Who never old a slander forge, His neighbor's fame to wound; Nor hearken to a false report By malice whispered round

Who vice to all its pomp and power Can treat with just neglect; And plety though clothed in raga-Raligiously r sport.

Who to his plighted word and trust Has very firmly stood; And though he promise to his loss.

Whose soul in usury diedains His treasure to employ; Whom no rewards can ever bribe The guiltless to destroy.

Toil, Toit, Toil!

The following limitation of Rood's "Song of the Shirt." is from Godey's Lady's Book

> Toll, tell, tollf As the constant drop on a stone, So this censeless, endless work,

> > Toll, tell, tall!

Wears away body and bone! Though the Poet splotter and write, -Though the orator bully and bawl. If it were not for the Pditor's pen, What were the use of it ali?

Christians, Mormons and Jowe: Is there a man on this weary earth But grows richer by reading the news? As they read it by sunlight and taper? And yot there isu't a soul of them all

But gradges to pay for his paper!

Nature and Fashion.

Tis natura makes the gentleman. Tis nature moulds the heart and mind, Endows far more than fashlon can, With all its boast of modes refluid;

Your rank is but a human gift, And all experience proves it so; No earthly title yet could lift The mean, the worthless, and the low.

Then he ye hold when fouls look cold. For right and reason both commend it, And surely they who make the gold, Tis nature grants the wisdom, power. The lunate tendertiess of thought, A lofty mind is nature's dower, A boon no fortue ever hought.

Where nature's hand bath been before, There's little need of Fashiou's touch Can rank for maphood's race do more? It often fails to do as much

Then be ye bold when foods look cold, For right and reason both commendit, And surely they who make the gold Are good as those who waste or spend it.

QUARTERING UPON FRIENDS: Farm!

BY FAI CONBRIDGE.

City-bred people have a pious horror of the country in winter, and no great regard for coun try visitors at any timo, however worth they may let on to the contrary. In rushing but weather, when the bricks and mortar, the stagnated, oven-like air of the The I cish girl came bounding, screeching that Mr. Gruy had taken a notion to me was crowded city threatens to hake, parboil, or give forth! She had been sauntering through the day of the constitution to the sauntering through the constitution to the constitution of the constitutio Uncle John, and the bullet-headed, uncombed,

It was not long since, during the prevalence Jingos of a hot sunner, that Mrs. Triangle one more children well and quiet through this dreadful hot weather. We must go into the country. The Joneses and Pigwigginses and Micwackinses, her room, and so alarmed her that she welled and-and-everybody has gone out into the country, and we must go, took why can't we??

'Why can't we?' mechanically echoed Trian gle, who just then was deeply absorbed in a pro-blem as to whether or not, considering the prices of coal, potatoes, house-rents, leather, and dry goods, he would fetch up in prison or the poorhouse first! It was a momentous question, and to his wife's proposal of a fresh detail of domestic expense, Triangle responded— Why can't we

'Yes, that's what I'd like to know-why can't

We can't, Mrs. Triangle, decidedly answered

Now Mrs T. being but a woman, very natumust be done.

'My dear,' said he, pushing aside his cup and tilting himself upon the hind legs' of his chair tilting himself upon the hind legs' of his chair thusiness is very dull, the weather is intoler.

Chair and the lot had broken out. Evangeline Roxana Matilda Triangle had disappeared. The

'Why can't we?-that's what I'd like to know!' was the ready response of Mrs. T

Well, we can go. My friend Jingo has a fine place in the country as ever was, anywhere; he has asked me again and again to come down in the summer, and bring all the family. Now we'll go; Jingo will be delighted to see us; and doctor for Georgiana Victori ie Rose Adelaide, a Thanksgiving dinner. How would you like we'll have a good, pleasant time, Pit war the baby and—Nora Dougherty.

Mrs. Triangle was delighted; soon all the Triangle that she was a case—of small pox. clouds of her temper were dispersed, and like people cout out for each other, Triangle and his major Jingo returned, but without a medical dle at my face, it burned so; but I couldn't stead of skimming the pans.

Wife sat and planned the details of the tour to adviser; the village Esculapius inving gone off to speak more than if Pd been born tongue. Jingo Hill Farm. Frederic Antonio Gustavus die city. Things looked gloomy enough: Triwas to be rigged out in new boots, lat, and breeches. Maria Evangeline Roxana Matilda roasted alive in the city hefore venturing upon was to be fitted out in polka boots, gipsey bones, and Bloomer puntalettes, with an entire inform, and he determined to put it through.

Given the city. Things looked gloomy enough: Trivings looked gloomy enough: Tr net, and Boomer pantasetts, with an explore, voice of hundkerchiefs, searts, ribone, gloves, and hosiery for mother, little Georgiana Vic. 'Never mind, never mind, my dear fellow; no torine Rose Adelaide, and the baby, Henry Ri. (trouble to us." naldo Mercutio.

Bridget Durfy, the maid-of all-work, who was: to accompany them on the expedition as super-visor of the children, threw up her engagement. 'Plaze the pigs,' said Biddy, 'it's mesilf as niver likes the country, at all; an' be dad, I'll jist be afther not gain' mn'm, wid yez!

Here was a go—or ruther, a 'no go!' Friangle had bought tickets for all, and ordered the Hall. carriage at four; it was now three p.in. of a hot, roasting day. It would be on-possible, as Mrs. T. said, to go without a g'rl, so poor, sweltering Triangle rushed down to the 'Intelligence buffice, where, from the sweating mass of female discountry awaiting a market for their time and a greater dread of small-pox than yellow fever labor, Triangle selected a stout, Irish blonde, or death itself! warranted perfect, eapable, kind, honest, and 'What's to be the Lord only knows how many virtues the keeper of an 'Intelligence office' will not swear belongs to one of their stock in trade. suid the Major, pacing up and duwn, in great

Away went Triangle sweating and swearing; the Irish maiden, swinging a hundle in one hand and a flaring bandana in the other, tollowing her patron with a duck-waddle; and finally the carriage came, all got in but Triangle, who started on loot to the depot, carrying his double-parrelled gun and leading an ugly dag, which he rejoiced in believing was a full-bloaded setter, though the best posted dag funciers assured him it was a cross between a tan yard cur and a better transportation of small large were discussing the transportation of small large.

sheep stenler! But, after a world of motion and commotion, on the part of Triangle about the dog, tickets and baggage, and Mrs. Triangle about the children, satchels, her new gown, and the sleepy Irish girl—they found themselves whisked over Irish girl—they found themselves was carriage tourge, the rails, and after some three hours carriage tourge.

O, Lord, too bad—harrible—wish I'd never Hill, and where they found the 'private con- seen veyance, of the proprietor of Jingo Hill Farm waiting to carry them band box and bundle, rag-ing and bob tail, to Jingo Hall.

The carriage being overfull, Triangle concluded to walk up, stretch his legs, try his dog and gun, and have a pop at the game. But also, and gun, and have a pop at the game. But also, and gun, and have a pop at the game. and gun, and have a pop at the game. But alas, "Come on—never mind—scize a club, fork, or for the villainous dog! no sooner had he got anything, and bunt around for the cursed dog loose and scampered off up the road, than he the ll bite same of our people, hurses, or cattle? loose and scanneced off up the road, than he sees a flock of sheep some distance acrors the fields, and away he pitched. The sheep ran, he about the size of a fence-rail Patrick made after the sheep! and poor Triangle after his dog.

'Hay! you Ponto — here — hay—Punto-o-ol around to hunt up his daughter, whom they Hey, boy, come here you dog-hi! hil-do you found asleep in a smamer-house.

istence of the dog, but compromised the matter by hitting him a whack across the back with the barrels of his shooting iron; in doing so, he broke off the stock, clean as a whistle! It is useless to deny that Triangle was much he sworm equal to an Eric Canal boatman; his fury so garral O, murther?

NOTICE.

The HIGH Priests' Quorum will meet for the coming winter, on the following winder, on the bills were to be presented to them every weldnesslay evenings of every month at 6 every morning and every night, while eternity lasted; and how they were to be made to undergo in the spirit what they had so rutheless to the Clerk, and secure their certificates along the total control of the coming winter, on the following wind the bills were to be presented to them every well as a door made to undergo in the spirit what they had so rutheless to the Clerk, and secure their certificates.

Jingo, and soon recuperated his good hunor and the alarm of small-pox, looked quite respectable provided that, while hotel keepers are never physical activity by the contents of the Majors' Never did a party enjoy home more completely permitted to slumbor. by reason of the arwell-stocked wine cellar. Ashaund of the facts than the Triangles after that. Triangle has a of the case, Triangle trumped up a cock-and a holy horror of trips to the country, and the of the case. Triangle trumped up a cock-and abull story about the dog and gun.
Aftern sonson, the Triangles got settled away.

and the first day or two passed without anything extraordinary turning up, if we may except the upturning of several flower put's and hen's nests by the children. But the third day ominously. Triangle's dog was found with one of the Major's Or, The Triangles' Visit to Jingo Hill had caught him, and fied him up in the stable. and given him such a dressing that Ponto's soul.

case was nearly beaten out of him.

tied in this easy-chair?—here the good woman gave a smiling survey of her anale per-

The next item was a yowl in the garden! sun, which cortainly overflowed the chair at Everybody rushed out—Mrs. Triangle in her every point, leaving all but a ridge of the back executement less something had happened to the carving arms quite invisible—it thaby and Nora the girl, struck the centre-table, isn't a very easy thing to get up again.—upset the fastral, and not only demolished the Now hustly about, and while we old women ancient piece of furniture, but spilled enough of thick off over the gilt edged literature, table-cloth, and corpet to make a barrel of soft soap. rest ourselves, you and Julia, there, can try your luck with the appleseeds.

the citizens the yellow fever, then we are very garden, and ran against the bee-hives, where a apt to think of plain Aunt Polly, rough-heaved been pand at her. With a presence of mind bee up and at her. With a presence of mind truly unparalleled, she laid down the baby' upon smock-frocked cousins, hephews, and neices, at the grass, and made fight with the spiteful cra their cural homes, amid the fragrant mendows their cural homes, and the fragrant mendows and umbrageous woods; the cool, silver streams and mutinuring brooks of the glurious country.

Then, the poetic cumbeaus and moonshine of was done for. She went to hed; 'baby' was I never looked up but once—then his cheek was done for. She went to hed; 'baby' was I never looked up but once—then his cheek was done for. Then, the poetic simble and modified in was done for. She went to hed; 'baby' was I never looked up but once—then his onest faucy bring to the eye and heart all or a part of found all right, laughing 'st to break its yitty has rodder than mine, and he held the jack-hearty party, at mughty Nora Dory,' as Mrs. A which God has invested the ruraldom.

Now our country friends are mostly desirons.

These two tableaux had hardly reached their smooth as a baby's check. I was looking at rinigle very naturally expressed it.

These two tableaux had hardly reached their smooth as a haby's check. I was looking at candidly so, to have their city friends come and see them—not merely pip visits, but bring your whole family and stay a month! This they may do, and will do, and can affird it, as it is more development to one is packet bank, on a farm. on venient to one's packet bank, on a farm, to quarter a piatoon of your friends than to perform the same operation in the city, where it is not to give your purse the tick-dollar owe in no time.

It was not long since, during the prevalence

That night the effects of stuffing with green this will be the first letter of the name I worse, londer, and longer than seven evil ones It was a night of horror to the whole family my eyes. I hold my breath and so did he.

It was a night of horror to the whole landly —to everybody in and about Jingo Hall. The dogs set up a howl; the children bawled, cried, and took on; the Irish girl screeched; gin and laudanum, peppermint and bollypops, the — to

I did not answer, and we both looked back at the same time. Sure enough it was a lettor S. No pen ever made one more beauti

Triangle felt relieved when daylight camfully. 'Just as I expected,' says he, and his and had it not been Sunday, he would have packed up and put back for the prosy office and eyes grew bright as diamonds, just as I exstagnated quietude of the city. But it was Sun day, and after the children, Irish girl, and dags 'And what answer did you had been partially quieted, down the carriage aunt?' asked Robert Otis, who had been that they to came to the door, and as many as could get into distening with a flushed face. 'What did note of it: The new you say?'

Now Mrs. T. being but a woman, very naturally went on to give Mr. T. a Candle lecture half an hour long, winding up with one of those time-honored perquisites of the female sex—a good ery.

Triangle and Jingo went to escape the din and hour long, winding up with one of those time-honored perquisites of the female sex—a services were over, paor Triangle was taken a side by a tall, bony man, who reported himself speak a word more. By-and-bye he stuck the point of his knife into an apple, and under the point of his knife into an apple, and under the point of his knife into an apple, and under the point of his knife into an apple, and under the point of his knife into an apple, and under the point of his knife into an apple, and under the point of his knife into an apple, and under the point of his knife into an apple, and under the point of his knife into an apple, and under the point of his knife into an apple, and under the point of his knife into an apple, and under the point of his knife into an apple, and under the point of his knife into an apple, and under the point of his knife into an apple and under the point of his knife into a down to his lake-oven of an 'affice,' to plan of a flock of sheep scared to reath, and one winding the skin from around it, he handed business and smoke his cigar. Triangle came rare lamb killed—by your dog! Triangle own it over to me. It was a red skin, I rememhome to tea, and saw at a glance that something ed to the soft impeachment, and 'compromised'

The youtry it. able, I know you and the children would be baby, Georgiana Victorine Rosa Adelaide had much benefited by a trip into the country—why fallen from a swing in the grove and dislocated whirled it three times round my head, and fallen from a swing in the grove and dislocated whirled it three times round my head, and her wrist and flattened her pretty nose quite to down it went on the floor, curled up in the the milk in the dairy. her pretty face. Baby was very ill, and from nicest capital G that you over set your eyes the groans issuing from Nora's attic it was not on. on-possible that sile was no sick as she could be A general seatch took place for Evangeline then sort of sidewise into my face. 'S. G.,' Roxana Matilda, while Major Jingo mounted a says be, taking up the apple-skin, and eathorse and rode over the village to bring down'a ing it, as if it had been the first mouthfull of

A glance at the Irish girl convined poor tried tea spoons?

But, chakingly continued poor Triangle After three days' onslaught upon poor Tri- but, Major, the fact is, I-a-you've got a large

But to have the-a-the small-pox'-

'I wouldn't have -said Triangle

"What's to be done? said poor Triangle

Remove the girl to an out house, justantly!

That's best, Mojor; go move her, at once.

'Me? Me move her, sir' said Jingo 'Why, who will, Major?' responded Triangle. 'Who? Why, you, of course.'

'Mad! my dog?' cries Trinngle.
'A mad dog, too?' exclains the Major in

'Get your gun, quick-come on!' cried the Jingos are down on visitors from the city.

Story of a Courtship.

forgetting manners and everything else .--

'I remember the first time I ever surmised once when we were at an apple entting together down in Maine. Somehow Mr. Grav got into my neighborhood when we ranged round the great basket of apples. I felt my

Now,' says he, and his breath came out ber, and cut as smooth as a ribbon, into a letter G,' says Mr. Gray. Suppose

But did you never answer about the Famine, by Mrs. Ann S. Stephens.

transportation of small-pox.

'Blur a' nouns—the dog's loose!' 'Curse the dog!' said the Mojor.

But, zur, it's raving mad, he is!

"What?" gasped the Major-the-a'"Small-pox!" seriously enough responded Tri-reiterated the really alarmed proprietor of Jingo cility. He immediately proposed a journey the remainder of the story: The small pox in my house echoed Jingo. For all the d-d-d-d-blessed countries in Will the tour be a long one? I enquired. and more satisfied heart than he has had for the world! passionately exclaimed Triangle.

'By no means,' said he, 'by the convey- a long day, and places his head upon his pillow, ance I propose to take, and with my knowl- well pleased with all the world. edge of the geography and the short-cuts.'

> in this city of yours. By-the-bye, if you tent in Gottom, to woman and child was have any friends among the keepers of have any friends among the keepers of going to a funeral. Glam looks and anonosylla-those, give them a word of warning, they bles were the order of the day. If sauntering in

'Me?' exclaimed Triangle-ime! endunger my life, and the lives of all my family—me? No, sir, I'll—I'll—I'll be hauged if I do! A warm one, no doubt, said I, 'having had personal experience of the race of extentioners in question.'

'Blur a' nours, Zur! hawled the hoster, as 'We are fitting ap a great house express-ly for them,' said the fiend with a terrible

> 'A prison of course!' quoth I. 'No, not a prison,' he answered, with a laugh at once malicious and misterious. 'A house of correction, then?'

'No,' with another laugh of the same or behind the counter; but in the car, or omnibus, or park, or square, or church, or promenade, kind. 'Prisons, jails, dungeous, penetentiaries; what other penal abodes are there? Oh! I suppose you are preparing galleys for the scoundrels?

We are fitting up nothing else but a great hotel for them.

Oh! the look and the laugh that accom-panied this revelation! Although not an bly be inflicted on the Bonifaces; how they were to be arraigned and convicted at their own bars; how they were to be scorched by lley, boy, come here you dog—hi! hi!—do you hear sit a summer-house.

But Ponto was off, and after a run of half-amile, he came up with a lamb, and before Triangle, he came up with a lamb, and before Triangle could come to the rescue, Ponto had opened the campaign by killing sheep!

Triangle was so put out about it that in wrath he up of terror and alarm that she never so much as gle was so put out about to terminate the existence of the dog, but compromised the matter. Triangle! Mrs. Triangle! Mrs. Triangle! The dog, but compromised the matter and white and was about to terminate the existence of the dog, but compromised the matter. The sum of the next candy shop.

These are little things, which were to give up their legions of fleas to stock the bed-rooms with; how they were to be inexorably doomed to drink their own wines pure, how they were to be served and waited on through endless ages by their own waiters; bow their own interminable own waiters; bow their own interminable on the coming winter, on the first and thini mies of fleas, and other noctural visitations, and the they are religiously to be made to pay thro! the nose for the service of being roused from their beds after nights of sleepless torment.

Such a place, eoneluded my demon, again quoting Milton, with a facetious Butchering at his new shop on his lot. East Temple st., where he will constantly keep on hand Beef, &c., of the first quality.

BRIANT STRINGAM.

N.B.—Cash paid for Beef Cattle. ret26-33tf

'Come-come,' said Mrs. Gray, 'you have 'Spch a place,' concluded my demon, been moping there long enough, nephew, again quoting Milton, with a facetious

Such a place,' concluded my demon, again quoting Milton, with a facetious change of a word or two;

Such place oternal justice has prepared 'Such place oternal justice has prepared for those extertioners; here their prison or dained:

[fell.'

[fell.'

[fell.'

[For Sale:

[For Sale:

[For Sale:

[Sash pauritor

[For Sale:

[Sash pauritor

[For Sale:

[Sash pauritor

[For Sale:

[Sash pauritor

[Sash pauritor Here are the apples waiting, and no one to hand them round, for when I once get set-

First Class.-Willy Chase, what is the eurency of the United States?' 'Cash and money.'
'What are its denominations?'

'Copper, bogus, and bugtown cents, pennies, fips, four-pence-hapnies, levies, nine ceace, Spanish quarters, pistareens, shilings and shinplasters. 'That will do.'

'Jones, what is the standard weight of the United States?' 'Scale weight and wait a little longer.'

'Sumuel, how many kingdoms are there in the material world?' Four. 'Three-only three.'

'Four, sir.' Well, what are they? 'Mineral kingdom, animal kingdom, vegoble kingdom, and kingdom come John Brown?

(Sin 50 Wasn't David a musician? 'Yes, sir-he played psalms on the harp, a favorite instrument with the Jews, and at the present day it is called a jewsharp. fully with his right hand, "I'm just as sure have one in my pocket-here it is. Place it in your mouth thus-breathe on the ton-That night the effects of stuffing with green this will be the first fetter of the finding it in your mouth thus—breathe on the tonwise troubled with a surplus of the circulating medium—

That night the effects of stuffing with green (this will be the first to utter sufficient manifested itself in a green love, as I am that we are alive.' He began it in your mouth thus—breathe on the tonswiftly whirling tho apple-peel round his with your fingers in this way, and the polarism in harmonious-corneob will head; the company were all busy with one another, and I was the only person who saw thusday. and the psalms in harmonious-corneob will thunder.

> Yes, sir-David was a tavern-keeper, and Goliah was an intemperate man.

> Who told you that? 'Nobody; I rend it; and it's said that David fixed a sling for Goliah, and Goliah got we grew bright as diamonds, 'just as 1 exlected? That was ell he said.'

'And what answer did you make him, unt?' asked Robert Otis, who had been stening with a flushed free (Who. 2). aunt?' asked Robert Otis, who had been that they think servicable, let them make a

The newer and sweeter the eream, the sweeter and higher flavored will be the but-The air must be fresh and pure in the room where the butter is set. The cream should not remain on the milk over thirty-six hours. Keep the cream in the pails, or stone pots.

it over to me. It was a red skin, I remem- into which put a spoonful of salt at the beginning, then stir the cream lightly each I shouldn't a bit wonder if that dropped morning and evoning; this will preserve the cream from moulding or souring.
Churn as ofter as once a week, and as much oftener as circumstances will permit. Upon churning, add the cream upon all Use nearly an ounce of salt to a pound of

Mr. Gray, he looked at the letter, and Work the butter over twice, to free it from the buttermilk and brine, before lumping and packing.

Be certain that it is entirely free from eve-butter.

ry particle of buttermilk, or coagulated milk, to see them two letters on a new sot of silver and it will keep sweet forever. In Scotland, a syphon is sometimes used I really believe you equid have lit a can- to seperate the milk from the cream, in-

Grace in Manners.

BY W. W. HALL.

Well, yes, I believe I did, the next Sunday night,' said the old lady, demurely, smoothing her apron.—[From Fashion and "In walking through the streets of Paris, one scarcely fails to be struck with the life, light and animation which prevail everywhere, and seem to pervade everybody and everything.

The traveler from marky London, or maxious How Hotel Keepers are to be Punished.

A writer in a popular magazine states that feels himself to be in a new atmosphere, and befeathers, Mrs. Triangle pronounced the carawan ready to move. But just as all was ready,

A writer in a popular magazine states that feels himself to be in a new atmosphere, and before he is aware, he is hurried along with the living subscribers, in the 13th Ward.

Branch and RUMELL.

limintary rapion the table, when there stood and smiling gentleman-his own countenance so before him, as visible as was ever in the brightened up with a cherry gladsomeness and tlesh, an attendant angel, fiend or demon—sunshine, that he would not know his own phiz, limpregnated, at all events, with a delicate subsulphurous odor—who began to quote of the really alarmed proprietor of Jingo fall.

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story:

I the immediately proposed a journey for the story in the st hody, and he retires to his hotel with a lighter

> Expenses? I demanded the short-cuts. The balmy days of Louis Phillippe, are all of flow 'Not half as expensive, returned the fiend, crs and sunshine. Being a child of the sunny 'as a single night in one of the d—d hotels. Sauth, it seemed to him, when he first pitched his the city of the sunny to the desired to him. tent in Gothum, to wander no more because of those, give them a word of warning, they bles were the order of the day. If sauntering in providing for them in the country I come from?
>
> A warm one, no doubt, said I, thaving had personal experience of the race of extortioners in question. the bench happened to be on the flugging he would fax his oyo on some spot and spit at it by the quarter; no cheerful flitting ever coming across that sad reflecting face even for the briefest moment, as if there were not a thought or a sympagold, and time to gladness too, and let each have its A the 13th Ward, the second house cast of season? Be serious if you please, in Wall street, J. C. Little's. Enquire on the premises, of man wake up new life whenever the eye fails upon that brother's countenance. It will solden full to light up a kindred gladness there, self-perpetuating all along plotions old Broadway, from Uoion Square to the Battery; all of us would live the langer for it, and what is more, live the lampier. panied this revelation! Although not an innkeeper, I trembled with terror.

Then he gave me some details of the most appropriate punishment that could possibly be instituted as a possibly being a possibly little Nell and Molly, each holding on to a fore-finger, to turn my face into a tamarhul? They will see it in a montent, and their little hearts will beat less joyously, until wo get to the next candy let an inner joy ourness light up the conntenuace, and let the smile of recognition of your brother not forgetting the clerk's fees.

The clerk has very many certificates made out

C. E. BOLTON, Clerk.

WITCHERING.

consisting of Brandy, Monongahela whike.

Madeira and Teneriffe Wines, at my formerlar of G. S. L. City that he has re-consmenced prices. Those who love a good article at a lor

NEAR the fuot of the first Mountain a large red Ox, about eight years old, branded on the left hip, with the letters B M and R connected: a ring burnt on both hours about four inches from the points.—Any person giving information of said of to bishep James G. Browning, of Ogden City, will be liberally compensated for BENJ. M. ROBERTS.

HAT AND CAP STORE. A Tour Hat and Cap Establishment, one shoor north of D. Amy's Tin Shop, can be found Hats and Caps of every shape and quality, which we are selling at the lowest possible prices, wholesale and retail. Call and see. G. DUNFORD & CO.

net26-33-3in* WANTED: MMEDIATELY at the "News" Office, on subscription or dues, FCRTY CORDS of WOOD. oc26-33-3t

WANTED: obtain a situation by applying in season to the undersigned in the 17th Ward, G.S. L. City. E. SMITH. D. WILKIN.

Trustees.

C. DUNCAN, net26-33-2t

STRAYED:

FROM this side of Jordan, below the bridge, supposed to have gone north,—one red OX, 6 or 7 years old, white face, both hind legs white, brandled P T on one horn. The ox belongs to a thunder.'

George Smith, do you romember the story of David and Goliah?'

The ox belongs to a Dmish widow. Any person having found said ox, and will return the same to the Bishop of the 2d ward, will be rewarded. MARIAH JENSEN. oct26 33-2t

OR STOLEN from the enclosures of S. M. Bhir, 14th ward, about three weeks since, one yoke of middle-sized work cattle; one red, with a drooped home; the other spotted red and white, with upright horns. They were branded TAKEN UP. BY the subscriber, a Red Cow about 5 years old, some white on her rump, and a star in her forehead, branded y on her fore shoulder.— The owner is requested to come and prove property, pay charges, and take her away.

WM. LIVINGSTON,

oct26 33-3t South end of 8th Ward. STRAYED:

their friends can see specimens in the grave yard, or designs at my house, two-and-a-half blocks, west of the Tabernacle, or at the Stone Shop, on the north-east corner of the Temple block. If early application is made, I will take pay in fire wood or wheat.

WM. WARD. oct19-32-3t

M UST be paid before November 15, to save further cost. Bishops will please give notice in their respective wards. Persons can ascertain the amount of their tax, as it is the same amount of road tax. Flour and wheat taken Robert Campbell will attend in my absence.

THE CITY TAXES

Office, Council House, up stairs.

N.B.—N. H. Felt made a portion of the assessent.

J. C. LITTLE, City Collector. oct19-32-3in

IME for Sale at the kiln in Emigration Kan-

NEW TIN SHOP.

THE Undersigned has Opened a Shop on End
Temple Street, opposite Mulliner's Shop, and with a splendid assortment of tin-way oct19 32-31 Ten Dollars Reward, The writer's reminiscences of beautiful Puris, in ROR a Sorrel Marc Colt, about six mostly old, no white or brand marks, followed the mail on the 24th of July last, from America Fork, was left at Provp. Any person finding said cult, and giving information, or delivering it THOMAS BISHOP, American Fork, shall ceive the above reward. oct19-32-3i.

Subyed or Stolen, oct18-32-3in

For Sale.
HOUSE and Part of a Lot to be sold, SAML. POWELL

Mail and Passenger Coach.

DETWEEN G. S. L. Guy and Independence, will leave Hawkins' Hotel in G. S. L. Cuy, and the Noland House in Independence, Missour, on the 1st day of each month at 8 a.m., stopping a short time at the following way stations, victor Bridger, Green River, Devil's Gate, Fort Larame, Ash Hollow, Fort Kearney, and Eg.

Every facility and attention will be extended to assengers to render their trip speedy, and comfortable

For further particulars apply to the following gents:

J. M. HOCKADAY,
G. S. L. City, Utah ISAAC HOCKADAY. aug24-24-1v Independence. M

U. S. Mails from G. S. L. City P.o. THE Eastern mail will be closed on theh day of each month at 4 o'clock p. m., pre-The California mail via Fillmore, Parowan and Cedar city to San Diego, will close on the 19th day of each month at 4 o'clock, p m.

The Brownsville mail leaves every Monday nd Thursday at 5 a.m.
The Topele mail every Monday at 6 a.m.

The mail to San Pete will leave every Monday at 6 a. m. aug 10-221f HAVE just purchased, and now offer for al.
at my house 2½ blocks west of the Temps Block, a large assortment of Liquors, equal in quality to any ever brought into this Tember, price, will not be dissapointed by giving me call. W. C. STAINES nn17-23-6m

SAW MILL, two good houses, and ale A acres of land enclosed, on Big Kanybnews about eighty rods above Prest. Youngs' flourne mill. For further particulars enquire of ZERAH PULSIPHER LOST.

A RED COW, white face, branded G L left hip. Bring to me and be rewarded. GEO. A. LESLIE, *ep7-26 f

LOSE. A COW abou 5 years old, brindled on the head and body, white on the belly and itstends down the hind legs. The horis are will set, and the tail is short and white on the end-G. D. WATT, S! e is ou ned by sep28-29 f FOR SALE, A PRACTICAL School Teacher—one well recommended—(no other need apply) can Envelopes at the following rates:— Three cent letter-size, at $3,20 per 100. Six da 6.20 do Six cent official size, at 6,32 do

ALSO: Three cent Letter Stamps. Post Masters, Merchants, and others in the Territory can be furnished with any of the done by remitting the cash. E. SMITH, P. M. au21 2416 COOPERING.

THE subscriber has constantly on hand age eral assortment of cooper ware, which is will exchange for all kinds of country product wood and hunber, at reasonable prices, and cake from 5 to 10 dollar JOHN CABLE, 2 blocks west of Taber jv18-19-6ino nacle, on South Temple St. The Provo Machine Shop S in full operation, and we are prepared to all kinds of Smithings—make Michinery, and do any kind of work in wood or iron, at short notice and in good style.

S. HOLDAWAY, my11-13-6m IAS. SIMKINS. SPINNING, WEAVING. ND WOOL CARDING, done on shares of therewise; at the Provo Woollen Factors and warranted to be done in a workmanlike man Wood for carding must be in good order, and the grease furnished by the owners.

S. HOLDAWAY. Price for carding, 10 cents pr 1b., or one s of the wool.

Provo. Utah Co., May 1,-13-6m FRESH ARRIVAL.

IVINGSTON Kinkead & Co. have receive pr Mule Train of eleven wogons, a general assortment of Groceries, Dye-Stuffs, &c., and et assortment of Groceries are a service being been below ROM my Pasture, one Dark Brindle threevear old Steer, brockle face, branded J. G. L. on nigh shoulder, Leonard Hardy on horn.—Whoever will return him or give information shall be rewarded.

J. C. LITTLE.

octi9-32-3t

NOTICE.

THROUGH the Winter Season I intend to work at Gravest ne Engraving. Persons wishing to erect tombstones to the memory of
wishing to erect tombstones to the memory of

On arrival of their Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Trains, which they expect weekly therel-ter, they will be able to present at once the large Sinck and best assortment of Goods ever offers in this market, and of such quality and prices will compare very favorably to their advantage Livingston, Kinke Ap. 200.

jy 13-18-6m LONGEPHA 26 34 DESERET NEWS, Published every Thursday, at SIX dollar per annum, payable INVARIABLE in advance

Single copy, 25 cents.

Papers delivered at the post office, which will be open each Sabbath, from 12, to Lardocky TERMS OF ADVERTISING

Por a square of 10 lines or less, 1st ins., $ 1.5 Each subsequent: sertion, FOUND AND LOST

Found and lost articles from I to 3 lines, it serted once,