

GANS WAS TOO MUCH FOR TRACEY

Colored Champion Laughs and Blocks Blows.

LASTED ONLY NINE ROUNDS

Tommy Put Up a Game Fight, but Was Clearly Outclassed From the Beginning.

Portland, Ore., May 13.—At the Pastime club tonight Joe Gans, the colored light-weight of Baltimore, and Tom Tracey of Portland met in a contest which was scheduled to go 20 rounds. In the middle of the ninth round Tracey's second threw up the sponge, and Gans was declared the winner. Tracey was no match for the colored lad, and after the fourth round there was never a doubt about the result of the fight.

Gans weighed 159 pounds, while Tracey just reached the 148 mark. The colored man was trained to perfection, but Tracey's face looked drawn and he appeared overstrained. Tracey started in to fight fast after the second round, and landed hard on Gans' ribs, but the colored man was strong and was not at all distressed. Gans fought a very conservative fight, and at every stage of the contest was apparently full of confidence.

THREW UP THE SPONGE.

His defense was strong and he allowed Tracey to do the leading. In the eighth round Tracey's legs began to weaken, and it was then that Gans started in to end the fight. He continually jabbed Tracey in the jaw with his left and followed it up with his right. Gans rained blow after blow on his opponent's jaw, knocking him down with a terrific right-hander. Tracey took the count and the sponges saved him from a knockout.

When Tracey came up for the ninth he was all but out after several clinches a right-hand hook on the jaw felled him. Tracey's second jumped into the ring and threw up the sponge.

Eddie Drancy, the referee, after the fight said:

It was simply a case where one man outclassed the other. George Menzies of Chicago and Jimmy Neilly of Seattle fought a 15-round preliminary which was declared a draw.

HARVARD DECLINES.

Will Not Participate in Inter-University Athletic Contest.

London, May 13.—The Oxford-Cambridge athletic authorities have received a cable message from the athletic authorities of Yale announcing that the proposed inter-university athletic contest in London during the month of July is declined owing to Harvard's refusal to participate in it. The reason for the non-acceptance has not transpired beyond the bare fact that Harvard was not willing to participate and that consequently the Yale board of management was reluctantly compelled to abandon the proposed meeting. It was understood here before the invitation went that it would be accepted or the Englishmen would have issued the invitation, which they say was formally dictated by the etiquette of the situation, they having been beaten in New York. Regret is felt at the abandonment of the proposed meeting.

GARDNER BEATS HART.

Marvin Quit in the Twelfth Claiming Broken Hand.

Louisville, Ky., May 13.—George Gardner was given the decision over Martin Hart at the end of the twelfth round in their fight before the Southern Athletic club tonight. Hart at the end of the twelfth claimed that his right hand had been broken and gave up the fight. Gardner was much faster and landed often, both with very weak and with very strong punches. He hit Hart as often as he desired, but his blows lacked

"I could not keep my hair from falling out and I had to wear it very short all the time. But since using Ayer's Hair Vigor, my hair has stopped falling and has grown until it is now 14 inches long. Nearly all my friends have remarked about the rapid growth of my hair. I feel very proud of this, for I was practically without any hair at all."—Mrs. J. H. FIVE, Colorado Springs, Colo., October, 1902.

"When I began using Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair was about all gray. Now it is a beautiful black, nice and long, and as thick as any one could wish to have the hair. If any one will only follow directions, the Vigor will surely do all that is claimed for it."—Mrs. SUSAN KLOPFENSTEIN, Tusculum, Ala., October, 1902.

"I am over sixty years of age and have a thick, heavy head of long hair which is a perfect wonder to every one who sees it. I say, 'It is all due to Ayer's Hair Vigor,' which I have used for over thirty years."—Mrs. H. R. BURRIS, Beida, Minn., November, 1902.

"Before using Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair was very short. Now it is four inches below my waist and I know it is all due to the Hair Vigor. It is the best hair tonic I have ever used."—Mrs. ED. MASURU, Midway, Kans., August, 1902.

"I am greatly pleased with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It stopped my hair from falling out and made it grow much longer and thicker. I have used many kinds of hair tonics, but never found anything that pleased me until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor."—LILLIAN WEYMOUTH, Saco, Me., November, 1902.

LOBSTERS ONE AHEAD OF LOCALS

In the presence of about 600 fans, the baseball season was opened at Glenwood park, Ogden, yesterday afternoon with a contest between the Lobsters and the Locals. The game resulted in a second victory for the Lobsters, the score being 9 to 5. The Lobsters were rather out of their element, but Ogden had the better of it throughout. They hit and ran at will and pointed at the Lobsters' plate, and the locals were the hitting of Christie, who made five hits out of five times at bat. Thomas took Kimer's place, and Peters found the wrinkles and straightened them out. The summary follows:

WANTS TO MEET CHRISTIE.

Jerry McCarthy Believes He Has a Chance Against Jack.

Jerry McCarthy was so elated over his victory over Gibbs Tuesday night that he expressed a desire to tackle a bigger job. He has declared his intention to go against Jack Christie in a 2-round go. Christie is the middleweight champion of the West. McCarthy is a local fighter, but it is believed he could fight at 135 pounds. No arrangements have been made for a match between the two, but there is some talk about it. McCarthy intends to remain here for some time and it is not unlikely that he will get a match with Chicago Jack Daily.
