Organ or the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints LORENZO SNOW. TRUSTEE-IN-TRUST

PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING. (SUNDAYS EXCEPTED.) Corner of South Temple and East Temple Street: Sait Lake City, Utah.

Charles W. Penrose, - - Editor Horace G. Whitney, Business Manager SUBSCRIPTION PRICES. in advance...

One Week, Saturday edition, per year, Semi-Weekly,

EASTERN OFFICE. 164-165 Times Building, New York City. In charge of B. F. Cummings, Manager Foreign Advertising, from our Home Office.

Address all business communications: THE DESERET NEWS, Salt Lake City, Utah.

SALT LAKE CITY, . AUG. 29, 1901

WHICH IS RIGHT?

The recent attacks by the Utah Presbytery on the first principles of the Latter-day Saints' faith has been productive of some good, in arousing interest among both Saints and sinners. The result is increased inquiry and reading of the scriptures, with a deeper conviction of the truth of "Mormonism" and the folly of the theories of human theology. We therefore recur to the topics introduced before the Presbyterian teachers. Mr. McClain, who made a special subject of "The Holy Spirit," among other things said, as reported:

"I find no place in the Bible where the Holy Spirit is under the control of men. He is not going here and there because men put Him there. He is not controlled by men, but men are con-

The reverend gentleman then read an excerpt from a tract on 'the laying on of hands,' by Dr. Wishard, in which the latter holds that the laying on of hands is symbolical, and that it was performed after the people had prayed and received the Holy Spirit."

The gentleman might have saved himself the trouble of endeavoring to show that the Holy Spirit is not "under the control of men." We have not heard up to date that anybody has claimed that the Holy Spirit was, or is, or will be under the control of men. Of course he could not find that notion in the Bible, nor can he find it in the Book of Mormon or the Doctrine and Covenants, or any of our Church standards. It is like other vagaries of sectarian ministers, a figment of vain imagination. His language implied that he was opposing a "Mormon" tenet, while in fact he was striking at empty space and denying that which had not been

One of the doctrines of "Mormonism" is, that the gift of the Holy Ghost is marted to believing, repentant, baptized persons through the laying on of the hands of men divinely appointed to officiate. Does that place the Holy Spirit under their "control?" Not at all. It is the gift of God. The means employed by Deity in its bestowal are those divinely appointed, They are another matter. The fact that people in every land and of every tongue have received that heavenly gift through the laying on of the hands of our Elders, is frequently offered as ev!dence that they have acted under divine authority, because no man can bestow the gift of the Holy Ghost upon anyone, as it is the gift of God alone, The argument of the Presbyter was wasted, because nobody holds the position which he assailed. The reading from Dr. Wishard's tract-which we have not seen-disclosed the fact that both the gentlemen named proclaim a doctrine that is untrue and unscriptural. Under the Presbyterian Confession of Faith, it is not to be received by the teachers to whom it was addressed nor by anyone else as authoritative, because it cannot be found in the Holy Scriptures nor be proved thereby, and they form the only and allsufficient guide to Presbyterian salva-

The laying on of hands is not a mere symbol. It is enumerated by the Apostle as one of the principles that form the foundation of the doctrine of Christ, and is classed with repentance, and faith, and baptism and eternal judgment .- (Heb. vi, 2.) It was not "performed after the people had prayed and received the Holy Spirit," but was the means employed by which God bestowed that Spirit, upon people who had been prepared for it by faith, repentance and baptism.

Take the case of the people of Samaria who, after receiving the word of God and being baptized by Philip had to wait for the coming of the Apostles Peter and John, "who when they were come down prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Ghost (for as yet he was fallen upon none of them. only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) Then laid they their hands on them and they received the Hely Ghost," Simon, the sorcerer, saw that "through laying on of the Apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given.' When he offered to buy this power Peter said: "Thy money perish with thee because thou hast thought that the gift of God can be purchased with money."-(Acts vili, 12-20.) If the laying on of hands was merely "symbolical," there would have been no need for the Apostles to journey from Jerusalem to Samaria to lay hands on the baptized men and women. If Philip had been endowed with authority to lay on hands for the gift of the Holy Chost, the Apostles would not have been required to perform the ceremony. Philip, like John the Baptist, could baptize but not officiate in that further ordinance of the Gospel. See also the account of Paul's administration to the people in Ephesus, who be-Heved and had been improperly baptized, but who after rightful baptism, received the Holy Ghost "when Paul had laid his hands upon them."-(Acts xix, 1-6.) Was it a mere "symbol" that Paul referred to, in writing to Timothy, treasury may recover the money thus "Wherefore I put thee in remembrance spent. If the treasury could be relm-is in thee by the putting on of my hands?" (II Tim. 1, 6). This was an ancient ordinance, for we read that "Joshua, the son of Nun, was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands upon him" .- (Deut. xxlv, 9). This may have been an ordination, but it is clear that it was the means by which the spirit of wisdom, which is the spirit of truth, was conferred upon Joshua.

It does not appear that either Moses or the Apostles in the early Christian Church, had any idea that in faying hands upon people they were attempting to "control the Holy Spirit." Nor does any Apostle or Elder in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints entertain such a notion. Like Peter, they regard the reception of the Holy Ghost as "the gift of God," that cannot be purchased with money, but is given of God to sincere believers, who have repented of sin and have been baptized "for the remission of sins." According to the Presbyterian creed, the reception of the Holy Ghost precedes belief and repentance. It is not given to any but the elect. Only those persons who were chosen before the oundation of the world to be saved, whose numbers can never be changed, and who can never fall entirely from grace whatever they do or leave undone, are "effectually called," and they are "altogether passive" until they are quickened and renewed by the Holy Ghost, and thereby enabled to answer this call." Belief and all its results follow this reception of the Holy Spirit. See Westminster Confession of Faith.) But the Apostle Paul, writing to the Ephesians says: "In whom also, after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise (Eph. 1, 13.) Christ placed the birth of the water first, and afterwards the birth of the Spirit (Jno. iii, 5.) He was first baptized in water, then received the Holy Chost and the declared approval of the Father (Matth. lii, 16.)

That is the order set forth in the scriptures. It is proclaimed in the Gospel of the Son of God. The Presbyterlan notion is a comparatively new plan devised by men and contrary to both reason and scripture. We have no quarrel with those who entertain it. They have the same right to regard it as religion, as we have to accept the truths revealed from heaven in this and former ages. When our faith is assalled we have the right to defend it. When our opponents misrepresent our views, as they usually do when attacking it, we have the right to object. And in reply we also have the right to show the fallacy of their creed, which they desire us to adopt in lieu of our own. And seeing that, in their belief, the whole matter was unalterably and irrevocably fixed before we were born, and that nothing we can do or omit will change our fate, what does it matter whether we are mistaken or not about "symbols," or forms, or ceremonies or anything else? Are not our Presbyterian censors doing a great deal of labor in vain?

QUENCH THE FLAMES.

The southern problem, apparently has two distinct phases. One is how to bring the savage instinct of some of the blacks under the domination of the laws of civilization, and the other is to subdue the wild beast passion of that white element which revels in blood and horror. Any one-sided effort at solution of the problem will fail. One thing is perfectly clear so far, and that is that wild beasts, even though their color be white, will never succeed in conquering the black savage for civilization. The killing of innocent and guilty, burnings at the stake, torture, and all kinds of wild orgies have not served to decrease the number of unspeakable crimes. On the contrary, they are increasing in frequency and revolting cruelty. Is it not a fact that many of these crimes are committed as a retaliation by the blacks upon the helpless whites? Are they not in many cases the "blow for a blow" in a savare warfare between races? That matter needs investigation, if it is desired to arrive at a full comprehension of the southern problem. But in the meantime it is evident that the method of the mob is a failure. The wild beast may bury itself in the vitals of the savage, but it cannot tame him. The moral status of many of the blacks is easily accounted for. Their ancestors were often by the sanction of white morality, irresponsible slaves, barred from the gentle influence of home life, Morally and socially they were placed on a with the cattle in the stable, or the dogs in the yard. It is but to be expected that the characteristics acquired under such abnormal conditions should appear in a generation or two after the emancipation, and produce transgressions of law and rules of civilization.

It is more difficult to account for the noral status of the other class, that apply crime as a remedy against crime, and glory in the fact, For these people profess to love justice. They claim to be competent to govern a free country, and some of them, no doubt, shine as devoted disciples of Him who gave His own life for the salvation of the lest. Their case is different, and it is a question which phase of the southern problem is the more serious. Neither can be successfully handled without the enthronement of law and the suppression of anarchy. It is pleasant to note that some efforts have been made successfully, at resisting mobs thirsting for blood; also that the press of the country is awakening to the dangers that threaten American civilization. Let the watchmen on the towers cry out until public conscience is fully aroused. Let the country prepare to deal once more with the southern situation, and that before the awful seeds now sown are ripened and scattered broadcast with the wind. IRRIGATION PAYS.

One of the objections raised to the growing demand for the reclamation by the government of the arid lands of the West is this, that so far no plan has been suggested, by which the national that thou stir up the gift of God that bursed, it is said, Congress would no many people cannot be convinced of doubt be more willing to engage in this enterprise than it has been hitherto.

The British officials who direct the Egyptian affairs do not hesitate in urging the construction of national irrigation works, on such grounds. They are building a gigantic dam at Assouan. by which the water of the Nile will be stored up, for use at a time when most needed. The work will cost anywhere between ten and twenty million dollars. This is a vast expenditure for a country with the limited resources of Egypt, but it is believed it will be a paying investment.

The annual increase in the wealth of the country, when this dam and the canals and drains shall have been completed, is estimated at $12,800,000, and the direct benefit to the state, growing out of this increase of wealth will amount to $1,860,000. It is also thought that the sale of lands belonging to the government will produce $3,000,000, when brought under irrigation. At this rate, it will not take long before the money expended is all returned.

The results would be similar, though on a much larger scale, in this country, if the vast regions now deserts for want of water at the right time of the year, were brought under cultivation. The states thus benefited would receive au increase of population and wealth, and the general government would be directly benefited by an increase of the revenues. This is self-evident. The entire country would be benefited. For an increase of the population would mean larger home markets for all manufactured goods, and more work for all classes of laborers, including those engaged in the various lines of transportation. Whatever may be urged against irrigation by government aid, it, cannot be successfully maintained that it would be a financial loss. It would be a vast gain to the entire country, no matter from what point of view it is

THEOSOPHISTS AROUSED.

A few days ago the San Diego, Cal., Union contained a numerously signed letter in which the teachings of Theosophists were characterized as "the antithesis of Christianity," a system of pantheism, denying the fatherhood of Ged, and therfore the brotherhood of man. The letter concludes:

"The circumstances attending the nodern revival of Theosophy under the leadership of Madam Blavatsky are not such as commend themselves to our eason or moral sense; while its ancient sway in the Orient has blighted countlives and has left India a moral and spiritual desert. The teachings of Theosophy are diametrically opposed to the Gospel of Christ as it is presented in the New Testament and taught by the Christian church,'

The students at Point Loma immediately challenged the authors of that letter, excepting one of them, whom they do not regard as entitled to courtesy, to a public debate on this proposition: "Resolved, That Theosophy as 'promulgated from Point Loma,' is not the antithesis of the teachings of Christ," Will the clergymen accept that challenge? If they do, much interest will be taken in the debate throughout the country.

It is doubtful, though, that the result will be worth all the trouble. Such debates seldom amount to anything. The parties engage in them, not for the purpose of comparing views, with the motive of finding truth and have errors corrected. They are both convinced that they have the truth, and that the opponents are wrong, and they consequently aim at breaking down the opponent without listening to argument. Such debates generally amount to an exhibition of dialectal fencing and prize wrestling for prominence in eloquence. When it is over, both parties generally claim victory, and the public is no wiser than before. The aim was not to ascertain truth, but to establish the superiority of the disputants as jugglers with words and phrases, and that is really of no public im-

If public debates could be held for the purpose of ascertaining truth, they would be of great service. But unless that is the real object, they are of less use than prize fights with fists, or due's with swords or pistols.

France seems to mean business if the Sultan doesn't.

In South America the wheel of for tune always brings revolutions,

Because the strike does not spread it must not be understood that it is flattening out.

Senator Ben Tillman says he has little respect for editors. He has none the best of the editors in this respect.

King Edward will introduce American elevators into Buckingham palace. Another evidence that American ideas are elevating England.

In his day John L. Sullivan was afraid to meet no man, but he feared to meet Mrs. Carrie Nation when she called at his saloon.

The powers object to China sugar coating the pills they mix for her before she swallows them. They want to see her make wry faces.

It was one of P. D. Armour's sayings, "Good men are not cheap." He might most truthfully and appropriately have said, "Good beef is not cheap,"

The list of witnesses called to testify before the Schley court of inquiry, not including those asked for by Schley himself, is considerably longer than the General MacArthur says that Americans are able to solve all problems. That may be, still it is not wise to go round hunting up problems just for the pleasure of solving them.

W. K. Vanderbilt says that inherited wealth stifles ambition. But then inherited wealth enables one to satisfy so many long felt wants that one doesn't miss the stifled ambition.

Mrs. Nation asked Police Commissioner Murphy if he did not think a little hatchet work in New York would be a good thing. A hatchet, ax or something, should be laid to the root of the upas tree of corruption that grows and flourishes in that great city.

A toadstool is not a mushroom, but the fact until they eat the one for the other. But in every walk of life there are many who insist on eating toadstools and will not heed the warning that they are poisonous.

The owner of the Independence says: You may announce that, as it has been impossible for me to secure any more races for the Independence, she will be docked Sept. 3 and broken up." He must feel "all broke up" to take this way of showing his independence.

Sending bogus gold dust and nuggets to Alaska and the Klondike, to be used in swindling operations in connection with the selling of claims, is the latest form of the gold brick swindle. If some men's honesty and industry were equal to their ingenuity what might they not accomplish!

There is no reason to despair over the reign of the lynchers in the South when a man is convicted by an Alabama jury of murder in the first degree for being a member of a mob that lynched a man, and the court sentences him to life imprisonment. And the man lynched was a negro and the man convicted was a white man. Surely the world does not go backwards.

"Wedding a duke may turn a daughter of the Vanderbilts into a sewing woman after all, as King Edward intends, it is so reported, to appoint the Duchess of Marlborough as mistress of the robes," says the San Francisco Chronicle. If asked how she likes her new occupation the duchess would doubtless answer, "Sew, sew."

A few days ago Captain James M. Forsythe, late captain of the navy yard at Mare Island, expressed the opinion that the fountain head of the Sampson-Schley controversy was to be found in the fact that Sampson had been promoted over Schley, who was his senior. This is the opinion generally held and if not true is not new or startling. But its expression by Captain Forsythe has caused the navy department to address him a letter callling for an explanation of the interview. The explanation will call for much ingenuity or brutal frankness on the part of the captain. Which will he choose?

THE THIRST FOR BLOOD,

New York Evening Post.

What is to become of a community of whites which puts blacks to death on mere suspicion, and drives whole familles from their homes because several crimes have been committed by persons belonging to their race dur-ing the past ten years? What have we left of civilization when hundreds of men, having in their power an alleged criminal, will not even put him to death promptly, but deliberately proong the most ingenious tortures? may be only "a parochial problem," but it is a very real one, and it presses for

Worcester Gazette. Burning at eh stake has become such a common pastime in the United States that the almost daily dispatches relative to such episodes are very brief and in many newspapers are given an obscure position. This shows that the novelty has worn off and the news value of the Items decreased. Very soon it will be expedient for newspapers to maintain a "Lynchings" column in which the day's list will apcompact form in small type y that time, however, the spectack a man writhing and shricking while the flames sizzle his flesh will have los its power to please and some new meth-od of killing will be introduced which for a time will take its place as a "feature" in the papers. Bolling in hot wa-ter or hot oll would be attractive and a unique method would be to inst the victim in a cauldron of vitriol.

Springfield Republican. Well, anyhow, that innocent Missouri negro who was hanged by a mob the other day, because a white girl had been found dead somewhere in his vicinity, "is said to have admitted just before he was lynched that he had served a term in the penitentiary for criminal assault" upon some other woimportant information comes from the Pierce City correspond-ent of the St. Louis Globe Democrat. So what does it matter if he was innocent of the particular crime for which he was hanged? Mark Twain ought to write a sequel to "Huckleberry Finn" and depict the Missouri attitude to-ward the negro in a 50-year-after vein.

New York Sun. This rage is now directed against ne-groes, but there are other races against which it may expend itself ultimately if it is allowed to continue. Nor is there another country or region in the civilized world where, alas! the danger from it is so great as here, no other where burning at the stake has become a practice almost daily repeated. The criminals to whom the swift and severe punishment of law must be meted out, if this attrocious mania is to be over come, are the burners rather than the It makes of men wild beasts and kindles in them a ferocious passion with which a taste of human blood inflames the tiger.

THE SHAMROCK.

New York Mail and Express. Shamrock stock is undoubtedly up in the market. Sir Thomas Lipton's boat has been behaving admirable in her racing gear in our waters, and the Columbia has been beating the Constitu-tion again in the Constitution's weather. At the present writing, the contin-ued American residence of the cup eems likely to depend on last year' champlon beating a better boat than she beat last year. There is no real reason to suppose that she could not do it; but the improving prospect of the British boat lends decided interest to the situation. In any case, we have the prospect of a smart series of con-tests conducted with the best possible

Omaha World-Herald. Sir Thomas Lipton is with us once again and is lifting the America's cup wo or three times a day. Here's hoping that Sir Thomas will carry the cup home with him-if Shamrock II proves to be the better boat.

Milwaukee Wisconsin. In her first trial sail off Sandy Hook, the second Shamrock has elicited re-marks such as were common when the first Shamrock was scooling around the Hook preparatory to defeat. She is a fast boat, but it should not be forgotten that it is to meet one that is as fast, if not faster.

RECENT PUBLICATIONS.

The Engineering Magazine for September opens with finely illustrated articles by Dr. J. G. Kerr on "Engineering at the Glasgow Exhibition," by Prof. W. S. Aldrich on the "Mechanical and Electrical Features of the Buffalo Exposition," and by M. Georges Caye on the "Engineering Organization of a on the "Engineering Organization of a Great Exposition," reviewing the sys-tem and methods of the great Paris fair of 1999. Another Illustrated paper is by Mr. C. W. Purington, giving an account of the gold wealth of Siberia, Herr Luders makes an analysis of American Machine-Shop Practice from divining and a second a second and a second End-of-the-Season

Half Price Bargains will prevail in Summer Goods at Z. C. M. I. during the WEEK COMMENCING MONDAY, AUGUST 26.

These offerings will be specially attractive to the Ladies.

Our Entire Line of WHITE and COLORED SHIRT WAISTS Will go this Week at-HALF PRICE

Our choice stock of Ladies' colored SATEEN, MOIRE AND WASH UNDERSKIRTS Will go this Week at-HALF PRICE

FALL AND WINTER UNDERWEAR.

WE HAVE for this Season the most complete and handsome line of LADIES', MISSES', and CHILDREN'S UNDERWEAR aver affect the complete and handsome line of LADIES', MISSES', and CHILDREN'S UNDERWEAR ever offered in this City. Nothing like it in extent, beauty and utility has been seen here before Shipments are coming in daily, and already we have an immense stock of perfectly lovely Underwear that is a delight to people of taste. We are ready this week to satisfy early purchasers, who get the first choice. We have MARKED PRICES AWAY DOWN, so you have a double advantage in avoiding delay.

A special invitation is extended this week to Ladies and Misses to visit our Underwear department and view the magnificent stock of Underwear, the very choicest made.

Z. C. M. I., T. G. WEBBER, Supt.

a German View-Point; Mr. P. R. Moses discusses the choice of an electric-pow-er distribution system for factories; Mr. A. Hamilton Church continues his exposition of an accurate cost-keeping system; and Mr. John Platt presents a suggestive study of the water-tube boiler for marine work.-New York.

SALT LAKE THEATRE,

GEO. D. PYPER, Manager OPENING OF THE SEASON OF 1901-2.

FRIDAY and SATURDAY,

August 30-31,

SATURDAY MATINEE. Direct from Empire Theatre, New York, CHARLES FROHMAN'S

EMPIRE THEATRE COMPANY. Presenting Henry Arthur Jones's Greatest Play,

MRS. Dane's Defence

Charles Richman, W. H. Crompton,
B. Y. Backus,
Stanley Dark,
George Copper,
George Copper,
George Sylvester.

Ethel Hornick,
Margaret Dale,
May Brooke,
Lillian Thurgate,
Frank Brownlee,

PRICES: Parquette, $1.50; Boxes and first two rows Dress Circle, $2.00; First Balcony, 55c and $1.00; Second Balcony, 50c; Third Balcony, 25c.

TODAY. United Commercial Travelers.

TOMORROW. THE TABERNACLE CHOIR.

JNO. A. McALISTER, Manager.

SALT PALACE,

M. E. MULVEY, Manager.

Moonlight Picnic Tonight, Under the auspices of the SINGING SOCIETY HARMONIE Assisted by the Wilbur-Kirwin Co.

Tickets on Sale at Smith Drug Co.

CALDER'S PARK. FREE DANCING.

Afternoon and Evening.

Clifford, Weber & Romaine's Big Vaudeville The greatest child acrobat and wire artist in the world, age 5 years.

WILLIAM KNOX. Baritone. CLIFFORD & ROMAINE. MISS CLARK, Soprano, and other high-class artists,

t. A Daring Ride for Life into the Lake
Tonight at 90 clock.
Cars every 15 minutes. Round trip, including admission to grounds, 15c.

Constantly increasing trade evidences our ability to cater to discriminating apetites.

The first of the oysters are here.

Prof. A. Lamoureux, B.S., L.L.B. Recently of Paris, France, has opened

French Language and Literature in the Templeton building, room 517, and is ready for the reception of pupils. Apply for terms from 11 to 12 a. m. and 4 to 5 p. m.

New Goods

CUTLER BROS., COMPANY,

No. 36 Main Street,

Salt Lake City, - Utah.

than any others. Our L. D. S. Knit Garments at $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00 are the most comfortable and durable.

2.-Liberal Arts.

250 BOYS' SUITS at right

240 doz. Boys' and Mens'

Underwear.

100 pieces New Dress Goods.

We make Boys' Hoslery that gives better satisfaction

prices.

WE SAVE YOU 25 PER CENT ON UNDERWEAR.

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH.

Lunion Marie Marie

University of Utah includes the school of Arts and Sciences, the State School of Mines, and the State Normal School. The School of Arts and Sciences offers courses in

The State School of Mines offers courses in 1.-Mining Engineering. 2.-Electrical Engineering. The State Normal School offers:

1.—A Four Year's Normal Course. 2.—Advanced Normal Courses. 3.-Courses in Kindergarten Training.

1.-General Science.

A Preparatory School is also maintained, which gives preparation for courses in general science, liberal arts, mining and electrical engineering, law, medicine and business. New buildings. Splendid equipment. Beautiful site. Healthful location.

Fall term begins September 11,

The University Annual, which gives full information concerning courses, etc., will be sent free on application.

D. R. ALLEN, Secretary.

По от при при при при при на при п При на принати на прин ······

In its court settings, architectural, fountain and electrical effects, sculptural edornm', orticultural and floral embelishment, and color decorations this exposition will surpass all others.

To enjoy its charms, with the added attraction of Niagara Falls will be a most delightful privilege.

As the only double track railway from the West to Buffalo (meaning greater safety and dispatch in traveling) and by reason of its furnishing the most complete and frequent service of any line, the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern with its eight through trains daily, including the only daylight train, will prove the most desirable route for exposition travel.

In making it your choice you will travel well. It takes you through the richest and fairest portion of the Middle States, including the beautiful Western Reserve country with nearly 300 miles of ride along the picturesque south shore of Lake Erie.

All tickets over this route afford use of steamers either way between Cleve land and Buffalo, also stop at Chautaugua on return trip within limit of ticket. "Book of Trains" containing full information about Lake Shore service free on application to F. M. BYRON, G. W. A., Chicago.

> The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway.

tommonomen manner ELIAS MORRIS & SONS COMPANY.

The most elegant and most extensive line of Mantels ever exhibited in this city now in our Show Rooms.

21-23-25-27 W. So. Temple, Salt Lake City.