Jesse William Knight Explains Position on Local Matters and G. F. Williams on National.

PROVO WOMEN'S QUARTET.

It Participates in Ovation at Kennedy Hall Rally to Open National Campaign in Utah.

From George Fred Williams and Jesse William Knight, a large audience last night listened to a discussion of both the national and the state campaigns, at a large rally in Kennedy's hall.

Mr. Williams, who comes from Massachusetts, distributed his zone of fire over Bryan, Taft, and Beveridge, with a few side shafts at Roosevelt. An appeal to the audience for any man to stand up and say that he knew of anything against the personal integrity and character of William Jennings Bryan, failing to draw a response, resulted in a storm of applause, which proved to be the evening's climax.

Besides the speechmaking, a delightful feature of the evening was the appearance of a quartet of beautiful maidens from Provo, composed of Misses Laila Jones, Elo Jones, Leone Worsley and Madeline Doshard. Their singing of campaign songs was greeted with applause, and each mention of Bryan or Knight was received with cheers.

KNIGHT STATES ISSUES.

Mr. Williams commenced his speech at a little after 8 p. m., and continued it for over an hour. Mr. Sten A. King, state chairman, called the meeting to order, and introduced B. H. Roberts as chairman for the evening. Mr. Roberts spoke briefly, and then introduced "Cousin Jesse" Knight.

"This is a novel experience for me," began Mr. Knight, after the vociferous applause had subsided. "It is the first time I have ever received the applause of men and women. I am not used to it, and although I appreciate it, I want to say that it is not for the sake of that applause that I am here. I am here as a candidate for governor. I am a Democrat, because I believe in the principles of Democracy, and because I believe that the victory of Democracy in Utah is the only way to end the strife and the turmoil which is destroying the peace of the people of Utah."

"I am asking for your votes at this election, not because I am a politician, but rather because I am not a politician."

Mr. Knight then reviewed the enterprises in which his father and himself have been associated, contrasted the building of the smelter in the hard times, with the work of others who had bought papers to slander Utah and picture it as the blackest spot on the map, and then took up the matter of the recent statement by President Smith at the October conference.

In closing after several witty sallies that were greeted with applause, Mr. Knight spoke in praise of William Jennings Bryan and he was cheered to an echo. The quartet then appeared, after being introduced as "four of the most beautiful maidens in the division of the chair, whose announcement brought vociferous endorsement upon the appearance of the singers."

Mr. Williams was then introduced. He spoke in praise of William Jennings Bryan and he was cheered to an echo. The quartet then appeared, after being introduced as "four of the most beautiful maidens in the division of the chair, whose announcement brought vociferous endorsement upon the appearance of the singers."

Mr. Williams was then introduced. He spoke in praise of William Jennings Bryan and he was cheered to an echo. The quartet then appeared, after being introduced as "four of the most beautiful maidens in the division of the chair, whose announcement brought vociferous endorsement upon the appearance of the singers."

Mr. Beveridge then was brought upon the scene for a grilling, and a number of things were advanced as things "Roosevelt has done which Bryan would not do."

Mr. Beveridge was declared to have said that the people had driven out the unprogressive members from their party, and that all progressive Democrats were now riding horseback into its ranks. "Perhaps," concluded the speaker from this remark, "that is why Mr. Beveridge's own state, Indiana, is conceded to be Democratic."

The speaker then took up the civil service law, charging the Republicans with electing their candidates through a powerful federal machine, and urged Washington's sentiment in favor of not more than two terms.

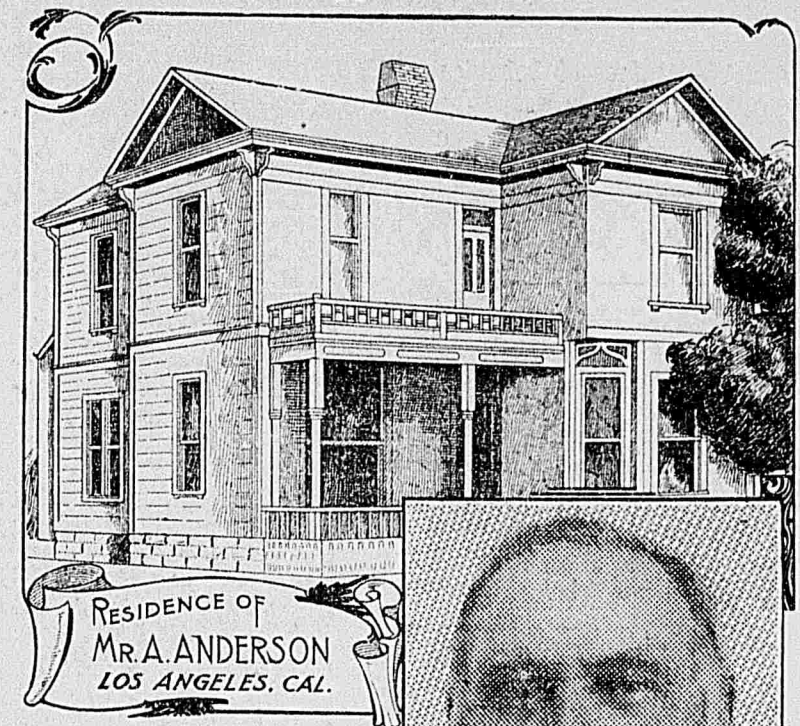

Mr. Williams then took up the matter of publicity in campaign matters, declared for revision of the banking laws, and reviewed Taft's administration activities, urging that he was "the greatest piece of knavery in the country."

After the rally an informal reception was held which continued for some time. Earlier in the day Mr. Williams had appeared at Springville and Spanish Fork, and today he left for the east.

Daily Trips to Emigration Canyon. Two cars daily will be run to the head of the canyon, 9:15 a. m. and 2:15 p. m. Special excursions on Sundays.

MOST REMARKABLE RECOVERY.

Recommended By A Brother Who Tried Peruna, Mr. Anderson, Of California, Was Rescued From a Seemingly Fatal Illness.

"Peruna certainly saved me from an untimely grave."

MR. ANDREW ANDERSON, 1319 E. 10th street, Los Angeles, Cal., writes:

"No one seeing me to-day would think that I was at death's door a few years ago with pulmonary troubles. I had frequent bleeding from the lungs, my stomach was out of order, and when I came here for my health no one thought I would recover."

"My brother in the East had been cured of a very hard cold on the lungs by using Peruna and he wrote me and advised me to try it. I had little faith, but thought I would give it a trial."

"Noticed a change in my appetite the very first week, and found that I soon began to sleep well. Gradually I began to feel better and took on flesh. Recovery was slow for I was so far gone, but after seven months steady use of Peruna I was my old self once more."

"I now weigh 175 pounds, am in fine health and spirit and have been a well man for two years, thanks to Peruna. It certainly saved me from an untimely grave."

Tonic and for Colds.

Hon. D. J. Irvin, Mayor of Washington, Ga., writes that he has frequently used Peruna in his family, and has found it excellent for colds and as a tonic.

Peruna in Tablet Form.

Some people prefer to take tablets, rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Hayward announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean, and Henry R. E. Wessman, the marriage to take place in November.

Miss Jean Odell is guest of honor this afternoon at an informal bridge party given by Mrs. J. E. Grant, the decorations being in autumn leaves, and three tables played. The hostess is assisted by Mrs. W. H. Hunt.

Mrs. Allen H. Blake is hostess this afternoon at a 500 party, given in honor of her mother, Mrs. Toussaint of Denver, who is visiting her. The rooms are decorated in white carnations, potted plants and palms, and about six tables played. The hostess is assisted by Mrs. C. I. Thatcher and Miss Ethel Mount.

Mrs. J. J. Buswell entertained at a bridge tea yesterday for about 20 guests, the decorations being in autumn leaves, and a large number of prizes were won by Mrs. Hooper and Mrs. Travers.

The officers of the high school cadets gave a dancing party last night at the gymnasium for the benefit of the present battalion, the decorations being in the red and black, and a large number present. Receiving were Mrs. George A. Eaton, Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Poutz, Capt. and Mrs. Webb, Mrs. S. O. S. Nelden, Miss Dukes, Miss Eilerbeck and Miss Mayne.

Mrs. M. H. Sowles entertained at a pretty luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. W. C. Hall.

One of the most elaborate and delightful affairs that have taken place at Fort Douglas was the reception and dance given by the officers and ladies before the last night. The large hall was draped with flags and military emblems, and the regimental band furnished a program of delightful music before the dancing. Receiving were Col. and Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Arthur Williams and Mrs. A. S. Rowan, and Lieut. Seaman. Butcher and Gary had charge of the affair, and during the evening, arranged by a number of small Filipino boys, while the band rendered musical selections. The programs for the dancing were daintily gotten up, and about 150 guests enjoyed the event, including a large number from the city.

Mrs. Ellen Peterson of Hayden, Ida., who has been visiting with her sister, and her son has returned to her home.

On Wednesday Mat and Mrs. Atkinson entertained at a dinner in honor of Mrs. Brewer of San Francisco, the decorations being in autumn leaves and flowers, and covers laid for nine.

Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin Butcher gave a dinner last night for a half dozen friends preceding the dance.

The Payson club was entertained by Mrs. T. G. Wimmer, Jr., Thursday at 2 p. m. After refreshments, Mrs. Emma Ramsey Morris rendered several solos. The committee composed of Mrs. T. G. Wimmer, Jr., Mrs. Parley Musser and Mrs. Albert Hulsh, was appointed to engage the Odeon and music for a Payson reunion on the evening of Thanksgiving.

THREE DIVORCES FRIDAY'S RECORD

Judge Morse Releases Trio of Matrimonial Misfits at Weekly Matinee.

WIFE WENT WITH OTHER MAN

Yet Earl W. Hentz Offered to Take Her Back—Mrs. Granville Gets Decree.

Three divorce decrees by default was the record in Judge Morse's court yesterday. Earl W. Hentz, who married Nellie Forsythe in this city Nov. 2, 1907, testified that his wife had refused to come to him while he was in search of labor in the mines of Kimberley, Platte county; that she further refused to share his joys and sorrows when he later secured employment at Richfield, from which place he sent her money and transportation. He did this four or five times, but his wife persisted in her refusal to join him, although she accepted the money he sent her and spent it, he afterward learned, in high living with soldiers and other men.

Notwithstanding the fact that he knew his wife had carried on in such a manner, even going to the extent of becoming intoxicated, and it was alleged, getting arrested twice for intoxication, Hentz offered to take her back if she would come to him, but again she refused, and he sought relief from the divorce court.

The husband's testimony was corroborated by W. O. Enos, of 2 Dubei avenue, and the decree was granted.

MRS. GRANVILLE GETS DECREE.

Alice M. Granville was awarded a divorce from her husband, O. C. Granville, whom she married at Evanston, Ill., in 1902. The decree was given on the ground of non-support and desertion. Mrs. Granville was also given the custody of the two children, Freeman, aged 6, and Rhoda, aged 4 years.

The wife alleged that her husband deserted her in 1904, since which time he had contributed nothing to her support, although he was capable of earning from $20 to $25 per week as a printer.

Arthur T. Swick was also granted a decree of divorce from his spouse, Lena E. Swick, who lives at Lockport, N. Y., and who refused and continues to refuse to join Swick in Utah. The plaintiff first asked for a divorce on Sept. 25, but the case was postponed pending the arrival of depositions from parties in Lockport, in corroboration of Swick's statement in the matter. The depositions signed by William J. Swick, a brother of plaintiff, and Lizzie May Butler, both of Lockport, arrived in due time and when they were presented to the court the divorce was granted.

STRONG MAN WEEPS.

Swick testified that for a while he worked at Brooklyn, N. Y., and upon returning to his home at Lockport in April, 1903, he found the house locked, the children playing in the street and the wife gone. He was soon found by Mrs. Swick had returned to her mother. The difficulty at that time was patched up by the family physician and the minister, but Mrs. Swick became dissatisfied again, and once more went home to her mother. Swick entreated her to return to him, but she would not. He then started west, stopping at Salt Lake City, where he secured work at the Garfield smelter, where he is now working. Swick, although a strong man, broke down and cried, speaking of his three children, and the refusal of his wife to return to him. The divorce was granted, and the children will remain in the care of their mother at Lockport.

SOCIAL SCIENCE LECTURES.

Prof. George R. Kirkpatrick, a college professor of economics, who is said to be an orator second to none, will lecture in Library hall in the free library building at the head of state street on Thursday evening, at 8 p. m. of October, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. "Prof. Kirkpatrick's subject will be 'The Social Problem and how it will be solved.' He will try to show the remedy for the acknowledged evils of our present system of government, regulation of the trusts or in the adoption of Socialism or some other method of social reform."

The lecture will be under the auspices of the Salt Lake Socialist local and the Salt Lake Civic League. The lecture will be given by Prof. Kirkpatrick, the first of their lecturers in the course.

West, North, South and East, Salt Lake is known as the manufacturing point of McDonald's famous quality cocoa and Superlative chocolates.

It is an uncontrovertible fact that McDonald's 400 chocolates are sold at $1.00 a pound by New York stores to exclusive trade which demands, and is content with nothing less, the BEST. In Salt Lake the price is less—but the New York dealers do not hesitate to charge a dollar.

Would it surprise you to know that McDonald's cocoa is accepted by distributing houses throughout the country as the finest quality of cocoa on the market? It goes right into the richest homes, and the finest hotels and cafes in the large cities.

Did you ever try a can of real fine cocoa in your home? Try it! You will then see why it holds supremacy.
