Coal Production Last Year.

Statistics compiled for the amological survey by Edward W. Parker, cost min-ing expert of the survey, show a refactly able increase in the total production or coal in the limited States during 190 over coal in the United States during 196 over the preceding year. The perceduction in 1966 was $14.00.581 short tens of 2.000 pounds, valued at 513.510.744. In 1966 the output amount-ed to 352.103.841 ions, valued at $456,-766.962. The increase in quantity was 5 pir cent, and in value 7 per cent. West Virginia supplanted Illineis as the state second to Penns Ivanis in coal productions, attributed chiefly to the almost complete suspension of mining in Illinois during all of April and a part of May, when the miners and operators were in conflict over the ways scale.—Washington Post.

Strange Thread in Tangle of Giant's Diplomacy.

Diplomacy. Diplomacy. If was the Christian trader who taught the Chinese to stocke oplum. It is almost wholly within the past half-century that the growth and production of the most in-sldious of drugs has sweet over the Chi-nese empire, until now the poppy is grown in every province. Think's steady and, at times, desperate resistance to the aggressions of the oplum taders forms the one consistent thread in the inexplicable tangle of Chinese dap jomacy. But the Christian trade, backed by Christian cannon, was breasitible; the Indus drug was forced in the de-velopment of the native drug followed, until today the imperial Chinese govern-ment estimates the number of confirmed oplum smokers within the empire at three-tenths to four-tenths of the total population. China, like the Cougs, has taken oplum traffic-emogling oplum, that the oplum traffic-emogling oplum, that the oplum traffic-emogling oplum, smoking oupside the drug oplum is a minor trade, and induged in by only a few reckless babtues who wanted to be wafted to other worlds. This is not so. The stamina and the character of the entire Chinese race have aiready been so sapped by this drug that the oplus the degraded victums of the habit. Today, China, drugged, debauched.

habit. Today, China, drugged, debasiched, frightened at her own desperate condition, is grappling with the vice that has her by the throat. No such herole effort at moral reform has ever before been made by a human government. And the Chris-tians who debasiched her are booking on ekcepticall, questioning China's 'sincer-ity.

skepticall, questioning China's "sincer-ity" At Thentain, where the Chinese officials had cloaed all the optum dens in the na-tive city. Mr. Marwin found the dens in the foreign concessions, licensed for rev-sing by the foreign consuls, running wide cosen. In value the Chinese officials pro-tested that this laxity completely nullified the effect of their own prohibition. The consuls could not see their way clear to give up the revenue. Truly, it is an extra-ordinary story. The most conservative official estimate of the option enclosing polation in Chi-na is foreion on the United States. Many officials place the list at 160,000.00.-Success.
