STRENUOUS TIME IN POLICE CIRCLES

Burglaries, Robberies, Assaults
And Sunday Drunks Gaiore—
One Burglar Caught.

DEATH OF MRS. CHAMBERS.

Funeral of Edward Jessup—Two Cases of Smallpox—News
Briefs.

Ogden, May 11.—The members of the police department and the sheriff's office had a very busy time of it Saturday afternoon and evening gathering in burglaries and robberies, and investigating assaults and will be held pending an investigation by the officers.

Early Saturday evening two highwaymen impersonating officers "arrested" a Dutchman named Klaus, as he was entering his room in the Chamberlain hotel on lower Twenty-fifth street. The robbers told the frightened man that they had been shadowing him for several days and they demanded that he accompany them to the police station.

The trio started up the street and when they reached the corner of Lincoln avenue the officers searched the "prisoner" and relieved him of his money and a valuable gold watch. Two ladies who happened to be passing at the time had to have the sidewalk to make room for the trio when one of the highwaymen snatched a handbag from one of them, leaving only the handle in her hand.

The robbers then broke and ran north on Lincoln avenue. Only 30 cents was in the hand bag, which was taken from Mrs. James Cassin. The matter was reported to the police and officers were detailed on the case. As they have a good description of the men it is thought they will be apprehended.

The Chamberlain house was the scene of another crime which was evidently perpetrated by the same men that caught Klaus. This time thieves snatched a handbag from one of them, leaving only the handle in her hand.

The officers have no clue.

A daring burglary was committed early Saturday evening at the residence of S. V. Gaston, on Adams avenue between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets, and only a few dollars worth of property was taken.

The residence of Adam Parber, which was visited by a daring daylight robber about two weeks ago. The robber entered the Gaston house from a rear door and was caught in the house by Ruth Gaston, who obtained a good description of the man. The young lady heard the man in the house and upon entering a room found the man busily engaged in packing up a number of household articles preparatory to leaving.

Among the articles the robber had was a revolver and a purse. When he started to run Miss Gaston called to him to drop it and he did so. The robber went out the front door and ran down the street. The police were notified and were given the description of the robber and later in the evening a number of suspects were arrested.

Among the suspects was a man giving the name of Jesse Williams, who was identified by Miss Gaston as the right man yesterday afternoon at the sheriff's office. In all four men were arrested as being suspects of the crime, but three of them were released upon the identifying of Williams.

EMERGENCY HOSPITAL.
Ogden, May 11.—The police station was used as an emergency hospital Saturday evening to dress the wounds of a couple of victims of saloon brawls and street fights.

The first case was that of Tom Cullen, who was taken to the police station with his right ear chewed from his head by one of his assailants. The injured man was found on the floor of the Exchange saloon on Twenty-fourth street lying on the floor in a pool of blood, by Deputy Sheriff Clark and Naylin. Upon arrival at the police station the injured man was given medical attention and the dismembered ear was sewn on. Jack Terry and his brother Columbus Terry and Walter Smith were arrested by the deputies as the assailants of Cullen.

With his face badly disfigured and covered with blood, John Kelley was taken to the station by Officer Backham, who also had in custody Kelley's assailant, Barney Costello. The two men had a fight in front of a saloon on lower Twenty-fifth street and Kelley had been beaten into insensibility when the officer arrived upon the scene. Other than receiving a number of ugly wounds Kelley escaped without any broken bones.

STOLEN CHERRY TREES.
John W. Gibson reported to the sheriff's office Sunday morning some one had stolen his orchard and the night before and dug up a number of cherry trees and had carted them off. An investigation was made by Deputy Sheriff Holmes and he arrested Frank Blodgett, who promised to return and plant the trees if allowed to go unpunished, which was done.

PROHIBITION WAVE.
Despite Inhibition on Liquor Selling There Were Many Sunday Drunks.

Ogden, May 11.—The prohibition wave is again striking the county, Ogden and vicinity and yet regardless of that fact the number of drunks seen on the streets of Ogden Sunday afternoon and evening, is without parallel. The great increase in the number of drunks is in the opinion of the police, due to the fact that those who can not do without liquor upon their furnished friends and allowed them the free use of their bottles.

The "natives" who have been in the habit of going to the Hot Springs on Sunday had a temporary check to their thirst yesterday afternoon by the announcement of the closing of the bar at the resort. As soon as the news of the putting on the lid was communicated in the city, the street traffic to the springs fell off 50 per cent.

Another thing that was noticeable yesterday and which has not been found in the city before for a number of years was the unusual number of women, both old and young, who were in vehicles riding and under the influence of liquor. This was probably brought about owing to the fact that an order prohibiting women in wine rooms was issued by the chief of police upon instructions from the mayor. It is a known fact that the liquor was purchased Saturday evening by the young men who have been in the habit of frequenting wine rooms, and they held it in cache until Sunday. The trafficking of liquor and all intoxicants in Ogden on Sunday has grown to be a serious question and one that can not be solved by the sages and city officials and the police department.

SUDDEN DEATH.
Martha M. Chambers, wife of John W. Chambers, of the Consolidated Wagon & Machine company of this city, died last night at 11:30 o'clock of heart failure, at the family residence, 871 Twenty-third street.

The deceased appeared to be in good health up to the time of her demise, and her death was a great shock to the family and large circle of friends.

The deceased was born in Winwick, England, April 30, 1858. She came to America when she was 12 years of age, and at a year's residence her parents moved to Utah. In 1879 she was married and has resided in Ogden since that date. She leaves a husband, three sons and two daughters, a large number of sisters and brothers. The date of the funeral will be announced later.

FUNERAL OF EDWARD JESSUP.
The funeral services over the body of Edward Jessup were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First ward meetinghouse Bishop D. H. Ensign presiding. The music was furnished by the ward choir and a solo by Miss Plin-gue. The speakers were Moroni Brown, Daniel Stevens and Bishop Ensign. The services were attended by the members of the International Brotherhood of ELECTRICAL WORKERS. The interment was in the city cemetery.

JUNCTION CITY BRIEFS.

Two cases of smallpox were reported to the health officers from different sections of the city Saturday. The health officers were congratulating themselves on effectively stamping out this loathsome malady, when the report reached the office that there was a case on Taylor and one on Lincoln avenue. A general health condition of the city is considerably improved, however.

Harry Baugh, formerly manager of the Bannock hotel at Pocatello, Idaho, with E. A. Burton, have secured a five-year lease on the restaurant and hotel of the Idlewild in Ogden canyon. The deal was reported as having been signed with Simon Bamberger several days ago in this city.

At the tabernacle Sunday afternoon the regular services were held. Elder C. J. Jensen was the speaker. A special musical program, arranged by Prof. Joseph Baillentine, was carried out as follows: Solo, selected, Mrs. Helen Warner; duet, "The Guiding Star," G. O. Nye and Carl Samuelson and three selections by the tabernacle choir. The attendance was large.

At the First Presbyterian church last evening, in the presence of a large congregation composed of the most part of representatives from the various labor unions of the city, Rev. John E. Carver delivered a sermon on "The Debt Which Labor Owe to the World and the World Owe to Labor." The sermon was handled in a masterful way and presented in a forcible manner and contained many valuable points. A special musical program was rendered.

Ah Sun, a Chinaman who was arrested in this city several days ago by Inspector McCabe and Detective Pender upon the charge of violating the immigration laws was given a hearing before United States Commissioner A. B. Patton Saturday afternoon, and was ordered deported. Han Sun, another Chinaman arrested upon like charge, was held under $500 bail and will be given a hearing on Wednesday.

The dates for holding the final examination for the schools of Weber county were changed by the county board of education Saturday afternoon from May 18-19 to May 16-16. At the institute of the county teachers Saturday Prof. David E. Cloyd delivered a talk on "The Social Aspect of Education."

O. A. Kennedy, a local real estate man, has been selected as the permanent secretary of the chamber of commerce. The organization has leased permanent quarters on the top floor of the Lewis block, which will be fitted up immediately.

Frank McAllister, who is walking from New York to San Francisco, arrived in Ogden Saturday and continued on west yesterday. He is walking on a wager and writing articles for eastern papers along the route.

PARK CITY.

ONTARIO CELEBRATION.

Special Correspondence.
Park City, Utah, May 10.—The Park City High School debating team won again last evening against the Gordon academy of Salt Lake City, on the question: "Resolved, That municipal government is the city of Galveston has, in better than any other." Park City had the negative, and the decision was unanimous in favor of the negative. This will entitle Park City to participate in the final state debate which will be held in Salt Lake, May 23.

Funeral was held this afternoon at the K. of P. hall over the remains of Francis Birmanshaw, who died last week of pneumonia, deceased was a native of England, and 58 years old, and had resided in Park City for many years.

The committee having the arrangements in charge for the celebration of the opening of the Ontario drain tunnel on the 13th, reports that everything is moving along finely. All stores will be closed, the mines will be shut down, and all will be invited to celebrate. There will be free dancing, roller skating, moving picture shows, and a monster barbecue, where there will be beef, mutton, pork and other things to eat.

INTERNATIONAL TEMPLE OF PEACE

President Roosevelt Laid the Corner
Stone of the First One to be Erected in Any Country.

IS TO AMERICAN REPUBLICS.

Congress Furnished the Site in Washington and Mr. Carnegie Gave Three-Quarters of a Million.

Washington, D. C., May 11.—President Roosevelt today laid the corner stone of the first international temple of peace, friendship and commerce yet to be erected—the tangible evidence of the desire of the 21 American republics that war shall be no more in the western world, and that material prosperity promoted by international trade shall take its place. Fitting the historical importance of the event, the exercises were made impressive by the participation of the heads of each of these republics. Following addresses:

President Roosevelt, Secy. Root, Ambassador Nabuco of Brazil and Andrew Carnegie, a cable sentiment expressing the hearty approval of each president was read. Cardinal Gibbons and Bishop Cranston pronounced an invocation and benediction on the work done and the United States marine band rendered selections of pan-American music specially prepared for the occasion.

The new building is to be the joint property of all republics. The site, provided by the American congress, consists of the historic old Vanness home, the old building of the United States Mail, is within a few hundred yards of the white house and adjacent to the state, war and navy building and the Corcoran art gallery.

Mr. Carnegie contributed toward the construction of the building to the extent of $500,000.

The building is to be the home of international bureaus, maintained by the American republics, and is to be made the center of a continuous campaign of education where the masses may secure accurate and up-to-date information of every other. A library on all subjects American is to be devoted to the building, and the material intended to bring American governments nearer intimate acquaintance.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.
This is a memorable occasion for all the people of the western hemisphere. The building, the cornerstone of which we lay today, emphasizes by its existence the growing sense of solidarity of interest and aspiration among all the peoples of the new world. It marks our recognition of the need to knit ever closer together all the republics of the western hemisphere, through the kindly bonds of mutual justice, good will, and sympathetic comprehension.

THANKS MR. CARNEGIE.
At the outset, on behalf of all of us I wish to thank Mr. Carnegie for his generous gift—a gift to all the nations of the new world, and therefore, a gift fitting as coming from one who has so sincerely striven for the cause of peace among nations; for while we have yet a long path to tread before we can speak with any certainty of the day when wars shall cease from the earth, we of this western hemisphere, by movements such as that symbolized by this building, have taken great strides toward securing permanent peace among ourselves.

OUR SISTER REPUBLICS.
In the next place, as president of this great republic I greet the representatives of all our sister republics to the south of us. In a sense, you are our elder sisters and we the younger people, for you represent a more ancient civilization on this continent than we do. Your fathers, the Spanish and Portuguese explorers, conquerors, lawgivers and commonwealth builders, had founded a flourishing civilization in the tropics and the south temperate zone while all America north of the Rio Grande was still uncharted wilderness. Your people had founded American universities, were building beautiful cities, were laying deep the foundation of future national life, at many different points in the vast territory stretching from the Colorado to the Plata, before the ships of the Frenchman and the Englishman, the Swede and the Hollander, had found permanent havens on the North Atlantic seacoast. For centuries our several civilizations grew up in its own way, but each suffered from the other.

OUR INDEPENDENCE.
More and more in the future we shall each give to and get from the others, not merely things of material value, but things that are worth for the intellectual and spiritual welfare of all of us. In the century that has passed the development of North America has, on the whole, proceeded faster than the development of South America; but in the century that has now opened I believe that no other part of the world will see such extraordinary development in future national life, in all that makes for progress, as will be seen from the northern boundary of Mexico through all Central and South America, and I can assure you that the people of this nation look with the most profound satisfaction upon the great growth that has already taken place in the countries which you represent—a growth alike in political stability and in the material well-being which can only come when there is political stability.

OUR BATTLE FLEET.
Our battle fleet has just finished its trip around South America, and I wish to thank the rulers and the peoples of South America and of Mexico for the generous and courteous hospitality which has been shown this fleet on every possible occasion throughout the trip.

PRaise FOR ROOT.

In conclusion let me speak of another trip, made a couple of years ago by the secretary of state, Elihu Root, the first time in our history the American secretary of state, during his term of office, left the country to visit certain other nations. Mr. Root made the complete tour of South America, traversed Central America, and afterwards visited Mexico. He was everywhere received with the warmest greetings, a greeting which deeply touched our people, and I wish to say once more how appreciative we are of the recognition tendered him.

His voyage was unique in character and in value. It was undertaken only because we citizens of this republic recognize that our interests are more closely intertwined with the interests with the other peoples of this continent than with those of any other nations. I believe that history will say that though we have had other great secretaries of state, we have had none greater than Elihu Root; and that though in his high office he has done much for the good of this nation and of mankind, yet that his greatest achievement has been the success which has come as the result of his devoted labor to bring close together all the republics of the new world, and to unite them in the effort to work valiantly for the material and moral betterment of the material and moral welfare of all who dwell in the western hemisphere.

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS.
Nineteenth Ward—Thursday evening, May 14, a farewell entertainment will be given in the Nineteenth ward meetinghouse, in honor of J. J. Parsons, prior to his departure on a mission to Europe. An interesting program has been arranged for the occasion.

RAILROAD NEWS.

PUT MEN TO WORK.
Rumor of U. P. Plan Following Issue of Bonds Completed Few Days Ago.

Rumor has it that 20,000 shop men are to be put at work along the line of the Union Pacific. Nothing official has reached this city, but if the report is true this action is undoubtedly one result of the bond issue voted by U. P. directors in this city a few days ago. Directors voted for an issue of $100,000,000 on bonds on two roads taken by the U. P. It was explained by E. H. Harriman that all the money would not be used to fix up the new lines and another portion to resume work dropped during the recent stringency. The rest was to be made a reserve. About 20,000 shop men with other laborers were laid off during the stringency, and it may be that they are to be put back to work. Omaha and cities all along the line of the U. P. were affected, so a resumption of work on the former scale would benefit a vast expanse of country.

CARPENTERS AT DEPOT.
Carpenters are taking the places of stone workers down at the Harriman yards. The foundation work of the depot is completed and work on the superstructure is to follow. Framework has been made and will be put into place, quickly. This done, the concrete work will be started. Brick masons will follow. Step by step the depot building is becoming a reality, reality which will cost a half million and be one of the finest depots in the west.

"JACK" A HAPPY MAN.
Miss Walton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walton, is the latest name for the city directory. Miss Walton arrived Friday night, and her daddy, who is traveling passenger agent for the Burlington, is the happiest man in town. Through all the hammering and scraping in the Burlington's new office in the Judge building, "Jack" smiles and looks as pleasant as if he is in the finest concert hall in the country.

CELEBRATE TUNNEL OPENING.

Until Park City's committee on train arrangements for the big celebration Wednesday lets the Rio Grande know just what is wanted no definite train service can be effected. This is "Capt." I. A. Benton's statement this morning. "We will have a night train out of the camp and the regular at 8:15 out of this city in the morning. The extra train in doubt is an afternoon train out of this city." A big crowd is expected to go up to the camp to see the fun. A one way fare for the round trip will be put into effect by the Rio Grande. The celebration is occasioned by the reopening of the Ontario drain tunnel and will be the biggest affair ever undertaken by Park City.

Chief Clerk G. K. Smith of Vice President Paneroff's office has gone to Pocatello on a business trip.
