DE LAND'S
BAKING POWDER
CRITICAL ANALYSIS.
 UNIVERSITY OF DISNEY,
 Salt Lake City, June 8th, 1887.
 By carefully examining De Land's Chemical Baking Powder with the microscope and with chemical reagents, I find that it is free from Alum, Marsh, Flour, Bone Ash, Ammonia and White Earth; and that it consists essentially of Cream of Tartar and Bicarbonate of Soda.
 The Baking Powder examined I purchased at St. Louis, in this city.

WASHINGTON.

The President at Home—The Anarchists Came, etc.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The President's party arrived here at 4:30 this morning. The President was heartily glad to get home though as heartily glad to get away. During the three weeks of his journeying he has traveled 4,300 miles, passed through seventeen states, crossed three of them twice and had seen and been seen by several millions of American citizens.

THE PRESIDENT

and Mrs. Cleveland took breakfast at the White House and then drove out to their country home, "Oak View," where they spent the day.

The United States Supreme Court has decided to hear further argument upon the application for a writ of error in the case of the condemned anarchists and has set the hearing for Thursday next at noon. The court has also decided to hear the state of Illinois to appear in these proceedings and has notified Attorney General Rogers to appear for the state. The case is a writ of error in the case of the condemned anarchists, in which the state of Illinois is the plaintiff and the defendants are the anarchists. The case is a writ of error in the case of the condemned anarchists, in which the state of Illinois is the plaintiff and the defendants are the anarchists. The case is a writ of error in the case of the condemned anarchists, in which the state of Illinois is the plaintiff and the defendants are the anarchists.

Mr. Lincoln as President and contending for a second term, because that involved a question of his personal popularity, and he was always loved and confided in, of the course which he had taken. Often in great doubt during the course of his administration, yet he would not allow himself to be swayed by the opposition, and would allow no friend to do anything to get in his way. He looked with indifference on the machinations against him in his cabinet and in his administration.
 The sublime and crowning characteristic of Mr. Lincoln, however, was his
 SELF-RELIANCE.

During the eleven years I was with him at the bar of this state I never knew him to ask the advice of a friend about anything.
 During the four years of his administration I never knew him to ask the advice of a friend about anything. He looked with
 in his cabinet and in his administration.

After speaking at some length about Mr. Lincoln's habit of inquiring into everything for knowledge and his studiousness of the middle ages, Mr. Sweet continued:

And herein, may I be permitted to mention another very remarkable and useful habit of his character. It is that of equanimity which is disturbed at nothing and is not swayed by the opposition.
 Although prosecuting a lawsuit with such vigor and not from a belief in its success, he kept right on and was never depressed by disasters nor elated by success.

He seemed to comprehend the magnitude of the contest in which he was engaged more thoroughly than anyone. In short, he was the strong man of the contest, and the great men at Washington learned to gain respect and admiration from him and to lean upon his great arm for support.

THIS PERORATION.

In conclusion I Mr. Sweet said:

We see him in his image of bronze above us and recall his great presence. All we know is, that in all time hereafter, whenever the slave shall groan under the lash or the poor shall sigh for something better than he has known, there his name will be heard and his example imitated.

 as to the story of the alleged founding
