BRUTAL ATTACK ON GIRL.

Johnson Home Burglarized—Big Tab, hit Hunt—Holiday Weddings.

Special Correspondence.
Provo, Utah Co., Dec. 27.—Considerable excitement was created when it became known that a most brutal attack and attempted criminal assault was made by a well dressed man upon a 13-year-old girl last Tuesday night.
The girl's name is withheld by the officials, who also tried to keep the facts from the public, so that they might be able to locate the brute, of whom they have a good description.
The girl just after dark was walking north along Academy avenue when a man stepped up to her side and started a conversation with her. He followed her to a lonely spot and then turned upon her. He nearly choked her to death before she could escape from him.

PARK CITY.

Austin Kelly Hurt in Alliance Mine—Atty. Shields Goes to Capital.

Special Correspondence.
Park City, Utah, Dec. 26.—Mr. Dan B. Shields, who for the past two years has been practicing law and also city attorney, has sold his residence on Main street, and has moved to Salt Lake City, where he will enter the law office of Snyder and Snyder.

All the merchants report a good Christmas trade despite the discouraging reports regarding the closing down of mines.

The Citizen club gave to each poor and needy family everything to make them a good Christmas dinner, and some of them got coal to keep them warm.

Austin Kelly, working in the Alliance mine, had his right foot broken on Monday afternoon by being caved on.
Those who reached him, said he had a miraculous escape from death. The doctors say he will be about in a few weeks.

RIGHTS OVER VIADUCT.
The busy work on the part of the Ogden Rapid Transit company a week ago in laying temporary ties and rails east on Twenty-fourth street from Wall avenue, was the cause of much speculation. It has been definitely learned that the street car company claimed a prior right to occupy the street, over the railroad companies to construct a viaduct and in order to protect that right took the steps necessary.
Since then a meeting has been held between representatives of all concerned and it is stated a compromise has been reached whereby the street car company is to have first right of a track over the viaduct and will help to defray the expenses of keeping up the viaduct in the viaduct just as soon as it occupies it.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MAYCOCK.
The Pleasant View ward meetinghouse was crowded yesterday afternoon with relatives and friends who assembled to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of Mrs. Mary Maycock, one of the pioneers of Weber county. Bishop C. A. Hickenlooper presided at the funeral services; the ward clerk rendered the selection, "O My Father," and "O My Mother." Mrs. Lettie Marshall sang "The Dead Shall Live Again." The speakers were President C. F. Middleton, Elders Nathaniel Montgomery, John Scamman, W. G. Croft and Bishop Hickenlooper, who had all known the deceased for many years. They spoke of her early life in accepting the gospel in her native land, England; of her crossing the plains in a hand-cart company, and through all her trials she was true and faithful.

The casket was covered with beautiful flowers. A large funeral cortege followed the casket to its last resting place in the North Ogden cemetery.

BUSINESS IN PROBATE COURT.
A number of probate petitions were filed in the Second district court. In the matter of the estate of Edward Compton Carter, deceased, petition was filed by his widow Elizabeth J. Carter praying for her appointment as administratrix of the estate, which consists of a small amount of wages due and a cause of action against the Utah Construction company. Carter was accidentally killed March 3, 1907, at Pomona county, California, while in the employ of the construction company.

A petition has been filed by Marium and William H. Costley praying for their appointment as administrators of the estate of Daniel J. Costley deceased. The petition sets forth that the estate consists of real estate in Weber county valued at $5,000; in Cedar county, $1,400; in Pomona county, $4,700; cash in the Ogden banks, $5,331.32. The heirs to the estate are the widow and a number of children. Mr. Costley died 10 days ago while delirious with fever.

Maggie Burk has petitioned the court for her appointment as guardian of the person and estate of Mildred Burk, a minor, whose estate is valued at $2,514.

BOUNTIFUL
CALL STORE BURGLARIZED.

Watches and Pocket Cutlery Taken—Sorrow in Crockett Family.

Special Correspondence.
Bountiful, Davis Co., Dec. 25.—The establishment of Lamoni Call was burglarized this morning between 1 o'clock and daylight and a number of watches and pocket knives stolen. The exact amount of the loss to Mr. Call was not ascertained at present, but as most of the watches were left for repairs. The knives were not of much value.

For several days Mr. Call has had a fair amount of money on display and selling chances on quinine the amount of coin the jar contains. The one guessing the nearest to the amount to receive a prize. It is thought the jar of money was the chief object of the burglary.
Luckily for Mr. Call the money had been placed in the safe, together with the new watches and the most expensive jewelry. The robbery was evidently committed by some local party. The officers are working on the case.

VICTIM OF TYPHOID.

tendent of public instruction.

PETERSON.
Children's Dance and Festival—New School at Mountain Green.

Special Correspondence.
Peterson, Utah, Dec. 24.—On Monday, the 23rd, the school trustees gave the children a dance, which was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed. In the evening the children under the able direction of the principal, Miss Mechem, gave an entertainment consisting of songs, recitations, dialogues, etc. When the program was finished, the large attendance enjoyed a social dance.

SPANISH FORK.
FINED FOR GAMBLING.

A. B. Rockhill Assessed $100, Others $25, $50 to $75.

Spanish Fork, Utah Co., Dec. 26.— Judging was held today in the justice's court of the gambling case that was centered in the case against A. B. Rockhill, cashier of the Commercial bank of Spanish Fork, in whose building it was alleged that gambling had taken place, under the auspices of a traveling company. Attorney J.
W. M. Whitecotton, of Provo, demanded a jury trial, which was given, and he was convicted on the testimony of City Marshal Hans Olson. Justice Will Frost fined him $100 or 100 days in jail.
The others implicated pleaded guilty and were assessed as follows: Alvin Hanson, $25; R. E. Collett, and Charles Whitlock, $50; Joseph Wren, $75, and E. B. Sumner, $25. Appeals were taken to the district court. Three others were prosecuted, as they had privately pleaded guilty.

GAMBLING OUTFIT RECOVERED.
The roulette wheel and the other parts of a gambling outfit that had been taken from the courthouse one day lately has been found located in a haystack, about one-fourth of a mile along the Springville road. Those who committed the burglary will be in custody shortly, as the officers have a good clue.

THE SECRET OF HAPPINESS.
The secret of happiness in every life is to be doing what you feel you can do best, and to have your own ingenuity. To do what you can do best includes the entire gamut, from house-keeping to social queen, though I should like to turn the gamut upside down by putting the house-maker at the top instead of the bottom of the scale. Your own ingenuity you must have, married or single. If you would take into your life all the happiness it offers, and give out of your life, you will find it. Give the community.—Full Mail Magazine.

A TREE OF MANY USES.
"The caranaba palm of Brazil," said the lumber dealer, "is the world's most useful tree. A department store tree you might well call it, for it gives everything from medicine to cattle feed. Its roots make a very valuable drug, a blood purifier that is prescribed a good deal in the spring. Its timber takes a high polish and is in demand among cabinet-makers for fine work. The sap becomes wine or vinegar, according to the way it is prepared, and starch and sugar are also obtained from this sap. The fruit of the tree is a cattle food, the nut is a good coffee substitute, the pit makes corks. There, can you beat it—medicine, sugar, coffee, starch, wine, corks, food, lumber and vinegar—all from this one tree, the caranaba palm."—Minneapolis

HOW ALLEN GOT A FISH HATCHERY

The Only Trouble Was That the Small Detail of Water Was Lacking.

CAPT. HOBSON'S NEW HARBOR

John H. White, Official House Stenographer for Twenty-Nine Years, Called by Death.

(Special to the "News.") Washington, Dec. 24.—An unusually large number of bills have been introduced in the house this session to establish fish hatcheries in various states.
Nearly every measure calls for an appropriation of $25,000, that sum being generally regarded as the necessary one to provide what the member wants. It is expected that during this session a general bill will be passed providing hatcheries in a number of states that have none now. It will be framed by the merchant marine and fisheries committees. The last bill to go through Congress for a fish hatchery was that offered by the late famous "Private" John M. Allen of Mississippi. Just as he was about to close his congressional career after serving continuously for 16 years he got his bill through by making a most humorous speech. It was impossible for the house to resist the appeal, and, although only a few days of the session remained, the senate accepted the measure without amendment, and it was without quarry by the late President McKinley.
The latter also appointed "Private" Allen a member of the national commission in connection with the Louisiana Purchase exposition.

A DETAIL, BUT NECESSARY.
The last time "Private" Allen was in Washington, on being asked how his fish hatchery was getting along at Tupelo, he said: "Well, it is doing about as well as might be expected. The main trouble down at Tupelo is that we are a little shy of water, and somehow you are bound to have plenty of water if you run a fish hatchery successfully."

NOT AN EASY POSITION.
John H. White, who died here the other day, was for 29 years the official stenographer of the house of representatives. Few men can stand the strain of such a position for so long a period. Reporting the debates in the house is much more difficult than in the senate. The hall of the house is much larger than the senate chamber, and the members of the lower branch of Congress cannot be broken of the habit of interrupting questions, four or five at a time, when there is a running debate of a lively nature.
Messrs. Shney, Murphy and Genesler, the three oldest of the stenographers, have been continuously in the harness for approximately 40 years.

HARDEST OF ALL.
The most difficult reporting for any of the stenographers is in the committees of Congress when important hearings are had and recalcitrant witnesses have to be examined. At times four or five members of the committee may engage in the questioning, and the witness, instead of answering directly, will evade and try to get into a heated argument with his questioner.

HOBSON'S NEW HONOR.
By the way, Capt. Hobson is a papa.
His first child having been born very recently. It's a boy, too. His cup of happiness will be running over if some bright morning he hears that the speaker has decided to appoint him a Democratic member of the house naval affairs committee. Uncle Joe is said to be favorably considering the matter.

SLOW IN SETTLING DEBTS.
The United States has never yet settled entirely with the state of Virginia and the city of Baltimore for the money borrowed just after the close of the second war with Great Britain.
During that war the British burned the capitol at Washington and some of the department buildings. Uncle Sam practically had no money in the treasury and had to borrow funds to rebuild. The late Thomas B. Reed of Maine, before he became speaker, had a claim of $13 which he tried for many years to get paid at the treasury to a lighthouse keeper on the Maine coast. He was put off so long that he finally paid the money out of his own pocket. It made him so mad that one day at the capitol he declared that the United States government was a scoundrel when it came to a question of paying amounts due to poor devils like his lighthouse keeper.

CLARK BOOMED FOR SPEAKER.
Friends of Hon. Champ Clark of Missouri are figuring already that the Democrats have a fair chance of controlling the house in the next Congress, and they are booming him this early for the speakership. As John Sharp Williams of Mississippi will not be in the next house, Williams proposes to take two years' rest before his term commences in the senate, therefore never has had a speaker of the house.
