As anticipated the election in New York, resulted in favor of the Republicans. That portion of the Republican ticket which was supported by the Americans was elected by about 20,000 majority. That portion opposed by the combined votes of Democrats and Americans is probably elected by a small majority. The legislature is Republican, both branches, by about 30 majority.

In New York city, the joint Democratic and American majority over the Republicans was about 17,000.

TABERNACLE.

On Sunday, Dec. 11, at 11 a. m., Elder Orson Pratt read a part of a revelation given to Joseph Smith, jun., May, 1833, after which he preached on the necessity of the people understanding the character of the Being they worship; reasoned on the attributes of God and directed the attention of the congregation to Jesus Christ as an example for his people and quoted the text, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God." Showed that Jesus was made an example of humility, being born in a manger, cradled in poverty, and raised by parents of low degree; that in his birth he descended below all things, but in progress of time he advanced in knowledge, grew from torwarded and attended to. grace to grace and from strength to strength, even till he exceeded Enoch in information and knowledge pertaining to eternal life; Branded JJS on the left hip; a hole in one ear and a argued that we are in possession of the same powers of progress, but that these lie dormant, 15th Ward, G.
