(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, Feb, 11 .- A divorce case that to that the Saints may govern them has some elements of the sensational about it was filed in the district court By order of the presidency of the bere on Saturday afternoon, and since that time, efforts have been made to suppress the alleged facts associated with it. The suit was filed by Mrs. The members of the Tabernacle choir Dora Bell Topham against Thomas the are not going to California, will Topham, Jr., and the plaintiff prays please meet on Thursday at 7:30 p.m. with Prof. C. J. Thomas at the Taber for a decree of divorce and to be restored her maiden name, that of Dora he will have charge of the choic Bell Hughes. The woman in the case is during my absence, to practice for the well known here in certain circles as 'Bell London," and is the proprietoress f a resort. The allegations in the complaint are that the parties were married in Salt Lake on May 1, 1896, and that since that time the defendant has neglected to provide the plaintiff with the cor mon necessaries of life, although he was amply able to do so. It is alleged that as a part owner of the Mint saloon here he makes from $75 to $150 pe month.

There are no children. The woman asks that the defendant be ordered t asks that the defendant be ordered to pay the costs of the suit. It is said that she is very wealthy and that some agreement has been made between her and Topham about the distribution of the property. H. H. Henderson is at-torney for the plaintiff. In the police court this morning the case of Henry Stevens charged with as-sault and battery was tried, and result-ed in the discharge of the defendant. He was accused of striking one L. Bos-trom, but it was shown in the hearing that the complainant called the defen-dant a liker during a dispute they had
