LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 50° in the shade at one o'clock to day.

THEATRE.—Last evening the drama of the "Fortunes of Lynn" was played in a satisfactory manner.

This play will be repeated this evening, for the last time.

To-morrow (Friday) evening the grand complimentary benefits to Mrs. F. M. Bates.

The Misses Betty and Emily announced for an early appearance.

YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE.—All persons desirous of identifying themselves with the Twentieth Ward Young Men's Institute are requested to pay, at once, the admission fee, one dollar each, to Mr. C. R. Savage, the Treasurer, that their names may be enrolled and that they may receive from the secretary, Mr. W. H. Tovey.

A general meeting of the Institute will be held at the Twentieth Ward School-house, on Monday evening, at half past seven, for the transaction of important business and the delivering of the inaugural address. A punctual attendance of all members and those desirous of enrolling their names is requested.

By order of the Board of Directors.

There are letters at this office for Mr. David G. Ficken and Mrs. Margaret Taomas. Call and get them.

PEDAGOGICAL.—We are indebted to Mr.

James Dwyer, for specimen numbers of the following periodicals now for sale at his book store, East Temple St., "Harper's Monthly," "Godey's Lady's Book,"

"The Overland Monthly" and "The Popular Scientific Monthly" for February; "The Atlantic Almanac for 1873, beautiful and useful." "Frank Leslie's Illustrated," and "Harper's Weekly," both for the 25th inst., and the "Russ New Yorker."

LOW CREEK.—Bro. John Toone, from Croydon, yesterday, reports Bishop Swann's children, all of whom have had the small pox, recovered. They received it from Evanson. Precautions were taken to prevent the disease from spreading.

Snow about eight inches deep in that valley, cattle on the mountain doing well and shaking their sides with fat.

POLICE REUNION BALL.—The "gay and festive" members of the police force, and a few of their invited friends assembled last evening to have a social reunion and engage in tapischorean exercise. For sociability and general good feeling, the affair was one of the most successful of the season. Every person present seemed overjoyed with good humor. The decorations of the halls and the furnishings of the drawing room were the best in the direction of the ladies' side of the night. The Mayor and members of the City Council honored the party with their presence, besides whom there were few others that the police, and of course their ladies. The gentlemen present were not wanting in pleasant qualities, and the ladies were equally so. The charming disposition whose presence can best grace a party where "style" is less studied than genuine enjoyment. A splendid supper at the American Hotel helped to complete the evening's entertainment.

FATAL CASE.—We are informed a few days ago, a horse, belonging to Mr. George Chapman suddenly dropped dead on the street. It was a case of epizootic Anthrax, and cannot be safely worked out.

BON APPETIT IN LAW CASE.—The following, written at Brigham City, under date of Jan. 21st, from our correspondent "A. C." shows that Judge C. M. Hawley does not always pursue an even policy.

We understand that he refused to issue a writ of habeas corpus in favor of C. W. Baker on the ground that he did not wish to interfere in the case as the master was outside of his district. People have to choose now between two conclusions—either that a large slice of the northern part of the Third Judicial District has been unknown to the general public, transferred to the First District, and that Judge Hawley is consistent, or that Box Elder County is still in Judge McKeans' jurisdiction and that the Judge is not to blame for failing in his duty, according to circumstances without regard to consistency of policy.

Young Andrew Burt, who as present attends to the comforts and wants of parties confined in jail, charged with being connected with the notorious bandit, the wily wits of habeas corpus served on him to-day, for O. S. Wright and W. Schow, over, by M. T. Patrick, U. S. Marshal, which were issued by Justice Hay. The writer, however, was not informed that no writs of habeas corpus had been issued to John Burt, and no other names or parties were expressed or implied in these. The boy could not afford to pay the passage money for the prisoners to go and see the habeas corpus in Salt Lake City. The sheriff is at present in the process of getting the parties who brought suit about the cattle sealing with which said two prisoners and other parties are charged. Eight indictments have been found against O. S. Wright and W. Schow, and the resolution was amended and adopted.

The House then, in Committee on the Whole, took up the Classified and Democratic Appropriation bill.

EUROPEAN.—The principal object of the trip to Europe was to make a collection of specimens for the Natural History Museum.

On the 19th inst., the party left Paris and arrived at Lyons at 11 o'clock at night. In their journey during the next few days by some means, although considerable districts of country, in a state of insurrection, Lyons is one of the most considerable towns in France, and is situated at the confluence of the Saone and Rhone rivers, in a position very advantageous for commerce, containing 300,000 inhabitants, and many manufactures of ancient architecture, and still to be seen some remains of the magnificence which with the products of its manufactures in immense, and is inferior to no other town in Europe. The principal object of the trip was collecting specimens.

On the 20th the party called upon the Editor of the "Monteux des Soies," a newspaper in the interest of silk and cotton. Then they went to the Exchange Building, where they made an exhibition of the best specimens of silk made during the last twelve years. Here they also obtained a large collection of the implements used in the manipulation of silk. A great variety of cocoons, large and small, produced in Utah, was exhibited by one of the party, Mr. Scheffel, and were pronounced as the first class.

President Sutter's Party.—From the "Millennial Star" of Dec. 31, we clip the following:

"On the 19th inst., the party left Paris and arrived at Lyons at 11 o'clock at night. In their journey during the next few days by some means, although considerable districts of country, in a state of insurrection, Lyons is one of the most considerable towns in France, and is situated at the confluence of the Saone and Rhone rivers, in a position very advantageous for commerce, containing 300,000 inhabitants, and many manufactures of ancient architecture, and still to be seen some remains of the magnificence which with the products of its manufactures in immense, and is inferior to no other town in Europe. The principal object of the trip was collecting specimens."

On the 20th the party called upon the Editor of the "Monteux des Soies," a newspaper in the interest of silk and cotton.

Then they went to the Exchange Building, where they made an exhibition of the best specimens of silk made during the last twelve years. Here they also obtained a large collection of the implements used in the manipulation of silk. A great variety of cocoons, large and small, produced in Utah, was exhibited by one of the party, Mr. Scheffel, and were pronounced as the first class.

The party visited manufacturers of velvet, floss, and kerchiefs, &c., &c., for weaving portraits of silk. At the latter the party were much interested, and furnished a photograph of President E. Young, which he will weave, but it will take about four months to prepare the work for him.

"On the 21st the party left Paris for Marseilles, where they remained until the 25th, and then returned to Lyons, and with the shortest repose of the day,

"Paris papers, among other notices of the party, got the following bon mots: 'Although the Mormon party at present in France disclaim any other motive than that of benevolence and instruction for their mission, yet it is evident that some who profess to be well informed consider that they are going there to explore the ground for the foundation of a New Jerusalem. We see nothing improbable in this assumption. The people who go there are said to be bent on the aim at founding an Eden in the land of Prophets.'

"The long interview which the Mormon Elders had with the French, to ascertain the other facts we are informed, seriously disquieted Madame Thiers. Surely at the President's advanced time of life there is no fear of his conversion to Mormon doctrine."

A FINN TEMPERANCE MAN?—A correspondent, writing from Payson, Jan. 19, says:

"A few days since a man, visited Salt Lake and posted up notices that he would lecture on 'Total Abstinence,' and represented himself as being the nephew of the Rev. J. P. Newman. He was well received and his lecture was fairly attended, considering the Sunday state of the roads and坐ists. He was from Franklin, Indiana, and followed Creek (South) where he attended a party, taking a lady with him. He got so intoxicated during the evening that he could not take the lady home."

BUN OVER.—Thomas Horne, Jr., a teamster in the employ of Meares, Walker Brothers, was run over by a wagon yesterday. The vehicle was a heavy one, but luckily it was not loaded, and his injuries therefore were only slight. He was driving an ox-team at the time, all the horses belonging to his employers being affected with the epizootic.

GRADING.—We are informed that up to last night two miles of the Salt Lake, Sevier and Pioche Railroad would be graded, one mile on each side of Clinton's Lake Point. In a few days there will be a sufficient force of men and teams at work to do from two to three miles of grading a day.

BAD LIQUOR.—Last evening, about 7 o'clock, a man grew boisterous on East Temple street, under the influence of spirits, when he proclaimed himself "no sucker, but chief of this town." His relatives tried to lead him from the street, when he drew a pistol and flourished it in the most reckless manner. He was soon forced inside a store and after a short struggle was disarmed. Next was a scuffle with a U. S. officer coming to the rescue, who answered, as he ran and was asked the occasion of such haste, "A friend of mine is in trouble down here."

SMALL-POX.—There is a very bad case of small-pox in the Eleventh Ward. The patient is a twelve year old girl, daughter of R. Canistee. Yesterday the quarantine physician visited the house where she is and then advised Dr. Anderson to give medical aid. Dr. Clinton not having time to attend to the case medically himself, Dr. Anderson sent word to the quarantine physician who is the patient's mother, come when you are convenient to report to me. When he came he found the girl had been sick several days before the quarantine physician knew anything about the case, and then he was only able to give her medicine. Dr. Anderson advised him to report to the hospital for a case of small-pox.

When a person is taken sick and there is the slightest reason for believing that the malady may be small-pox, the quarantine officer should be notified without delay, so that all possible measures for preventing the spread of the contagion. We understand that several persons have been exposed in the present instance.

Large notices have been posted, by instructions from the quarantine officer, and in the vicinity of the house where the patient resides.
