BREVITIES.

France is going to try to raise opium.

A good example is the best sermon.

Wrong is but falsehood put in practice.

A modest woman must often neither see nor hear.

Cardinal Bonaparte's new title is Saint Puderitius.

It is more easy to be wise for others than for ourselves.

Every man is a volume if you know how to read him.

Meriden, Ct., has a $75,000 Methodist church just completed.

What portions of the body are the best travelers? The (Tourists.)

Columbus, Ohio, has voted to have a City Hall, costing $125,000.

Five million telegrams were sent through offices in Great Britain in 1867.

Censure is the tax a man pays to the public for being eminent.

Cerf, Napoleon's coachman, used to serve Louis Philippe.

A traveling doctor paid $1,155 in advertising during a two months stay in Des Moines, and made $4,000 clear profit.

There is a popular prejudice in favor of the inocence of the ladies, but in the present style of head-dress their guilt is manifest.

The Liberal Christians, consisting of Unitarians and Universalists, recently held their annual Conference at New York.

A. D. Jones paid $1,000 for a piece of land at Omaha one year ago, and has just sold it for railroad purposes for $36,000.

Edwin Forrest has been an actor for near half a century, having made his debut in Philadelphia in 1819, in his 12th year.

"Wherever God erects a house of prayer,
The Devil is sure to build a grog-shop there,
And 'twill be found, upon examination,
The latter has the greater congregation."

"I wish," said an irate lawyer, "you would pay a little attention to what I say." "I am paying as little attention as I can," answered the witness.

There is a comfort in the strength of love. 'Twill make a thing endurable which else would overset the brain or break the heart.

It is reported in New York that Mrs. Langdon, sister of Wm. B. Astor, has begun a suit against her brother, for the recovery of property valued at several millions.

Tom, who had some music in his soul, says that the most cheering and soothing of all fireside melodies are the blended tones of a cricket, a tea-kettle, a loving wife, and the cooing of the baby.

An Irishman called in great haste upon Abernethy, and stated that—"his boy Tim has swallowed a mouse!"
"Then," said Abernethy, "tell your boy Tim to swallow a cat."

A young lady, talking about the ever-varying female fashions, said: "Of course it's only women of 'means' who can follow them." A friend of ours, who happened to be present, observed, "Or rather, Miss, women of 'extremes!'"

Every afternoon says it is proposed to have ladies' trains made seperate from their dresses, so that they can be removed and hung in the hall, after being dragged through the dirt, when the wearer wishes to go into the clean drawing-room

The latest style of visiting cards are oval in form, and the border is divided into twelve angular sections, each carrying the figures from one to twelve, to represent the hour of the day. The visitor turns down the corner which contains the hour at which the call was made.

A noted trout fisher died in Alameda county not long ago. Fishing was the one idea of his existence. His last words were characteristic: "I say, Brown, I'm going to peg out, sure. I've flirted my last fish; but—but bury my tackle with me—who knows but they bite in Jordan?"

An artesian boring in the vicinity of Geneva to a depth of seven hundred and twenty-four feet, and at an elevation of sixteen hundred feet above the sea level, showed the increase in heat at the rate of 1° Fah. for every fifty-five feet, while another at Mendorff, in Luxembourg, which penetrated to a depth of twenty three hundred and ninety-four feet, gave a result of 1° Fah. for every fifty-seven feet.

An invention has been examined by a Committee of the New York Assembly, by which the ayes and noes in a legislative body can be taken. The total number of votes were counted, (ayes and noes separately), and it printed on a slip of paper the names of each member voting in about ten seconds of time. As a member votes the fact of his having voted is instantly shown to the whole House.

Mr. Thackeray never began upon less than a quire of letter paper. Half this he would cover with comic drawings; a fourth he would tear up into minute pieces, and on two or three slips of the remainder he would do his work—walking about the room at intervals, with his hands in his pockets, and with a perturbed and woebegone expression of countenance. Some men bite their nails; and others stab the sides of their study chairs with pen knives; others tear the front of their shirts; others eat blotting paper. One of the most erudite biographers I ever knew—a Franco-American, who wrote a life of Columbus—used to lie flat down on his stomach on the ground and grovel, while he studied, like the Old Serpent.—G. A. Sala, in Belgravia.
