

GREAT NUMBER OF VISITORS PRESENT

Special Services in Tabernacle Yesterday Attended by Big Crowd.

ELDER HUGH J. CANNON TALKS

Book of Mormon Prophecies Regarding America and Loyalty of Mormon People the Subjects.

An unusually large number of visitors were present at yesterday's services in the tabernacle. The attendance was about 1,500, including a large delegation of Elks. The services, which were in charge of Benjamin Goddard, began at 3 p. m. and closed at 4 o'clock.

Professor McClellan was at the organ and played at the opening selection, Dr. Spark's "Jerusalem the Golden." The second selection consisted of "A Communion" by J. J. McClellan, dedicated to J. P. McCann, Esq., and "My Old Kentucky Home." The tenor solo "If With All Your Hearts" from "Elijah" was then sung with pleasing effect by Fred C. Graham.

Hugh J. Cannon, president of Liberty state, was the speaker. He began his address by stating that about 600 years ago a prophet on the American continent saw into the future and beheld the work of Columbus, who the Latter-day Saints believed to have been inspired of God in the work he did. And the prophet also saw that people should come here from other countries because of oppression. It was also shown to prophets that no king should rule on this land, that it was a land choice above all other lands. Whether they believe in the Book of Mormon or not every citizen of America joins with the Latter-day Saints in the hope that no king will ever rule over the land.

Reference was made to the loyalty of the Latter-day Saints to the institutions of the United States, and their belief that the Constitution was inspired. They believe that the Declaration of Independence was an inspired document and that it was not mere chance that brought the signers of that instrument together, any more than it was accident that caused Columbus to discover America. The Lord's plan was carried out through it all.

Conditions incident to the exodus of the Latter-day Saints from Nauvoo were touched on. Nine children were born the night they were expelled in the depth of winter. The trials of the people both before and after the exodus was referred to, and the subsequent gift of 500 men for the war with Mexico was alluded to as showing a great love of country on the part of the Latter-day Saints, who had only just been expelled from their homes by fellow citizens in Missouri and Illinois.

When the people came to Utah, which was then Mexican territory, they took possession of it in the name of the United States and in the war with Spain the people contributed to that war, thus showing their intense loyalty. There are other ways of showing loyalty besides shedding one's blood. One of the best ways is to show in our daily walk, talk and conversation the effects of liberty. They should aim to keep themselves unspotted from the world, resist temptation and set an example which, if followed, will lead

QUARRYMEN DISCOVER ODD BRONZE TABLET

Two Workmen at Mercur Unearth Peculiar Copper Plate.

(Special to the "News.") Mercur, July 3.—James Sloan and Robert Gray, while at work prospecting near the lime quarry, the other day, found an odd copper plate with ancient inscriptions engraved upon it. The plate is three feet long by about 20 inches wide and one-half inch thick. The plate was buried 30 feet deep, in a solid bed of rock and was unearthed by blasting with giant powder.

other men to do better.

The concluding selection on the organ was Wagner's "Pilgrims' Chorus."

ELKS IN TRAINLOADS VISITING SALT LAKE

Antlered Guests Are On Their Way To Los Angeles and Reunion.

Saturday, Sunday and Today trainloads of Elks on their way to the Grand Lodge reunion at Los Angeles, pulled into Salt Lake and spent hours here looking over the city, attending organ recitals, visiting the resorts and being royally entertained by members of No. 55, B. P. O. E.

There are more coming tomorrow and the next day and the next, and before all have passed through the city there will have been 25,000 of the antlered herd in Salt Lake City.

Local Elks are working overtime to give the visitors a good time and something to think and talk about with reference to this city. The visitors received a warm welcome from all local Elks. Thomas Homer, chairman of the reception committee, is one of the busiest men in town, and the same may be said of Col. L. A. Applegate, chairman of the executive committee, and "Jimmy" Collins, exalted ruler; in fact, all the Elks are busy and happy because they are showing their brothers a splendid time.

Tomorrow Grand Exalted Ruler Holman and Grand Secretary Fred C. Robinson will arrive. Thursday August Hermann, candidate for grand exalted ruler, will arrive and spend a short time in the city. The visitors who registered at the club house and spent Sunday here are: G. C. Price, Pueblo; E. T. Wahn, Lyons, N. Y.; Dr. J. R. Flanagan, Syracuse, N. Y.; John P. Mullin, Bronx, N. Y.; Benjamin B. Davis, John J. Donohue, Charles B. Belmont, Charles Schenbner, New York City; W. E. Kopp, Gettysburg, Pa.; John C. Duffy, Winfield, N. J.; Harrison Bull, Mahoney, Pa.; W. W. Walker, Idaho Falls; D. J. Reese, Harrisburg, Pa.; J. T. Wiener, Pottsville, Pa.; Charles A. Frank, Syracuse; Charles A. Noble, Lyons, N. Y.; Charles H. O'Neill, Los Angeles; James I. Cortez, Bloomfield, N. D.; R. P. Burns, Hartford, Conn.; P. L. Reuss, past exalted ruler, No. 39, Albany, N. Y.; W. E. Drisland, past exalted ruler, No. 39, Albany, N. Y.; A. D. Turnan, Haverstraw, N. Y.; W. P. Henderson, Troy, N. Y.; W. B. Zimins, Rochester, N. Y.; Adolph Picken, Yonkers, N. Y.; William G. Weiss, Indianapolis.

AMONG WILD TRIBES OF NORTHERN LUZON

Insular Secretary Dean C. Worcester Returns from Tour Of Inspection.

STOPPING THE HEAD HUNTING

Ifugaos, Wildest and Most Turbulent Of Mountain Tribes, Have Not Taken Head in 21 Months.

Manila, July 5.—Insular Secy. of the Interior Dean C. Worcester returned today from his annual visit and tour of inspection among the wild tribes of northern Luzon. He reports that excellent results have thus far attended the efforts of the Philippine commission to stop head hunting among the mountaineers and to bring to an end the inter-tribal wars which have kept the interior in a constant state of ferment and unrest.

The Ifugaos, the wildest and most turbulent of the mountain tribes, who number over 100,000, have not taken a head in the last 20 months, according to the secretary's report, although they were among the most frequent offenders before the present campaign was undertaken.

Secy. Worcester discovered that the mountain men were exceedingly fond of athletic competition among themselves. In the furtherance of his desire to bring the tribes into more friendly relations with each other he held a series of field meets encouraging the natives to enter in the contests. His plan was well received and members of tribes that have been at war with each other for centuries engaged in races and strength contest on friendly terms.

The tribes are now engaging in constructing mountain trails between their settlements, the larger towns planning to build high roads for this purpose. The mountain men are engaging more generally in farming and weaving and other peaceful pursuits of the country, and the whole section is more orderly and less turbulent than it has ever been known to be before.

WARNED DAUGHTER TO BEWARE CUSTOMS OFFICERS

New York, July 5.—Fearful lest his daughter be molested by the government as was he, Solomon Blumauer, a wealthy merchant of Portland, Or., sent a wireless message to her on board the steamship St. Paul to be careful to fully declare all of the goods she had purchased in Europe so as not to have trouble with the customs officers.

When Mr. Blumauer arrived from Europe a short while ago, his wife neglected to declare as dutiable $1,500 worth of wearing apparel and several articles of jewelry, which the inspectors found in their trunks on the pier. As a result Mr. Blumauer had to pay 60 percent duty and a fine of $1,500, the foreign purchase price of the undeclared goods. This oversight cost the Oregon man about $2,400.

When his daughter, who is Mrs. H. J. Litt, and who is finishing her honeymoon trip, with her husband, arrived here, she had received the wireless caution from her father, and her declaration filed two blank forms. The inspectors found her declaration and baggage to be regular and she escaped the penalty inflicted on her father. They will leave for the west in a few days.

AUTOMOBILE ON FIRE SUDDENLY RUNS AWAY

New York, July 5.—While four firemen were forcing a stream of water into a burning automobile on a street in Montclair, the machine suddenly started off, and the firemen pursued it. The blazing car ran a quarter of a mile down the road, the firemen following at full tilt with a chemical engine from which they played a stream on the fleeing car, until it ran into a ditch. A large crowd followed the runaway until it was captured and extinguished.

TWO WOMEN QUARREL

Old Lady of 80 Charged With Shooting Step Daughter's Leg Off.

New York, July 5.—Mrs. Mary De Marco, 80 years old, is in the Jersey City jail charged with shooting the left leg of her step-daughter, Mrs. Margaret Carlo, off with a shotgun. The two women had quarreled about the division of certain property and Mrs. Carlo, who is 54, said her stepmother waited by the door until she passed and then fired a double-barreled shotgun at her, carrying her leg off at the knee.

Mr. De Marco, who declares it was an accident, had been arrested before for biting a policeman's hand. When the police arrived at Mrs. Carlo's home they found her dismembered leg sticking in the plaster of the wall where it had been lodged by the force of the explosion.

More Red Streaks

Last week a gentleman who had been indebted for fifteen or twenty years sent word that he wanted to settle up all his claims. We found some of them had been owing for twenty-two years. He paid us $300 and a piece of real estate and obtained receipts in full on every claim we had against him. We are demonstrating every day that Red Streaks of Honesty Exist in Everybody. The fact that claims are turned to us for collection does not mean that our clients have less confidence in their debtors, but it means that our clients need the money. If you need any money, turn in your claims. The sciences of finance is in obtaining the money that's coming to you. We are scientific collectors of the money.

FORCED TO VACATE

WE MUST MOVE

Rowe & Kelly Co's Big Removal Sale

Begins Tuesday, July 6

We are compelled to vacate our present quarters soon, and in order to conveniently handle our large, high grade, up-to-date stock during the removal process, it is absolutely necessary that it be reduced to at least half its present size. Everyone knows that we have an A No. 1 stock and, rather than have it ruined in the general tear-up attendant on the removal to our new location, we are going to offer it to the people of Salt Lake City and vicinity at a great sacrifice, in many cases at less than we can replace the goods. We are determined to reduce our stock thousands of dollars within the next few weeks, and no effort will be spared to distribute to the people the biggest bargains they ever carried home. Beginning Tuesday, July 6th, our Great Removal Sale will be inaugurated, and from that day on there will be bargains, bargains everywhere. All through our store, on every article in stock, the merciful Sale will make dollars out of your quarters.
