LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

EASTERN.

PHILADELPHIA, 16.—The fifty-seventh anniversary of the American Bible Society was held last evening. An address was delivered by the Rev. Dr. S. Farris, of Madison, Wis. It appears that there are 3,000 auxiliary bodies in the U.S., that more than thirty millions of bibles have been distributed through the agency of the society, and it also appears that they give out daily 3,000 bibles.

BUFFALO, 16.—Thomas B. Newman, aged seventy-three, supposed to be worth a quarter of a million dollars, also owner of some valuable real estate in the city, died in the hospital yesterday p.m. He was a few days ago removed from the hovel which he had occupied for thirty-seven years. He had no relations in Buffalo.

NEW YORK.—The International Peace Congress, last evening, resolved to invite the society and public of Europe to a preliminary meeting to be held here, September 23rd, to consult upon the best method of preparing a code of arrangement and the most promising means of procuring an advance by the different nations.

NEW YORK.—Michael Nixon, who shot Chas. A. Pfyfer, in the street a few months ago, was hanged this a.m. Nixon, after taking farewell of his family last evening, ate a hearty supper, and remarked, "This being my last night on earth, and I have done what I never did before, taken two cups of coffee." He then prayed with Father Duranquet and at twelve o'clock went to sleep. He awakened at five, and assisted at mass offered for his special benefit by Father Duranquet. The only words he spoke after were, "My Savior was crucified, this is nothing." At nine Nixon left the cell, and walked firmly to the scaffold, Fathers Duranquet and McKenna on either side. He carried a large crucifix, which he repeatedly kissed fervently. On arriving at the scaffold he knelt between the clergymen and recited the Lord's prayer, and the creed of the Catholic church. The rope was adjusted and Nixon was launched into eternity. He died apparently easy.

ST. LOUIS, 16.—Charles W. Guthrie shot and killed Charles W. Weaver, his brother-in-law. Guthrie's wife was sister of Weaver. She died some months ago, and her family suspecting foul play on the part of Guthrie had the body disinterred and examined by the coroner; out of this grew the feud of which the shooting of young Weaver is the result. Guthrie surrendered himself.

WASHINGTON, 16.—The attorney general and the government have agreed not to give to any parties a copy of the bill inequity to be filed at Hartford against the Union Pacific R. R. Co. stockholders of the Credit Mobilier, until it shall be filed in court.

The internal revenue department for the present month has received nearly seven million dollars, and the receipts for the fiscal year to date are over a hundred millions. It was estimated that the receipts for the present fiscal year would be one hundred and ten million dollars, and the probabilities, judging from the receipts of the past month, are exceeded from three to five millions.

Senator Casserly has sent a check to the secretary of the treasury for his back pay as a member of the 42nd Congress.

RICHMOND, 16.—The inquest in the duel case was concluded to-night. The jury found a verdict that Mordecai came to his death by a pistol shot inflicted by Mc Carth, and the seconds were accessories thereto. The verdict also condemns the surgeons for participating in the affair and for not giving information to the police in time to prevent it.

WESTERN.

SAN FRANCISCO, 15.—A banquet given to the British consul, W. Lane Booker, at the Lick House, by Governor Booth and Mayor Alvord was a magnificent affair. Governor Booth presided, and at the conclusion of the banquet made a short address complimenting his guest.

The palace car "Avon" arrived yesterday with a party of English capitalists on board. In the party are E. H. Green, of the London and San Francisco bank, and Mr. Rodwald, one of the directors of the bank of England.

Canby's body started for the east from Oakland this morning.

The mechanics' deliberative assembly propose a receiving ship to make good sailors out of bad boys in this city.

Devine's funeral takes place to-day from the establishment of the undertaker who took charge of the body.

MARYSVILLE, 15.—The examination of Matt Kerrigan, who shot and wounded Mrs. Ann Walsh, April 25th last, at Sucker Flat, was held yesterday, resulting in the discharge of Kerrigan on the ground of self-defence, the testimony fully justifying his discharge. In March, 1870, Kerrigan was arrested on suspicion of being the murderer of a miner, named Dumphey, who was at work on the Browneg claim, near Timbuctoo. An examination was had at the time and the prisoner was discharged. Since the arrest of Kerrigan for shooting Mrs. Walsh sufficient evidence has been obtained to warrant the officers in arresting Michael Walsh, as principal, and Matt Kerrigan and Mrs. Ann Walsh, as accessories to the murder of Dumphey. A girl named Mary Heffron will be brought from Orville, to-day, supposed to be an important witness in the case. Walsh and Kerrigan are now in jail awaiting an examination. Mrs. Walsh is still suffering from the effects of her wounds.

SANTA BARBARA, 15.—The farmers are now in the midst of haying and harvest hands are in demand. Sheep shearers are also at work on Santa Rosa Island.

Colonel Hollister has been elected a life member of the California academy of sciences.

SAN FRANCISCO, 15.—Devine has not yet been buried. Coroner Stillman took legal advice and was informed that he had nothing to do with granting a certificate for burial. Thus far the city physician, Dr. Johnson, who was present at the execution, declines to give a certificate of death. McGinn, the undertaker, who has charge of the body, fears the penalty of the law, should he bury it without permit. The difficulty in getting Devine under the ground is about as great as that experienced in getting him under the scaffold. It is hard to see how the public good can be subserved by keeping the body out of the tomb any longer.

SACRAMENTO, 15.—Charles J. Flynn, alias Mortimer, paid the full penalty of the law to-day for the murder of Mrs. Mary Gibson. About half past twelve sheriff Brytie, addressing the prisoner, said, "Charley, the time is about up, you will stand up now preparatory to having the straps placed on you. Now, Charles Mortimer, we are about to start for the place of execution; have you anything to say before we start?" Still no reply. The prisoner was led out to the gallows, his conduct and expression of countenance were exactly the same as they have been for many days, and he carried with him and held on the platform the towel with which he had been accustomed to brush flies from him. The prisoner was placed on the drop, under-sheriff Woods read the death warrant. Afterwards Brytie again inquired of the doomed man if he had anything to say, but received no answer. The Rev. Mr. Shelling read the parable of the Prodigal Son, and the Rev. Mr. Parsell followed with a prayer. The rope was then adjusted, his limbs pinioned and the black cap placed. During the entire time Mortimer remained passive, his countenance betrayed no emotion or sensibility, and to all appearance he was not aware of where he stood. At 12.44½ p.m. deputy sheriff Barnes cut the cord at the signal from the sheriff and the drop fell, the body falling about six feet, as though it were a stick of wood, scarcely a muscle moving. An examination by the physicians showed that the neck had been completely broken. The appearance of the corpse was as though the deceased had died a natural death. The remains will be taken east, together with those of the deceased brother of Wm. J. Flynn, by his brother, who recently arrived here.

NOVA SCOTIA.

WESTVILLE, N. S., 16.—The fire in the Drummond mine is now considered under control, and it is expected that to-day it will be effectually extinguished.

EUROPEAN.

LONDON, 16.—A Vienna dispatch says that a hundred additional failure are announced. No important banks have yet suspended. The panic paralyzes business.

The son of a wealthy banker committed suicide yesterday.

BERLIN.—The German government has resolved to expel from the country, within six months, the Lazarists, congregation of the Holy Ghost, and Sacred Heart, and other close conventual orders.

GENEVA, 16.—A number of Communists have been arrested here.

CANADA.

OTTAWA, 16.—A fire broke out this a.m. in St. Albans terrace. The flames spread to Cumberland, Stewart & Daly Sts., destroying 36 houses; loss $150,000.

EASTERN NOTES.

Miss Emily Faithful was to have a public dinner on board the steamer Oceanic, May 9, tendered by the managers of the White Star Line as a complimentary recognition of her services in England.

Scottsboro, Ala., has ordained that all bar-rooms shall be placed at least five miles beyond its corporate limits; and the consequence is that the inhabitants have taken to suburban exercise in a way to delight the heart of the hygienist.

Frederick W. Seward, son of the late Wm. H. Seward, has offered a prize called the Seward memorial prize, to be contested for by members from the literary societies of Union College.

The introduction of glass-lined iron pipes for the conveyance of water is strongly advocated in some of the foreign scientific journals, the great advantage of their use consisting in the simple fact that, as the water comes in contact with nothing but glass it cannot be impregnated with any oxide.

The truth about the prospective peach crop of Delaware has come out at last. The Wilmington Commercial state that it promises to be the largest for a number of years. In the most favored sections of the State, it says that "the trees have bloomed, and are literally covered with the rose-tinted blossoms."

It is a noticeable fact, says the Chicago Tribune, that not one of the Congressmen implicated in the Credit Mobilier suit have made any sort of answer to the charges in the petition of plaintiffs. They make default, and the charges must be taken as true, agreeable to an old and well established rule.

FOREIGN NOTES.

Rotten Row, which is the singular name of one of the most fashionable thoroughfares in London, has recently been the scene of a mysterious appearance that has excited great wonderment. At the hour in the afternoon when the Row was most densely thronged with the equipages of the aristocracy, there was observed a young lady mounted on a coal-black horse. Her face was covered by a mask, and an immense sword hung at her side, which was supplemented by a carbine and a cartridge box. A splendid equestrienne, she moved gracefully through the crowd of carriages, speaking to no one, and looking nor to the right nor to the left. On the following day she appeared again, and though she was the cynosure of all eyes, no one saw her enter the Row, and no one saw her depart. Such is the story as it comes in a London letter, and certainly it is a very pretty mystery as it stands.

More evidence that the English tongue is fast becoming the language of the world comes from far-away Siam, the King of which realm has just established two English schools for the education of the sons of his nobles. These future Asiatic aristocrats are to be able to converse with and read the literature of the people of Great Britain and the United States. French may remain the language of European courts, but the commercial tongue of the world is undoubtedly the English, and the knowledge of it is spreading with every fresh port in Asia and Africa opened to commerce, with the advent of each American in Japan, China and Egypt.

The Princess Leichtenstein, whose marriage as Miss Fox excited so much interest in the aristocratic world just a year ago, has given birth to a daughter. The Princess resides with her husband in Germany.
