TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT

Sunday in the First Degree is generally brought to light, but thousands of sins—one of which the world never hears of—are committed by the administration of wrong medicines. The prescription, as we too often poisoned with deadly drugs, when the present use of Tarrant's Effervescent Seltzer Aperient, with proper precautions as to diet and regimen, would inevitably have worked a radical cure. In kidney disease, constipation, fevers, nervous and all other ailments that reduce the strength and vital power of the organism, refresh, purify, cleanse and sustain, it will find this invaluable saline unequaled. Sold by all druggists.

Horse Thieves — War-Path Indians —Road Agents.

DEADWOOD, D. T., 18.—A camp of freighters, near Crook City, was raided last night by a gang of about a dozen horse thieves, who stampeded and got away with about seventy horses and mules. Julius Hedge lost all his stock, over fifty mules. The Sidney Transportation Company lost nine horses. A company of fifteen men were organized in this city, to-day, and started in pursuit of the thieves.

A war party of thirty-five Indians, in full war costume, well mounted and armed, was reported to have been seen on Spearfish Creek this morning.

A herder from a ranch on Red Water, about 15 miles from Deadwood, came in to-day, and reported that a war party of about ten Indians came down upon the ranchmen this morning, fired several shots, and disappeared. No one was injured.

The Cheyenne and Deadwood stage was stopped last night, near Cheyenne River, by six road agents, who robbed the five passengers of all their valuables. The treasure box was rifled but contained nothing of value to the robbers. A company of cavalry will be placed at Hat Creek and patrol the dangerous parts of the road.

U. S. Troops for the Scene of the Riot.

WASHINGTON, 18.—The President, this afternoon, received from Governer Matthews, of West Virginia, a telegram that the strikers were so riotous that he was unable to quell the disturbance with his forces, and requesting that United States troops be placed at his disposal. The President thereupon consulted with Secretary McCrary, and decided that upon information obtained, the calling out of United States troops was not justified by law. Secretary McCrary, however, telegraphed for and obtained supplementary information that warranted the sending of troops to the scene, and late this afternoon an order was accordingly issued that twelve officers and 200 men of the Second Artillery, from Washington, and eight officers and 112 men from Fort McHenry, under General French, proceed immediately to Martinsburg, to report to Colonel Delapisin, aide to Governor Matthews.

Proclamation.

The President, to-night, issued the following:

Whereas, it is provided in the Constitution of the United States that the United States shall protect every State in this Union on application of the legislature or of the executive, when the legislature cannot be convened, against domestic violence; and,

Whereas, the Governor of the State of West Virginia has represented that domestic violence exists in said State, at Martinsburg and various other points along the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad in said State, which the authorities of said State are unable to suppress; and,

Whereas, the laws of the United States require that in all cases of insurrection in any State, or of obstruction to the laws thereof, whenever it may be necessary, in the judgment of the President, he shall forthwith, by proclamation, command such insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within a limited time.

Now, therefore, I, Rutherford B. Hayes, President of the United States, do hereby admonish all good citizens of the United States, and all persons within the territory and jurisdiction of the United States, against aiding, countenancing, abetting, or taking part in such unlawful proceedings, and I do hereby warn all persons engaged in or connected with said domestic violence and obstruction of the laws to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes on or before twelve o'clock of the 19th day of July instant.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this 18th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1877 and of the independence of the United States 102.

(signed) R. B. HAYES,
By the President.
F. A. SEWARD,
Acting Secretary of State.

LEAVENWORTH, 18.—Abernethy & Bros' furniture ware rooms and carpet salesroom were partly burned this afternoon. The loss on the stock is $30,000; insured. Loss on building, $7,000.

Forest Fires.

FORT FAIRCHILD, Me., 18.—Forest fires are raging near here. Vast areas of timber have been burned over, and many buildings destroyed.

The Rioters Quiet.

MARTINSBURG, West Va., 18.—All is quiet here now, and but few parade the streets. The train with the troops on board, from Baltimore and Washington, has not yet arrived. The trains extend two miles east and west. Rain is falling, which has dispersed the crowd.

WESTERN.

Snow Sheds Burned.

SAN FRANCISCO, 18.—A fire last night, and another again to-night, destroyed several thousand feet of snow sheds on the Central Pacific, near Emigrant Gap and Dutch Flat, delaying the trains and stopping telegraphic communication for some hours.

The Struggling Indians Refuse to go on the Reservation.

PORTLAND, 18.—A press dispatch gives the statement of G. B. Kaykendall, of the Simcoe Indian reservation, denying that any Indians have left the reservation to go on the war path, and that Chief Moses is now going around among the Indians, urging them to refrain from hostilities. There is no inclination visible among the Indians to break the peace.

Major Connoyer, agent at the Umatilla reservation, writes that, in addition to 629 Indians previously on the reservation, 200 renegades have come in to settle. The Indians are friendly to the settlers. None are allowed to leave the reservation without a permit. The Cayuses are mostly well off, but the Walla Wallas and Umatillas are very poor, and being debarred from leaving the reservation to gather roots and berries, are somewhat uneasy about their prospects. Connoyer says, if the Indians do not get relief shortly, he proposes to buy beef for the needy ones at his own expense, trusting to government to repay him.

Thomas' band of Indians, on Snake River, are reported to be desirous to come on the reservation, but were told that they could not. Conncyer expresses regret that they should be so misinformed, as it will be likely to induce them to join the hostiles.

A special dispatch from a prominent merchant at Umatilla, dated to-day, says, Agent Connoyer is raising the breeze with our Columbia River Indians. A delegation of five came in, to-night, from the mountains, where they had gone for berries and game, and said Connoyer had sent runners to them, who told them that if they did not come on the reservation he would send soldiers and have them handcuffed. They were much excited, and had ridden from the mountains that day, and were ordered by their tribe, about fifty men, to have a talk with us and come to an opinion. We told them Conneyer had to obey orders from Washington, which we supposed was to have them go on the reservation until the war was over. They said they had skokum (a good heart) for us here; that their fathers had lived and died here, and hated Connoyer and his Indians. After a long talk they said that on Sunday, all of them would come back and live on their ground across the Columbia River, but would not go to the reservation as they were not Umatilla Indians, but belonged to Smoholla's band, and they would behave themselves and be good Indians if let alone by Connoyer. All we want is for him to let them go until the Indians now on the war path are whipped, and not by arbitrary action force those whom he cannot, and never has had on the reservation to take up arms against us. Three of the delegates were here thirteen years ago, and have lived here ever since, and no agent has undertaken or could force them on the reserve, and to try and do it now, when our soldiers cannot hold their own east of us, is a bad policy, and endangers our lives and property, whereas, if attempted after we have whipped the Indians, there would be no trouble or danger to us in forcing them on the reservation.

Chief Joseph Wants to Surrender.

General Howard sent the following this afternoon to the military headquarters—

Camp McBeth, Kamai,
I. T. July 15, 3.30 p.m.

I undertook in pursuit of the Indians, to cross Clearwater, twenty miles below Kamai, with the cavalry and cut the Lolo trail, while Captain Miller with the remainder of the command, was crossing at Kamai and pressing them on the direct route, and was some seven or eight miles on the way early this morning, when a messenger reached me stating that Joseph wished to make proposals of surrender. I returned, leaving my column to proceed to a convenient halting place, and have had some negotiations. Noticing by the dust arising that the Indians were in motion towards the same point I had hoped to reach, I changed my plan, bringing all but an observing force to cross at this point.

Joseph has promised to break away from White Bird, and give himself up to-morrow. He saw he was forced to move to-day. The indications are that they have very little ammunition and food and have sustained large losses of everything in their hurried crossing of the river here. At our approach I see evidences of the bands breaking up, and I shall pursue them a little further with vigor.

WallaWalla, July 18.—There is great excitement in this city over Joseph's proposed surrender. Many hot-headed ones censure General Howard for listening to talk from Joseph, but the more sensible think Howard fully understands himself and will do the right thing. There is a rumor current here that Capt. Bancroft, who was dangerously wounded in the recent battle, has died since. It is traced to a reliable party now with Gen. Howard's command.

Another report says, that the settlers on Palaha Prairie have been notified by friendly reds to leave, that their lives would soon be in danger.

On the morning of the 15th, Joseph sent a scout named Kukulswitlim, a half breed, to Gen. Howard, offering to surrender himself and that portion of the hostile band over which he has control. He said he was disposed to be friendly from the first, but was forced into the war by White Bird and the other chiefs now with him. He wanted to talk peace and go to the reservation; but the other chiefs wanted to go to Montana to hunt buffalo.

Howard sent Joseph a message, stating the terms upon which he could surrender, on the 16th, but the General had little faith in Joseph's sincerity. While Joseph's messenger and Gen. Howard were talking, Joseph with his entire force moved away. Joseph claimed that he was obliged to leave, but would return on to-morrow and surrender.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Eastern War News.

LONDON, 18.—A special from Adrianople, of July 17th, reports, that the Russians are between Kazanlik and Shipka.

A Vienna correspondent telegraphs as follows—Not eighteen but forty-five battalions of Russians have crossed the Balkans. It remains to be seen whether Suleiman Pasha will arrive in time to bar their further progress. Suliman's force numbers about 20,000. He will endeavor to hold the Russians in check to enable Osman Pasha, from Widdin, and Abdul Kerim, from Shumla, to fall upon their rear. Abdul Kerim is holding himself in readiness to assume the offensive at the first convenient opportunity.

A private telegram announces that a battle has already begun.

Raouf Pasha, who at first believed that he had repulsed the main body of the Russians on the other side of the Balkans, merely drove back a small body sent against him as a feint, while the bulk of the army passed on behind.

A dispatch, dated Constantinople, Wednesday night, says, the Ottoman army of the Danube commenced offensive operations yesterday, Tuesday. The speedy departure of Hobart Pasha for Batoum, to take command of the squadron, is announced.

A Pera correspondent states that Aarif Pasha, who has been appointed minister of foreign affairs, belongs to the old Turkish party.

The two Turkish pashas, and the soldiers taken prisoners at Nicopolis, will be confined at Orel, Russia.

On Sunday and Monday the advance guard of two fresh Russian army corps passed, by rail, from Jassy to Galatz. They are likely to remain in Roumania as reserves.

Relative to the reports of the excitement in Hungary, it is stated that the success of Russia cannot make Austria in any way change her attitude. The Hungarian press violently demands immediate intervention, but in leading quarters in Vienna there is no intention to yield to any such demands.

Emigration Agent.—The address of Wm. C. Staines, Church Emigration Agent, is P. O. Box 3 957, New York City. Persons visiting that city and wishing to call upon him, will find his office at No. 8 Battery Place.

WATER.

To Water Consumers.

THE scarcity of water in City Creek and the increasing demand for water for Irrigation, render the strict enforcement of the following provisions of the "Ordinance in relation to the Salt Lake City Water Works," etc., absolutely necessary:

SEC. 16.—Sprinklers for lawns, gardens, yards, and sidewalks must be used only for the purposes expressed in the license; and no sprinkler shall be used for sprinkling the street outside of the sidewalk, unless such privilege is included in the license and paid for accordingly. Sidewalks, windows and fronts shall not be sprinkled except between the hours of 6 and 9 a.m., 1 and 2, and 6 and 8 p.m. No nozzle for sprinkling shall be larger than one-fourth inch in diameter. * * * *

Water consumers are not allowed to waste any water, or allow it to be wasted; nor to use it for any purpose not stated in their licenses; nor to allow unlicensed persons to draw from their pipes; nor to use the water from the pipes for irrigating purposes.

Persons having licenses permitting them to sprinkle the sidewalk in front of their premises must confine such sprinkling solely to the premises named in the license.

Every water taker should read his license and not use the water for any purpose except as therein stated, as any infringement of the Water Ordinance subjects the offender to forfeiture of water privileges, or to a fine of not exceeding $50 for each offense.

Mayor.
