The branch office of the Deseret News at Ogden is at No. 400 of the county court building, where all advertisements and subscriptions are received. The News is delivered by carriers in Ogden every morning on the same terms as in Salt Lake City.

OGDEN NEWS.

OGDEN, MAY 8, 1900.

MAYOR'S VETO SET ASIDE

County Passes Valley Railway Franchise Despite Objections of Chief Magistrate.

After County Affairs—Judges Hiles and Reilly Hold Court—Cecilia.

The county board met in regular session yesterday and transacted the following business:

PASSED OVER MAYOR'S VETO.
The mayor also presented a communication vetoing the ordinance granting the Salt Lake Valley Railway franchise. The ordinance was passed by a vote of 10 to 2. The veto was sustained by a vote of 10 to 2.

CECILIA CONCERT.
The Cecilia concert given last evening in the Grand opera house, for the benefit of the Cecilia relief fund, was a grand success in every particular, and great credit is due Prof. Coop, the conductor, and the soloists, and all who assisted in the excellent and praiseworthy affair. The opera house was well filled with a very appreciative audience.

AN INCIPIENT BLAZE.
Yesterday at 9:55 o'clock the fire department was called out by an alarm from the Grand opera house. The fire was in the kitchen of the house, and was caused by a gas stove. The fire was extinguished by the fire department.

Woman's Kidney Troubles

Why trifle with health when the easiest and surest help is the best known medicine in the world?

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is known everywhere and thousands of women have been cured of serious kidney derangements by it.

Mrs. Pinkham's mother-in-law has the endorsement of the mayor, the postmaster and others of her own city.

Her medicine has the endorsement of an unnumbered multitude of grateful women whose letters are constantly printed in this paper. Every woman should read these letters.

Mrs. Pinkham advises suffering women free of charge. Her address is Lynn, Mass.

The Sautinquin town board notified the board that they had recently passed an ordinance prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within the town and petitioned the county not to issue a license for the sale of liquor within one mile of the corporate limits. Taken on for consideration.

El B. Hawkins, in behalf of the jurors on the April panel of the district court, communicated to the board that the jurors in setting the civil calendar of cases frequently dismiss the jurors for several days at a time thereby causing them the expense of traveling to and from the court.

brought thousands of dollars worth of good to the farmers and stockmen of this valley. They are the first storm to hit the valley since the late fall.

As a result the farmers are putting in considerably larger crops than they contemplated putting in on the last of the season.

The government was published a few weeks ago, but the tour of these officials will be the first actual work in the field.

They will be met at Hot Springs, Ariz., by a committee consisting of A. E. Potter, of that city, who is secretary of the Arizona Wool Growers' association, and J. B. Bark, of Phoenix, who represents the Arizona Wool Growers' association.

They will spend three weeks in the Black Mesa reserve and then visit other parts of the western reserves later in the summer.
