Senate Adopts Senator Gorman's Resolution for an Inquiry Into Them.

THE DEBATE WAS VERY LIVELY

Washington, Jan. 22 .- The senate to day adopted the resolution of inquiry concerning affairs in Panama introduced on Jan. 5 by Mr. Gorman, and listened to a speech on the Panama question by Mr. Dolliver and another on the subject of recess appointments. The Gorman resolution reads:

"Resolved, That the president be requested, if not in his judgment incompatible with public interest, to inform the senate:

"First-The date when and the circumstances under which the United States for the first time and each suc ceeding time caused a military intervene in the inters of New Granada Internal affairs of Colombia, under the treaty of 1846; whether such use of military force was on the initiative of the United State or by the request of New Granada o Colombia, or in consequence of any of ficial representation of either; and also to transmit to the senate copies of the letters or notes in the department of state and of the orders by the navy de-partment relating to such use of milltary force

"Second-Also to inform the senate whether or not the United States has been asked by New Granada or Colom-bia, or any official representative of either by execution, by armed force the guaranty of the neutrality of the isthmus or of the sovereignty of New Granada or Colombia, over the same; and if the United States has been so asked, then the dates and circumstances thereof, and to send to the sen-ate copies of the letters or notes, in each case, conveying the application, and what was done thereunder by the United States.

"Third - and also to inform the senate in which, if any, of the disturbances on the Isthmus of Panama referred to by the president in his last annual message, the United States used a mildtary force solely on its own initiative."

CONSTRUCTIVE RECESSES.

After the disposal of routine business Mr. Tillman was recognized to speak on his resolution relating to senate re-cesses. His remarks dealt with the pending nomination of Dr. Crum to be collector at Charleston, S. C. Mr. Till-man discialmed any intention to consider this as a party question, but as-

IT IS FAIRNESS AND JUSTICE. TROUBLE OVER DELEGATION

His Plan is to Have Organized Union Efforts Being Made to Bring Two Sen-Labor Americanized in Best Sense of the Word.

After expressing his belief in the power of education over the American people and declaring that the basis of right success is fairness and justice, Senator Hanna writes;

"There is no more engrossing question than that of the relation between labor and capital, which seems the paramount issue today. The instinct of working men to band together to protect themselves is no more to be wondered at than the same instinct on the part of capital. Now, my plan is to have organized union labor American-ized in the best sense and thoroughly ducated to an understanding of its responsibilities, and in this way to make it the ally of the capitalist, rather than a foe with which to grapple, "It is often asked what is to become of the non-organized consumer if an amicable alliance is made between labor and capital?' But every man belongs to the one or the other group for that matter, he is likely to belong to both. "I took some time to consider the work of the civic federation, and am firmly convinced that it is the object to which I desire to consecrate the re-maining years of my life. I fully appreciate that it is a long struggle, but the progress already made under the motto of the civic federation-the Golden Rule-has surpassed even my most sanguine expectations, and I am sure that the American people will sustain a policy based upon the highest moral and social impulse which will eliminate the passionate prejudices that now exist between capital and labor."

Discussing some of the objects of the civic federation, Senator Hanna writes: "Until within a comparatively few years big capitalists or the employing interests have had the advantage cause there were more workmen than there was work. But conditions have changed, and for every workman, on an average, there are two jobs now in the heyday of our prosperity, and it is expecting too much of human nature to suppose that workingmen shall not desire a larger share of the profits. Has not this motive been the stimulating in-matters by the workingmen themselves, "Labor organizations may be open to sharp criticism at times, but it cannot be fairly stated that they are always wrong. If every man is treated as a

It is known that many close friends At is known that many close friends of the president believe that nothing would be gained by such a contest, whatever the result of it might be. Ef-forts are now being made to bring Sen-ators Hanna and Foraker together in the selection of Ohio's delegates. It is known that among Mr. Hanna's close est friends there is no disposition to at-tempt to relegate Senator Forsker to the tear if he dedres to go to the Chi-cago convention as a delegate-at-large, provided that no contest which might imperil the integrity of the Republican organization in the state is made. Today's conference lasted but n short time, but the situation was discussed in its salient features. It is understood that the president will not permit him-self to be drawn into any factional trouble either in Ohio or in any other state. Senator Foraker understands the president's position in this regard. The conference today was not prolonged, be cause the senator had an engagement for a committee meeting which he was obliged to keep, but it is likely that a further and fuller discussion of the matter will be had at a later time.

serted that his desire was to prevent the establishment of a harmful precedent and to find out what the senate thought of a "constructive recess," said it had remained for our present executive to assert the right and everelse the power of making appointments between 12 and 12:30 o'clock of the save day.

M: Hale took exception to the state-ment that the president had committed himself to the proposition a, set forth. He had never doubted that the comptroller would more short work of claims for salaries under such appoint-ments. As for hynself, he dis not accept the theory of a constructive recess and he did not believe other senators so held.

Mr. Tillman quoted a letter from Secy. Shaw concerning the appointment of Collector Crum, taking the po-sition that there had been a construc-tive recess between the time of the adfournment of the late extra session of Congress and the beginning of the pres-ent regular session. This, Mr. Tillman contended, was in violation of the Con-stitution and he also contended that there was no common sense in the plea that there was any interregnum between the extra session and the regular session when one was immediately adjourned to prepare for the other.

Mr.Tillman quoted a number of prec-edents in support of his position, citing utterances of Charles Sumner and John Sherman, both of whom the senator huded. Mr. Spooner rose. "I do not suppose," said Mr. Tillman, "that the senator from Wisconsin objects to y eulogizing members of his party." "No," replied Mr. Spooner, "but my

What was good law then is good law

Mr. Hale said that the Crum nomination, that of Gen. Wood and others were not sent in as recess, but as regular appointments.

Only those who have experienced the pain and suffering incident to Piles or Hemorrholds can know what a drag and handleap this complaint is: how even the mildest forms hinder the patient from putting forth his or her best efforts, while those afflicted with bleed ing and protruding piles realize all the tortures of the Inquisition. It may surprise the reader to know that there is a sure, permanent cure for this disease, as the following testi-mony from Mr. E. A. Leonard, an mony from Mr. E. A. Leonard, an American resident in the City of Mexico will show:

"For twenty years 1 - suffered with piles, sometimes being confined to my bed for days at a time. The relief re-ceived from doctors both in the United States and Mexico, was temporary, and more frequently I received no relief; other medicines had no effect. It was a continual drag. I was fit for nothing. I finally tried Pyramid Pile Cure: first application was magical; I could not believe I was awake next morning; I experienced a relief that I had not known ' twenty years. country, they followed its lead." "Does international law in Europe consist in following the blunders and crimes committed by the United States?" retorted Mr. Dolliver. Continuing, Mr. Dolliver declared ve-hemently that the Panama revolution had been going on for 20 years. "Talk to me," said Mr. Dolliver, 'about the United States interfering to aid the insurrection in Panama; the United States could not have stopped

Mr. Dolliver declared that all that had been done by the United States in Panama was "done in obedience to the requirements of our treaties. I accept the secretary of state as my authority on this question, for, much as I may respect the opinion of senators, I would accept John Hay's opinion or such a subject in preference to the opinions of any of them. Therefore, I do not apologize for any of the or-ders given or the acts done in Panama. "I have reached," he concluded, "the point in my patriotism where I propose to stand by my own government and let other | governments take care of themselves." Mr. Teller declared that the contentions of Mr. Dollivar that the treaty of 1846 was a canal treaty and gave the United States any sovereignty in the canal strip were in conflict with the authorities of all time, Mr. Newlands then quoted the challenge made by Mr. Spooner a few days ago to put his (Newlands') views in the form of a resolution and presented a resolution setting forth the condition of affairs on the Isthmus of Panama and declaring our intervention to be injustified under the treaty of 1846, uninternational law and under the Constitution of the United States. The resolution also declares that the inructions sent by this government to its officers in Panama waters and other acts on the part of this government constitute a declaration and prosecution of war; and finally authorizes the president to enter into a new treaty with Colombia for the cession of all rights to the Isthmus of Panama to the United States. Mr. Newlands said that the suggestion for a solution of the isthmian problem was his own, and the resolution was laid on the table subject to his call. Mr. Gorman then asked for a vote on his resolution on which all the re-cent speeches on the Panama question have been delivered. After some

FRANCE WANTS CONCESSIONS United States May be Asked to Lower its Tariff.

Washington, Jan. 22 .- A movement is making for an agreement between the governments of the United States and France in lieu of the projected reiprocity treaty, which has not received the approval of the senate, and consequently has failed through the expiration of the period of time allowance for ratifi-cation and exchange. In the search after new sources of revenue the French government has let it be known that it contemplates a considerable increase of the duties on imported meats, which would, of course, fall principally upon American meats. An effort on the part of Ambassador Porter to secure the minimum rates for American goods disclosed the fact that some concession must be made in return by the United States, and it is intimated that the States, and it is intimated that the French government might be satisfied with a 20 per cent abatement of the duty on one of the greatest of French staples imported into the United States. Having in mind the situation, in the senate in regard to the French reciprocity treaty, the department officials con-cluded that it would be useless to embody this new French concession in treaty form, as it would also probably fail to receive the senate's approval. So a recourse has been had to section 3 of the Dingley tariff act, and if this projected arrangement should take
