

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

Parties afflicted with any form of disease might do themselves an immense kindness by consulting the advertisement in today's News, of Dr. H. H. Wadman, who is peculiarly skilled in the treatment of many of the maladies which flesh is heir to. If you have tried and failed elsewhere, do not despair, for Dr. Wadman has cured many cases that had been given up by other physicians. And another thing that can be said in his favor is that his charges are such as to render him peculiarly the poor man's doctor.

ICE! ICE! Get your ICE from E. M. Caste, Plum St., East of Commercial St. Free Delivery.

If you will read the new advertisement of the Workingmen's Co-operative establishment, you will find that there are sold handsome, serviceable and cheap boots and shoes, home-made and imported, and there your old boots and shoes can be repaired in workmanlike manner and made equal, if not superior, to new. Leather, findings, and kit for boot and shoe makers are on sale at moderate prices.

The Oats Comic Opera Troupe make their last appearance this evening at the Theatre in Offenbach's amusing play of "Les Bavardeuses," "The Chatterboxes."

The Elmwood and Warwick colliers are made differently from any other. The edges are all folded, and the surface is an exact imitation of linen.

Read the advertisement of Montgomery Queen's Circus and Menagerie, which is to appear in this city on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and at Ogden on Thursday next.

The Grand Opera will be presented at the Theatre by seventy competent artists from New York next week. Read the advt.

CHAMBER'S ENCYCLOPEDIA.—Messrs. J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia, announce that, by a recent purchase, they have become the sole proprietors of the American Revised Edition of "Chamber's Encyclopedia," and are thereby enabled to offer the work at much lower rates than hitherto.

In the course of its recent thorough revision, the American edition was edited with the special view of supplying the wants of American readers. It also possesses a special attraction in containing a series of over seventy-five full-page engravings not contained in any other edition.

IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.—It is the duty of all persons starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more routes leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and most pleasant to travel.

We take pleasure in stating that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road bed has been put in admirable condition and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kansas City and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets by the Old Pioneer Route.

The Chicago and North-Western. You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Morrison, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb., or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago.

ALL kinds of fancy and mixed drinks at the Old City Liquor Store. Sangio does the mixing.

PRICE OF GOLD. Corrected daily by United States Bank. SALT LAKE CITY, June 19, 1875.

Buying at $1.15; selling at $1.17.

EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, June 19, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 84 degrees F.

in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine.

Train Late.—The U. P. train is four hours late to-day.

Received.—Circular of the Academic Department of the University of Deseret, with supplement for 1875-6.

Getting Warm Again.—The mercury goes up and the weather grows warmer to-day.

Trip to Provo.—Yesterday, Senator Kelley, of Oregon, accompanied by President D. H. Wells, Hon. Geo. C. Cannon, Governor Axell and others, went to Provo and back, on the Utah Southern Railroad.

Montgomery Queen's Circus and Menagerie.—This popular establishment will open for the delectation of the public in this city on Monday next, and remain on Tuesday and Wednesday, also opening at Ogden on Thursday. The circus will give two performances daily, at two and eight p.m., the doors opening an hour earlier. Read the advertisement and the descriptive article elsewhere.

Change in Utah Western.—On and after Monday next, a special train on the Utah Western Railroad will leave Salt Lake City, for passengers only, on Wednesdays and Sundays at one p.m., connecting with the steamship Gen. Garfield for a three hours' sail on the Lake, returning to this city by the eight o'clock train. The notice came too late for insertion in the regular advt. to-day.

The Ogden Freeman.—The first number of the Ogden Freeman, for June 19, is before us. Editor A. V. Freeman, local; and H. M. Bond, manager of the machine department, has come to hand. The Freeman has a neat and new appearance, and is published semi-weekly. The present number contains a page descriptive of Ogden.

The Supreme Court Decision.—It will be seen, by the opinion published in another column, that the Supreme Court have unanimously set aside the verdict and quashed the indictment in the case of George Reynolds, who was convicted of polygamy in the Third District Court a number of weeks ago, and sentenced to a fine of $300 and one year's imprisonment at hard labor. The decision was given this morning.

Term Closed.—The Spring term of the present academic year of the University of Deseret closed yesterday, when the regular examination was held.

After the exercises had closed, the pupils presented Dr. Park and Professors Bishop and Rowlings respectively with elegantly bound volumes of the works of Byron, Burns, and Moore.

The library will be closed during the vacation. The next term will commence on Monday, August 23rd.

Bad Runaway.—Shortly after four o'clock yesterday afternoon a team, belonging to a man named Coes, attached to a wagon in which was a young man and woman, took a notion to start on a first class runaway, up East Temple Street. The rig was brought to a sudden stop by one of the animals dashing in full force against a shade tree, directly in front of this office. The horse of one of our paper carriers happened to be tied to the same tree, and the collision caused him to tumble a back somersault, the effect of which was to burst the middle in two, while the animal itself escaped unhurt. The poor beast that ran against the tree lay on the ground and groaned for some time, and it was thought to be badly injured, but after a while it revived. The driver, in the wagon, and a driver named Coes, managed to escape without injury.

Drugged and Killed.—This morning William Bean and Albert Foster, the latter a hack driver, were arrested and taken before Justice Fryer, on a charge of drugging and robbing Randolph Schibler, yesterday. Schibler swears that he went to the Warm Springs, yesterday, in Foster's hack, and on the way back the two gave him something to drink out of a bottle, which suddenly rendered him almost lifeless, and that, while he was in that condition they robbed him of what money he had on him, amounting to $24, after which they took him to the White House. The stuff which he alleges was given to him by the accused made him very ill for some time.

Foster and Bean pleaded not guilty to the charge, and two o'clock was the time set for the commencement of the preliminary examination, the parties being in the meantime committed to jail in default of finding $1,000 bonds.

How to Do It.—If you want to have the pleasantest kind of Summer weather, all you have to do is to confine the top of the mystery between 60 and 70 degrees F.

Wanted.—To know the whereabouts of Ruth Watts, who emigrated from the Swansea Branch four years ago. When last heard from she lived in the 10th Ward, Salt Lake City. Address—Moroni Watts, care of Mrs. Watson, Commercial Street, Newport, Mon.—Millennial Star.

That Murder Case.—Philip Shafey, who was under sentence of death, for the murder of Peter Van Valkenburg, will not be hanged next week. The case, being on appeal from the District Court, which refused a motion for a new trial, a decision was rendered in its favor, by the Supreme Court this morning, the points made by his attorney, John H. McCutchen, being well taken. A new indictment will have to be found and the case tried over again.

Musical.—The Handel and Haydn Musical Association, encouraged by their success with the "Oratorio of the Messiah," are making arrangements to commence practice for another concert, when they propose regaling the lovers of the "divine art" with another celebrated composition of the same high order.

The Association lately made some changes in the organization and appointed a new executive committee.

The Provo Excursion.—The 13th Ward Sunday school and their friends had a very pleasant excursion to Provo yesterday and were treated in the most courteous manner, being met on their arrival by a committee of the following gentlemen: David Johns, Albert Jones and S. S. Jones, Esqrs., with the Provo brass band, who accompanied the excursion to the hotel, where the meeting house, which was handsomely prepared for their reception. Those who desired to see the Woolen Factory then enjoyed the privilege, under the guidance of Supt. James Dunn, the committee having previously obtained the sanction of Dr. A. O. Smoot.

Theatre.—Mrs. Oates must have been highly gratified with the house last night at her benefit, for it was an uncommonly full one. The play, "Gloria Gracia," is not a short one, and there is a large amount of business and considerable able acting in the piece. Mrs. Oates, as the heroine, and especially in the broader and more rollicking scenes, created a large amount of mirth. Miss Larkelle, musically and dramatically, improves with acquaintance, a sure test of true merit, notwithstanding that she is common with Mrs. Oates, has the peculiarity of very rapid utterance in the spoken passages. Mr. Howson was exceedingly funny as the henpecked grandee husband, and Messrs. Drew and Allen were exceedingly effective in their several parts. Some of the songs, duets, choruses, etc., were admirably given and drew forth applause and accolades. As a whole, however, these opens by Leocoe, to our mind, are not so lightly funny as those by Offenbach, and there seems something more pronounced and distinctive in the music of the latter, appealing more pleasantly to the general ear.

This evening the company make their last appearance here in Offenbach's highly amusing opera of "The Chatterbox," Mrs. Oates as "Roland," a cheery and impetuous adventurer, a character she will undoubtedly illustrate admirably. Miss Larkelle as "Fanny," Miss Morris as "Flancon," Miss Allen as "Pascal," Miss White as "Lopez," Mr. Howson as "Sarmiento," Mr. Allen as "Don Chrysothol," Mr. Jones as "Terriblo," Mr. Woodfield as "Beatrice, the Chattering Wife."

A Politician Seized.—The Beaver Enterprise of the 15th inst tells of a renegade that took place in that city the day before, between a son of Mr. John D. Lee and a fellow named Royal, who seems to have earned the scorn and contempt of all decent people in that locality by his continued displays of meanness and poltroonery. This pitiable specimen of human kind was formerly employed as guard over John D. Lee's, and had frequently shown his utter lack of all that was generous or magnanimous by insulting his prisoner, who, being in irons, could only manifest his resentment by words. Royal was finally removed on account of his insults to Lee, and since then he has occupied himself occasionally in vilifying the characters of various citizens of Beaver, among others that of Mrs. Rachel Lee. This coming to the ears of that lady's son, he, also knowing of the insults his father had received from the same party, placed himself in the same party, and as soon as he found him, held him sprawling in the dust with a blow from his fist. The miserable cur yelled for help, but no friendly hand was near, and as soon as he regained his feet he ran.

as fast as possible out of the reach of the man whose parents he had assailed in such a cowardly manner.

Utah Western.—A very neat and convenient ticket office has just been put up at Muirbrook's, and other arrangements are being perfected looking to the location of a station at that point. Muirbrook's is the present terminus of the road and the point of junction with the stages for Ophir and the south-west. It is an inviting place to breakfast on the way out from Salt Lake; and will now be the dining station for eastward bound passengers. The new arrangement will prove a convenience to the passenger traffic on this road.

Accident.—To-day, as the cortege which followed the remains of brother Joseph Sellers to their last resting place, was nearing the cemetery a light wagon belonging to Brigham Sellers went suddenly into a "chuck" hole, the jar breaking and tipping a seat. Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. Norris, of the 15th Ward, and Mrs. Culmer, of the 20th Ward, who were sitting upon it, were thrown out upon the ground. Mrs. Cameron was rather severely hurt in the back and shoulders, the other two were injured in the breast, and all three were badly shaken by the fall. They were placed in a carriage and at once conveyed to their homes.
