

FRAGMENTS.

MAYOR ARMSTRONG returned home last evening.

R. H. SUTHERLAND is again in limbo for being drunk.

THOMAS HANCOCK is in jail awaiting trial for being drunk and disorderly.

The Home Dramatic Club present "Roseale" in the Theatre to-morrow evening.

The recent storm is reported as having been unusually heavy in Tooele County.

Several departments of Z. C. M. I. will be closed to-morrow—Washington's birthday.

Proscriptions are still being vigorously pushed for the collection of poll tax for 1888.

JOHN DAVIS was fined $10 in the police court this morning for being drunk and disorderly.

The grand concert in the Theatre Wednesday evening will doubtless be largely patronized.

DOUGLAS WHITE, acting manager of the "Zitka" Company, which appears in the Theatre Friday and Saturday evenings, is in the city.

The Utah & Northern train is expected to arrive in Ogden one and a half hours late this evening. The Union Pacific is reported on time.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers' grand ball takes place in the Opera House Friday evening. The Nawa acknowledges the receipt of an invitation.

The name of George Crismon was called in the Third District Court this morning, to plead to an indictment charging unlawful cohabitation, but the gentleman was not present.

The trial of E. P. Davis on the charge of resisting an officer, which was set for Saturday afternoon before Judge Pyper, was postponed till this afternoon.

The Foresters Society of this city gives a grand ball in Emporium Hall this evening. A nice programme has been arranged and the affair promises to be very enjoyable. The Nawa acknowledges the receipt of an invitation.

JOHN BERGREN was brought before Commissioner Critchfield, on Saturday evening, for examination as to being discharged from imprisonment. This was refused, as he owed $400 or $500 worth of property, badly incumbered, and he was sent back to prison.

With the compliments of the management, we are in receipt of an invitation to attend a social and musical entertainment at the residence of Sister Lizzie Folsom, 14th Ward, on Friday evening next; it is for the Free Library and Reading Room Association.

To the Asylum.—To-day sheriff A. J. Burt went to Provo, taking with him Mr. G. Cannon, formerly a resident of the Fifteenth Ward, on third south street, who will be placed in the Territorial Insane Asylum. He was attacked by a fit early this morning, and became so wild and dangerous that he had to be tied down. Morphine was administered to keep him quiet. He is now a raving maniac, and will be cared for at the asylum.

Burglars.—Mr. C. J. Gustavson informs us that on the night of the 18th inst., he was visited by burglars. They entered the premises from the rear by breaking in the back door and ransacked the building from top to bottom. On looking over his effects Mr. Gustavson says he found nothing missing except a five cent piece which had been lying in an unlocked safe for several years. If the burglars do not succeed better than this we may expect to hear that they are out on strike.

On Two Charges.—Ludvig S. Hansen and Andrew Jensen were arraigned before Judge Kane this morning on an indictment charging them with having committed on Feb. 13, 1887, an assault upon Mary Stevens, in Salt Lake County. Mr. Hansen was sworn as interpreter, and explained the accusation to the jury. Mr. Hansen was arraigned by the court to defend the accused, and the statutory time was taken in which to plead.

These same defendants were then arraigned on an indictment charging assault upon Mary Stevens, at the same time and place.

The defendants both asserted their innocence, and were allowed until Thursday morning to enter their plea.

Trebell and Musin.—We copy the following notices of these artists, who appear at the Theatre Wednesday evening:

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

"The great artistic success of the evening was achieved by Musin. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method. He sang all the music with a wonderful voice, but a splendid method."

HE COULD PROMISE.

JUDGE KANE WANTS IT UNDERSTOOD THAT HE WILL NOT ALWAYS SUSPEND SENTENCE.

To-day Albert Dewey, who was formerly a "Mormon," was called in the Third District Court to plead to an indictment charging him with unlawful cohabitation with Mary L. Dewey, Elizabeth Woodcock and Sarah Shearer, from Dec. 2, 1887, to Nov. 30, 1888. The defendant entered a plea of guilty.

The Court asked—Do you wish sentence pronounced now?

Mr. Dewey (surprised)—No; Oh no! I don't want sentence pronounced now.

Mr. Dickson—I think he wants to promise obedience to the law in future. So I understood him.

Mr. Dewey—Yes, sir.

Court—You understand there is a law against polygamy and unlawful cohabitation. Do you intend to obey that law?

Mr. Dewey—I propose to obey the law.

Court—Your intention is to obey the law.

Mr. Dewey—Yes, sir.

Court—You understand what the law is, and intend to obey it in good faith?

Mr. Dewey—Yes, sir.

Court—Well, if people understand the law, and (continue to violate it, I don't want it understood that the Court will continue to hold out the inducement that sentence will be suspended in all cases where promise is made. Let the judgment be suspended.

The Court then repeated its remark that it should not be understood that parties who continue to violate the law until arrested, could have sentence suspended or them by promising obedience to the law, and Mr. Dewey departed from the court room.

W. H. Tovey Convicted.—To-day the trial of Wm. H. Tovey, of the Twelfth Ward, on one count of the indictment charging him with unlawful cohabitation, was held in the Third District Court.

A jury from the odd numbers on the list was called and accepted without examination.

Mrs. Harriet S. Tovey was the first witness. She testified—I am married to the defendant; my youngest child was born Nov. 8, 1886; I live in the Twelfth Ward; my husband lives with me a portion of the time; we were married about eleven years ago; Annie Maria Tovey was married to him before I was; she also lives in the Twelfth Ward.

Miss Eliza Tovey testified—The defendant is my father; Anna M. Tovey is my mother; my father lives with her a portion of the time.

The case was submitted to the jury on the Court's charge, and a verdict of guilty given.

Accident.—On Friday morning Mrs. Karen Marie Jensen, a native of Aarhus, Denmark, who was nursing a lady in the Twenty-first Ward, came out of the house and stepped upon a place of snow near the door. She slipped and fell heavily on her left side severely injuring her hip. There being no one around except the sick lady, Mrs. Jensen started for the nearest house, and had to crawl over half a block in the snow before she could get help. A man who was riding by with a boy in a wagon was called to stop, and looked at her and then went on. At last a lady neighbor, hearing of her call, obtained assistance, and she was carried into a house. From there she was taken to Mrs. Nicola Larsen's residence in the Eleventh Ward. Dr. Pratt was immediately sent for and attended to the injured woman. It is not yet known whether the hip bone was broken or not. The patient, however, has not been able to move her limb since, but the pain is now greatly abated. The lady is now in her sixty-sixth year.

"Zitka."—Having been detained in the snow blockade on the Utah & Northern, the "Zitka" Company were unable to arrive here as early as expected. They will come in time, however, to give two performances—on Friday and Saturday evenings.

The actors of the entertainment the San Francisco Wasp says:

Large and enthusiastic houses have been the rule at the Bush this week. Carleton's drama in the fullest acceptance of the term. The "cause" is not only full of strong situations and clever dramatic surprises, but the company is extraordinarily good. Messrs. Levee, Gorman and Duff all have effective parts, to which they give full justice, while the ladies are, without exception, both talented and attractive, notably Miss Josie Rachel, who takes the title role, and Miss Victoria Reynolds, as the Princess Sabine. The whole piece is put on with extraordinary capacity and accessories, and that it is good for a prospectus run, is sufficiently attested by the enthusiasm of the large audience that have attended since the opening night. Few more genuine enjoyable and interesting plays have been presented to our public than "Zitka."

Suspended Sentence.—Orrin Skolton and Frank Linberg, young boys who reside in Tooele, were arraigned on a charge of disturbing a Methodist meeting by noisy and boisterous conduct. Mr. Moyle, in behalf of the defendants explained the circumstances of the case. It appears that the accused joined a crowd of boys as they were passing. When the offense was committed, those who made the disturbance ran away while the accused remained and was caught and placed under arrest. District Attorney Dickson joined with Mr. Moyle in requesting the Court to suspend sentence, on the ground of good behavior. The Court so ordered.

Pleaded Guilty.—To-day the case of Edward Schoenfeld, indicted for unlawful cohabitation, was called in the Third District Court. He came forward and announced that he desired to change his plea to guilty.

Court—Is it the first time?

Mr. Schoenfeld—Just as you say, your honor.

The first count was then settled on, and judgment will be passed on March 1st.

Joseph Hogan, of Bountiful, changed his plea to guilty on the first count of the indictment charging unlawful cohabitation, and 2 p.m. was named as the hour for sentence.

Stopped by the Storm.—Father Matthew Pickett, an aged veteran of Tooele, was to have appeared in the Third District Court to-day for trial for unlawful cohabitation. He did not put in an appearance. This was not, however, because of any bad faith on the part of the old gentleman. He started from his home in a wagon at an early hour, but owing to the stormy weather and bad roads, was unable to reach here in time to be on hand when his case was called.

The Crismon Case.—This afternoon George Crismon was called in the Third District Court, and arraigned on the second count of an indictment charging him with unlawful cohabitation. He pleaded guilty, and will be sentenced on Monday, March 7th.

Deaths.—At Fernon City, Smoky County, Utah, February 18, 1887, of diphtheria, after an illness of four days, Mary Grace Wisley, born Oct. 2nd, 1880.

Deaths.—At 11:30 p.m., February 19, 1887, at the residence of his son, 124 S. Fifth West Street, William Lewis, aged 84 years. Funeral services at the Fifth Ward Assembly Room to-morrow. Friends are invited to attend.

Deaths.—In the Twelfth Ward of this city, at 3 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 20, 1887, of pneumonia, Thomas A. Infant son of Thomas A. and Susan Williams, aged three weeks. Brother Williams is now on a mission to the Southern States.

The funeral will be held to-morrow (Tuesday) at 11 a.m. at the residence of the grandfather, John L. Williams, in the Twelfth Ward. Friends of the family are invited.

Deaths.—At 11:30 p.m., February 19, 1887, at the residence of his son, 124 S. Fifth West Street, William Lewis, aged 84 years. Funeral services at the Fifth Ward Assembly Room to-morrow. Friends are invited to attend.

Deaths.—In the Twelfth Ward of this city, at 3 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 20, 1887, of pneumonia, Thomas A. Infant son of Thomas A. and Susan Williams, aged three weeks. Brother Williams is now on a mission to the Southern States.

The funeral will be held to-morrow (Tuesday) at 11 a.m. at the residence of the grandfather, John L. Williams, in the Twelfth Ward. Friends of the family are invited.

Deaths.—At 11:30 p.m., February 19, 1887, at the residence of his son, 124 S. Fifth West Street, William Lewis, aged 84 years. Funeral services at the Fifth Ward Assembly Room to-morrow. Friends are invited to attend.

Deaths.—In the Twelfth Ward of this city, at 3 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 20, 1887, of pneumonia, Thomas A. Infant son of Thomas A. and Susan Williams, aged three weeks. Brother Williams is now on a mission to the Southern States.

The funeral will be held to-morrow (Tuesday) at 11 a.m. at the residence of the grandfather, John L. Williams, in the Twelfth Ward. Friends of the family are invited.

Deaths.—At 11:30 p.m., February 19, 1887, at the residence of his son, 124 S. Fifth West Street, William Lewis, aged 84 years. Funeral services at the Fifth Ward Assembly Room to-morrow. Friends are invited to attend.

Deaths.—In the Twelfth Ward of this city, at 3 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 20, 1887, of pneumonia, Thomas A. Infant son of Thomas A. and Susan Williams, aged three weeks. Brother Williams is now on a mission to the Southern States.

The funeral will be held to-morrow (Tuesday) at 11 a.m. at the residence of the grandfather, John L. Williams, in the Twelfth Ward. Friends of the family are invited.

Deaths.—At 11:30 p.m., February 19, 1887, at the residence of his son, 124 S. Fifth West Street, William Lewis, aged 84 years. Funeral services at the Fifth Ward Assembly Room to-morrow. Friends are invited to attend.

Deaths.—In the Twelfth Ward of this city, at 3 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 20, 1887, of pneumonia, Thomas A. Infant son of Thomas A. and Susan Williams, aged three weeks. Brother Williams is now on a mission to the Southern States.

The funeral will be held to-morrow (Tuesday) at 11 a.m. at the residence of the grandfather, John L. Williams, in the Twelfth Ward. Friends of the family are invited.

SQUARELY MET.

THE "MORMONS" WHO DECLINE TO VIOLENT CONSCIENCE.

This afternoon was the time set for the sentence of nine Latter-day Saints, who were convicted under the Edmunds law of living with their wives. The Third District Court room was crowded at 2 p.m., a large number of excursionists, who had stopped over in Salt Lake on their way to California, being among the spectators. The first one called to receive sentence was Brother of the Seventh Ward, of this city. The Court asked him, "Have you any thing to say why sentence should not be pronounced on you?"

WM. H. FOSTER.

Mr. Foster—No, sir.

Court—Have you no assurance to give that you will obey the law in the future?

Mr. Foster—No, sir.

The Court then sentenced him to the full penalty of the law, six months' imprisonment and a fine of $300 and costs.

BEDSON BARLEY.

also a resident of the Seventh Ward, came next. The same questions were asked by the Court as in the case of Mr. Foster, the same answers given, and a similar penalty imposed.

WM. H. WATSON.

of Farmington, was the next in order. Same questions, same answers and same penalty.

KERA T. CLARK.

of Farmington, was then called. He replied to the interrogations of the Court, "I have no promises to make."

The full penalty was inflicted on him.

PETER BARKDALE.

of Farmington, came next and informed the Court that he had no assurance to give as to his future conduct, and the full penalty was imposed.

HERMANN GROETHE.

of the Twelfth Ward, was next called. The same questions were put as in the preceding case, same answers given, and same penalty.

JOHN ADAMS.

of Centerville, received similar treatment.

JOSEPH HOGAN.

of Bountiful, followed in the same path.

JOSEPH BLUNT.

of the Twenty-first Ward, was not in when his name was first called, but arrived shortly after, and having no promise to make, he received the extreme sentence.

All of these brethren were placed in the penitentiary this afternoon, to suffer imprisonment for conscience sake.

"Roseale."—This fine sensational drama is the one in which our local dramatic company first placed itself prominently before the public, having previously given promise of what was to follow. If not the best, it is certainly one of the best things in their repertoire, and that a crowded house will greet its re-production to-morrow evening there can be no doubt.

Released.—William Jeffs, of the 16th Ward, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for fifteen months, for cohabitation, under a four-count indictment, was released to-day. William W. Galbraith, sentenced to imprisonment for six months, was also released. Both paid their fines, the former $150 and the latter $300 and costs.

The News will not be published to-morrow.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CELLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

Shoshone county, Idaho, is in debt $150,000.

The mercury has not been below zero at Boise City, Idaho, in two years.

Cattle are in fine condition in New Mexico and the recent warm rains have put the ground in splendid condition for farmers. An early spring is looked for.

Wyoming ranges generally are reported short, and the cattle dying off to a considerable extent. Large companies suffer most.

A bear was found on Lower Rock Creek, near Darlee's mill, Deer Lodge County, Montana, with his tongue stuck in a monkey wrench.

Croft's, manager of the Bagdad colony, is building a bridge across the Big Sandy (in Wyoming) some miles above the junction of that stream with Green River.

An Albuquerque, N. M., dispatch of February 10, says: An investigation of the sheriff's books of this county since the sheriff has been in office has developed an astounding amount of peculation by ex-Deputy Sheriff Austin Reynolds, now in Denver, but possibly in Canada. The amount of the defalcation is thought to reach $25,000. Reynolds has promised to make all good. Austin's plan was to pocket taxes, in numerous cases give receipts, and return the papers as delinquent.

The Montana Union train got in to Butte, Montana, all right on Friday, minutes before a few minutes past midnight. The Utah & Northern train also came in not much behind. A snow storm is reported at Montana, which probably the tail end of the Colorado blizzard.

The Court filled up again at Monday, but it will not delay trains much. Superintendent Blickensderfer is on the ground with a large force of shovellers clearing the snow-fangled snow. He has been at Montana now for four or five days, doing his utmost to keep the track clear.

A Nogales, Arizona, dispatch of February 12th, says: William Owens, a prominent citizen and ranchman near this city, accidentally shot himself last evening in the right leg. Before medical aid could be secured blood poisoning set in, and little hope of his recovery is entertained. Mr. Owens is a kind and brave fellow, who was cruelly butchered last summer by the Apache Indians at the time the Peck family were massacred.

The Los Angeles (Cal.) Tribune of a recent date claims to have received private advices to the effect that President Cleveland designs visiting the Pacific slope at an early date. It claims that his wife will accompany him and that they will make Los Angeles their first stopping place, whence they purpose passing through the State of California to Oregon and Washington, and returning East over the Northern Pacific.

"Two fangs or nothing," said the lawyer, "Ah! nothing suits me better; good day; much obliged," he replied to the surprise of the lawyer.

DEATHS.

WAGLETT.—At Fernon City, Smoky County, Utah, February 18, 1887, of diphtheria, after an illness of four days, Mary Grace Wisley, born Oct. 2nd, 1880.

Deaths.—At 11:30 p.m., February 19, 1887, at the residence of his son, 124 S. Fifth West Street, William Lewis, aged 84 years. Funeral services at the Fifth Ward Assembly Room to-morrow. Friends are invited to attend.

Deaths.—In the Twelfth Ward of this city, at 3 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 20, 1887, of pneumonia, Thomas A. Infant son of Thomas A. and Susan Williams, aged three weeks. Brother Williams is now on a mission to the Southern States.

The funeral will be held to-morrow (Tuesday) at 11 a.m. at the residence of the grandfather, John L. Williams, in the Twelfth Ward. Friends of the family are invited.

Deaths.—At 11:30 p.m., February 19, 1887, at the residence of his son, 124 S. Fifth West Street, William Lewis, aged 84 years. Funeral services at the Fifth Ward Assembly Room to-morrow. Friends are invited to attend.

Deaths.—In the Twelfth Ward of this city, at 3 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 20, 1887, of pneumonia, Thomas A. Infant son of Thomas A. and Susan Williams, aged three weeks. Brother Williams is now on a mission to the Southern States.

The funeral will be held to-morrow (Tuesday) at 11 a.m. at the residence of the grandfather, John L. Williams, in the Twelfth Ward. Friends of the family are invited.

Deaths.—At 11:30 p.m., February 19, 1887, at the residence of his son, 124 S. Fifth West Street, William Lewis, aged 84 years. Funeral services at the Fifth Ward Assembly Room to-morrow. Friends are invited to attend.

COHN BROS. DIRECT ATTENTION TO THEIR regular advertisement, announcing a special bargain sale for next Wednesday and Thursday.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!!

300 Remnants Wool Dress Goods. Must be closed out at once. Call and examine them.

THE WALKER BROS. CO.

LOOK AT THE PRICES!

Men's Suits, Button, Lace or Congress Shoes, at $2.25 and $3.75. All solid leather. Our Ladies' Gowns and Kid Buttons, at $2.00 per pair, all sizes.

THE WALKER BROS. CO.

Parry's Monthly Magazine.

Best Literary Journal of the West. Only $1.50 per annum, postpaid. Try it a Year. Jos. Hyrum Parry & Co. Publishers.

J. S. KEYSON, DENTIST.

Tooth extracted without pain. Best Teeth $12.00. Extracting free. All work warranted.

222 Office in Herald Building.

THE PARTNERSHIP.

Between Drs. Richards and Bower is dissolved. Dr. Richards' office is removed to the rooms recently occupied by the Territorial Auditor, in the Hooper and Eldridge Block.

FOR SALE.

Or Exchange for city property, five, ten, twenty or thirty acres of good land close to town. Pleasant residence or suitable for dairy. For particulars enquire at 267 East Temple Street.

<