

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must in every instance accompany their communications, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—The Concert having had to be postponed, that there may be no disappointment to those seeking an evening's entertainment, Madame Scheller has kindly consented to appear in her great impersonation of Pauline in "The Lady of Lyons," and Mr. Margetta will sustain the character of Duetto in "The Spectre Bridegroom." Both the play and the farce are excellent and the characters are well distributed. We will be pleased to see a good house.

NOT GOOD MANNERS.—We notice a custom growing in our Theatre which claims correction, for it is in bad taste and does not display good manners. We allude to the practice of turning opera glasses on the audience, and staring through them at the people in all parts of the house. Field glasses, too, are sometimes brought into requisition; and it must be highly flattering to a lady or gentleman, to have their faces drawn within a few inches of the stater's nose, through the medium of the powerful lenses of a field glass! We have been in places where such a practice was indulged in, but it was confined to a class of people to whom those who do so here would deem it an insult of the deepest character to be compared. And we have little doubt but it is thoughtlessness on the part of the greater portion here who use opera glasses in such a manner. If people come here and bring with them such reprehensible customs, we trust that instead of any spring such things they will be frowned down.

POSTPONEMENT.—Owing to a severe indisposition under which Madame Parepa Rosa is laboring, the concert that was to have been given to-night, is postponed till Saturday evening. Tickets purchased for to-night will be good for that occasion. As will be seen in another part of this column there will be a theatrical performance to-night.

GOT OVER.—The financial panic of last week in New York, was not of long duration, for the price of gold there to-day is 130½, which is not much like a panic rate.

LOST. yesterday evening, between this office and President Young's office, a shawl. The finder will oblige by leaving it at this office. It is the property of a woman who can ill spare it.

INFORMATION WANTED.—H. L. HEMBROUGH, of Greenfield, Green county, Illinois, inquires for Mrs. NELSON RUSSELL and her daughter; and would like to know what time Nelson Russell and Mrs. Maria Russell were married, also the name and age of their daughter. Mr. Hembrough says he has something of advantage to communicate to them.

SENSATIONAL.—The way sensations are produced on the stage is often a mystery to the audience. The following, clipped from an exchange, will give an idea on the subject, which the curious may elaborate to their satisfaction:

"A locomotive and full sized train is the latest novelty introduced into an English theatre. A London paper says that it is not generally understood how the all-alive full sized train passes along the stage in the new sensational scene. The other night at the Surrey Theatre, the audience was enlightened. The engine met with an obstruction in the middle of the stage, stopped dead; and the following carriages and tender rushed on with the momentum, and shot one after the other into the engine, and closed up like a telescope. It was very effective, and as a railway accident, was quite as remarkable as the running-over business.

IDENTIFIED.—We understand that the man whose body was exposed yesterday at the City Hall, was identified as a person named McGarry who had been working on the railroad east, on the contract of Messrs. Nounan & Co. No clue has been found to the perpetrator or perpetrators of the crime.

HANGING.—The following has been received by W. U. Telegraph Line:

Bear River City via Gilmer, 11th. Three men were taken out of jail at this place last night and hung; their names are Jimmy Powers, of Denver, (not the clog dancer), Jimmy Reed, (not the prize fighter), and Jack O'Neil. They were found suspended over the jail. All three were arrested for garroting. They also had a notice attached to their breasts giving the balance ten hours to leave and if found after that time they would meet the same fate.

ALL GONE.—A communication reached us a couple of days ago, asking for some of the Tappanhook wheat, which it had been previously announced, had been received at the Historian's Office from the Agricultural Department. We have been informed by Bro. R. L. Campbell that it is already distributed; but that some of the brethren in Southern Utah planted it last season, and may have some to spare.

ROUGH.—Among a great many strangers now in town there are a few "roughs," with a prospect of their number increasing. Nothing but the fact that law and order reign here keeps some of them in anything like proper bounds; and if those whose duty it is to preserve peace, enforce order and have the law respected, were to relax their vigilance, there is little doubt but these individuals would, in a very short time, show their true character much plainer than it is now seen. We would recommend our citizens to bear these facts in mind; and to keep themselves prepared to protect their persons and property, should midnight prowlers visit their places, or attack them in quiet and lonely situations.

Died:

In this city, Nov. 9th, of fever, Helen Ann daughter of Charles and Jane Livingston, aged 5 years and 1 month.
