrs. Thomas Kearns will be at home to her friends after Oct. 15.

D. Macpherson Boyd will leave the early part of the week for a pleasure trip east.

Walter B. Townsend will leave next week for Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. McCarthy leave soon for the east.

Mrs. Geo. A. Snow, her daughter Lulu, and son Russell will leave the 20th for New York, to be gone a year.

The invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Florence La Due and Mr. Hugh Ward, on the evening of the 17th at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. R. J. Evans, 325 east Fourth South street.

Miss P. J. Quenly of Kemmerer, Wyo., is visiting Mrs. J. P. Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. Zuber and Miss Clute of Pittsburg, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Patterson of Waterloo, left on Monday for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pratt, Jr., are at home at 67 south Third East street.

Mrs. F. J. Gustin, who has spent the summer visiting friends in Nebraska, returned yesterday from the east.

Miss Elsie Sherman will leave Monday for an extended eastern trip. She will visit Major Hoyt Sherman in Des Moines, spend some days with the Salsburgs in Chicago, and make lengthy visits in Detroit and Buffalo.

Mrs. William F. Adams and son Damon have returned from a trip to the coast.

Miss Maud Reese Davies, soprano soloist at the church in Des Moines, is the guest of Mrs. R. O. Perkins.

Miss Fairfax, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Callit at Fort Douglas, left yesterday for her home in New Orleans.

Miss Margaret Nelson has returned from a stay of seven weeks in California.

Mrs. L. D. Ensign of Ogden, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Hoffman, returned yesterday to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham F. Putnam are at home at 121 Eighth East street.

Mrs. Roberts of Chicago, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. S. W. Sears, will return this week to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Vorse are at home at 330 West Temple street.

Mrs. Shimp of Kansas City, Mo., accompanied by her daughters, Miss Alice and Miss Zona, and son, Mr. Homer Shimp, arrived in the city Sunday morning. They are the guests of Miss Ella Shimp at the Normandy hotel.

Mrs. Roger D. Bowman of Pittsburg is the guest of Mrs. W. D. Rishel.

The Misses Rath and Pharna Cooper have gone to their home in Seattle, after a pleasant visit of two months in this city.

Mrs. W. J. Montgomery has moved from B street, and is at home at 381 Second street.

Miss Anna Fiedner has returned from New York, and will spend a few days with Mrs. Brockman before leaving for her home in Portland.

Mrs. Warren C. Boone and daughters are home from a summer's outing in Detroit.

Mrs. Gattrell and daughter Catherine have returned from California.

Mr. Johnson of Chicago, a brother of Mrs. S. H. Henry, is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Parsons leave this week for a short trip to Oregon.

Mrs. Edgar Bates of Minnesota, who has been visiting friends in the city during the summer, left Saturday for her home.

Miss Gertrude Marvin of Fort Douglas left this week for the east. She will enter Wellesley college.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Maclean and daughter, Miss Allen, left for the east on Wednesday. After visiting the principal cities of the east Miss Maclean will enter school at Monticello, and Dr. and Mrs. Maclean will return to this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Pitt are now at home to their friends at 964 east Third South street.

Mrs. George Savage left during the week for Chicago.

Fera Young is down from Ogden to attend the university during the winter. He will be the guest of Allan Spencer.

Lieut. Peyton, formerly of Fort Douglas, is expected to visit in the city shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. White have moved into their new home on the corner of Ninth East and First South streets.

Miss Cameron Leonard will return from the east shortly.

Mrs. Walter Filer is visiting Mr. Filer's family in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Miner McClure will remain in San Francisco till late in October.

A class of Browning students has been organized and the first lecture in a series of six by Miss Cora McDonald was given on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ferdinand F. Fink.

Miss Helen H. Hahn has returned home after a three months' visit in Topeka and Kansas City.

Mrs. Amanda Swenson and the Misses Swenson are at home at 255 North First West street.

Mrs. C. H. Anderson has gone east.

Mr. and Mrs. David Keith and son have returned from a delightful visit of four weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Eskridge in Seattle.

Mrs. William C. Wallace of Park City is visiting in the city, the guest of Mrs. L. M. Earl.

The Misses Margaret and Ethel Dooly left today for the east. They will enter school shortly, one at a girls' school in Georgetown, and one at Trinity college.

Mrs. Mary M. F. Allen of Park City is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Hancock of this city.

Mrs. Hal Brown has returned from New Jersey, where she has been spending the summer with Mrs. Gill Peyton.

Miss Pearl Van Cott has gone east to enter Wellesley.

Mrs. J. D. Spencer has been spending a few days in Rawlins, Wyo.

Dr. Alec McChrystal has arrived from Philadelphia to remain permanently.

Miss Dot Turner will leave shortly for Idaho, to the north where she will give a series of entertainments.

Mrs. C. B. Eppel has returned to her home in Denver after a pleasant sojourn of a few weeks in this city. She was accompanied by Miss Florence L. Parry who goes to Denver on a short visit.

Miss Atchison has returned from Colorado to spend a few weeks at her work at Gordon academy.

Miss Linda B. Jessup has returned from a two weeks' outing at Brighton's, with her brother and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Gattrell have returned from the Pacific coast.

W. R. Hutchinson has returned from Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards have gone to New York on a visit of several weeks.

Mrs. Jennie Paul has removed to Arizona.

Mrs. A. C. Busch will spend next week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Paxman, at Provo.

Mrs. H. H. Salsburg and daughters of St. Louis are visiting with Mrs. Edward Kessler of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. George Taggart have returned from the Yellowstone, and are at Provo in the interest of the coming annual art exhibit of the Utah institute.

Miss Alice Goodwin will leave tomorrow for New York, where she will enter school.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Rice and Mrs. Southworth have returned from the Yellowstone.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bowman entertained at dinner on Monday in honor of Mrs. J. P. Evans of Denver. The table was prettily decorated with roses and covers were laid for eleven. Present besides the guest of honor were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Judson, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Rood.

Mrs. Evans, who has been visiting with friends in Salt Lake, returned today to her home in Denver.

Mrs. Myrtle Fowler leaves tomorrow

Plateau of white shirred silk, with deep flounce of real Irish point lace, also on top of hat on left back falling in a tab on hair. Back of hat bent down. A number of milk tails trim top of hat, and fall over brim. Cluster velvet cherries on the deep band under brim on left.

for Nashville, Tenn., where she will attend school.

The Misses Holmes will arrive Monday to visit with Col. and Mrs. Holmes.

Miss June Bantz leaves next week for National Park seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Jennings left during the week for Chicago, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Y. L. Pickard and son Frank, who have been spending the past three months at Bear Lake, Ida., will return next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willey have returned to their home.

An interesting event of the week was the wedding of Miss Pearl Cotton and Julian F. Smith, which occurred on Wednesday, the ceremony being performed in the Temple and a reception following at the home of Mrs. J. T. Hodson. The bride and groom are well and popularly known in Salt Lake, and will make their home here.

Among the pretty nuptial events of the week was that of Miss Mabel E. Wallace and Mr. Fred W. Reynolds, which took place on Tuesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wallace. The young couple left later for Cambridge, where they will reside.

Another pretty wedding was that of Miss Ruby L. Wells and Mr. F. G. Morse, the ceremony being performed at 8 o'clock on Thursday at the bride's home by Bishop O. F. Whitney. Mr. and Mrs. Morse left after the event for a short trip, after which they will return to Salt Lake to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Keyes left during the week for an eastern trip.

Mrs. T. J. Almy has gone to California, where she will spend the next two or three weeks visiting with friends.

Miss Agatha Berkhoeft left today for Chicago.

Roger Sherman left during the week to take up his studies at Andover, Mass.

Mrs. P. A. Simpkins has gone for a short visit with relatives and friends in Chicago.

The marriage of Miss Vera Cannon and Mr. Heber Sharp will take place next Tuesday. The ceremony will be performed in the Temple and a large reception will be held in the evening at the bride's home.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Miss Frances Chre of Des Moines, Iowa, and Hiram Day Folson of this city, on Sept. 2. The latter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram D. Folson of Salt Lake, and has been in Philadelphia studying law. His many friends will extend congratulations.

Mrs. Charles C. Shepherd of Chicago is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beatty.

Mrs. W. A. Holman has returned from a 10 days' visit to Park City.

Miss Lottie Rogers of Ames, Ia., is visiting with Mrs. O. C. Beebe.

Mrs. Arthur Critchlow and family have returned from Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Shelp have returned from New York.

Mrs. D. C. McLaughlin and daughter have returned from the Pacific Northwest.

Mrs. A. M. Morrison announces the engagement of her daughter, Henrietta E., to Mr. Chester H. Alkire of State-line. The marriage will take place in December.

PROVO SOCIAL NEWS.

A happy wedding reception was given Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Eliza M. Thurgood of the Second ward in honor of the wedding of Miss Mary E. Pack and Mr. John F. Thurgood, which was solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple, Wednesday. A large number of relatives and friends of the happy couple were in attendance and enjoyed the usual wedding festivities. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. S. Park, and the groom the son of Mrs. Eliza M. Thurgood, and both enjoy the love and esteem of a large circle of friends, who wish them a happy and prosperous future.

The marriage of Miss Mary Marsh and Philip B. Watress was solemnized at St. John's church in Des Moines, Iowa on Wednesday evening last, Sept. 10. Followed by a reception at the Savory hotel on Thursday night, about 50 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Watress are at home to their friends in Des Moines.

Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Nunn are east for a short time.

Mr. Walter Wilding of the Z. C. M. I. Salt Lake, was calling on his many lady friends in Provo on Tuesday last.

Mr. Will Strong and Vilate E. Walsh were married Wednesday at Solpho, Utah, the bride's home. A reception will be given on Provo on Sept. 16, by Mrs. William Strong, followed by a dancing party in the ward meeting house.

Mrs. Bertha Watkins is visiting her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Young in Salt Lake, for a month or so.

Mrs. Jack Alford of Salt Lake and Miss Jean Alford and Mrs. Bell McMan will be the guests of Misses Lueh and Lena Bachman this coming week.

Miss Lena Bachman was a Payson visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Andrew Jensen of Spanish Fork is visiting relatives in Provo.

Dr. J. M. Tanner has been attending to Sunday school matters at the B. Y. academy.

Mrs. Stephen L. Chipman of American Fork has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jacob Evans.

Murray Twelves left Provo Sunday to go to Missouri, where he will attend the state university. Mr. Twelves will make a specialty of electrical engineering.

Miss De Lores Pierce of Salt Lake City spent Sunday with friends in Provo.

Mrs. Eph Bowen visited in Salt Lake during the past week.

Mrs. Rob. B. Irvine entertained a large party of children in honor of her little daughter Lael's seventh birthday.

Misses Nellie and May McBeth have come from Payson to attend the Proctor academy.

Mr. Ed. Aton, brother of Mrs. R. B. Thurman, has returned to his home in Washington, D. C. Mr. Aton has spent a delightful summer with his sister, and has made many new friends, who hope to have him come again soon.

Miss Mary Swenson, sister of Prof. Swenson, the B. Y. academy, has been visiting relatives and friends this week.

Miss Fern Smoot, the youngest daughter of Senator A. O. Smoot, will go to Salt Lake this week to begin a course of study at the University of Utah. Miss Fern is a very worthy young lady and her many friends wish her success.

A very pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Mrs. Louisa McBride Tuesday evening. The victim of the surprise was R. W. Hooper. A very pleasant evening was spent with vocal and instrumental music. Refreshments were served by the young ladies of the party.

Mr. Frank Day of Fillmore has been visiting in Provo for a week.

Miss Lottie Rogers of Ames, Ia., has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. David R. Beebe for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gates will move to New York soon, where Miss Emma Lucy will continue her vocal studies. Mr. Gates' times will be spent in missionary work for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The many friends of Prof. Anthon Lund are pleased to have him in Provo again after an absence of several months spent in Paris, France, where he went to gain additional information along the line of vocal and instrumental music. Prof. Lund will resume his duties as principal of the music department at the B. Y. academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Stewart will leave Provo soon to go to Baltimore, where Mr. Stewart will continue his studies in the School of Physicians and Surgeons. Mrs. Stewart will take a literary course if her health will permit.

Mrs. Charley Ward, assisted by her sisters, the Misses Breerton, entertained at her beautiful cottage on Third South street, Wednesday afternoon, a large party of ladies at a Kensington tea. The rooms were decorated beautifully with daisies and the handiwork of the hostess. Delicious refreshments were served. Several vocal selections were rendered by Miss Eva Ward, John Ward, David John, D. D. Houts, Johnnie Farrer, James Farrer, Jacob Evans, Ed. Knowlton, Fred Tilton, Mark Williams, S. J. Jones, Wilson, Tom Stubbs, Correy Walker, W. J. Ward, Fleming, Glazier, Andy Stewart, Joe Cheever, William H. Lee, Charles Barnes, Edith Beck Martin, Misses Eva Ward, Nora Redfield, Lottie Redfield, Sadie Graham, Addie Schroeder, Elma Armstrong, Hattie Hyde.

The Nineteenth Century club met at the home of the president, Mrs. E. E. Corfman, Friday. The following interesting papers were given: "Geography of Races of Italy," Mrs. Corfman; "A Day in Ancient Rome," Miss Dickinson; "Character and Truth of Early Legends," Miss Kellogg. The club will meet in the future with Mrs. Fanny S. Sutton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Corfman entertained as guests for two days this week