

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Father Israel Hoyt died at Orderville on the 3rd inst.

The person who lost a pair of gloves can get them at this office.

Fourteen cars crowded with Conference visitors came up from the south on the Utah Central this morning.

A. N. Rosenbaum has a 65-acre farm for sale, situated at Brigham station on the Utah & Northern Railroad, Brigham City. See advt.

Fire Brigade meeting to-morrow evening at half past 7. A full attendance is desired.

R. H. HARDY, Secy.

A red purse, containing about $5, was lost on East Temple Street. The finder will be rewarded on leaving it at this office for the owner. See advt.

In our columns to-day will be found the revised and improved edition of the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad. Read it in relation to through passenger and freight connections for leading Eastern cities.

W. P. P. St. Clair, agent for the U. P. R. R. at Ogden, is to succeed in that position by E. T. Hulanicki. Mr. St. Clair takes a similar position on the Utah & Northern, with headquarters at Butte, Montana.

The meeting of the 3rd Quorum of Elders, announced to be held in the 2nd Ward School-house, is transferred to the 6th Ward School-house on Monday, 9th inst., at 7:30 p.m.

THOS. GARRARD, President.

Miss Julia Thomas, of the New York school of elocution, has rapidly recovered her health since her arrival here, and during her stay, which will be prolonged for some time, she will give private and class instructions in the beautiful art, in the methods of teaching which she is fully conversant in all their details. Read her advertisement.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Death of a Pioneer.—Bishop Chamberlain, of Orderville, Kane County, who is now in the city, in receipt of a telegram informing him of the death, at that place, on the 3rd inst., of Elder Israel Hoyt, after an illness of three days. The deceased was an old member of the Church, much respected, and one of the pioneers of Utah.

A Sudden Death.—A sudden death occurred in the Sixth Ward this morning. The wife of Mr. Ernest Wetsel, who was confined about two weeks since, arose and dressed this morning. Her husband went out for about twenty minutes, and when he returned she was either dead or died a very few minutes afterwards.

Pop.—Rice's Surprise Party drew a jam full house at the Theatre last night. "Pop" surprised, pleased and made heaps of fun for the applauding spectators. All the favorites reappeared and gave a rattling entertainment. Folks generally want something to laugh at when they go to a Theatre and those who attend to-night, when "Pop" will go off again, will get their fill.

Sunday School Union.—A general meeting of the Deseret Sunday School Union will be held this (Friday) evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall. Stake Sunday School Superintendents and other officers and teachers in the city are expected to be present. All who feel interested in the cause, are invited.

LEVI W. RICHARDS, Secretary.

Returned from the South.—We have had the pleasure of a call from Elder John E. Carlisle, of Logan, who has just returned from a mission to the Southern States. He left here on the 19th of April, 1881, and labored in Virginia Conference, which includes a portion of West Virginia. He met with fair success, being instrumental, in conjunction with his companions, in the ministry of bringing a few into the Church, and opening up some new fields. He enjoyed his labor greatly.

Badly Burned.—Last evening a workman at the Germania smelter met with a very serious accident. By some means he lost his balance and partially fell into a quantity of molten metal. His left hip and hand were fearfully burned, so that the flesh was badly cracked. There being no doctor at hand to attend to the unfortunate man, he was brought up on the train this morning and taken to St. Mark's Hospital, where he is being properly cared for. His name is Christopher Tector. While being conveyed to town on the train he bore his sufferings with remarkable fortitude.

A Brutal Beating.—Last night Jerry Kearney, who had been put into the city jail on a charge of assault and battery, attacked another jail prisoner, named Chris. Vargo, in a most fiendish and brutal manner. He pounded the unfortunate young man over the head with a large tin vessel, cutting several deep gashes, kicked and jumped on him till the life was nearly beaten out of him. Vargo was covered with blood and scarcely able to breathe. He is a comparatively small man while Kearney is a big burly brute of an Irish railroad grader. The attack was without the slightest provocation, being apparently made simply to gratify a savagely ferocious nature.

Dastardly.—Recently a contemptible trick was attempted to be played by some despicable fellow near Slaterville. He had set a gun with string attached in such a position that any person crossing a certain stile would be almost sure to be shot. Three boys, John Bradshaw and John and Elsie Field came near springing the trap and losing their lives. The weapon was found to contain ten ounces of lead and two ounces of powder. The alternative genius of the Ogden Herald says: "It is proved that the dangerous instrument of war had been placed there by some fiend with felonious intentions, who were fortunately frustrated."

A few more it would have done finely for a finish.

"The Money Spinner."—A good sized audience witnessed the performance of "The Money Spinner" at the Opera House last evening. Though not of as high a class as some of the plays produced by the Home Dramatic Club, it is full of interest, which increases until the denouement, and is well developed. The character of the Money Spinner was ably sustained by Miss Ada Dwyer, who, in our opinion, appeared to greater advantage than in anything she has essayed. Miss Adams made the most of the part of the sister and made it vivacious, winning and attractive. Miss Whitney's Margot was well played and very creditable. Mr. H. M. Wells had an entirely new part in the Scottish Lord and performed it with his usual success. The Scotch accent was well simulated and not overdone and the eccentricities of the part were well portrayed. Mr. J. D. Spencer as the "Ferre" was every inch a Frenchman and a detective. Mr. L. Cummings made an excellent appearance as Boycott, and performed with his usual grace and dash. Mr. H. Taylor was more than usually felicitous as Baron Crocodile, and Messrs. Felt and Whitney played their respective parts satisfactorily. The "snow" on Mockett's coat stayed there too long for a warm room. There were one or two slight hitches, but otherwise the play went off with ease and thoroughness, and will, we should think, draw a full house to-night, when it will be repeated for the last time.

To-morrow night the great play of "The Long Strike" will be presented.

Good for Centerville.—At Centerville, during the past winter, the members of the Young Men's and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Associations formed into a dramatic society. They have been giving some very creditable histrionic performances during the winter. To close the season they lately gave a complimentary benefit to Brother B. H. Roberts, called recently to the Southern States Mission. With the proceeds of previous performances they purchased a large organ and presented it to the new meeting house. They also paid $50 toward the building fund for that edifice. Their season of amusement and entertainment have been turned to good account by excellent management and foresight.

The Young Men's Association have a hall of their own, which they built at a cost of $700. It is nicely seated and furnished with various conveniences and useful adjuncts, among which is an excellent library. The young people are alive in that thriving town. We have this information from Brother J. H. Coles, secretary of the Young Men's Association.

About Pangnitch.—Yesterday we received a call from President Jesse W. Crosby, Jr. He drew our attention to a communication dated March 23, from that place, which appeared in the News. It could be inferred from it that Probate Judge James Henrie, in whose family there were some cases of small-pox, had placed obstacles in the way of the establishment of proper quarantine regulations. Brother Crosby assures us that instead of this being the fact Judge Henrie did all in his power for the prevention of the spread of the disease, and offered private facilities at his command for quarantine purposes.

Brother Crosby also informs us that small-pox is almost extinct at Pangnitch. The last case of the seven in addition to the Indian who conveyed the contagion to the place, is getting well. Only one death, besides the Indian, has occurred.

A Libertine Led.—On Wednesday evening George Steed, of Farmington, met Henry White at that place and shot him three times. One ball entered White's left shoulder and two his thigh. After the shooting White escaped and, reaching the city yesterday, went to St. Mark's Hospital, where he is now under treatment for his injuries.

The cause of the trouble was that, during the temporary absence of Mr. Steed in Arizona, the scoundrel White, to whom he had exhibited marked kindness and in whom he had placed considerable trust, betrayed his confidence in the most horrible form, by engaging in undue intimacy with his wife. There is necessarily no sympathy for such unmitigated scamps as this fellow White.

House and Contents Burned.—Shortly after 7 o'clock last evening the house of Brother David Phillips, of West Jordan, took fire and in a short time, with its entire contents, was reduced to ashes, leaving the family, consisting of five persons, without anything but what they stood up in. The cause of the fire was the upsetting of a Kerosene lamp by a little daughter of Brother Phillips. The top of the lamp became detached from the body of it and the flaming oil was scattered over the Carpet. The building being frame the fire spread made short work of it. By careful searching and sifting two twenty dollar gold pieces and some silver coins, slightly melted, were got out of the ashes. Mr. Phillips is an industrious workman and the loss falls heavily upon him and his family.

A Delighted Audience.—A large and delighted audience attended the concert of Evan Stephens' pupils, at the Assembly Hall last evening. As the entertainment was almost a repetition of those given at the Theatre a short time since, then noticed in detail, it is not necessary to particularize. All the performers acquitted themselves admirably, and it was with difficulty that the audience restrained their feelings of admiration, which had it not been for the sacred character of the hall, would have found expression in unreserved and hearty outbursts of applause. The proceeds are to be devoted to the benefit of the Sunday School Union, and in aid of Brother Stephens' adult music class.

Appearance are favorable for fine weather during Conference.

J. M. Thomas, of Ogden, will give an exhibition at his skill in giving a Frenchman and a detective. Mr. L. Cummings made an excellent appearance as Boycott, and performed with his usual grace and dash. Mr. H. Taylor was more than usually felicitous as Baron Crocodile, and Messrs. Felt and Whitney played their respective parts satisfactorily. The "snow" on Mockett's coat stayed there too long for a warm room.
