

PROUD AND ONLY G.A.R. AUXILIARY

National Women's Relief Corps
In Interesting Business Session Yesterday.

PREST. GILMAN'S ADDRESS

Presentation of Handsome Gifts and Souvenirs at Close of Session—
Dr. Paden's Welcome.

The opening business session of the National Women's Relief Corps was held yesterday afternoon in the Presbyterian church. The decorations for the occasion were strikingly effective, three large American flags being draped behind the platform, with the G. A. R. emblem draped over the center flag. The body of the church auditorium was also tastefully draped with flags and national colors.

The "National Ode" was sung and the invocation was offered by the national chaplain, Mrs. Maria Mumford. Dr. W. M. Paden, pastor of the church, delivered an address of welcome, paying high tribute to the patriotism of the women during the war. Mrs. Mary Gilman, president of the order, responded in a brief speech. Mrs. C. G. Plummer then sang "Barbara Fritchie." The following national officers responded to roll.

National president, Mary L. Gilman; national senior vice president, Anna E. Howe; national junior vice president, Clara A. Lukens; national secretary, Maria W. Going; national treasurer, Charlotte E. Wright; national chaplain, Maria L. Mumford; national inspector, Alice Dean Schneider; national counselor, Harriet J. Bodge; national institute and installing officer, Ellen F. Daniels; national instructor, Nettie McGowan; national press correspondent, Mary M. North; national senior aide and chief of staff, Jennie L. Berry; national executive board, life member, Sarah E. Fuller; national executive board, Ida Shotts Penbreath, chairman, Isabella W. Ball; national executive board, Henrietta E. Briscoe; Andersonville prison board, Sarah D. Whans, chairman, Alabena M. Bliss, Abbie A. Adams.

Mrs. Mary Gilman, president, then delivered her annual address. She said in part:

PROUD AND ONLY AUXILIARY.

While each advancing year finds us more devoted to the interests of the Grand Army of the Republic, of which we are the proud and only auxiliary, the year just past has witnessed a special effort by our members, in seconding and sustaining Commander-in-Chief Nevins in his noble task of securing the reinstatement of suspended members who are too poor to pay their dues, and the muster in of worthy veterans who have thus far remained outside the ranks through inability to meet the expense of membership. As our circular letter of Nov. 4, 1908, he shows that there were 296,433 pensioners who were not members of the Grand Army of the Republic. We are in such sound financial condition and the Grand Army is striving so hard to establish a reserve fund, I make the recommendation that the sum of $1,000 be presented to the Grand Army of the Republic to be placed in its vested fund.

Of the heroic women, the army nurses, the Florence Nightingales of the War of the Rebellion, are still with us, but like their former patients, the wounded Union soldiers, they are fast passing away, and soon only their blessed memory will remain to inspire other American women to emulate their virtues and to make like sacrifices for liberty and humanity.

GIFTS TO ARMY NURSES.
In accordance with our custom of last year, it has been our privilege and pleasure to present to army nurses during the past year, Christmas gifts to the amount of $240.

After commencing the observance of flag day, June 14, and peace and arbitration day, May 18, President Gilman paid a tribute to Francis Scott Key, author of "The Star Spangled Banner." Mrs. Gilman gave a brief resume of the finances of the order, and then delivered the following memorial tribute:

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE.

While the angel of death has been such a frequent visitor in the ranks of the dear old comrades, he has not spared my official family, and I ask you to give a loving tender thought to the memory of Mrs. Adella E. Bernerd, fifth member of the national executive board and department president of Idaho, who died in Nampa, Idaho, Dec. 26, 1908, and Mrs. Amelia C. Alexander, national pianist, who died in Toledo, Ohio, July 9, 1908.

There were noble types of loyal American womanhood, loving their country, their neighbor and their God. Their lives were a benediction and their death a calamity.

Mrs. Gilman concluded:
With the closing hour of this convention will come to me a sense of infinite relief, for then I may lay aside the burden of responsibility that has rested upon my poor, weak shoulders for 11 long months.

To you my appreciative heart goes out in purest and warmest gratitude. For you my reverent soul expands with love and esteem and admiration, for it is to you, as representatives of the order, given the blessing of the Women's Relief Corps, that I owe the crowning glory of my life.

Mrs. Gilman was then presented with a handsome set of silver forks and knives by her staff officers, the speech presentation being made by the national secretary, Mrs. Maria Going. The gifts were pleasingly acknowledged.

The president was then presented with a bouquet of roses containing a flag brooch, the presentation being made by Mrs. Jennie L. Berry, chief of staff.

Mrs. Winegar, president of the George R. Maxwell chapter, W. R. C., on behalf of Salt Lake City presented to Mrs. Gilman on behalf of the Women's Relief Corps of Utah, a handsome gold ring, the gold being produced in Utah mines and the ring manufactured in this city. Mrs. Mumford, the national secretary and the going, the national secretary and Mrs. Charlotte E. Wright, were given Salt Lake souvenir spoons by Mrs. Winegar. A delegation of the Daughters of Veterans was then received, and the session adjourned until Thursday morning.

THIS MORNING'S SESSION.

Routine business occupied the entire morning session of the national convention of the Women's Relief Corps, which held its meeting at the First Presbyterian church. As yet the convention is not down to the real business of the convention. Most of the work thus far has been preliminary.

TWO CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT.

From present indications the election of officers will not be taken up before tomorrow. As the meetings are all held behind closed doors but little of the gossip on the election has found its way out. It is said that two candidates have already started their campaign and are working for the office of national president, and it is expected that the election this year will be more hotly contested than ever before.

The real business of the convention came up late this afternoon. At the afternoon session a number of resolutions touching upon various affairs of the organization were brought up. As the measures proposed had been put in printed form the delegates had familiarized themselves with the work and the measures were soon passed.

A WEAHLING.
Is the only way to describe the poor child that is afflicted with worms. No mother gets all the nourishment from the food, the child gets practically all of it. Worms quickly multiply and will no bad after effects. Price, 25 cents a box. Dr. J. C. Plummer, 112 and 114 South Main St. Salt Lake City.

CIVIL WAR MUSICIANS.

Present Membership of Over 700—
Officers Elected Yesterday.

The annual meeting of the National Association of Civil War Musicians was held yesterday at the Lafayette school, the headquarters for the association. The records of this organization show that it is increasing and that since its organization in Desatur, Ill., in 1890, it has steadily increased its membership. At present there are 700 war time buglers, fliers and drummers belonging to the association. Nearly 100 musicians are in attendance at the encampment.

One of the chief purposes of the organization is to revive old war songs and to perpetuate all national music. At the meeting yesterday officers were elected for the ensuing year. Colonel A. F. Hopkins of Yellow Springs, O., was elected president, to succeed Colonel E. N. Freeman, the latter declining the nomination for the office a second time. The remaining officers were not changed, and are as follows: Drum major, A. J. Phillips, Pochon, Pa.; life major, Colonel A. F. Hopkins; leader, Colonel Alex. C. Haster, Dayton, O.; secretary and treasurer, Colonel J. N. Bogart, Plainfield, N. J.

A meeting of the Western States Corps association was held yesterday in the council chamber of the city and county building. The meeting was called to order by Lieutenant George C. Rousda, who served with Gen. Schofield's Twenty-third army corps. R. M. Green was made chairman of the meeting, and called upon the members present for reminiscences. Those who spoke were Oscar L. Stranahan and S. M. Briggs of Durango, Colo., and Augustus Short of Anaconda, Mont.

No business was transacted by the organization, as a similar meeting was being held at the same time in Boston for the veterans who were unable to come to the encampment.

VETERANS SHUT OUT OF CONCERT

Tickets Issued by Presiding Bishop opric to Col. Sterrett Get Into Wrong Hands.

TO BE TAKEN UP TONIGHT.

Bronze Button Will Admit G. A. R.
Men; Others Carrying Passes

Will Have to Pay.

Veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic will be admitted free at the Tabernacle tonight and tomorrow night on the occasion of the big concert. In order for the veterans to pass the doors-keepers all that will be necessary will be to exhibit their bronze G. A. R. button.

Other people presenting passes issued to Col. Sterrett for distribution among the veterans will be required to pay the admission price and the passes will be taken up.

Ladies accompanying G. A. R. veterans will be the only ones admitted on passes.

This order was made this morning by the treasurer of the Tabernacle choir, George C. Smith, following last night's experience at the gate.

VETERANS SHUT OUT.

The one regrettable event of the evening was the fact that a number of the G. A. R. veterans in whose honor the three concerts were first arranged, were unable to obtain admission. They had seen in the papers that they were the invited guests of the occasion, and it did not occur to them that they should obtain tickets from their various headquarters. These tickets, 3,000 in number, (1,000 each night) were furnished Col. Sterrett and he made distribution to the adjutant generals of the various officers in charge of the state delegations, but for some reason all the tickets did not reach those for whom they were intended. Mr. Benjamin Goddard, of the bureau of information, explained the matter from the platform last evening and was heartily applauded when he said the G. A. R. veterans were the guests of honor at all the three concerts and they would be more than welcome, but he disclaimed all responsibility for the choir and management if any of the veterans had not obtained the tickets which had been sent to their headquarters, in conformity with the arrangements.

COL. STERRETT'S STATEMENT.

In explanation of the method of distribution of tickets Col. F. M. Sterrett said today:
"The method of distributing all tickets has been done in military order, which we believe is the fairest way. The tickets are given to the adjutant general, who in turn allots them to the 44 divisions. Then the commander of that division hands them on down so that each veteran can be taken care of."

"Of course, it is next to impossible to see that only the veterans use the tickets. If he does not go most probably he gives the ticket to his wife or perhaps his daughter. There are some cases where persons who are not entitled to them get the tickets, but this cannot be helped. Our method of distribution I believe is as fair as it is possible. It has been used at all former encampments and been successful."

"By allowing them to be distributed in military order it does away with a lot of work that would otherwise be unsatisfactory. No one man or 10 men could distribute the tickets and do it satisfactorily."

FOR VETERANS ONLY.

When the 3,000 free tickets for the G. A. R. veterans were turned over to Col. Sterrett the following letter accompanied them:
Col. F. M. Sterrett, 233 Commercial Club, City: Dear Colonel:
I take great pleasure in enclosing you 3,000 complimentary tickets to the concert to be given in the Tabernacle on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, August 11, 12 and 13, 1909 for each evening.

I presume that in consequence of there being so many different entertainments going on in the city during the week that 1,000 complimentary tickets for each concert night will be sufficient.

We have a considerable free list, so that with the tickets we are sending you and the balance of the free list, we will need all the room we have left to take care of the pay tickets, and as you know, the concerts are given up to help the tabernacle choir pay their expenses on their trip to Seattle, they will therefore, need to raise all the money they possibly can. These tickets you will kindly distribute to the G. A. R. VETERANS only. They are NOT TRANSFERABLE, and it is intended that no one but veterans will be admitted on them.

With very kind regards, I am,

Sincerely,

C. W. NIBLEY.

Aug. 6, 1909.

The paid attendance last evening must have reached a handsome mark, and what is derived from the three concerts will go toward the expenses of the choir in making its trip to Seattle.

ENCAMPMENT NOTES.

The Modoc club, the famous vocal organization from Kansas, arrived in the city last night after a strenuous time on the railroad. They were held up east of Rock Springs by a railroad wreck, being delivered more than half a day in arriving here.

It required 18 "seeing cars" and each packed to the doors, to accommodate the crowds wishing to take the trip about the city yesterday afternoon.

The Women's Relief Corps of the department of Oregon has established headquarters in Judge Ritchie's court room, in the fourth floor of the joint city and county building. The Ladies of the G. A. R. of Oregon are in Judge Morse's court room, and the members of the Women's Relief Corps of Tennessee, Alabama and Georgia have their headquarters in room 5 of the building.

The Y. M. C. A. of this city has thrown open its quarters to the veterans. There are baths, free towels, library and reading room, etc., at the disposal of the veterans.

In respect for the husband and daughters of the woman after whom their tent is named, members of the Mrs. James R. Tanner tent No. 1, Daughters of Veterans, Salt Lake City, yesterday entertained Corp. James R. Tanner and daughter. The reception was held from 4 to 5 o'clock at the Kenyon hotel. Corp. Tanner was introduced by Mrs. Mary H. Lawrence, the music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. Emma Ramsey-Morris and Miss Stella Anger. At the close of the reception the local society presented a national emblem to the veteran, Mr. Chicago, with a token of their esteem.

Four bands were consolidated for a concert yesterday at the grand stand after the parade was finished. The consolidation brought together 103 instruments and it was the largest organization of the kind ever seen in Utah. The idea of the consolidation was carried out by John Held and A. S. Zimmerman, but was the work of John J. McClellan, director of music for the entertainment of the G. A. R. The bands taken in were Held's band, the Utah State band, Kellerberger's band, the Pro band, and the big crowd of people warmly received the concert.

The women of the G. A. R. last evening gave their annual reception in honor of the commander-in-chief and his staff. The reception was held at the Kenyon hotel between 9 and 10 o'clock. At the head of the receiving line were Mrs. Genevieve Lane, president of the society. Others in line were Emma Crane, Elizabeth Garvin, Catherine Ross, Lula Shannon, Josie Slicker, Florence M. Wallace, Clara Sawyer, the past national presidents and all the corresponding secretaries. Mrs. Harriet Hash, Salt Lake, introduced the guests. The Hawaiian Troubadours furnished music. Refreshments were served.

I. W. Davis, who served three years in the Fourth Cavalry of southern Illinois, accompanied by his wife, is among the visitors at the encampment. Mr. Davis resides now at Santa Ana, Cal., where Mrs. Davis is president of the Ladies of the G. A. R. of that city.

INDIAN WAR VETERANS.

Commissioners Compiling Rolls and Information—3,000 in State.

The board of commissioners of Indian war records, which was created by the last legislature, will commence work in a day or two in Salt Lake county looking up the veterans of Indian wars. The commission has completed its work in four outside counties and has secured the names of 250 veterans. As soon as the canvass is completed the names will be sent back to Washington. It is hoped that someday the national government will see fit to pension the Indian war veterans. For this purpose, and to work up sentiment in this direction, the commission was created.

The commission has as its chairman ex-Gov. Arthur A. Vawter, assistant general. The other members of the commission are M. L. Pratt of Provo, J. M. Westwood of Springville, and J. Arthur of Cedar City. These three members of the commission were appointed by Gov. Spry. The commission has a temporary office in the city and county building where it is now carrying on its work. It is estimated that there are about 3,000 veterans in the state. The commission has an appropriation of $5,000 to carry on its work.

MORTAL REMAINS LAID AWAY.

Funeral of Late Abraham H. Cannon

In Pioneer Stake Hall Yesterday.

The funeral of the late Abraham H. Cannon was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Pioneer stake hall, the services being conducted by Bishop Lewis M. Cannon of Cannon ward. The opening and closing prayers were offered by L. G. Hardy, Jr., and E. V. Pack, respectively, and sweet and appropriate music was furnished in the form of solos by Mr. Chas. R. Pike and Misses Edna Evans and Elma Young. These three with Mr. Platt also supplying quartet selections. The speakers in the order named were Counselor Chas. Hyde of the stake presidency, Bishop David A. Smith, President Seymour B. Young, Stake President W. McLaughlin, Counselor Chas. E. Duvey of the Cannon ward bishopric, and Apostle Heber J. Grant, all of whom, having known deceased from childhood, spoke of his many excellent qualities and uttered words of sympathy with and consolation for the bereaved.

The interment was in the city cemetery, the grave being dedicated by Stake Counselor Sylvester Q. Cannon.

CATHEDRAL DEDICATION.

Two hundred girls of St. Mary's and St. Patrick's parishes will meet tomorrow morning in St. Mary's cathedral, to rehearse in preparation for the dedicatory march next Sunday. Seventy-five children from St. Ann's orphanage will participate in the procession. The altar boys are meeting Wednesday at 6 p. m. for rehearsal, and the cathedral choir at 8 o'clock. The choir is to rehearse tomorrow evening, with Prof. McClellan at the organ, the symphony orchestra and Mrs. McGurkin with her harp. There are 70 voices. All the family pews in the cathedral have been taken.
