DAY OF GENERAL MOURNING King Edward Orders that Saturday be Observed

Victoria's Funeral Will Take Place on That Day-Great Preparations

Are Being Made for it.

Throughout the United Kingdom.

London, Jan. 28 .- It was officially announced late this evening that King Edward had ordered Saturday to be observed as a day of general mourning. All the banks will be closed and business suspended. The arrangements or the funeral have been only partially determined. The funeral procession will leave Osborne house Friday at 2 will leave Osborne house Friday at 2 p. m. From the house to the pier will be lined with troops and the royal per-sonages will follow the coffin on foot. In order to give Londoners a full op-portunity to witness the funeral pro-cession, it has been decided to extend the route, which is now fixed to pass Buckingham palace, through St. James' park and past St. James' pal-ace to Piccadilly, then along Ficcadilly to Hyde park to the corner of Hyde park, emerging at the church and then along Edgeware road to Paddington long Edgeware road to Paddington station. This is double the length of the route originally intended, and will cover fully two hours. For similar reasons the route at Windsor has been extended to include High street, Park street and Longwalk before entering the castle. The route of the funeral procession will be draped with black throughout.

1 III, to curtail the period of mourning, III, to curtail the period of mourning, trade circles in the United Kingdom had already started a petition to con-gratulate Edward VII, begging him to limit the period of national mourning. On previous occasions the king, as Prince of Wales, used his influence in this direction, and now as king he has asserted his well-known opposition to the observance of long periods of ofatial mourning. Fractically all business will be sus-

IRELAND'S IMPOVERISHMENT

All Charged to the Late Queen-Her Rule Characterized as the Worst Hibernians Ever Knew.

New York, Jan. 29 .- At the regular monthly meeting of the United Irish American societies, sixty-eight organizations being present, resolutions were passed unanimously, reading in part as follows:

"The population of Ireland, a land flowing with milk and honey and capable, according to the best authorities, of supporting more than twenty millions of people in ease and comfort, has been reduced from more than eight and one-half to less than four and onehalf millions of people; the actual num-ber of people who have died of starva-Lion in the midst of plenty durin Queen Victoria's reign is more than million and a quarter. "Everything which could be done to "Everything which could be done to impoverish and depopulate the country -to root out the people from their na-tive soil and drive them to seek other homes in allen lands; to break their spirit and make of them slaves and out-casts—has been done under Victoria's roots and with her full countyance and reign and with her full connivance and consent.

We denounce the reign of Victoria as one long act of bloadshed, murder, cruelty and cant, and insist that when crueity and cant, and insist that when its history is truly written and the in-fluence of snobbery, flunkeyism and toadyism is removed it will be looked back upon as one in which English wealth and power both properly passed their zenith and entered upon a rapid and neurogenut decline—as one in and permanent decline-as one in which, despite the material progress made by England in the earlier and middle part thereof, greater injustice. nore cruelty, grosser wrongs, were in cled upon humanity in general an upon the Irish in particular than in the reign of any other English monarch."

Hospitals in our great cities are sad places to visit. Three-fourths of the patients lying on those snow-white beds are women and girls.

Why should this be the case ?

Because they have neglected themselves.

Every one of these patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in that bearing down feeling, pain at the left or right of the womb, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back. All of these things are indications of an unhealthy condition of the ovaries or womb. What a terrifying thought! these poor souls are lying there on those hospital beds awaiting a fearful operation.

Do not drag along at home or in your place of employ. ment until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an examination and possible operation. Build up the female system, cure the derangements which have signified themselves by danger signals, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved thousands of women from the hospital. Read the letter here published with the full consent of the writer, and see how she escaped the knife by a faithful reliance on Mrs. Pinkham's advice and the consistent treatment of her medicines.

Mrs. Knapp tells of her Great Gratitude.

" DEAR MRS. PINKHAM :--- I have received much benefit from using your Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash. After my child was born, blood poison set in, which left me with granulated inflammation of the womb and congested ovaries. I had suffered from suppressed and painful menstruation from a girl. The doctors told me the ovaries would have to be removed. I took treatment two years to escape an operation. but still remained in miserable health in both body and mind, expecting to part with my reason with each coming month. After using one bottle of the Compound, I became entirely rid of the trouble in my head. I continued to
