IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel. We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections. Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets the Old Pioneer Route.

The Chicago and North-Western. You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb., or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. d54

EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, September 8, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

THERMOMETER 80 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Showery.

New Daily.—The Daily Times, San Bernardino, Cal., is a new candidate for public favor, published by Isaac & Rodemeyer.

Ornamental Work.—Yesterday we were shown a specimen of ornamental work, done by J. A. Lenzle. A family group of ten separate photographs were arranged in a large oval frame, and around the pictures, on a dark ground, was some very beautiful flower-wreath work, painted on the glass, in transparent colors, heightened by silver gilt, giving a very fine effect.

The Justice in a Dilemma.—The other morning Justice Pyper was called upon by a short gentleman, wearing a white stovepipe hat, whom we shall call B., when an arrangement was made with the official for him to go to a certain hotel at five the same evening and unite a couple in wedlock. The Justice was at the place at the hour appointed, when he met with B., who ushered him into a room and introduced him to a blushing damsel of about thirty summers, the bride. B. said, "I'll go and bring them in," and made his exit, leaving the Justice and the bride to a tale, and leaving the official under the impression that he had gone to fetch the bridegroom. B. was gone a good while, and the Justice became impatient and impatiently said to the bride, "I hope the bridegroom will soon appear," she replying modestly, "I guess he's not far off."

Finally B. came in, bringing with him a sleekly dressed man, to whom the Justice said, extending his hand, "How do you do, Mr. B., I'm glad you're come."

"My name is not B., my name is Fitznasher."

"Oh, all right, I thought your name was B."

"Well, stand beside the lady and give her your right hand."

"Vat ish do? Geef her mein right hand? Vat doo is goot. Now, Shudge, if I pees going to kits married, I vood like to be acquainted mit doo fact."

The Justice looked first at the blushing bride, then at B. and then at Fitznasher, and then exclaimed, "Do you mean to say you are not the man I was called here to marry?"

"Vell, if I vas, I doud cood know doo, an I vas kits married I guess I vood like to know doo."

B. was now standing beside the Justice, said, "Judge it's me, I'm the man that was going to get married," and the matter was cleared up, and the ceremony proceeded.

City Council.—The Council met last evening, Alderman Raleigh in the chair.

A communication from Brigham Young was read. It set forth that he had held undisputed possession for over twenty years of a certain portion of block 133, plat C, Salt Lake City Survey; that he had omitted to comply with the act of Congress for the relief of the inhabitants of cities and towns, &c., by not filing on the land, and the right of title therefore reverted to the corporation; and he asked the Council to authorize the mayor to deed to him the piece of ground in question, he to pay five dollars an acre therefor; referred to committee on public grounds.

Petition of Elizabeth Eccles and T. J. Williams, administrators of the estate of the late Henry Eccles, asking, on certain stated grounds, the remittance of taxes amounting to $25; laid on the table to be taken up in its order.

Verbal petition of P. T. Mitchell, representing that his property was injured by a canal running close to his lot, and asking the reference of the matter to a committee to investigate and report as to whether he was entitled to relief; referred to committee on public improvements.

The committee to whom was referred the matter of the petition of Walker Bros., asking the privilege of building a powder magazine on the Standish lot, reported favorably, providing the structure be composed of heavy metal, on wheels, and that not more than 400 pounds of powder be stored in it at one time, and that it remain during the pleasure of the Council; report received and adopted.

Bill of Theo. McKean, Superintendent of hospital and insane asylum, for expenditures during August, $333.55; allowed and appropriated.

Bill of Chief Engineer of Fire Department and City Marshal, for expenditures in August, $129.54; allowed and appropriated.

Salt Lake City Gas Company's bills; referred to committee on claims.

Adjourned till next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

More Wild Goose.—This morning four companies of infantry, from the Camp Douglas post, left this city, by rail, for Toano. The cause of their going to that point is that the ridiculous Indian scare of poor consumptive Corinne is being duplicated at Deep Creek, on the Western border of Utah. We understand this military move has been ordered by General Crook, of the Department of the Platte, and that the four companies are to remain at Toano until further instructed by General Schofield of the Department of the Pacific, when it is probable they will take a three days' march to the supposed scene of operations, at Deep Creek.

The "ring," at whose instigation these sensations are being created are surely driven to great extremes to make capital against the "Mormons," who they charge with being in collusion with the Indians for the purpose of operating against non-"Mormons," an accusation as foundationless as the "baseless fabric of a dream." In all of these scares it has been clearly shown that there has not been the least shadow of a symptom of any hostile demonstration on the part of the red men towards the whites, but quite the contrary, the Indians manifesting more of a desire now to live at peace with each other and all men than at any other time.

West was settled by a civilized population.

It appears to us that the government places itself in a bad light to respond to such calls as are made for troops on a hue and cry which is got up for an ulterior purpose on the part of those raising them, and then afterwards discover that a great deal of trouble and expense has been entailed for nothing. The most sensible and cheap method of action would be to find out in the first place, whether or not such expensive action as the moving hither and thither of bodies of troops is necessary.

If there be any such foolish persons as believe that there is any foundation for these Indian sensations in this Territory we would advise them not to get nervously excited, be and act like men and if they are disposed to be scared at their own shadows, for goodness' sake don't let anybody know it, or they will know as well as they do themselves that they are what they are. As to those who are the head and front and instigators of these false rumors and who know them to be false as well as they know the sun shines, we would say that they should repent of their sins and they will feel much more comfortable than they do now, for they are continually on the "wriggle and twist," and are exceedingly uneasy at not being able so far to disturb the tranquillity of an industrious, peace-loving community, whose property they are anxious to despoil them of.

A private despatch from Deep Creek yesterday, stated that all was peaceful there.

Theatre.—The Lizard comedy company are announced to appear in the Theatre next Monday and Tuesday evenings. Included in the company are W. H. Lizard, Misses E. Dunning, Blanche Gatton, and Marie Wren, and B. F. Dunning and Frank Glider. Comedy, comic opera, and Lizard sketches.

Stormy.—This afternoon, as the novelist would say, the "thunder rolled, the lightning flashed and the rain poured down in torrents." It was the biggest shower of the season, and comes at a time when it is most welcome hereabout, as well as in other places.

Rumor.—It was currently reported in town to-day that Governor Emery had assigned Judge Jacob S. Boreman to the Third District, but we were unable, on inquiry to discover that there was any truth in the rumor.

Settles It.—That heavy shower this afternoon settles the water difficulties in this city for the time being. Everybody has been impatient at once to-day, without having received any notification card.

Very Agreeable.—The thunderstorm this afternoon washed the trees, soaked the soil, flooded and muddled the streets, and took down the mercury twenty degrees.

Horse Stealing.—Last night a man, giving the name of H. E. Gaines, was arrested for stealing a horse belonging to a resident of Ogden, named James Burrup. After it was stolen, the animal was sold at auction in this city, to the highest bidder, at an auction stand.

The accused had an examination before Justice Pyper to-day, and, his guilt being plainly indicated, he was bound over in $1,000 bonds, in default of which he was committed to the County Jail, to await the action of the next grand jury of the Third District.

Nasty.—A resident of the 20th Ward informs us that a number of different parties owning horses are in the habit of having the animals stand in the water ditch in that locality, and of their washing the filth from them. That is a very dirty practice, seeing that so many people drink the water and use it for culinary purposes, and should be stopped. The act of defiling the water of the ditches is punishable by fine, and it is the duty of those knowing parties guilty of the nuisance to complain against them to the police authorities.

Indian Outbreak in Nevada.—A dispatch from Cherry Creek (Nev.), of the 4th inst. says: "A runner came in from Spring valley last night, who stated that one of A. C. Cleveland's ranchmen had come to this place asking help, saying that 500 Indians were congregated near Cleveland's ranch, that one Indian and two men had been killed, and that A. C. Cleveland and Dan Murphy, the cattle men, were besieged and needed help. Twenty men, well armed, started from here at midnight, and will reach there about noon to-day. Others started out this morning. The Indians have been seen in Steptoe valley for the last ten days, and it is thought they are all in Spring valley. We cannot ascertain the cause of the trouble."—S.F. Chronicle.

Stealing from Indians.—Last night a couple of Indians called on the police and complained that some party had stolen from them a woman's dress and several boxes of cartridges, and desired that the thief should be hunted up.

Showery.—The intense heat of the last few days caused a reaction to-day in the shape of a rather heavy thunderstorm.
